THE CONSOL POLICY,

ISSUED ONLY BY

The Mutual Life Insurance Company,

OF NEW YORK.

The six per cent Consols are issued by the Mutual Life in denominations of $5,000 and upward. They are purchasable by the payment of annual instalments of from five to ten per cent of the principal. They mature in ten, fifteen or twenty years.

In case of the death of the owner prior to the completion of the purchase the Mutual Life agrees to cancel all further payments and pay to the heirs the principal and accrued interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. Thus, should the owner of a $10,000 Consol die after having made five proportionate annual payments, his estate would realize $13,000; after ten payments, $16,000, and so on.

At the selected period of maturity the Consol may either be terminated or continued at the option of the holder as follows:

1. Redeemed for its face value and its share of the Company's accumulations at the date of surrender, the holder thereafter receiving a fixed income for life.
2. Retained by the owner as a paid-up insurance during life, producing an annual income, besides participating in Company's regular dividends.

The accumulated profits will be paid in cash at the maturity of the Consol and annually thereafter, or may be applied to increase the estate and life income.

The chief advantages of these Consols over other forms of investment are:

1. The creation of an immediate estate by the payment of a comparatively small sum.
2. Acquirement of a safe and certain income for the later years of life.
3. Reasonable cost, considering the character of the security furnished.
4. Freedom from risk of loss and from taxes.
5. The payment of three instalments secures to the owner an estate and income for proportionate amount.

PREFACE.

THE publication of THE WORLD ALMANAC for 1893 has been delayed somewhat beyond the customary time of issue by the difficulty experienced in obtaining the official returns in detail of the Presidential election in a number of States. The conditions of the late contest were unusual. The varying combinations of political parties on electoral, legislative, and local candidates in those States gave rise to disputes and recounts, consuming a great deal of time. The ALMANAC could have been issued earlier, with a large part of the election returns omitted and other returns hastily estimated, but it was believed that this would not be satisfactory to the users of this book, who are accustomed to look to it for completeness and accuracy in its presentation of statistics.

This issue of the ALMANAC has more pages than any of its predecessors, and the increase is due to the purpose to supply information upon all current matters of human interest. Foremost among them this year is the great international Exposition at Chicago. For the convenience of the many possessors of the ALMANAC who will visit the Western metropolis while the Exposition is open, a directory suited to the needs of strangers has been prepared, and with accompanying maps of Chicago and the Exposition grounds will be found in the volume.

The ALMANAC contains also other features new to its readers. With the assistance of the Department of State, at Washington, a complete list of United States ministers to the principal countries of the world and of their ministers here, from the beginning of diplomatic intercourse to the present year, is printed for the first time. A history of the University Extension movement is given, and lovers of whist will find ample space devoted to their favorite pastime. There are several additional population tables, the latest outputs of the Census bureaus of the United States and the State of New York. The astronomical, religious, and educational departments and records of sports, to each of which special attention has always been given in this publication, have been further extended.

It was announced in the ALMANAC of last year that, in recognition of the growing interest among intelligent Americans in the affairs of foreign countries and the persons who are conspicuous in directing them, more space would hereafter be devoted to such matters, and particularly to Great Britain, its possessions and people, about which the newspapers of the day are making us almost as familiar as with our own affairs. In continuance of this plan the foreign department has been still further enlarged in this volume, the best authorities—Whitaker's admirable Almanack, the Statesman's Year Book, and the Almanach de Gotha—being drawn upon when needed.

In concluding, the editor repeats the assurance of last year, that THE WORLD ALMANAC, while grateful of the public appreciation, as evidenced in its annual sale of over 100,000 copies, is also mindful of the fallibility of the human brain and eye. Sources of information are sometimes at fault, and, typographically speaking, there are five million figures and letters in the ALMANAC. Errors are inevitable under such conditions. But the utmost that human endeavor can accomplish has been done to secure accuracy and completeness, and the editor can only reiterate his request that such errors and omissions as may be discovered will be kindly pointed out.

ITS DECENNIAL YEAR BREAKS ALL JOURNALISTIC RECORDS.

Great In Circulation.
Greatest In Endeavor for the Public Good.

A FEW RECENT FIGURES.

THE present annual report, through the Almanac of THE WORLD to its patrons, is a most gratifying one. From good to better is the showing made by every department of the great establishment, already everywhere crowded in its magnificent quarters in the great Pulitzer Building. In circulation the year 1892 surpassed every record in newspaper history, including the figures of THE WORLD'S previous years, in a grand round total of 139,262,685 copies, or an average of 380,499 per day. The press-room, with its unique row of six herculean quadruple presses, with doubles and triples beside, with a total output of 384,000 eight-page WORLDS per hour, has often been taxed to its utmost to meet the demands upon it. With these enormous figures of circulation, advertising patrons have enjoyed unsurpassed advantages, and have been shrewdly prompt to avail themselves of these opportunities. The figures in this line of THE WORLD'S public service show that 890,975 advertisements in the aggregate have been presented, and that 22,506 columns have been utilized. In particular lines of advertising the figures are likewise very large; in Employment advertising, for instance, the total for the year being 437,391. In these, as in every other figure ever presented by THE WORLD, complete verification is within the reach of any one by a simple inspection of the ever-open books. In this, as in scores of other directions, THE WORLD stands sui generis in the great army of journals of all lands.

A decade has rolled along since THE WORLD of to-day took its place among the journalistic forces at work in American life—since THE WORLD started out on its mission as leader in newspaperdom. Its aim was high. Its course as mapped out was an aspiring one, and how well it has lived up to that ideal, as day after day the great line of presses gave out the multiform pages, their each line of type throbbing with human interest, the millions of appreciative readers and ardent admirers stand ready to testify with words of commendation backed by most liberal support.

The lesson of those ten years may be learned in a moment. It is the decalogue compressed into the single sentence, "Do right and fear not." It has been the ceaseless fighting of the battle of the people that has made THE WORLD to-day the foremost journal of the earth. While visitors come and go, ever welcome, to examine, criticise, and study the material appliances for the production of such a great output as the daily WORLD has grown to be, they fail to catch the real secret of THE WORLD'S magnificent success if they do not recognize that great moral purpose which has ever dominated every move and endeavor of those who direct the tremendous force into which this great journal has grown.

The dominant note of this march of progress to which THE WORLD has kept step for the past ten years was struck in those notable words of pledge and promise which the present proprietor and creator of the new WORLD placed at the head of its columns on that day in May, 1883, when he took command of the craft which sailed so soon to the front of the ever-pressing, swift-moving journalistic fleet. That noteworthy announcement ran:

The entire WORLD newspaper property has been purchased by the undersigned, and will from this day on be under different management—different in men, measures, and methods—different in purpose, policy, and principle—different in objects and interests—different in sympathies and convictions—different in head and heart. Performance is better than promise. Exuberant assurances are cheap. I make none. I simply refer the public to the new WORLD itself, which henceforth shall be the daily evidence of its own growing improvement, with forty-eight daily witnesses in its forty-eight columns.

There is room in this great and growing city for a journal that is not only cheap but bright, not only bright but large, not only large but truly Democratic—dedicated to the cause of the people rather than that of purse-potentates—devoted more to the news of the New than the Old World—that will expose all fraud and sham, fight all public evils and abuses—that will serve and battle for the people with earnest sincerity.

In that cause and for that end solely the new WORLD is hereby enlisted and committed to the attention of the intelligent public.

JOSEPH PULITZER.

Those were no mere idle words, but were lived out in vigorous and persistent labor in the service of the people. It was one long crusade against wrong, whether public or private. Yet the hand that could strike the oppressor such death-dealing blows was ever ready to stretch out in soothing consolation to the down-trodden and oppressed. No sufferer worthy of help has ever made an appeal to which THE WORLD has turned a deaf ear. It has been called upon again and again to act as the almoner of a noble following of sympathetic readers.

When in October, 1889, the corner-stone of the Pulitzer Building was set with pomp and ceremony, there came a new assurance that the motives which had marked the initiation of this journalistic triumph had not been set aside. They were as strongly operative as at the start, and in the cablegram which came from the founder of THE WORLD for deposit in that corner-stone, under the great monument his genius had created, the spirit of that inaugural breathed again in every word and letter. In the dedication of that stone, no word spoken told more forcibly what THE WORLD had been and was to be than that historic cablegram:

God grant that this structure be the enduring home of a newspaper forever unsatisfied with merely printing news—forever fighting every form of Wrong—forever Independent—forever advancing in Enlightenment and Progress—forever wedded to truly Democratic ideas—forever aspiring to be a Moral Force—forever rising to a higher plane of perfection as a Public Institution.

God grant that THE WORLD may forever strive toward the Highest Ideals—be both a daily school-house and a daily forum, both a daily teacher and a daily tribune, an instrument of Justice, a terror to crime, an aid to education, an exponent of true Americanism.

Let it ever be remembered that this edifice owes its existence to the public; that its architect is popular favor; that its moral corner-stone is love of Liberty and Justice; that its every stone comes from the people and represents public approval for public services rendered.

God forbid that the vast army following the standard of THE WORLD should in this or in future generations ever find it faithless to those ideas and moral principles to which alone it owes its life and without which I would rather have it perish. JOSEPH PULITZER.

When the year 1892 was ushered in, a clarion note, clear and distinct, rang out across the broad field of American politics. It came from THE WORLD, and a hearty amen from millions of patriots greeted the utterance, "The next President must be a Democrat." It came as a battle-cry, as an incentive to work in a hard-fought campaign, as a catch word, to set many thinking, and thinking, too, in the right direction. Long before the momentous day of election had come the demand had changed to an encouraging promise, and the phrase ran, "The next President will be a Democrat." Election-day came, and millions of free men stepped in impressive grandeur up to the ballot-box and dropped in the verdict of the people. Simultaneous with the closing of the last polling place at the Golden Gate of the Pacific there flashed out the glad announcement from the top of the dome of the Pulitzer Building, "The next President is a Democrat." The three million pairs of waiting eyes of the greater metropolis got the news from those rows of electric lights, and sixty millions of American citizens got the good news of political promise from that dome top as quickly as the electric spark could speed the result over thousands of miles of waiting wires.

Not content with presenting the news of the momentous campaign in its every detail from every party point of view, and in commenting in forcible, clear-cut language upon the merits of the questions involved, THE WORLD went further, and in its Western Campaign Fund set an example of far-sighted activity which won praise from the most astute politicians of either side. A glance down the list of the votes of the electoral college will show how effective this new and novel departure in the service of Democracy on the part of THE WORLD really was.

IN THE HOME FIELD.

WORLD reporters in New-York City began the year by "showing up" one of the most extraordinary expeditions in the annals of Spanish American revolutions. This was the fitting out and expected departure for Hayti of a man-of-war called La Pays, intended to aid the revolutionary leader there, whose description and movements had been given at columns' length in a big metropolitan journal. The revolutionists who had chartered the vessel had an office in New-York, had all their arrangements complete, and had spent many thousand dollars on the venture, when THE WORLD exposed the fact that the vessel was a myth, the expected revolution a fraud, and the agents in this city the dupes of the Haytian minister to the United States.

During January the metropolitan police circles were startled by the operations of a mysterious assassin, who cut throats on the street at night and then disappeared, and who came to be called, when his repeated crimes attracted universal attention, "Jack the Slasher." While everybody was wondering about the new terror to metropolitan existence, "Jack the Slasher" was caught in the act early on the morning of Sunday, January 18, and THE WORLD of that day was the only journal containing the news.

Early on the morning of Sunday, February 7, a terribly fatal fire at the Hotel Royal occurred, and THE WORLD of that day contained exclusively the names of guests, secured through a characteristic piece of WORLD reporter enterprise. While the building was a mass of flames, and while burning timbers were falling to the ground floor, which was ankle deep in water, a WORLD reporter went into the office and secured the register of the hotel, which was thus saved from destruction, and proved of much value subsequently in identifying the dead and estimating the number of lives lost.

Seven days later New-York was startled to learn through THE WORLD that Ward McAllister's famous four hundred of exclusive society people had been cut down to one hundred and fifty. This social tragedy attracted attention throughout the country, and the first announcement was followed up by THE WORLD publishing the names of the lucky one hundred and fifty of the inner circle, with those of the persons on the outside fringe.

IMPROVING A GREAT TRUNK LINE.

Early in the year one of the most notable triumphs of THE WORLD was achieved in compelling the New-York Central and Hudson River Railroad to put in the block-signal system over the whole length of its line from New-York to Buffalo. By reason of the antiquated railroading methods followed, a terribly fatal accident had occurred at Hastings, on Christmas Eve, when nearly a dozen people lost their lives. It was an "end-on" collision of two trains, such as a perfect block-signal system would render impossible. THE WORLD, in the interest of public safety, at once demanded that the block-signal system be adopted by this most important railroad company. It was shown that this system, although expensive to inaugurate, was economical in the end, and that it had for years been working successfully on the Pennsylvania and other lines. The directors of the Vanderbilt corporation, however, held their regular meeting, and, instead of announcing any intention of adopting the block system, so urgently demanded by THE WORLD in the interest of public safety, declared a big semi-annual dividend, and adjourned while the bodies of some of the victims of their misdirected economy were still unburied. They attempted to throw the responsibility for the Hastings horror upon a poor flagman, while ignoring the chapter of blunders which made it possible. THE WORLD then secured a list of accidents on the New-York Central and Hudson River Road for many years back. This terrible list, under the head "Central's Record Talks," was published day by day in THE WORLD, together with facts showing the systematic disregard of public safety on the part of the company. Its president, Chauncey M. Depew, was called upon to resign his position, and thus save himself from being held responsible in the public mind for further continuance of such management, with the inevitable sacrifice of his political prospects. But before affairs had come to such a pass the big corporation changed its mind, and in a written communication pledged itself to act, and at once carry out the reforms demanded by THE WORLD. As a result, the block-signal system is now in successful operation over the whole length of this line, and a great measure of reform, which otherwise might have taken years to accomplish, has been secured.

March 9, while people in two continents were wondering over the mysterious suicide in London of F. S. Van Zandt, a prominent American, THE WORLD published an exclusive story, showing the romantic and picturesque life which the unfortunate man had led. He had startled the mining operators of the West by his boldness and success as a manager of mining properties, and had been made a hero by Mary Halleck Foote in her story of "The Led Horse Claim." THE WORLD of the same date contained the picture of Gower-Robinson, the English banker who had been shot at Yokohama by Lieutenant Hetherington, of the United States Navy, the first one of the kind published in this country.

VISITING THE FEVER-STRICKEN.

"Alone with Typhus" was, on March 10, the heading over the first of a series of stories in THE WORLD exemplifying the characteristic energy and enterprise of its reporters, and which accomplished an important reform in the public health management of New-York. In the dead of night two WORLD reporters landed from a boat at North Brother Island and inspected the hospital management of the typhus-fever patients there. The account of their discoveries revealed a condition of affairs which created a profound sensation, and demanded immediate investigation by the health authorities. It was shown that the poor people suffering from this terrible disease were left alone in their delirium in the typhus pavilions, and that their treatment showed gross neglect on the part of the physician responsible for the management of the island. The accounts of this neglect previously given to THE WORLD were fully corroborated by what THE WORLD reporters saw on the island, and with the additional facts which they discovered made a startling list of disclosures when the Health Board began the investigation. As a result, Dr. Percival, the physician who had charge of North Brother Island, was relieved of his duties, and the public institutions there were more amply provided for and placed in new hands.

March 14, THE WORLD published an exclusive interview with Madame Clemenceau, wife of the French deputy, then suing for a divorce, and who, it had not been hitherto known, had returned to her old home in this country.

Early in April, while the usurpation of Fifth Avenue for street-car purposes was threatened, THE WORLD began the publication of a series of illustrations of the great avenues and boulevards of the world, demanding that Fifth Avenue be kept sacred from the ungainly horse-car, and that it be beautified, so as to make it not only one of the most notable, but one of the handsomest streets in existence.

A similar threatened encroachment upon the public rights, which was successfully antagonized by THE WORLD about this time, was the speedway in Central Park. It was proposed to deface this public pleasure-ground by the construction of a level race-track a mile in length, where men owning "trotters" could "speed" their horses. The Legislature had passed the bill, which had become a law on the statute books, and the Park Department had everything ready to begin the speedy construction of the race-track, when THE WORLD, followed by other journals, took up the fight of the people for the preservation of their beautiful park. As a result not only was the track not built, but the Legislature, which a few weeks previously had enacted the obnoxious law, passed an act repealing it.

May 1, it was shown by THE WORLD how one Arthur Adler, teaching school at Norwalk, Ct., had taken the aristocratic name of Herbert Roosevelt Van Rensselaer for its social value, and had been passing himself off there as connected with the families of those names; and five days later the important fact was revealed by THE WORLD that Pope Leo XIII. had measurably condemned "the Faribault system," although "special cases would be tolerated," and the significance and meaning of that system as pursued by Catholic authorities in the West was for the first time extensively explained.

STAVING OFF THE TROLLEY NUISANCE.

The citizens of New-York have to thank THE WORLD for its vigilance in checking the scheme for the wholesale introduction of the overhead electric trolley system into their city. That system, with its exposed and naked wires, charged with a death-dealing current of electricity, may have advantages in the smaller towns and cities, but would be dangerous and unsightly in the crowded streets of the metropolis, where, after long years of struggle, the people had only recently succeeded in getting many of the telegraph and telephone wires underground. The companies seeking to put in the trolley in New-York, moreover, did so with a sole view to making money, while the citizens would get no better service than would be afforded by an acceptable but more expensive motive power. It was apparent that it was only necessary to defeat the trolley, when the street-car companies would substitute the cable, the storage battery, or some other system instead of horses, and that an improved and acceptable scheme of street transportation would thus be secured. July 26, THE WORLD exposed the character of an application before the Board of Aldermen for franchises on forty streets of the metropolis, covering the central part of the city two miles north and south and from river to river and crossing Central Park three times. It was clearly shown that this application, if granted, would permit the introduction of the dangerous trolley system, which was evidently the purpose of the applicants. An exciting debate before the Railroad Committee of the Board of Aldermen followed this exposure, and the granting of the franchise was defeated for the time being. Then THE WORLD exposed the fact that nearly a dozen other applications before that committee were evidently framed with the purpose of introducing the trolley system. The records of trolley accidents were secured and published in THE WORLD, showing that in every large city where the system was being used appalling accidents resulted, and that the citizens were powerless to rid themselves of the octopus which they had permitted to occupy their streets, to the detriment of real estate values and the loss of human life. This was the case in Newark, Brooklyn, Cleveland, Columbus, Boston, and many other cities, and hardly a day went by that THE WORLD did not contain accounts of the accidents there occurring. The final effort, however, to introduce the trolley was reserved for the latter weeks of September, when the real combination behind the whole scheme became apparent. On the 28th of that month a meeting of the Railroad Committee was held, to consider applications made by John D. Crimmins, as the head of the syndicate controlling the important lines of New-York. THE WORLD of the following day showed, by admissions made by Mr. Crimmins, that the intention was to run a trolley line down the whole length of the city, from One Hundred and Tenth Street to the Battery, stringing the wires under the elevated railroad structures on Sixth and Ninth avenues. A big map of the city showed in startling clearness the proposed route, where the trolley was to run along the most crowded streets of the metropolis. As a result of this publication an extraordinary meeting of the Board of Aldermen occurred the following day. The Railroad Committee held a hurried meeting early in the morning, and rushed through all the trolley franchises, which were then passed at a disorderly meeting of the Aldermen, suggestive of that which occurred in 1884, when the Boodle Board passed the Broadway franchise. THE WORLD showed that Jacob Sharp's old lawyer was engineering this move, and warned those concerned in the effort that an attempt to take any further steps might be followed by unlooked-for results. That settled the trolley scheme. An election was approaching, and the head capitalist in the Crimmins syndicate made haste to put a stop to further efforts.

MEETING THE CHOLERA PLAGUE.

When the first infected cholera ships arrived at this port the health authorities, with mistaken judgment, concluded to give to the public meagre and uncertain statements of the condition of affairs in the harbor. The same policy had been pursued by the authorities in Hamburg, and had produced suspicion, terror, and panic. THE WORLD at once determined, as a plain public service, to publish the exact facts as to the progress of the plague and to tell its readers truthfully the precise condition of affairs. As the cholera fleet rapidly grew in numbers the anxiety and the fears of those who had friends and relatives on the quarantined ships increased almost to frenzy. THE WORLD chartered a tug boat, and made daily visits to the lower quarantine station, running alongside the detained vessels, and collecting carefully the exact facts morning and night from each ship. The eager passengers found THE WORLD's ever-present tug the only means of communication with their distracted friends on shore. Day after day THE WORLD's tug brought up cablegrams, telegrams, and letters and forwarded the cheering messages to worried relatives. Every scrap of paper from the cholera ships was carefully disinfected down the bay by WORLD reporters, and the same precautions were observed as are customary with the postal authorities in handling infected mail. Telegrams and letters soon began to pour into THE WORLD office, thanking THE WORLD for bringing the precious bits of news from the imprisoned passengers, and begging it to forward messages of sympathy and love to the unfortunate ones on the ship. Besides the constantly growing mail each day THE WORLD's energetic tug put a supply of WORLDS aboard the ships every morning, much to the delight of the passengers. Finally, when the authorities secured the hotel at Fire Island, and the wearied, hungry, and impatient prisoners at last landed, they found that one of THE WORLD reporters, whose face had become familiar on the tug, was in charge of their interests and chief clerk of the Surf Hotel. THE WORLD reporter welcomed the quarantined guests, assigned them to their rooms, and made them feel comfortable. The public service rendered by THE WORLD during the cholera excitement was carefully conducted, no reporter set foot on any of the infected ships, no quarantine law was violated, and every message from the detained vessels was thoroughly disinfected.

May 18, THE WORLD published, in a dispatch from Halifax, the record there of Dr. W. R. Buchanan, then residing in New-York. A short time previously the wife of Dr. Buchanan had died in New-York, and been buried. THE WORLD pointed out the suspicious circumstances surrounding her death, revealed the fact that by a will she had left most of her money to her husband, and that a short time afterward he had been remarried to his former wife in Halifax. The facts strongly pointed to the conclusion that Mrs. Buchanan had been poisoned, although two reputable physicians in New-York had certified that she died from natural causes. WORLD reporters made a thorough investigation of the circumstances of Mrs. Buchanan's death, and laid their evidence before District Attorney Nicoll, who ordered the woman's body exhumed and a chemical analysis of the stomach made. Upon the strength of THE WORLD's discoveries and the result of the autopsy the District Attorney caused the arrest of Dr. Buchanan. THE WORLD then turned over to Mr. Nicoll all the evidence it had gathered, which was presented to the grand jury. Dr. Buchanan was indicted for murder, and is now awaiting trial.

At this time much discussion was going on in New-York in regard to the proposed erection of a new City Hall, in the upper part of the city. THE WORLD in a series of articles demonstrated the impracticability of removing the municipal capital from its present historic site, and published illustrations of all the new city halls of the country, as suggestive of what might be done with a new building for New-York. At the same time THE WORLD exposed the encroachments by private parties on the public domain of Battery Park, which was being usurped by baths, railroads, steamship companies, and private ferries. As a result this outrage on the public was checked, and steps taken to remove the unsightly structures and advertisements which had been erected there. June 30, THE WORLD published the names of the twelve young men who had won the scholarships founded by Joseph Pulitzer to help poor but meritorious boys acquire a collegiate education. Each scholarship is to continue for five years, $250 being paid to the scholar in each of the five years.

OTHER WORLDS THAN OURS.

August 2, THE WORLD began the publication of a series of remarkable stories, which excited great public interest in the planet Mars, then nearer to the earth than it would be again for seventeen years. Since the previous "opposition" of that planet great strides had been made in telescope building, and the immense Lick instrument had been set up in California, where Mars was under nightly observation. The known conditions of the planet so closely approximated those of the earth that there was much basis for the belief of many astronomers that it was inhabited by a highly civilized race. THE WORLD's analysis of the reports of the Lick observatory disclosed mysterious effects of light, which many thought to be signals from the planet, and these were subsequently corroborated by the report of Professor Pickering, of Harvard, from observations made in Peru. August 10, THE WORLD published a series of new photographs of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, the first she had had taken in some years. Nine days later Hugh Ward, an apothecary in Amsterdam Avenue, was arrested upon evidence furnished by WORLD reporters, showing that he had employed an unregistered clerk, who was then compounding prescriptions, in violation of law. Early in November, THE WORLD exposed a fraudulent employment bureau, managed by Mrs. L. F. Baldy, at No. 834 Broadway. She had been professing to secure positions under the government at Washington for her patrons through political influence she claimed to possess. As a result of this exposure Mrs. Baldy offered to return all the money she had received from her dupes, and to go out of the business. The approach of a mysterious comet at this time gave THE WORLD opportunity for another series of astronomical articles, which proved of much popular interest. It was shown that astronomers were divided as to whether the comet was approaching the earth, or going rapidly away from it, and that the belief was entertained in many quarters that a collision between the two bodies was not impossible. There was a largely increased sale of astronomical instruments, and a beautiful shower of meteors, such as had been predicted over New York. At Kenosha, Wis., an immense meteor exploded in the heavens when the earth was crossing the track of Biela's comet.

At the time of the death of Jay Gould THE WORLD published the most complete biography of the dead financier, and subsequently added many chapters to the facts known about his achievements during life.

During December, while Panama Canal revelations were convulsing French political life, THE WORLD told the American end of the story in a series of articles about the canal, revealing incompetent and extravagant management, which could not fail to bring disaster to the enterprise.

THE RICH SUNDAY MAGAZINE.

THE SUNDAY WORLD combines with the highest qualities of a newspaper all the valuable features of monthly magazines and of the old-fashioned weekly publications. Apart from news features, which made THE SUNDAY WORLD in the past year the greatest newspaper which has ever been published, the following special features, provided with a view to the public desire for good literature and to the opportunities for reading which the masses of the people enjoy on Sunday only, may be mentioned. During the summer THE SUNDAY WORLD published many complete novels—among them "The Tinted Venus," by F. Anstey; "Mademoiselle Ixe," by Lanoe Falconer; "When a Man's Single," by Barrie; Hawthorne's "Scarlet Letter;" "The Strange Adventures of a South Seaman;" "Uncle Jack," by Walter Besant; "Bebee," by Ouida. These novels were not printed in serials, but published, each complete, in one single number of THE SUNDAY WORLD, and in a convenient form for preservation. During the past year MRS. Schuyler Van Rensselaer has written exclusively for THE SUNDAY WORLD on questions of art, Mr. Reginald de Koven on music, and Mr. Ward McAllister on society. Others who have written especially for THE SUNDAY WORLD have been Mary E. Wilkins, Bill Nye, M. Quad, Jerome K. Jerome, R. Clark Russell, Florence Marryat, Edgar Fawcett, Will Carleton, Lafcadio Hearn, Helen Watterson, Adirondack Murray, William S. Walsh, Julian Hawthorne, Mrs. Lynn Linton, Kate Field, R. L. Garner, Ed. Mott, William Norr, Gertrude Atherton, Nym Crinkle, Thomas C. Platt, William C. Whitney, Chauncey Depew, Anna Katherine Green, John L. Sullivan, and many other well-known writers. Mrs. Van Rensselaer's articles on the Chicago Fair first made public the architectural and artistic value of that gigantic enterprise. Mrs. Humphry Ward's new book, "David Grieve," was first reviewed in the literary department of THE SUNDAY WORLD to the extent of one page, permission for the review having been purchased from Mrs. Ward's agent.

The true story of Jay Gould's life, giving the first account of his remarkable experiences with the swindler Gordon, was first published in THE SUNDAY WORLD.

All the great and interesting men of the year have been ably described and interviewed in THE SUNDAY WORLD, as public interest demanded. The candidates for the Presidency were introduced to the people in a series of admirable articles, as were the candidates for the fighting championship of this country, and for various other honors.

Miss Nell Nelson travelled through Europe for THE SUNDAY WORLD, describing the various institutions and customs with which she is in sympathy—toy-makers in Germany, orphan-asylums in France, etc.

All the interesting sections of this globe were visited and described on behalf of THE SUNDAY WORLD in the past year. Lafcadio Hearn described Japan. An unfortunate convict exiled to the Siberian lead-mines described his life and the tortures which ended in his death in the mines. An intelligent young man described the ways of the inhabitants in South Africa. Mr. Roswell M. Field told of the social conditions in the West. Bright correspondents in South America sent the earliest and most complete news from that interesting centre of turmoil. Mrs. Peary, wife of the Arctic explorer, told in THE SUNDAY WORLD the experiences of a woman who starts for the North Pole. Mr. Carlyle Harris, the gentleman convicted of poisoning his wife, discoursed on the disagreeable character of a life in the Tombs prison. R. L. Garner, now gone to Africa, and apparently lost there, interpreted the conversations of monkeys whom he knew. Mr. Harry Furniss, of London, confided to THE SUNDAY WORLD the impressions which America makes on an intelligent Englishman.

THE SUNDAY WORLD in the year 1892 was a very good newspaper. It will be a much better one during 1893.

THE SPORTS' GROWING DOMAIN.

THE WORLD aims to encourage every legitimate sport and to present to readers accurate, complete, and finished reports of all events. During 1892 pugilism and football were the branches most popular with the public. No one event of the year, except the Presidential election, evoked so much news interest as the pugilistic contest, for the championship of the world, between John Lawrence Sullivan and James John Corbett, at New-Orleans, La., September 7. THE WORLD'S stories of this event, from the day the contest was arranged in THE WORLD office until Corbett won the battle, were matchless. THE WORLD'S story of the contest itself was pronounced by Mr. Chauncey M. Depew "the best story of a news event I have ever read." Attention may be called in particular to one exclusive story that created no end of comment at the time of its publication. This was an account of a physical examination of Sullivan by Dr. George F. Shrady about eight weeks before the battle. It was generally believed that if the Boston man were physically sound he would win. Dr. Shrady's report was very flattering to Sullivan, but Corbett's skill proved too much for the man who had been called champion for twelve years.

Football, the great game of American colleges, reached the highest point of its popularity in the fall of 1892. In every college THE WORLD engaged an expert football correspondent, and upon its local staff were reporters who knew the game thoroughly. It was, therefore, not surprising that THE WORLD'S reports of football games were superior in finish and detail to any printed elsewhere. In its report of the great Harvard-Yale game at Springfield THE WORLD alone recognized the merit of the now famous Deland "Flying Wedge," played successfully by the Harvard team, printed a diagram of the play, and later published the fact that the originator of the trick, Mr. Lorin F. Deland, of Boston, obtained the idea from the military tactics of Napoleon. All collegians readily concede to THE WORLD first place in football news.

Baseball, athletics, aquatics, lawn tennis, cricket, shooting, billiards, bicycling, and all forms of outdoor and indoor exercise received due attention. At all times the watchwords of the Sporting Department of THE WORLD are: Accuracy, Vigilance, Impartiality.

WATCHING THE SPEEDING HORSE.

The racing department of THE WORLD has not only maintained its high standard of accuracy, which has made THE WORLD'S decisions official, but it has also achieved some notable news triumphs. The constant improvement in the tone of racing and a number of turf reforms, by which the public have profited, have been mainly due to THE WORLD, which has labored unceasingly to elevate and purify this great popular sport. The broad line of demarcation which now separates winter and summer racing and the elimination of many questionable characters from the legitimate tracks have been the result of THE WORLD'S persistent efforts.

In addition to discharging these duties to the public, THE WORLD has taken the lead in giving the turf news of the day. Before the regular racing began THE WORLD exclusively reviewed all the horses East and West, and gave turfmen their first knowledge of the character of the coming two-year-olds and the condition of the older horses.

THE WORLD'S daily report of the work of the handicap horses in full was something which had not been done before, and was invaluable to turfmen.

The exclusive announcement that the Monmouth Park Association would not lease Jerome Park, and would reopen its great track near Long Branch, N. J., was first printed in THE WORLD. The news that starter James Rowe would succeed starter James Caldwell on the Board of Control tracks, a full list of the horses entered in the Suburban and Brooklyn Handicaps, a full and complete list of the official winnings of every owner on the Eastern turf—all appeared exclusively in THE WORLD.

THE WORLD'S Racing Guide, which tells the position of the horses at every eighth of a mile in the race, together with the names of the owners and the jockeys, the amount of weight carried, and all other necessary information has become accepted on the turf as the only way by which races can be accurately followed, and has revolutionized the old system of reporting.

THE NEWS OF A COMMONWEALTH.

The New-Jersey edition of THE WORLD opened the year 1892 with a complete gallery of the members of the State Legislature, which convened early in January. This was followed up with comprehensive reports of the Legislature's doings. In consequence of THE WORLD'S exposure of the tyranny practised in the iron mines and mills at Oxford Furnace, Warren County, an investigating committee was appointed by the House and Senate. This committee spent several weeks looking into the matter, and in their report to the Legislature fully confirmed all the charges made in THE WORLD. The result was the passage of a law providing for the appointment of a State Mining Inspector and a State Board of Arbitration. The people of Oxford were so grateful for this work that they held a great celebration, and sent resolutions of praise and thanks to THE WORLD. The next fight taken up by the New-Jersey edition on behalf of the people of the State was that against the coal combine. The agents of the combine persuaded the Legislature to pass a bill legalizing their concern in New-Jersey. Immediately THE WORLD opened the fight. For six weeks it published petition blanks addressed to Governor Abbett, appealing to him to veto the iniquitous measure. Over ten thousand signatures were attached to the petition. The Governor listened to the voice of the people and vetoed the bill. This was not the end, however. THE WORLD proceeded to break the combine itself. Coal increased in price during the summer. Reporters for THE WORLD furnished to the Attorney-General of the State affidavits setting forth this fact, enabling him to institute proceedings in the State courts for the annulment of the combine. In November the courts decided the combine illegal, and the Reading Railroad had to release the New-Jersey Central Railroad. Though thus defeated in the courts, the railroads still acted in union to control coal prices. The Attorney-General followed up his advantage, and going before the Chancery Court, asked for the appointment of a receiver, to take charge of the roads and force them to place the price of coal to the figure it formerly was.

Aside from these signal services to the people the New-Jersey edition has been daily filled with the entire news of the State. Cases of poverty, injustice, and neglect were brought to the attention of the public from time to time, and generous people promptly responded with aid to the grateful unfortunates. Economy in the State administration has been steadily pushed, and THE WORLD, by exposing the extravagant employment of pages in the Legislature, saved the tax-payers a pretty sum last winter. The lamentable and dangerous condition of Jersey City thoroughfares was exposed, death-trap grade crossings in all parts of the State were brought to the attention of the authorities, and a merciless and successful warfare was carried on against the fraudulent get-rich-quick concerns which infested the State. The work of Jerseymen who were sent by their fellow-citizens to the Democratic and Republican National Conventions was fully reported, and an eloquent but silent tribute was paid to their merit in the way the local New-Jersey papers faithfully copied THE WORLD'S despatches.

Politically THE WORLD has accomplished much for the Democracy in New-Jersey. Early in the summer it saw that Judge Werts was the choice of the party for Governor. A scheme was formed to force upon the party a man who would be a drag on the National ticket. THE WORLD exposed the scheme. Werts was nominated and elected by a handsome majority.

While the New-Jersey edition was thus performing great public service, it also furnished entertainment to its readers. Its cartoons, both political and social, were applauded all over the State, and wielded much influence in shaping events. During the summer a series of interesting illustrated sketches of possible Gubernatorial nominees was given, and after the nominations had been made both Republicans and Democrats were presented with elegant portraits of the two candidates. The two profusely illustrated pages of New-Jersey news every Sunday have been a source of joy to Jerseymen, and its success in the past is a guaranty that its standard will not be lowered in the future.

WOMEN AS "WORLD" READERS.

Since July the Woman's Department of THE MORNING WORLD has been one of its most fascinating features. Everything of interest to women in domestic, social, educational, and other lines has been recorded. Questions on all subjects have been fully and promptly answered. The latest styles in women's garments have been given, with illustrations taken from the best sources of information, including the gowns of leading actresses. Recipes and menus, adapted to the means of all classes, have been published. Woman's sentimental bias has not been neglected. The department has met with the success its broad and thorough work merits, and has been the model for many similar departments in other newspapers.

THE NEWS PICTORIALLY PRESENTED.

THE WORLD'S Art Department has won many well-earned words of commendation during the year 1892. Its pictures have been artistic presentations of current topics, supplementing in admirable fashion the pen pictures of the text. In cartoonry political and social events have been touched with a telling pencil. Notable among the achievements of this graphic side of THE WORLD news presentations have been the Homestead strike pictures, the Buffalo strike pictures, the Gould and Tennyson death pictures, the Columbus celebration, the Sullivan-Corbett fight, the Democratic National Convention, the Republican National Convention, and, largest of all, the cholera scare.

THE WELCOME WEEKLY "WORLD."

The enormous weekly edition of THE WORLD has a circulation large enough to send its issue into every nook and crevice of the great American republic. It is newsy, with such a great reservoir of fresh facts and happenings as THE DAILY WORLD to draw from. It has also special features, which give it a unique position among the many journals of its class. As a political factor it has exerted a tremendous and widespread power. It has presented the features of the campaign in a cogent, telling way, which won conviction in the hearts and minds of its farmer readers, and much of the tidal wave character which marked the vote of November 8 may be attributed to the weekly giant blows of this edition of THE WORLD.

BROOKLYN'S SPECIAL "WORLD."

The Brooklyn edition of THE WORLD since the last ALMANAC was issued has been prepared in its new building, No. 309 Washington Street. The edition has been devoted to the best interests of Brooklyn, has attacked vigorously every evil in municipal government, and urged the adoption of reform measures that would lighten the burdens of the people and improve the public service. A consolidation of the twin-sister cities of New-York and Brooklyn has received special attention, and the views of merchants, lawyers, bankers, and tax-payers generally have been given prominence, and a note of warning served on the politicians that they must yield to the demand of the people for a greater New-York.

The war upon the fever-breeding factories along the borders of Newtown Creek was started by THE WORLD, Brooklyn edition, and was kept up with unabating vigor until one by one the objectionable corporations gave way to public clamor, and by the agency of a powerful press and the strong arm of the courts, the objectionable factories have ceased operation or signed a compact to remove their works within a given time.

The perils of fast driving on the Parkway road, resulting in smashups and injuries to life and limb, called for a protest to the Park Commission, and THE WORLD demanded a reform in this direction. It insisted that families which patronized the public driveway for pleasure should not be placed in jeopardy by reckless drivers, whose sole desire is to speed their animals with owners of fast horses. The record of accidents has been perceptibly less since the exposure in THE WORLD.

Arrogant and indifferent behavior of ambulance surgeons received a stinging rebuke, and the prevailing custom of refusing to remove alcoholic patients, and leaving them to die on the streets, was checked. THE WORLD demanded a reform in this direction, and Health Commissioner Griffin asserted his authority and ordered surgeons to obey the new rule urged by this paper.

Land swindlers invaded Long Island and sold lands on bogus deeds. THE WORLD worked the case up, exposed the bold scheme, drove the scoundrels away, and saved scores of persons from becoming victims to their rapacity.

The trolley system was opposed by THE WORLD, on account of the constant menace to life and limb. The aldermen, however, yielded to the demands of the corporations; but in the case of the Union Street steal, the war was made so warm, that an appeal was made to the courts. William J. Gayner appeared for the people, and claimed, as THE WORLD urged, that the aldermen, in giving away a valuable franchise, when an offer of $30,000 had been made for it, either made a mistake or acted corruptly.

The returns for Presidential electors were gathered in Kings County and on Long Island by the staff of the Brooklyn edition of THE WORLD with great care, and the day following the election, the exact figures from each of the 648 election districts in Brooklyn and the four county towns appeared exclusively in THE WORLD. As a sample of the correctness of the work, it may be stated that the official figures did not change them materially.

NEWS OF A SISTER STATE.

To THE WORLD's Connecticut edition, already firmly established in the good graces of the people of the Nutmeg State, the year has brought steadily increasing prosperity and an ever-growing circulation. No other New-York newspaper has made a feature of Connecticut political and social news, and the residents of the famous old Commonwealth, as loyal to their friends once chosen as they are conservative in the choosing, have heartily reciprocated the recognition.

Editorially, the Connecticut edition has waged relentless and unceasing warfare against the usurping Bulkeley dynasty, and the utter discomfiture of the hold-over governor at the November judgment day shows that once more THE WORLD voiced and prejudged the popular verdict. To THE WORLD's manly blows right out from the shoulder, in defence of the cause of tariff reform in its special application to Connecticut's economic interests, Mr. Cleveland undoubtedly owes some share of the triumphantly sweeping majority by which he carried this hitherto close State.

On the second page of the Connecticut edition have appeared a series of feature stories, of a new and interesting sort. Its gifted correspondents in Hartford, New-Haven, Bridgeport, New-London, and other leading cities have been instructed to simultaneously represent their respective localities, with carefully prepared articles on "The Elms of Connecticut," "Old Families of the State," "Nutmeg Story Tellers," "The Picturesque and Historical Localities of the State," its horsemen, cyclers, smokers, pretty girls, G. A. R. veterans, political bosses, watering places, fine houses, dogs, and a great variety of other like interests. The result has been a series of highly readable articles, in which a dozen or more writers collaborated with their local photographers to faithfully depict their respective localities from the given point of view.

In addition, the social, personal, club and general news of the leading cities of Connecticut has been faithfully chronicled each Sunday, to the hearty satisfaction of those immediately concerned and the general information and entertainment of all other good Nutmeggers.

THE "WORLD'S" EVENING SELF.

THE EVENING WORLD is now in its sixth year of journalistic history, during which time it has faithfully adhered to the principles adopted at its birth—"above all, a newspaper; beyond all, the people's friend.

The journalistic youngster has grown and thrived to such an extent, that, owing to the demands upon its columns for new features, special departments, and news of the world, it became necessary to increase its size to six pages.

Of its battles in behalf of truth and justice, a brief recapitulation must suffice. Prominent among them is the Sick Babies Fund, by means of which a sum of sufficient magnitude is raised each summer to send physicians among the poor babes in tenement-houses, administering valuable advice and medicines. The Christmas Tree Fund, too, is a boon to the poor children, and thirty-five thousand youngsters were made happy by the distribution of gifts last year.

Then upon its laurels, among other achievements, are the war upon dives, securing the passage of a woman's reformatory bill, the fight for clean streets, exposure of the Boston poor-house officials, who were shipping their paupers to this city, the raising of a fund to supply Mrs. Dressler with artificial limbs, and the fight against Chinese Sunday-schools.

THE EVENING WORLD's Brooklyn edition is a new feature which has been added, and the House and Home Department is eagerly scanned by the thrifty housewife, who thereby gains valuable advice.

In journalistic enterprise THE EVENING WORLD stands pre-eminent. Its motto is to print all the news, and in this particular respect it excels all its contemporaries. Many instances of this, as well as its manifold achievements in behalf of the public welfare, are well known to its readers, and only passing mention can be made of them here.

In Facilities and Accomplishments THE WORLD has no Compeer.

THE astronomical calculations in this Almanac have been made for THE WORLD ALMANAC by J. Morrison, M.D., Ph.D., of the Nautical Almanac Office, Washington, D. C., and are expressed in local mean time.

Chronological Eras.

THE year 1893 corresponds to the year 7401-02 of the Byzantine era; to 5653-54 of the Jewish era (the year 5654 beginning at sunset of September 10); to 2646 since the foundation of Rome; to 2669 of the Olympiads or the first year of the 668th Olympiad; to 2553 of the Japanese era, and to 26th of Meiji; to 1310-11 of the Mahommedan era or the era of the Hegira (the year 1311 begins on July 15, 1893). The 118th year of the independence of the United States begins July 4.

Divisions of Time.

THE interval between two consecutive transits of a fixed star over any meridian or the interval during which the earth makes one absolute revolution on its axis is called a Sidereal Day, and is invariable, while the interval between two consecutive transits of the Sun over any meridian is called an Apparent Solar Day, and its length varies from day to day by reason of the variable motion of the earth in its orbit, and the inclination of this orbit to the equator, on which time is measured.

A Mean Solar Day is the average or mean of all the apparent solar days in a year. Mean Solar Time is that shown by a well-regulated clock or watch, while Apparent Solar Time is that shown by a well-constructed sun dial; the difference between the two at any time is the Equation of Time, and may amount to 16 minutes and 21 seconds. The Astronomical Day begins at noon and the Civil Day at the preceding midnight. The Sidereal and Mean Solar Days are both invariable, but one day of the latter is equal to 1 day, 3 minutes, and 56.555 seconds of the former.

The interval during which the earth makes one absolute revolution round the Sun is called a Sidereal Year, and consists of 365 days, 6 hours, 9 minutes and 9.6 seconds, which is invariable.

The Tropical Year is the interval between two consecutive returns of the Sun to the Vernal Equinox. If this were a fixed point, the Sidereal and Tropical Years would be identical; but in consequence of the disturbing influence of the moon and planets on the spheroidal figure of the earth, the Equinox has a slow retrograde mean motion of 50.26", annually, so that the Sun returns to the Equinox sooner every year than he otherwise would by 20 minutes, 23.6 seconds; the Tropical Year, therefore, consists of 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes and 46 seconds. The Tropical Year is not of uniform length; it is now slowly decreasing at the rate of 0.595 seconds per century, but this variation will not always continue.

Julius Cæsar, in B.C. 45, was the first to reform the calendar by ordering that every year whose date number is exactly divisible by 4 contains 366 days, and all other years 365 days. The intercalary day was introduced by counting the sixth day before the Kalends of March twice; hence the name bissextile, from bis, twice, and sex, six. He also changed the beginning of the year from 1st of March to the 1st of January, and also changed the name of the fifth month (Quintilis) to July, after himself. The average length of the Julian year is therefore 365¼ days, which, however, is too long by 11 minutes and 14 seconds, and this would accumulate in 400 years to about three days. The Julian Calendar continued in use until A.D. 1582, when the date of the beginning of the seasons occurred 10 days later than in B.C. 45, when this mode of reckoning time was introduced.

The Gregorian Year was introduced by Pope Gregory XIII. with the view of keeping the Equinox to the same day of the month. It consists of 365 days, but every year exactly divisible by 4, and the centurial years which are exactly divisible by 400 contain 366 days; and if in addition to this arbitrary arrangement the centurial years exactly divisible by 4,000 also contain 366 days, the error in the Gregorian system will amount to only one day in about 100,000 years. The length of the mean Gregorian year may therefore be set down at 365 days, 5 hours, 49 minutes, 12 seconds. The Gregorian Calendar was introduced into England and her colonies in 1752, at which time the Equinox had retrograded 11 days since the Council of Nice in A.D. 325, when the festival of Easter was established and the Equinox occurred on March 21; and hence September 3, 1752, was called September 14, and at the same time the commencement of the legal year was changed from March 25 to January 1, so that the year 1751 lost the months of January and February and the first 24 days of March. The difference between the Julian and Gregorian Calendars is now 12 days. Russia and the Greek Church still employ the Julian Calendar for civil and ecclesiastical purposes.

The number of asteroids discovered up to present date is 330. A number of these small planets have not been observed since their discovery, and are practically lost. Consequently it is now sometimes a matter of doubt, until the elements have been computed, if the supposed new planet is really new, or only an old one rediscovered.

It is supposed that α Centauri, one of the brightest stars of the Southern Hemisphere, is the nearest of the fixed stars to the earth. The researches on its parallax by Henderson and Maclear gave it for its distance from the earth, in round numbers, 20,000,000,000,000 of miles. At the inconceivably rapid rate at which light is propagated through space, it would require three years and three months to reach the earth from this star.—Whitaker.

Standard Time.

Primarily, for the convenience of the railroads, a standard of time was established by mutual agreement in 1883, by which trains are run and local time regulated. According to this system, the United States, extending from 67° to 125° west longitude, is divided into four time sections, each of 15° of longitude, exactly equivalent to one hour. The first (eastern) section includes all territory between the Atlantic coast and an irregular line drawn from Detroit to Charleston, S. C., the latter being its most southern point. The second (central) section includes all the territory between the last-named line and an irregular line from Bismarck, N. D., to the mouth of the Rio Grande. The third (mountain) section includes all territory between the last-named line and nearly the western borders of Idaho, Utah and Arizona. The fourth (Pacific) section covers the rest of the country to the Pacific coast. Standard time is uniform inside each of these sections, and the time of each section differs from that next to it by exactly one hour. Thus at 12 noon in New-York City (eastern time), the time at Chicago (central time) is 11 o'clock A.M.; at Denver (mountain time), 10 o'clock A.M.; and at San Francisco (Pacific time), 9 o'clock A.M. Standard time is 16 minutes slower at Boston than true local time, 4 minutes slower at New-York, 8 minutes faster at Washington, 19 minutes faster at Charleston, 28 minutes slower at Detroit, 18 minutes faster at Kansas City, 10 minutes slower at Chicago, 1 minute faster at St. Louis, 28 minutes faster at Salt Lake City, and 10 minutes faster at San Francisco.

The Ancient and Modern Year.

The Athenians began the year in June, the Macedonians in September, the Romans first in March and afterward in January, the Persians on August 11, the ancient Mexicans on February 23, the Mohammedans in July.

The Chinese year, which begins early in February, is similar to the Mohammedan in having 12 months of 29 and 30 days alternately; but in every nineteen years there are seven years which have 13 months. This is not quite correct, and the Chinese have therefore formed a cycle of 60 years, in which period 22 intercalary months occur.

On shipboard, for purposes of discipline and to divide the watch fairly, the crew is mustered in two divisions: the Starboard (right side, looking toward the head), and the Port (left). The day commences at noon, and is thus divided: Afternoon Watch, noon to 4 P.M.; First Dog Watch, 4 P.M. to 6 P.M.; Second Dog Watch, 6 P.M. to 8 P.M.; First Watch, 8 P.M. to midnight; Middle Watch, 12 A.M. to 4 A.M.; Morning Watch, 4 A.M. to 8 A.M.; Forenoon Watch, 8 A.M. to noon. This makes seven Watches, which enables the crew to keep them alternately, as the Watch which comes on duty at noon one day has the afternoon next day, and the men who have only four hours' rest one night have eight hours the next. This is the reason for having Dog Watches, which are made by dividing the hours between 4 P.M. and 8 P.M. into two Watches. Time is kept by means of "Bells," although sometimes there is but one Bell on the ship.—Whitaker.

The French Revolutionary Era.

In September, 1793, the convention decreed that the common era should be abolished in all civil affairs, and that the new French era should begin on September 22, 1792, the day of the true autumnal equinox, and that each succeeding year should begin at the midnight of the day on which the true autumnal equinox falls. The year was divided into twelve months of 30 days each. In ordinary years there were five extra days, from the 17th to the 21st of our September, and at the end of every fourth year was a sixth complementary day. This reckoning was first used on November 22, 1793, and was continued until December 31, 1805, when it was discontinued, and the Gregorian calendar, used throughout the rest of Europe, was resumed. The following were the dates for the year 1804, the last complete year of this style of reckoning:

Brumaire	(Foggy),	Oct. 23 to Nov. 22.	Floréal	(Flowery), April 21 to May 20.
Frimaire	(Sleety),	Nov. 22 to Dec. 21.	Prairial	(Pasture), May 21 to June 20.

The months were divided into three decades of ten days each, but to make up the 365, five were added at the end of September: Primidi, dedicated to Virtue; Duodi, to Genius; Tridi, to Labor; Quartidi, to Opinion; and Quintidi, to Rewards. To Leap Year, called Olympic, a sixth day, September 22 or 23, Sextidi, "the day of the Revolution," was added.

The current French names of the months are: Janvier (January), Février (February), Mars (March), Avril (April), Mai (May), Juin (June), Juillet (July), Août (August), Septembre (September), Octobre (October), Novembre (November), Décembre (December).

The days of the week are: Dimanche (Sunday), Lundi (Monday), Mardi (Tuesday), Mercredi (Wednesday), Jeudi (Thursday), Vendredi (Friday), Samedi (Saturday).

The above table applies to ordinary years only. For leap year, one day must be added to each number of days after February 28.

EXAMPLE.—To find the number of days between June 3, 1892, and February 16, 1893. The figures opposite the third day in the first June column are 154; those opposite the sixteenth day in the second February column are 412. Subtract the first from the second product—i.e., 154 from 412, and the result is 258, the number of days between the two dates.

Explanation of Astronomical Symbols

USED IN THE FOLLOWING PAGES OF ASTRONOMICAL PHENOMENA.

Two heavenly bodies are in "conjunction" (☌) when they have the same Right Ascension, or are on the same meridian, i.e., when one is due north or south of the other; if the bodies are near each other as seen from the earth, they will rise and set at the same time; they are in "opposition" (☍) when in opposite quarters of the heavens, or when one rises just as the other is setting. "Quadrature" is half way between conjunction and opposition. By "greatest elongation" is meant the greatest apparent angular distance from the sun; the planet is then generally most favorably situated for observation. Mercury can only be seen with the naked eye at this time. When a planet is in its "ascending" (☊) or "descending (☋) node" it is crossing the plane of the earth's orbit. The term "Perihelion" means nearest, and "Aphelion" farthest, from the sun. An "occultation" of a planet or star is an eclipse of it by some other body, usually the moon.

I.—ECLIPSES.

In the year 1893 there will be only two Eclipses, both of the Sun, as follows:

A Total Eclipse of the Sun April 16, invisible in North America, but visible in the whole of South America except in the extreme northwest corner of the continent, in Southern Europe, Asia Minor, Palestine, Northwestern Arabia, and the whole of Africa except the eastern coast and that portion lying south of the 18th parallel of south latitude.

The line or path of the Total Eclipse begins at 7 h. 46 m. A.M. (Washington mean time) at a point in lat. 36° 29′ S. and long. 95° 50′ W., which is in the South Pacific Ocean, moves in a northeasterly direction, and enters South America at Sarco Bay in Chili and passes over the towns of Tucuman, Miranoa, Pilar, Paranagua and Ceara on the northeast coast of Brazil. This last is the most favorably situated place for observing the phenomenon, the duration of totality there being 4 m. 39.4 s. After leaving South America it crosses the Atlantic Ocean, enters Africa north of Bathurst, and then moving nearly due east skirts the southern border of the Sahara and terminates at 11 h. 10 5 m. A.M., on the western side of Nubia.

II. An Annular Eclipse of the Sun, October 9, visible as a Partial Eclipse in all that portion of North America lying west and south of a line drawn from Cape Bathurst on the Arctic Ocean and passing through Fort Fond du Lac on Lake Athabasca, Canada; Bismarck and Yankton, in the Dakotas; St. Joseph, Mo.; Memphis, Tenn.; Birmingham, Ala., and Brunswick, Ga. It will also be visible in the eastern part of Siberia and in all South America except in the portions lying south of the 45th parallel of south latitude and east of the 52d meridian of west longitude.

The path of the Annular Eclipse lies almost wholly in the Pacific Ocean and nearly parallel to the west coast of North America, passing nearly midway between the Sandwich Islands and Lower California. It enters South America about 65 miles south of Callao, Peru, and terminates at sunset in the northeast corner of Bolivia. The Eclipse will end at sunset at Panama, Colon, and Port-au-Prince.

II.—OCCULTATIONS.

The planet Jupiter will be occulted by the Moon on January 23, invisible in the Northern and Western States, but visible in Southern Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia, the Gulf States, Mexico, Central America, the West Indies, and the greater part of South America. As seen from Baltimore, Washington, and Richmond and places in their vicinity, the Moon will make a very close approach to the planet, the latter almost grazing the Moon's northern limb.

These dates are expressed in local mean time, and have been computed for the centre of the planet. Since Jupiter's apparent angular semi-diameter is at this time 18″.3, the actual time of disappearance will occur about half a minute later and the reappearance about half a minute earlier than the dates given above. The position angles are estimated from the north point of the Moon's limb.

ARBOR DAY is a legal holiday in Kansas, Rhode-Island and Wyoming, the day being set by the Governor—in Nebraska, April 22; California, September 9; Colorado, on the third Friday in April; Montana, third Tuesday in April; Utah, first Saturday in April; and Idaho, on Friday after May 1.

Every Saturday after 12 o'clock noon is a legal holiday in New-York, New-Jersey, and the City of New-Orleans, and from June 15 to September 15 in Pennsylvania.

There is no national holiday, not even the Fourth of July. Congress has at various times appointed special holidays, and has recognized the existence of certain days as holidays, for commercial purposes. In such legislation as the Bankruptcy act, but there is no general statute on the subject. The proclamation of the President designating a day of Thanksgiving only makes it a holiday in those States which provide by law for it.

Apparent Rising and Setting of Sun and Moon.

In the monthly calendars which follow this page the times of rising and setting of the sun are for the upper limb, and of the moon for the centre Refraction and parallax have been taken into account in both cases. Although computed for Boston, New-York, Washington, and Charleston, they will serve with sufficient accuracy, for all ordinary purposes, for all other places situated on or near the same parallel of latitude.

Facts About the Earth.

According to Clark, the equatorial semi-diameter is 20,926,202 feet = 3963.296 miles, and the polar semi-diameter is 20,854,895 feet = 3950.738 miles. One degree of latitude at the pole = 69.407 miles. One degree of latitude at the equator = 68.704 miles.

POPULATION OF THE EARTH BY CONTINENTS.

The above estimate was made by Ernest George Ravenstein, F.R.G.S., the geographer and statistician, and is for 1890.

An estimate of population of the earth, made by Drs. Wagner and Supan, editors of "Bevölkerung der Erde" (Perthes, Gotha, 1891), is as follows: Europe, 357,379,000; Asia, 825,954,000; Africa, 163,953,000; America, 121,713,000; Australia, 3,230,000; Oceanic Islands, 7.420,000; polar regions, 80,400. Total, 1,479,729,400. The estimate of area of the continents and islands by the same authorities is 52,821,684.

Ravenstein's estimate of the earth's fertile region, in square miles, is 28,269,200; steppe, 13,901,000; desert, 4,180,000; polar region, 4,888,800.

The population of the earth at the death of the Emperor Augustus, estimated by Bodio, was 54,000,000. The population of Europe hardly exceeded 50,000.000 before the fifteenth century.—Mulhall.

The area and cubic contents of the earth, according to the data of Clark, given above, are: Surface, 196,971,984 square miles; cubic contents, 259,944,035,515 cubic miles.

Murray (Challenger expedition) states the greatest depth of the Atlantic Ocean at 27,366 feet; Pacific Ocean, 30,000 feet; Indian Ocean, 18,582 feet; Southern Ocean, 25,200 feet; Arctic Ocean, 9,000 feet. The Atlantic Ocean has an area, in square miles, of 24,536,000; Pacific Ocean, 50,309,000; Indian Ocean, 17,084,000; Arctic Ocean, 4,781,000; Southern Ocean, 30,592,000. The highest mountain is believed to be Deodhunga, one of the Himalayas, 29,002 feet.

For population of the earth, according to creed, see Religious Statistics.

The human family is subject to forty-five principal governments. As to their form, they may be classified as follows: Absolute monarchies, China, Madagascar, Morocco, Persia, Russia, Siam, Turkey; Limited monarchies, Austria-Hungary, Belgium, British Empire, Denmark, Germany, Greece, Hawaii, Italy, Japan, Netherlands, Portugal, Roumania, Servia, Spain and Sweden and Norway; Republics, Argentine Republic, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, France, Guatemala, Hayti, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Orange Free State, Paraguay, Peru, Salvador, San Domingo, Switzerland, Transvaal, United States of America, Uruguay, Venezuela. Besides these are the undefined despotisms of Central and South Africa, and a few insignificant independent states.

The average duration of human life is about 33 years. One quarter of the people on the earth die before age 6, one half before age 16, and only about 1 person of each 100 born lives to age 65. The deaths are calculated at 67 per minute, 97,790 per day, and 35,639,835 per year; the births at 70 per minute, 100,800 per day, and 36,792,000 per year.

Weather Signals

OF THE WEATHER BUREAU, U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

THE Weather Bureau furnishes, when practicable, for the benefit of the general public and those interests dependent to a greater or less extent upon weather conditions, the "Forecasts" which are prepared at that office daily, at 10 A.M. and 10 P.M., for the following day. These weather forecasts are telegraphed to observers at stations of the Weather Bureau, railway officials, and many others, and are so worded as to be readily communicated to the public by means of flags or steam whistles. The flags adopted for this purpose are five in number, and of the form and dimensions indicated below:

EXPLANATION OF FLAG SIGNALS.

No. 1. White Flag. No. 2. Blue Flag. No. 3. White and Blue Flag. No. 4. Black Triangular Flag. No. 5. White Flag with black square in centre.

Clear or fair weather. Rain or snow. Local rains. Temperature signal. Cold wave.

Number 1, white flag, six feet square, indicates clear or fair weather. Number 2, blue flag, six feet square, indicates rain or snow. Number 3, white and blue flag (parallel bars of white and blue), six feet square, indicates that local rains or showers will occur, and that the rainfall will not be general. Number 4, black triangular flag, four feet at the base and six feet in length, always refers to temperature; when placed above numbers 1, 2, or 3 it indicates warmer weather; when placed below numbers 1, 2, or 3 it indicates colder weather; when not displayed, the indications are that the temperature will remain stationary, or that the change in temperature will not vary more than four degrees from the temperature of the same hour of the preceding day from March to October, inclusive, and not more than six degrees for the remaining months of the year. Number 5, white flag, six feet square, with black square in centre, indicates the approach of a sudden and decided fall in temperature. This signal is not to be displayed unless it is expected that the temperature will fall to forty-two degrees, or lower, and is usually ordered at least twenty-four hours in advance of the cold wave. When number 5 is displayed, number 4 is always omitted.

A special storm flag, red with black square in centre (not shown above), is prescribed for use in North and South-Dakota, Minnesota (except at Lake stations), Iowa, Nebraska, and Wyoming, to indicate high winds, accompanied by snow, with temperature below freezing.

When displayed on poles, the signals should be arranged to read downward; when displayed from horizontal supports, a small streamer should be attached to indicate the point from which the signals are to be read.

INTERPRETATION OF DISPLAYS.

No. 1, alone, indicates fair weather, stationary temperature.
No. 2, alone, indicates rain or snow, stationary temperature.
No. 3, alone, indicates local rain, stationary temperature.
No. 1, with No. 4 above it, indicates fair weather, warmer.
No. 1, with No. 4 below it, indicates fair weather, colder.
No. 2, with No. 4 above it, indicates warmer weather, rain or snow.
No. 2, with No. 4 below it, indicates colder weather, rain or snow.
No. 3, with No. 4 above it, indicates warmer weather with local rains.
No. 3, with No. 4 below it, indicates colder weather with local rains.
No. 1, with No. 5 above it, indicates fair weather, cold wave.
No. 2, with No. 5 above it, indicates wet weather, cold wave.

Communications with reference to the display of these symbols and signals should be addressed to the Director of the State Service in which the station is located or to the Chief of the Weather Bureau, Washington, D. C. (For wind signals, see next page.)

Storm, Cautionary, and Wind-Direction Signals

Red, Black Centre. Red, White Centre. Red Pennant. White Pennant.

Storm. Cautionary. Easterly winds. Westerly winds.

The signals adopted by this bureau for announcing the approach of wind storms are as follows:

A cautionary signal (displayed only at stations on the lakes).—A red flag (eight feet square) with white centre (four feet square) indicates that the winds expected will not be so severe but well-found, seaworthy vessels can meet them without danger.

A storm signal.—A red flag (eight feet square) with black centre (three feet square) indicates that the storm is expected to be severe.

A red pennant (five feet hoist and twelve feet fly) displayed with the flags indicates easterly winds—that is, from northeast to south, inclusive, and that the storm-centre is approaching.

A white pennant (five feet hoist and twelve feet fly) displayed with the flags indicates westerly winds—that is, from north to southwest, inclusive, and that the storm-centre has passed.

Night signals.—By night a red light will indicate easterly winds; a white above a red light will indicate westerly winds.

The Information Signal consists of a red pennant and indicates that the displayman has received information of a storm covering a limited area, dangerous only for vessels about to sail to certain points. The signal will serve as a notification to shipmasters that important information will be given them upon application to the displayman.

NOTE.—These signals, principally for the information of maritime interests, are distinct from the system of weather, temperature, and rain signals displayed throughout the country.

NOTE.—The above table was prepared for THE WORLD ALMANAC by the Geographic Branch of the United States Geological Survey, J. W. Powell, director. It should be stated in connection with this table that it presents only points whose heights are matters of record, and that in several cases in the high mountain region of the far West and the Pacific Slope it is well known that there are higher points within the State or Territory, whose heights are not yet known with any approach to accuracy, and consequently cannot be given.

Rules for Foretelling the Weather.

ADAPTED FOR USE WITH ANEROID BAROMETERS.

A RISING BAROMETER.

A RAPID rise indicates unsettled weather.

A gradual rise indicates settled weather.

A rise with dry air and cold increasing in summer indicates wind from the northward; and if rain has fallen, better weather may be expected.

A STEADY BAROMETER.

With dry air and seasonable temperature indicates a continuance of very fine weather.

A FALLING BAROMETER.

A rapid fall indicates stormy weather.

A rapid fall with westerly wind indicates stormy weather from the northward.

A fall after very calm and warm weather indicates rain with squally weather.

The barometer rises for northerly winds, including from northwest by north to the eastward for dry, or less wet weather, for less wind, or for more than one of these changes, except on a few occasions, when rain, hail, or snow comes from the northward with strong wind.

The barometer falls for southerly wind, including from southeast by south to the westward, for wet weather, for stronger wind or for more than one of these changes, except on a few occasions, when moderate wind, with rain or snow, comes from the northward.

Tornadoes and Lightning.

STATISTICS OF DAMAGE IN THE UNITED STATES.

LIEUTENANT J. P. FINLEY, Signal Corps, U. S. A., has compiled tornado statistics from observations reported for eighty-seven years ending 1887.

During that period tornadoes have been reported in each of the States, in number as follows: Missouri, 156; Kansas, 153; Georgia, 128; Illinois, 127; Iowa, 118; Alabama, 102; Ohio, 92; Indiana, 84; Minnesota, 78; Texas, 73; Michigan, 71; New-York, 67; Pennsylvania, 61; North-Carolina, 59; Wisconsin, 59; South-Carolina, 57; Nebraska, 52; Mississippi, 49; Dakota, 46; Arkansas, 34; Tennessee, 31; Kentucky, 26; Massachusetts, 22; other States (tornadoes less than 20), 112. Total, 1,867.

Number of lives definitely reported lost, 3,165; number of persons definitely reported injured, 5,049. These figures do not represent actual aggregates, as in some cases the killed or injured by tornadoes have been indefinitely reported as "much," "great," etc., loss of life, or "many" injured.

The estimated loss of property by tornadoes, by States, was as follows: Missouri, $94,325,000; Ohio, $87,737,500; New-York, $67,000,000; Kansas, $64,000,000; Georgia, $56,000,000; Minnesota, $50,750,000; Iowa, $49,575,000; South-Carolina, $46,875,000; Texas, $46,525,000; Illinois, $46,125,000; Mississippi, $44,275,000; Alabama, $38,175,000; Indiana, $35,800,000; Wisconsin, $28,750,000; North-Carolina, $26,625,000; Michigan, $26,410,000; Pennsylvania, $26,125,000; Nebraska, $22,100,000; Arkansas, $17,125,000. Remaining States, less than $10,000,000 each. Total, $941,282,500. For a more detailed statement, see THE WORLD ALMANAC for 1889.

A record kept by H. F. Kretzer, St. Louis, Mo., showed that in five years ending December 31, 1887, the damage to property in the United States by lightning was $11,749,945. During the same period, the number of persons killed by lightning was 1,030—males, 742; females, 251; sex unknown, 37. Total number of persons injured, 2,592—males, 1,470; females, 884; sex unknown, 238. Animals killed, 4,886, of which 1,426 were cattle, 1,273 horses, 273 mules, 567 hogs, 445 sheep. Buildings and objects struck by lightning, 7,116, making an average loss for each recorded lightning discharge of $1,651.20.

The class of buildings struck most frequently are, first, dwellings; second, barns and granaries. The heaviest losses were upon barns and granaries, aggregating $3,119,055. Oil-tanks and oil-works come next, with losses aggregating $3,088,425.

Postal Information.

DOMESTIC RATES OF POSTAGE.

ALL mailable matter for transmission by the United States mails within the United States is divided into four classes, under the following regulations:

FIRST-CLASS MATTER.

This class includes letters, postal cards, and anything sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or anything containing writing not allowed as an accompaniment to printed matter under class three.

Rates of letter postage to any part of the United States, two cents per ounce or fraction thereof.

Rates on local or drop letters at free delivery offices, two cents per ounce or fraction thereof. At offices where there is no free delivery by carriers, one cent per ounce or fraction thereof.

Rates on postal cards, one cent. Nothing must be added or attached to a postal card, except that a printed address slip may be pasted on the address side. The addition of anything else subjects the card to letter postage. A card containing any offensive dun or any scurrilous or indecent communication will not be forwarded. Nothing but the address must be placed on the face, or stamped side.

Rates on specially delivered letters, ten cents on each letter in addition to the regular postage. This entitles the letter to immediate delivery by special messenger. Special delivery stamps are sold at post-offices, and must be affixed to such letters. An ordinary ten-cent stamp affixed to a letter will not entitle it to special delivery. The delivery, at carrier offices, extends to the limits of the carrier routes. At non-carrier offices it extends to one mile from the post-office. Postmasters are not obliged to deliver beyond these limits, and letters addressed to places beyond must await delivery in the usual way, nothwithstanding the special delivery stamp.

Prepayment by stamps invariably required. Postage on all letters should be fully prepaid, but if prepaid one full rate and no more, they will be forwarded, and the amount of deficient postage collected on delivery; if wholly unpaid, or prepaid with less than one full rate, and deposited at a post-office, the addressee will be notified to remit postage; and if he falls to do so, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office; but they will be returned to the sender if he is located at the place of mailing, and if his address be printed or written upon them.

Letter rates are charged on all productions by the typewriter or manifold process.

Letters (but no other class of mail matter) will be returned to the sender free, if a request to that effect is printed or written on the envelope. There is no limit of weight for first-class matter.

Prepaid letters will be reforwarded from one post-office to another upon the written request of the person addressed, without additional charge for postage. The direction on forwarded letters may be changed as many times as may be necessary to reach the person addressed.

SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

This class includes all newspapers, periodicals, or matter exclusively in print and regularly issued at stated intervals as frequently as four times a year, from a known office of publication or news agency, to actual subscribers or news agents, and transient newspapers and publications of this character mailed by persons other than publishers.

Rates of postage to publishers, one cent a pound or fractional part thereof, prepaid by special stamps. Publications designed primarily for advertising or free circulation, or not having a legitimate list of subscribers, are excluded from the pound rate, and pay third-class rates.

Publications sent to actual subscribers in the county where published are free, unless mailed for local delivery at a letter-carrier office.

Rates of postage on transient newspapers, magazines, or periodicals, one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof. It should be observed that the rate is one cent for each four ounces, not one cent for each paper. Second-class matter will be entitled to special delivery when special delivery ten-cent stamps are affixed in addition to the regular postage.

Transient second-class matter must be so wrapped as to enable the postmaster to inspect it. The sender's name and address may be written in them, but any other writing subjects the matter to letter postage. The name and address of the sender may also be written on the wrapper.

THIRD-CLASS MATTER.

Mail matter of the third class includes printed books, pamphlets, engravings, circulars (in print or by the hectograph, electric pen or similar process), and other matter wholly in print, proof-sheets, corrected proof-sheets, and manuscript copy accompanying the same.

The rate on matter of this class is one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

Manuscript unaccompanied by proof-sheets must pay letter rates.

Third-class matter must admit of easy inspection, otherwise it will be charged letter rates on delivery. It must be fully prepaid, or it will not be forwarded. Its wrapper must bear no writing or printing except the name and address of the sender and a return request.

The limit of weight is four pounds, except single books in separate packages, on which the weight is not limited. It is entitled, like matter of the other classes, to special delivery when special delivery stamps are affixed in addition to the regular postage.

The name and address of the sender, preceded by the word "from," may be written upon the package, and a simple manuscript dedication may appear in a book or upon the article enclosed.

FOURTH-CLASS MATTER.

Fourth-class matter is all mailable matter not included in the three preceding classes, which is so prepared for mailing as to be easily withdrawn from the wrapper and examined. It embraces merchandise and samples of every description, and coin or specie.

Rate of postage, one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof (except seeds, roots, bulbs, cuttings, cions, and plants, the rate on which is one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof). This matter must be fully prepaid, or it will not be forwarded. The affixing of special delivery ten-cent stamps in addition to the regular postage entitles fourth-class matter to special delivery. (See remarks under "first-class matter.")

Articles of this class that are liable to injure or deface the mails, such as glass, sugar, needles, nails, pens, etc., must be first wrapped in a bag, box, or open envelope and then secured in another outside tube or box, made of metal or hard wood, without sharp corners or edges, and having a sliding clasp or screw lid, thus securing the articles in a double package. The public should bear in mind that the first object of the department is to transport the mails safely, and every other interest is made subordinate.

Such articles as poisons, explosives, or inflammable articles, live animals, insects, or substances exhaling a bad odor will not be forwarded in any case.

The regulations respecting the mailing of liquids are as follows: Liquids, not ardent, vinous, spirituous, or malt, and not liable to explosion, spontaneous combustion, or ignition by shock or jar, and not inflammable (such as kerosene, naphtha, or turpentine), may be admitted to the mails for transportation within the United States. When contained in glass bottles or vials, such bottles or vials must be strong enough to stand the shock of handling in the mails, and must be enclosed in a wooden or papier-maché block or tube not less than three sixteenths of an inch thick in the thinnest part, strong enough to support the weight of mails piled in bags and resist rough handling; and there must be provided, between the bottle and its wooden case, a cushion of cork-crumbs, cotton, felt, asbestos, or some other absorbent, sufficient to protect the glass from shock in handling; the block or tube to be impervious to liquids, including oils, and to be closed by a tightly fitting screw-lid of wood or metal, with a rubber or other pad so adjusted as to make the block or tube water-tight and to prevent the leakage of the contents, in case of breaking of the glass. When enclosed in a tin cylinder, metal case, or tube, such cylinder, case, or tube should have a screw-lid with a rubber or cork cushion inside in order to make the same water-tight, and should be securely fastened in a wooden or papier-maché block (open only at one end), and not less in thickness and strength than above prescribed. It would be well always to consult the postmaster in reference to the proposed mailing of liquids. The limit of admissible liquids and oils is not exceeding four ounces, liquid measure.

The name and address of the sender, preceded by the word "from," also the names and number (quantity) of the articles enclosed, may be written on the wrapper of fourth-class matter without additional postage charge. A request to the delivering postmaster may also be written asking him to return the package if not delivered.

REGISTRATION.

All kinds of postal matter, except second-class matter, can be registered at the rate of eight cents for each package in addition to the regular rates of postage, to be fully prepaid by stamps. Each package must bear the name and address of the sender, and a receipt will be returned from the person to whom addressed. Mail matter can be registered at all post-offices in the United States.

The Post-Office Department or its revenue is not by law liable for the loss of any registered mail matter.

DOMESTIC MONEY ORDERS.

Domestic money orders are issued by money-order post-offices for any amount up to $100, at the following rates:

For sums not exceeding, $5, five cents; for $5 to $10, eight cents; for $10 to $15, ten cents; for $15 to $30, fifteen cents; for $30 to $40, twenty cents; for $40 to $50, twenty-five cents; for $50 to $60, thirty cents; for $60 to $70, thirty-five cents; for $70 to $80, forty cents; for $80 to $100, forty-five cents.

When more than $100 is required, additional orders must be obtained, but not more than three orders will be issued in one day to the same payee, payable at the same office.

POSTAL NOTES.

These will be issued for sums less than $5, for a fee of three cents, and are payable to any person presenting them at any money-order office within three months of date of issue.

LETTER-SHEET ENVELOPES.

The Post-Office Department now issues a combined letter-sheet and envelope of the denomination of two cents. The prices are as follows: one, three cents; two, five cents; five, twelve cents; ten, twenty-three cents; one hundred, $2.30; one thousand, $23.

STAMPED ENVELOPES.

Embossed stamped envelopes and newspaper wrappers of several denominations, sizes, and colors are kept on sale at post-offices, singly or in quantities, at a small advance on the postage rate.

FREE DELIVERY.

The free delivery of mail matter at the residences of the people desiring it is required by law in every city of 50,000 or more population, and may be established at every place containing not less than 5,000 inhabitants.

The franking privilege was abolished July 1, 1873, but the following mail-matter may be sent free by legislative saving clauses—viz.:

1. All public documents printed by order of Congress, the Congressional Record and speeches contained therein, franked by Members of Congress, or the Secretary of the Senate, or Clerk of the House.

2. Seeds transmitted by the Commissioner of Agriculture, or by any Member of Congress, procured from that department.

3. All periodicals sent to subscribers within the county where printed.

4. Letters and packages relating exclusively to the business of the Government of the United States, mailed only by officers of the same, publications required to be mailed to the Librarian of Congress by the copyright law, and letters and parcels mailed by the Smithsonian Institution. All these must be covered by specially printed "penalty" envelopes or labels.

All communications to Government officers, and to or from Members of Congress, are required to be prepaid by stamps.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE PUBLIC.

(From the United States Official Postal-Guide.)

Mail all letters, etc., as early as practicable, especially when sent in large numbers, as is frequently the case with newspapers and circulars. The trouble of the post-office is much diminished if letters, when mailed in large numbers, are tied in bundles, with the addresses all in one direction.

Make the address legible and complete, giving the name of the post-office, county, and State. The name of the street and number of the house should also be given on letters addressed to cities where letter-carriers are employed; while the letter will eventually reach its destination without a number, the omission is often a cause of hesitation and delay. In the case of letters for places in foreign countries, and especially in Canada, in which country there are many post-offices having the same names as post-offices in the United States and in England, the name of the country, as well as the post-office, should be given in full. Letters addressed, for instance, merely to "London," without adding "England," are frequently sent to London, Canada, and vice versa, thereby causing delay and often serious loss. Letters addressed to Burlington, N. S. (Nova Scotia), often go to Burlington, New-York, on account of the resemblance between S and Y when carelessly written. It would be better to write out names of States in full.

Avoid, as much as possible, using envelopes made of thin paper, especially where more than one sheet of paper, or any other article than paper, is enclosed, Being often handled, and even in the mail-bags subject to pressure, such envelopes not unfrequently split open, giving cause of complaint against officials who are entirely innocent in the matter.

Never send money or any other article of value through the mail, except either by means of a money-order or in a registered letter. Any person who sends money or jewelry in an unregistered letter not only runs a risk of losing his property, but exposes to temptation every one through whose hands his letter passes, and may be the means of ultimately bringing some clerk or letter-carrier to ruin.

See that every letter contains the full name and post-office address of the writer, with county and State, in order to secure the return of the letter, if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found. A much larger portion of the undelivered letters could be returned if the names and addresses of the senders were always fully and plainly written or printed inside or on the envelopes. Persons who have large correspondence find it most convenient to use "special request envelopes;" but those who only mail an occasional letter can avoid much trouble by writing a request to "return if not delivered," etc., on the envelope.

When dropping a letter, newspaper, etc., into a street mailing-box, or into the receptacle at a post-office, always see that the packet falls into the box, and does not stick in its passage: observe, also, particularly, whether the postage-stamps remain securely in their places.

Postage-stamps should be placed on the upper right-hand corner of the address side of all mail-matter.

Postmasters are not obliged to accept in payment for postage stamps or stamped envelopes, wrappers, etc., any currency which may be so mutilated as to be uncurrent, or the genuineness of which cannot be clearly ascertained. They are not obliged to receive more than twenty-five cents in copper or nickel coins. They are not obliged to affix stamps to letters, nor are they obliged to make change except as a matter of courtesy. They must not give credit for postage.

Letters cannot be carried out of the mail except in postage-stamped envelopes. There is no objection to a person who is not acting as a common carrier carrying a sealed letter, whether in a stamped envelope or not; but to continue the practice, or receive money for so doing, would subject the party to a penalty of one hundred and fifty dollars. Newspapers, magazines and periodicals may be carried out of the mail for sale or distribution to subscribers, but if they are put into a post-office for delivery the postage must be paid thereon.

It is forbidden by the regulations of the Post-Office Department for postmasters to give to any person information concerning the mail-matter of another, or to disclose the name of a box-holder at a post-office.

Mail-matter deposited in any receptacle erected by the Post-Office Department, such as street mailing-boxes for the reception of mail-matter to be collected by letter-carriers, or boxes in railroad depots for the reception of matter to be collected by employés of the railway mail service, cannot be reclaimed by any one under any circumstances. Persons depositing letters in the latter, intended for city delivery, do so at their own risk, and cannot reclaim them except through the Dead Letter Office.

Letters addressed to persons temporarily sojourning in a city where the Free Delivery System is in operation should be marked "Transient" or "General Delivery," if not addressed to a street and number or some other designated place of delivery.

All matter concerning lotteries, gift concerts, or schemes devised to defraud the public, or for the purpose of obtaining money under false pretences, is denied transmission in the mails.

Applications for the establishment of post-offices should be addressed to the First Assistant Postmaster-General, accompanied by a statement of the necessity therefor. Instructions will then be given and blanks furnished to enable the petitioners to provide the department with the necessary information.

GENERAL REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN MAILS.

Postage can be prepaid upon articles only by means of the postage-stamps of the country in which the articles are mailed. Hence articles mailed in one country addressed to another country which bear postage-stamps of the country to which they are addressed are treated as if they had no postage-stamps attached to them.

Matter to be sent in the mails at less than letter rates must be so wrapped that it can be readily examined at the office of delivery, as well as the mailing office, without destroying the wrapper.

Newspapers and periodicals sent in the mails to foreign countries other than those of the Postal Union should be wrapped singly. Those sent by publishers to regular subscribers in Canada and Mexico are transmissible as in domestic mails, except that packages addressed to Mexico must not exceed 4 pounds, 6 ounces in weight.

The United States two-cent postal card should be used for card correspondence with foreign countries (except Canada and Mexico, to which countries the one-cent card is transmissible), but where these cards cannot be obtained, it is allowable to use for this purpose the United States one-cent postal card with a one-cent United States adhesive postage-stamp attached thereto.

Mail matter of all kinds received from any country of the Postal Union is required to be reforwarded at the request of the addressee, from one post-office to another, or to any foreign country embraced in the Postal Union, without additional charge for postage.

All articles prohibited from domestic mails are also excluded from circulation in the mails to and from foreign countries. Postal cards or letters addressed to go around the world will not be forwarded, being prohibited.

The act of March 3, 1883, imposes a duty of 25 per cent ad valorem on all printed matter not therein otherwise provided for, without regard to mode of importation. Under said act, all printed matter, except newspapers and periodicals, and except printed matter other than books imported in the mails for personal use, is subject to the regular duty of 25 per cent ad valorem.

FOREIGN (INTERNATIONAL) MONEY ORDERS.

Unpaid letters received from the Postal Union are chargeable with 10 cents per 15 grams (½ ounce). Insufficiently prepaid correspondence of all kinds is chargeable with double the amount of the deficient postage.

There are now in operation postal conventions for the exchange of money orders between the United States and the following countries—viz.: Switzerland, Great Britain and Ireland, Germany, France, Italy, Canada, and Newfoundland, Jamaica, New-South Wales, Victoria, New-Zealand, Queensland, the Cape Colony, the Windward Islands, the Leeward Islands, Belgium, Portugal, Tasmania, Hawaii, Sweden, Norway, Japan, Denmark, Netherlands, the Bahamas, Trinidad, and Tobago, British Guiana, Austria, and Hungary.

Upon receiving an international money order from the issuing postmaster, the remitter must send it, at his own cost, to the payee, if the latter resides in Canada, Great Britain, and Ireland, Queensland, Cape Colony, France, and Algeria, New-Zealand, New-South Wales, Victoria, Tasmania, Hawaii, Jamaica, Leeward and Windward Islands, and Constantinople, Bahamas, Trinidad, and Tobago, and British Guiana.

But the order should be retained by the remitter if the intended beneficiary live in any of the following named countries: Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Italy, Belgium, Portugal, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, British India, Egypt, Japan, Hong Kong, in which case it is of no value except as evidence of deposit of the sum therein mentioned. Another and different form of order will be forwarded to the payee by the exchange office in the country of payment.

The rates of commission or fees charged for the issue of all international money orders are as follows: For sums not exceeding $10, 10 cents; over $10 and not exceeding $20, 20 cents; over $20 and not exceeding $30, 30 cents; over $30 and not exceeding $40, 40 cents; over $40 and not exceeding $50, 50 cents; over $50 and not exceeding $60, 60 cents; over $60 and not exceeding $70, 70 cents; over $70 and not exceeding $80, 80 cents; over $80 and not exceeding $90, 90 cents; over $90 and not exceeding $100, one dollar.

Parcels Post.—Unsealed packages of mailable merchandise may be sent by Parcels Post to Jamaica, Barbadoes, the Bahamas, British Honduras, Mexico, the Hawaiian Kingdom (Sandwich Islands), the Leeward Islands, the Republic of Colombia, Costa Rica, Salvador, British Guiana, and the Windward Islands (St. Lucia, St. Vincent, Grenada, and the Grenadines), at the following postage rate: For a parcel not exceeding one pound in weight, 12 cents; for each additional pound or fraction thereof, 12 cents. The maximum weight allowed is eleven pounds—the extreme dimensions allowed for Mexico, Costa Rica, and Colombia being two feet length by four feet girth, and for the other countries not more than three feet, six inches in length, nor more than six feet in length and girth combined. Parcels must be wrapped so as to permit their contents to be easily examined by postmasters. Poisonous, explosive, and inflammable substances are excluded. Parcels may be registered for 10 cents each to any of the above places, except Barbadoes.

Any article of correspondence may be registered. Packages of merchandise are subject to the regulations of either country to prevent violations of the revenue laws; must not be closed against inspection, and must be so wrapped and enclosed as to be easily examined. No sealed packages other than letters in their usual and ordinary form may be sent by mail to Canada.

MEXICO.

Letters, newspapers, and printed matter are now carried between the United States and Mexico at same rates as in the United States. Samples are 1 cent for 2 ounces; limit of weight, 8¾ ounces. Merchandise, other than samples, may only be sent by Parcels Post. No sealed packages other than letters in their usual and ordinary form may be sent by mail to Mexico, nor any package over 4 pounds 6 ounces in weight.

SAMPLES.

By special agreement between the United States and France, Great Britain, Belgium, Switzerland, the Argentine Republic, Italy, Hawaiian kingdom, Egypt, and the British Colonies, except India, Canada, and the Australian Colonies, Austria, and Hungary, packets of samples of merchandise are admissible in the mails between the two countries, up to 350 grams (12 oz.) in weight, and the following dimensions apply to all Postal Union countries: 30 centimeters (12 inches) in length, 20 centimeters (8 inches) in width, and 10 centimeters (4 inches) in depth, or if they are in the form of a roll, 12 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter.

Metric System of Weights and Measures.

THE METRIC SYSTEM has been adopted by Mexico, Brazil, Chili, Peru, etc., and, except Russia and Great Britain, where it is permissive, by all European nations. Various names of the preceding systems are, however, frequently used: In Germany, ⅕ kilogram = 1 pound; in Switzerland, $\frac{3}{10}$ of a metre = 1 foot, etc. If the first letters of the prefixes deka, hecto, kilo, myria, from the Greek, and deci, centi, milli, from the Latin, are used in preference to our plain English, 10, 100, etc., it is best to employ capital letters for the multiples and small letters for the subdivisions, to avoid ambiguities in abbreviations: 1 dekametre or 10 metres = 1 Dm.; 1 decimetre or $\frac{1}{10}$ of a metre = 1 dm.

The METRE, unit of length, is nearly the ten-millionth part of a quadrant of a meridian, of the distance between Equator and Pole. The International Standard Metre is, practically, nothing else but a length defined by the distance between two lines on a platinum-iridium bar at 0° Centigrade, deposited at the International Bureau of Weights and Measures, Paris, France.

The LITRE, unit of capacity, is derived from the weight of one kilogram pure water at greatest density, a cube whose edge is one-tenth of a metre and, therefore, the one-thousandth part of a metric ton.

1 silver dollar weighs 25 grams, 1 dime = 2½ grams, 1 five-cent nickel = 5 grams.

The Metric System was legalized in the United States on July 28, 1866, when Congress enacted as follows:

"The tables in the schedule hereto annexed shall be recognized in the construction of contracts, and in all legal proceedings, as establishing, in terms of the weights and measures now in use in the United States, the equivalents of the weights and measures expressed therein in terms of the metric system, and the tables may lawfully be used for computing, determining and expressing in customary weights and measures the weights and measures of the metric system."

MEASURES AND WEIGHTS OF GREAT BRITAIN.

The measures of length and the weights are nearly, practically, the same as those in use in the United States. The English ton is 2,240 lbs. avoirdupois, the same as the long ton, or shipping ton of the United States. The English hundredweight is 112 lbs. avoirdupois, the same as the long hundredweight of the United States. The metre has been legalized at 39.37079 inches, but the length of 39.370432 inches, as adopted by France, Germany, Belgium, and Russia, is frequently used.

The Imperial gallon, the basis of the system of capacity, involves an error of about 1 part in 1,836: 10 lbs. of water = 277.123 cubic inches.

Austro-Hungarian Money: 100 kreuzer = 1 florin.
For United States equivalents, see tables of "Value of Foreign Coins in U. S. Money."

NOTE.—France, Belgium, Greece, Italy, and Switzerland constitute what is known as the "Latin" Union, and their coins are alike in weight and fineness, occasionally differing, however, in name. The same system has been in part adopted by Spain, Servia, Bulgaria, Russia, and Roumania, but they have not joined the Union. Francs and centimes of France, Belgium, and Switzerland are respectively designated lire and centissimi in Italy; drachmai and lepta in Greece; dinars and paras in Servia; peseta and centimos in Spain; leys and banis in Roumania; leva and stotinkis in Bulgaria. Similarly the Scandinavian countries, Norway, Sweden, and Denmark, employ coins of the same weight and fineness, their names being also alike. Most of the South American States possess a standard coin, equal in weight and fineness to the silver 5-franc piece, generally termed a "peso."

LIFE INSURANCE RULE FOR HEIGHT AND WEIGHT OF HEALTHY MEN,

The weights given in the accompanying table were taken from the average of adults of middle life, about age 30, and the variation allowed (one-fifth or 20 per cent) would cover fairly the lighter weight of younger persons down to age 20. So long as the one-fifth + or — is not exceeded, the variation from the standard weight need not, in medical examination for life insurance, tell against the life; but if the weight is less than four-fifths of the average, or if it exceeds the average by more than one-fifth, then it may tell against eligibility of the life—each case being judged on its own merit. If in any case the weight is too low, and the family history shows a tendency to consumption, such a life cannot be accepted as a first-class life; and the same applies to excessive weight, where there is a quick pulse or a weak heart.

Nationalism.

THE following statement of the principles of "Nationalism," public interest in which was awakened by Mr. Bellamy's novel of "Looking Backward," is from the pen of Edward S. Huntington, Secretary of the Boston Nationalist Club :

"The Nationalists, seeing the inevitable evolutionary inclinations toward association and combination in all business enterprises, as illustrated in the huge trusts and syndicates of our present age, believe in the wisdom of forming, eventually, one grand industrial association for the benefit of the whole people. The Nationalists advocate the gradual assumption by the municipal, State and national governments of all public duties now performed by private corporations. They demand that the load of oppression by monopolies shall be lifted from the shoulders of our American citizens.

"Nationalism offers for public consideration the following measures of reform : 1. The governmental control of all telegraphs, telephones and express companies. 2. The nationalization of all railroads. 3. The public ownership of all coal-mines, oil and gas wells now in operation or hereafter discovered. 4. The municipal control of all lighting, heating and street car service, or such other town or city duties as are now discharged by private companies.

"It is understood, of course, that all these monopolies and large industries which come into national, State or municipal control shall be carried on for use and not for profit. The hours of labor will be more reasonable, and a more humane treatment of all workers established.

"In the change of industries from private to public control, the Nationalists aim at no confiscation. The holders of valuable securities in any property taken by the public shall either receive fair dividends on such investments, or they shall be reimbursed outright at a fair estimate of the real value of such possessions.

"One of the chief reforms insisted upon by the Nationalists is that children shall be given an education till the age of 17 years, and this education shall be compulsory. They propose that the present limit of the school age (14 years) shall be raised, year by year, as rapidly as public sentiment will allow, and in cases of poverty partial State support shall be given to such children while attending school ; child labor in factories and mines shall be absolutely prohibited by the most stringent laws."

Acts of the Fifty-Second Congress. First Session.

During the first session of the Fifty-second Congress, which extended from December 7, 1891, to August 5, 1892, 9,835 bills and joint resolutions were introduced in the House of Representatives and 3,604 in the Senate. Of these 823 became laws, the remainder being either defeated, unreported from committee, or left on the calendar to be disposed of at the second session.

The principal bills and joint resolutions of a public nature which passed during the first session of the Fifty-second Congress were as follows:

Chapter 381. An act providing for 5,000,000 Columbian silver half dollars for medals and diplomas, and for the closing of the World's Fair on Sundays.

Joint Resolution No. 21. Authorized the President to invite certain governments to send delegates to the Pan-American Medical Congress.

Joint Resolution No. 22. Provided for an investigation relative to the "slums" of cities having 200,000 inhabitants and over.

Joint Resolution No. 25. Requested the loan of certain historical relics for the World's Fair from the Queen Regent of Spain, the city of Genoa, the Duke of Veragua, the descendants of Columbus, and others.

Joint Resolution No. 26. Authorized the Secretary of the Interior to prepare and send to the World's Fair models, drawings, etc., prepared or invented by women.

Joint Resolution No. 32. Extended an invitation to the King and Queen of Spain and the descendants of Columbus to participate in the World's Fair.

The Ballot Reform Movement.

Two States, through legislation in 1892, were added to the large number which now have, in one form or another, laws securing the secrecy of the ballot and protecting the voter from intimidation or the influence of bribery. Iowa adopted the Australian system, and Mississippi incorporated the secret ballot in her new code, the constitution prescribing an intelligence qualification for the suffrage. Maryland extended the operation of her secret ballot law of 1890 from the city of Baltimore to the whole State.

The following is a list of the States and Territories which have adopted new ballot laws, based more or less on the Australian system:

1888—Kentucky (applying only to Louisville), Massachusetts.

1892—Iowa, Maryland (whole State), Mississippi.

FORM OF BALLOT.

The distinctive feature of the ballot practice in New-South-Wales is that the names of all the candidates being on one ticket, the names of persons for whom the voter does not wish to vote must be crossed off, a blue lead-pencil being provided for the purpose by the authorities, while there are clearly printed on the ticket, in red ink, directions as to how many candidates must be voted for.

Under the New-York and New-Jersey laws each party ticket is printed on a separate ballot. For straight voting, therefore, no marking is required. For the benefit mainly of the illiterate or blind, as claimed, the paster ballot is permitted in New-York.

In all the other States which have adopted the reform system of voting, the single or "blanket" ballot is used. All the names in nomination are printed on one sheet, the voter's choice to be indicated by marking. There are two methods used of grouping the names of the candidates. The Australian plan arranges the titles of the offices alphabetically, the names of the candidates, and usually their party connection, being attached.

The States which follow this plan with more or less variation in the form, but preserving the feature of alphabetical arrangement of titles of offices to be voted for, are California, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New-Hampshire, Oregon, Rhode-Island, Tennessee, Vermont, Washington, and Wyoming.

The other form groups all names and offices by parties. It is illustrated by the following diagram of a ballot:

Democratic.	Republican.	Prohibition.	People's.
O	O	O	O
For Governor.	For Governor.	For Governor.	For Governor.
▭ William Smith.	▭ Thomas Jones.	▭ John Brown.	▭ Henry Robinson.

The voter of a straight ticket marks a cross in the circle at the head of his ticket. The voter who scatter marks the squares opposite the names of all the candidates on the tickets.

The States and Territories which use this plan, with or without immaterial variations, are Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Maryland, Missouri, Ohio, Wisconsin, and Oklahoma.

The World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago.

THE World's Columbian Exposition was created by an act of Congress, approved April 25, 1890, entitled "An act to provide for celebrating the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, by holding an international exhibition of arts, industries, manufactures and the product of the soil, mine and sea in the city of Chicago, in the State of Illinois."

The act provided for the appointment of commissioners, who should organize the Exposition, and when these preliminaries were completed, the President was required to make a public proclamation of the fact and officially invite "all the nations of the earth" to participate in the Exposition. This proclamation was issued December 24, 1890.

The dedication ceremonies took place October 21, 1892, and the days preceding and following, the President of the United States being represented by the Vice-President, who, accompanied by the Cabinet and many prominent officers of the Government, army and navy, and distinguished citizens, officially dedicated the Exposition.

Immediately upon the completion of these ceremonies the installing of the exhibits began.

The great Exposition will be opened to the public on May 1, 1893, and will continue open until October 30, following. The admission fee will be 50 cents.

The total cost of the Exposition, from its beginning to its close, is estimated at $25,000,000.

THE LOCATION OF THE GREAT FAIR.

So far as visitors to the fair are concerned, the location of the grounds upon which the main buildings stand is a favorable one. Jackson Park and Midway Plaisance, the Exposition site, are in the southeastern part of the city of Chicago. The two together embrace 633 acres, attractively situated on the shore of Lake Michigan, the park front being a mile and a half long, from northwest to southeast.

MANUFACTURES AND LIBERAL ARTS BUILDING.

The principal building in point of area and importance is that of Manufactures and Liberal Arts, a mammoth structure, measuring 1,687 to 1,787 feet and covering 44 acres—the largest exposition structure ever built. It cost $1,600,750.

STATE BUILDINGS.

Nearly all the States and Territories of the United States have made appropriations toward the expense of special exhibits at the Exposition, and most of them will have characteristic buildings in the grounds. The New-York and Illinois buildings will be conspicuously fine.

FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

The following are the countries which have received allotments: Argentine Republic, Austria, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, Bulgaria, Chile, China, Colombia, Corea, Costa Rica, Cuba, Denmark, Egypt, Ecuador, France and its provinces, Great Britain and all the British Colonies, Greece, Guatemala, Hawaiian Islands, Haiti, Honduras, Hungary, Italy, Japan, Liberia, Mexico, Madagascar, Netherlands and colonies, Nicaragua, Norway, Paraguay, Persia, Peru, Russia, Salvador, Santo Domingo, Servia, Siam, Sweden, Switzerland, Uruguay, and Venezuela.

Of these the following countries will have independent Government buildings: Austria, Canada, Ceylon, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, France, Great Britain, Guatemala, Haiti, Italy, Japan, Nicaragua, Norway, Russia, Sweden, and Turkey.

THE MIDWAY PLAISANCE SHOWS.

The Midway Plaisance, which is a tract lying between 59th and 60th Streets, extending east and west, will contain the principal "side shows," some of which will be of both an unique and elaborate character. Among these will be the "Tower of Babel"—400 feet high, Bohemian Glass Factory, Japanese Bazaars, the Animal shows, Dutch Settlement, German Village, Natatorium, Panorama of the Bernese Alps, Turkish Village, Minaret Tower, Moorish Palace, Street in Cairo, Chinese Theatre, Captive Balloon, Indian Village, Roman House, Chinese Tea House, Ferris Wheel, Large Sliding Railway, Ice Railway, etc.

TRANSPORTATION.

Means of easy and rapid transportation from all parts of Chicago and from railroad stations to the Exposition are provided. The steam, electric, cable, and horse railroads, and the elevated railroad will convey passengers by land to the principal entrances, and numerous steamboats will ply between the city and the great pier on the waterside of the grounds.

In the extreme south part of the grounds the stock exhibit, under sheds covering forty acres, is located.

During the Exposition there will be restaurants and dining-rooms in all the main buildings, a luncheon place in the Dairy Building, and a railroad luncheon counter in the Transportation Building.

GOVERNMENT.

President, Thomas W. Palmer; Secretary, John T. Dickinson; Director-General, George R. Davis.

Department Chiefs.—Agriculture, W. I. Buchanan; Horticulture, John M. Samuels; Live Stock, Eber W. Cottrell; Fish and Fisheries, John W. Collins; Mines and Mining, F. J. V. Skiff; Machinery, L. W. Robinson; Transportation, W. A. Smith; Manufactures, James Allison; Electricity, John P. Barrett, Fine Arts, Halsey C. Ives; Liberal Arts, S. H. Peabody; Ethnology, F. W. Putnam; Forestry, W. I. Buchanan, in charge; Publicity and Promotion, Moses P. Handy; Foreign Affairs, Walker Fearn; Secretary of Installation, Joseph Hirst; Traffic Manager, E. E. Jaycox.

There are eight commissioners at large and two from each State and Territory and the District of Columbia. There are the same number of lady managers.

President of the Board of Lady Managers, Mrs. Potter Palmer; Secretary, Mrs. Susan Gale Cook.

President, H. N. Higinbotham; Secretary, H. O. Edmonds; Treasurer, A. F. Seeberger; Auditor, William K. Ackerman; Chief of Construction, D. H. Burnham.

WORLD'S CONGRESS AUXILIARY.

A series of world's congresses in all departments of thought will be convened during the Exposition season. This work is divided into seventeen great departments, as follows: Agriculture, Art, Commerce and Finance, Education, Engineering, Government, Literature, Labor, Medicine, Moral and Social Reform, Music, Public Press, Religion, Science and Philosophy, Temperance, Sunday Rest, and a General Department, embracing Congresses not otherwise assigned. These general departments have been divided into more than one hundred divisions, in each of which a Congress is to be held. Each division has its own local committee of arrangements.

Representative men from all parts of the world will take part in these gatherings. They will be held for the most part in the Art Institute. The officers of the Auxiliary are Charles C. Bonney, President; Thomas B. Bryan, Vice-President; Lyman J. Gage, Treasurer; Benjamin Butterworth, Secretary.

Information about Chicago, specially prepared for the use of visitors during the Exposition, will be found in the ALMANAC, beginning at page 423.

The Columbian Naval Review in New-York Harbor.

SECTION 8 of the act creating the World's Columbian Exposition provides "that the President is hereby empowered and directed to hold a naval review in New-York Harbor in April, 1893, and to extend to foreign nations an invitation to send ships of war to join the United States Navy in rendezvous at Hampton Roads, and to proceed thence to said review."

The Navy Department has appointed Rear-Admiral Bancroft Gherardi to assume command of the combined fleet, from March 1.

Political Record of 1892.

Jan. 6. Ohio Republican legislative caucus nominated John Sherman for United States Senator by the following vote: Sherman, 53; Foraker, 38; McKinley, 1; Foster, 1.

Jan. 12. John Sherman was chosen United States Senator from Ohio by the following vote on joint ballot: Sherman, 111; James E. Neal, Dem., 37.

Jan. 19. Arthur P. Gorman was chosen United States Senator from Maryland, and John Z. George and E. C. Walthall were chosen from Mississippi with little opposition.

Jan. 21. Charles H. Gibson was chosen United States Senator from Maryland to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Wilson.

Jan. 21. The National Democratic Committee selected Chicago as the place of meeting of the National Democratic Convention.

Feb. 1. The title of James E. Boyd to the Nebraska governorship was declared valid by the United States Supreme Court.

Feb. 22. New-York Democratic State Convention at Albany selected a Hill delegation to the Chicago National Convention, and adopted a platform declaring against the "coinage of any silver dollar which is not of the intrinsic value of every other dollar of the United States," and denouncing "the new Sherman silver law, under which one-tenth of our gold stock has been exported and all our silver output is dammed up at home, as a false pretence, but actual hindrance of a return to free bimetallic coinage."

March 3 to July 1. Conventions to elect delegates to their respective national conventions were held by the several political parties in all the States and Territories. In many of them tickets for State officers were chosen. As the platforms adopted by the national conventions embodied the sentiments of the different parties, and therefore became the standards of party faith, the State platforms are not reproduced in THE WORLD ALMANAC for 1893, and only the national platforms are printed.

March 14–18. Senator Hill made a tour of the South, speaking in several cities.

March 22. Roger Q. Mills was chosen United States Senator from Texas by a large majority of both houses.

April 6. Rhode-Island State election was carried by the Republicans after an exciting campaign.

May 31. The New-York Democratic "anti-snapper" State Convention was held at Syracuse, and a contesting delegation to the Chicago Convention was chosen.

June 4. Secretary Blaine suddenly resigned from President Harrison's Cabinet.

June 7–11. The Republican National Convention was in session at Minneapolis. President Harrison was renominated on the first ballot for the Presidential candidate. The following was the vote by States:

Morrison received 3; Campbell, of Ohio, 2; Russell, 2, and Pattison and Whitney, 1 vote each. Whole number of votes cast, 909½. Necessary to a choice, 607.

For Vice-President on the first ballot, Stevenson received 402; Isaac P. Gray, of Indiana, 343; Allen B. Morse, of Michigan, 86; John L. Michell, of Wisconsin, 45; Henry Watterson, 26; Bourke Cockran, 5; Lambert Tree and Horace Boies, one vote each. Stevenson was then nominated by acclamation.

June 27. The Republican National Committee chose W. J. Campbell, of Illinois, Chairman. He declined, and after several failures I. H. Carter, of Montana, was induced to accept.

June 29–July 1. The Prohibition Party National Convention was in session at Cincinnati; John Bidwell, of California, was nominated for President on the first ballot, the vote being, Bidwell, 590; Gideon L. Stewart, of Ohio, 179; W. Jennings Demorest, of New-York, 139; H. Clay Bascom, of New-York, 3.

For Vice-President, the first ballot was: James B. Cranfill, of Texas, 416; Joshua Levering, of Maryland, 351; A. W. Satterly, of Minnesota, 26; T. R. Carskadon, of West-Virginia, 21; and Cranfill was nominated.

July 4–5. The People's Party National Convention at Omaha was in session. James B. Weaver, of Iowa, was nominated for President on the first ballot, the ballot being, Weaver, 995; James H. Kyle, of South-Dakota, 295; Mann Page, of Pennsylvania, Leland Stanford, of California, and S. F. Norton, of Illinois, one each.

For Vice-President the ballot was: James G. Field, of Virginia, 733; Ben Terrell, of Texas, 554.

Aug. 1. Alabama State election.

Aug. 28. The Socialist Labor Party, at a meeting in New-York, nominated Simon Wing, of Massachusetts, for President, and C. H. Matchett, of New-York, for Vice-President.

Sept. 5. Arkansas State election. There were four tickets in the field for Governor, but Fishback, Dem., was elected by a majority of 24,044 over the combined vote of the Republican, Prohibition, and People's Party candidates.

Sept. 6. Vermont State election. The Republicans carried the State for State officers and representatives in Congress by a reduction of their usual majority.

Sept. 12. Maine State election. The Republican ticket for Governor and representatives in Congress was elected by a reduced majority.

Sept. 23. Mr. Cleveland's letter of acceptance was made public.

Oct. 4. Florida State election. The Republicans made no nomination for Governor and supported mainly the People's Party candidate. The Democratic candidate for Governor, Mitchell, was elected by a large majority over the People's Party and Prohibitionist candidates.

Oct. 5. Georgia State election.

Oct. 18. Redfield Proctor was elected United States Senator from Vermont, the legislative vote on joint ballot being, Proctor, 123; Edward J. Phelps, Dem., 30.

Nov. 8. The Presidential election.

Dec. 10. Banquet by the Reform Club of New-York to the President-elect.

National Party Platforms of 1892.

THE representatives of the Democratic Party of the United States, in National Convention assembled, do reaffirm their allegiance to the principles of the party as formulated by Jefferson and exemplified by the long and illustrious line of his successors in Democratic leadership, from Madison to Cleveland; we believe the public welfare demands that these principles be applied to the conduct of the Federal Government, through the accession to power of the party that advocates them; and we solemnly declare that the need of a return to these fundamental principles of free popular government, based on home-rule and individual liberty, was never more urgent than now, when the tendency to centralize all power at the Federal Capital has become a menace to the reserved rights of the States, that strikes at the very roots of our Government under the Constitution as framed by the fathers of the Republic.

The Force Bill.—We warn the people of our common country, jealous for the preservation of their free institutions, that the policy of Federal control of elections, to which the Republican Party has committed itself, is fraught with the gravest dangers, scarcely less momentous than would result from a revolution practically establishing a monarchy on the ruins of the Republic. It strikes at the North as well as the South and injures the colored citizen even more than the white; it means a horde of deputy marshals at every polling place, armed with Federal power, returning boards appointed and controlled by Federal authority; the outrage of the electoral rights of the people in the several States; the subjugation of the colored people to the control of the party in power and the revival of race antagonisms now happily abated, of the utmost peril to the safety and happiness of all—a measure deliberately and justly described by a leading Republican Senator as "the most infamous bill that ever crossed the threshold of the Senate." Such a policy, if sanctioned by law, would mean the dominance of a self-perpetuating oligarchy of office-holders, and the party first intrusted with its machinery could be dislodged from power only by an appeal to the reserved right of the people to resist oppression, which is inherent in all self-governing communities. Two years ago this revolutionary policy was emphatically condemned by the people at the polls; but, in contempt of that verdict, the Republican Party has defiantly declared, in its latest authoritative utterance, that its success in the coming election will mean the enactment of the Force bill and the usurpation of despotic control over the elections in all the States.

Believing that the preservation of Republican government in the United States is dependent upon the defeat of this policy of legalized force and fraud, we invite the support of all citizens who desire to see the Constitution maintained in its integrity with the laws pursuant thereto which have given our country a hundred years of unexampled prosperity; and we pledge the Democratic Party, if it be intrusted with power, not only to the defeat of the Force bill, but also to relentless opposition to the Republican policy of profligate expenditure, which in the short space of two years squandered an enormous surplus and emptied an overflowing treasury, after piling new burdens of taxation upon the already overtaxed labor of the country.

Protection.—We denounce Republican protection as a fraud; a robbery of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of the few. We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic Party that the Federal Government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties, except for the purpose of revenue only, and we demand that the collection of such taxes shall be limited to the necessities of the Government when honestly and economically administered.

The McKinley Tariff.—We denounce the McKinley tariff law enacted by the Fifty-first Congress as the culminating atrocity of class legislation; we endorse the efforts made by the Democrats of the present Congress to modify its most oppressive features in the direction of free raw materials and cheaper manufactured goods that enter into general consumption; and we promise its repeal as one of the beneficent results that will follow the action of the people in intrusting power to the Democratic Party. Since the McKinley tariff went into operation there have been ten reductions of the wages of laboring men to one increase. We deny that there has been any increase of prosperity to the country since that tariff went into operation, and we point to the dulness and distress, the wage reductions and strikes in the iron trade as the best possible evidence that no such prosperity has resulted from the McKinley act.

The Mortgage Burden.—We call the attention of thoughtful Americans to the fact that after thirty years of restrictive taxes against the importation of foreign wealth in exchange for our agricultural surplus, the homes and farms of the country have become burdened with a real estate mortgage debt of over $2,500,000,000, exclusive of all other forms of indebtedness; that in one of the chief agricultural States of the West there appears a real estate mortgage debt averaging $165 per capita of the total population; and that similar conditions and tendencies are shown to exist in other agricultural exporting States. We denounce a policy which fosters no industry so much as it does that of the sheriff.

Reciprocity.—Trade interchange on the basis of reciprocal advantages to the countries participating is a time-honored doctrine of the Democratic faith, but we denounce the sham reciprocity which juggles with the people's desire for enlarged foreign markets and freer exchanges by pretending to establish closer trade relations for a country whose articles of export are almost exclusively agricultural products with other countries that are also agricultural, while erecting a custom-house barrier of prohibitive tariff taxes against the richest countries of the world that stand ready to take our entire surplus of products and to exchange therefor commodities which are necessaries and comforts of life among our own people.

Trusts.—We recognize in the Trusts and Combinations which are designed to enable capital to secure more than its just share of the joint product of capital and labor a natural consequence of the prohibitive taxes which prevent the free competition which is the life of honest trade, but believe their worst evils can be abated by law, and we demand the rigid enforcement of the laws made to prevent and control them, together with such further legislation in restraint of their abuses as experience may show to be necessary.

The Public Lands.—The Republican Party, while professing a policy of reserving the public land for small holdings by actual settlers, has given away the people's heritage, until now a few railroad and non-resident aliens, individual and corporate, possess a larger area than that of all our farms between the two seas. The last Democratic administration reversed the improvident and unwise policy of the Republican Party touching the public domain, and reclaimed from corporations and syndicates, alien and domestic, and restored to the people nearly one hundred millions (100,000,000) acres of valuable land to be sacredly held as homesteads for our citizens, and we pledge ourselves to continue this policy until every acre of land so unlawfully held shall be reclaimed and restored to the people.

Gold and Silver.—We denounce the Republican legislation known as the Sherman act of 1890 as a cowardly makeshift, fraught with possibilities of danger in the future, which should make all of its supporters, as well as its author, anxious for its speedy repeal. We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country, and to the coinage of both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal or charge for mintage, but the dollar unit of coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or be adjusted through international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as shall ensure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals, and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets, and in payment of debt; and we demand that all paper currency shall be kept at par with and redeemable in such coin. We insist upon this policy as especially necessary for the protection of the farmers and laboring classes, the first and most defenceless victims of unstable money and a fluctuating currency.

Tax on State Banks.—We recommend that the prohibitory ten per cent tax on State bank issues be repealed.

Civil Service Reform.—Public office is a public trust. We reaffirm the declaration of the Democratic National Convention of 1876, for the reform of the civil service, and we call for the honest enforcement of all laws regulating the same. The nomination of a President as in the recent Republican Convention, by delegations composed largely of his appointees, holding office at his pleasure, is a scandalous satire upon free popular institutions, and a startling illustration of the methods by which a President may gratify his ambition. We denounce a policy under which the Federal office-holders usurp control of party conventions in the States, and we pledge the Democratic Party to reform these and all other abuses which threaten individual liberty and local self-government.

Our Foreign Policy.—The Democratic Party is the only party that has ever given the country a foreign policy consistent and vigorous, compelling respect abroad and inspiring confidence at home. While avoiding entangling alliances, it has aimed to cultivate friendly relations with other nations, and especially with our neighbors on the American continent, whose destiny is closely linked with our own, and we view with alarm the tendency to a policy of irritation and bluster which is liable at any time to confront us with the alternative of humiliation or war. We favor the maintenance of a navy strong enough for all purposes of national defence and to properly maintain the honor and dignity of the country abroad.

Sympathy with the Oppressed.—This country has always been the refuge of the oppressed from every land—exiles for conscience' sake—and in the spirit of the founders of our Government we condemn the oppression practised by the Russian Government upon its Lutheran and Jewish subjects, and we call upon our National Government, in the interest of justice and humanity, by all just and proper means, to use its prompt and best efforts to bring about a cessation of these cruel persecutions in the dominions of the Czar and to secure to the oppressed equal rights.

Irish Home Rule.—We tender our profound and earnest sympathy to those lovers of freedom who are struggling for home rule and the great cause of local self-government in Ireland.

Immigration.—We heartily approve all legitimate efforts to prevent the United States from being used as the dumping ground for the known criminals and professional paupers of Europe, and we demand the rigid enforcement of the laws against Chinese immigration or the importation of foreign workmen under contract, to degrade American labor and lessen its wages, but we condemn and denounce any and all attempts to restrict the immigration of the industrious and worthy of foreign lands.

Soldiers' Pensions.—This convention hereby renews the expression of appreciation of the patriotism of the soldiers and sailors of the Union in the war for its preservation, and we favor just and liberal pensions for all disabled Union soldiers, their widows and dependents, but we demand that the work of the Pension Office shall be done industriously, impartially, and honestly. We denounce the present administration of that office as incompetent, corrupt, disgraceful, and dishonest.

Improvement of Waterways.—The Federal Government should care for and improve the Mississippi River and other great waterways of the Republic, so as to secure for the interior States easy and cheap transportation to the tidewater. When any waterway of the Republic is of sufficient importance to demand the aid of the Government, such aid should be extended on a definite plan of continuous work until permanent improvement is secured.

The Nicaragua Canal.—For purposes of national defence and the promotion of commerce between the States, we recognize the early construction of the Nicaragua Canal and its protection against foreign control as of great importance to the United States.

The World's Columbian Fair.—Recognizing the World's Columbian Exposition as a national undertaking of vast importance, in which the General Government has invited the co-operation of all the powers of the world, and appreciating the acceptance by many of such powers of the invitation so extended, and the broad and liberal efforts being made by them to contribute to the grandeur of the undertaking, we are of opinion that Congress should make such necessary financial provision as shall be requisite to the maintenance of the national honor and public faith.

Freedom of Education.—Popular education being the only safe basis of popular suffrage, we recommend to the several States most liberal appropriations for the public schools. Free common schools are the nursery of good government, and they have always received the fostering care of the Democratic Party, which favors every means of increasing intelligence. Freedom of education, being an essential of civil and religious liberty, as well as a necessity of the development of intelligence, must not be interfered with under any pretext whatever. We are opposed to State interference with parental rights and rights of conscience in the education of children as an infringement of the fundamental Democratic doctrine that the largest individual liberty consistent with the rights of others insures the highest type of American citizenship and the best government.

Admission of Territories.—We approve the action of the present House of Representatives in passing bills for admitting into the Union as States of the Territories of New-Mexico and Arizona, and we favor the early admission of all the Territories having the necessary population and resources to entitle them to statehood, and while they remain territories we hold that the officials appointed to administer the government of any territory, together with the District of Columbia and Alaska, should be bona fide residents of the territory or district in which their duties are to be performed. The Democratic Party believes in home rule and the control of their own affairs by the people of the vicinage.

Protection of Railway Employes.—We favor legislation by Congress and State legislatures to protect the lives and limbs of railway employés and those of other hazardous transportation companies, and denounce the inactivity of the Republican Party, and particularly the Republican Senate, for causing the defeat of measures beneficial and protective to this class of wage workers.

Labor Evils.—We are in favor of the enactment by the States of laws for abolishing the notorious sweating system, for abolishing contract convict labor, and for prohibiting the employment in factories of children under fifteen years of age.

Sumptuary Laws.—We are opposed to all sumptuary law as an interference with the individual rights of the citizen.

A Change of Administration Demanded.—Upon this statement of principles and policies the Democratic Party asks the intelligent judgment of the American people. It asks a change of administration and a change of party, in order that there may be a change of system and a change of methods, thus assuring the maintenance unimpaired of institutions under which the Republic has grown great and powerful.

THE ORIGINAL TARIFF PLANK AS REPORTED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

The following is the first part of the third plank of the platform, as reported by the Committee on Resolutions. The clause of the third plank (entitled "Protection"), beginning with "We denounce" and closing with "economically administered," was substituted for it by the Convention by a vote of 564 to 342.

[III.—We reiterate the oft-repeated doctrines of the Democratic Party that the necessity of the Government is the only justification for taxation, and whenever a tax is unnecessary it is unjustifiable; that when Custom House taxation is levied upon articles of any kind produced in this country, the difference between the cost of labor here and labor abroad, when such a difference exists, fully measures any possible benefits to labor, and the enormous additional impositions of the existing tariff fall with crushing force upon our farmers and workingmen, and, for the mere advantage of the few whom it enriches, exacts from labor a grossly unjust share of the expenses of the Government, and we demand such a revision of the tariff laws as will remove their iniquitous inequalities, lighten their oppressions, and put them on a constitutional and equitable basis. But, in making reduction in taxes, it is not proposed to injure any domestic industries, but rather to promote their healthy growth. From the foundation of this Government, taxes collected at the Custom House have been the chief source of Federal revenue. Such they must continue to be. Moreover, many industries have come to rely upon legislation for successful continuance, so that any change of law must be at every step regardful of the labor and capital thus involved. The process of reform must be subject in the execution to this plain dictate of justice.]

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM, ADOPTED AT MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., JUNE 9, 1892.

The representatives of the Republicans of the United States, assembled in general convention on the shores of the Mississippi River, the everlasting bond of an indestructible Republic, whose most glorious chapter of history is the record of the Republican Party, congratulate their countrymen on the majestic march of the nation under the banners inscribed with the principles of our platform of 1888, vindicated by victory at the polls and prosperity in our fields, workshops, and mines, and make the following declaration of principles:

Protection.—We reaffirm the American doctrine of protection. We call attention to its growth abroad. We maintain that the prosperous condition of our country is largely due to the wise revenue legislation of the Republican Congress. We believe that all articles which cannot be produced in the United States, except luxuries, should be admitted free of duty, and that on all imports coming into competition with the products of American labor there should be levied duties equal to the difference between wages abroad and at home. We assert that the prices of manufactured articles of general consumption have been reduced under the operations of the Tariff act of 1890. We denounce the efforts of the Democratic majority of the House of Representatives to destroy our tariff laws by piecemeal, as manifested by their attacks upon wool, lead, and lead ores, the chief products of a number of States, and we ask the people for their judgment thereon.

Reciprocity.—We point to the success of the Republican policy of reciprocity, under which our export trade has vastly increased, and new and enlarged markets have been opened for the products of our farms and workshops. We remind the people of the bitter opposition of the Democratic Party to this practical business measure, and claim that, executed by a Republican administration, our present laws will eventually give us control of the trade of the world.

Gold and Silver Money.—The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bimetalism, and the Republican Party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with restrictions and under such provisions, to be determined by legislation, as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold, or paper, shall be at all times equal. The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workingmen, demand that every dollar, paper, or coin, issued by the Government, shall be as good as any other. We commend the wise and patriotic steps already taken by our Government to secure an international conference, to adopt such measures as will insure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.

The Ballot.—We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one free and unrestricted ballot in all public elections, and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast; that such laws shall be enacted and enforced as will secure to every citizen, be he rich or poor, native or foreign-born, white or black, this sovereign right guaranteed by the Constitution.

The Force Bill.—The free and honest popular ballot, the just and equal representation of all the people, as well as their just and equal protection under the laws, are the foundation of our Republican institutions, and the party will never relax its efforts until the integrity of the ballot and the purity of elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every State.

Southern Outrages.—We denounce the continued inhuman outrages perpetrated upon American citizens for political reasons in certain Southern States of the Union.

Extension of Commerce.—We favor the extension of our foreign commerce, the restoration of our mercantile marine by home-built ships and the creation of a navy for the protection of our national interests and the honor of our flag; the maintenance of the most friendly relations with all foreign powers; entangling alliances with none; and the protection of the rights of our fishermen.

The Monroe Doctrine.—We reaffirm our approval of the Monroe Doctrine and believe in the achievement of the manifest destiny of the Republic in its broadest sense.

Foreign Immigration.—We favor the re-enactment of more stringent laws and regulations for the restriction of criminal, pauper, and contract immigration.

Legislation for Employés.—We favor efficient legislation by Congress to protect the life and limbs of employés of transportation companies engaged in carrying on interstate commerce, and recommend legislation by the respective States that will protect employés engaged in State commerce, in mining and manufacturing.

Ireland and Russia.—The Republican Party has always been the champion of the oppressed, and recognizes the dignity of manhood, irrespective of faith, color, or nationality; it sympathizes with the cause of home rule in Ireland, and protests against the persecution of the Jews in Russia.

Education and Religion.—The ultimate reliance of free popular government is the intelligence of the people and the maintenance of freedom among men. We, therefore, declare anew our devotion to liberty of thought and conscience, of speech and press, and approve all agencies and instrumentalities which contribute to the education of the children of the land; but while insisting upon the fullest measure of religious liberty, we are opposed to any union of church and State.

Opposition to Trusts.—We reaffirm our opposition, declared in the Republican platform of 1888, to all combinations of capital organized in trusts or otherwise to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens. We heartily indorse the action already taken upon this subject, and ask for such further legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws, and to render their enforcement more complete and effective.

The Postal Service.—We approve the policy of extending to towns, villages, and rural communities the advantages of the free delivery service now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and reaffirm the declaration contained in the Republican platform of 1888, pledging the reduction of letter postage to one cent at the earliest possible moment consistent with the maintenance of the post-office department and the highest class of postal service.

Civil Service Reform.—We commend the spirit and evidence of reform in the civil service and the wise and consistent enforcement by the Republican Party of the laws regulating the same.

The Nicaragua Canal.—The construction of the Nicaragua Canal is of the highest importance to the American people, both as a measure of national defence and to build up and maintain American commerce, and it should be controlled by the United States Government.

Admission of the Territories.—We favor the admission of the remaining Territories at the earliest possible date, having due regard to the interests of the people of the Territories and of the United States. All the Federal officers appointed for the Territories should be selected from bona fide residents thereof, and the right of self-government should be accorded as far as practicable.

Cession of the Arid Public Lands.—We favor the cession, subject to the homestead laws, of the arid public lands, to the States and Territories in which they lie, under such congressional restrictions as to disposition, reclamation, and occupancy by settlers as will secure the maximum benefits to the people.

The World's Fair.—The World's Columbian Exposition is a great national undertaking, and Congress should promptly enact such reasonable legislation in aid thereof as will insure a discharge of the expenses and obligations incident thereto, and the attainment of results commensurate with the dignity and progress of the nation.

The Liquor Traffic.—We sympathize with all wise and legitimate efforts to lessen and prevent the evils of intemperance and promote morality.

Soldiers' Pensions.—Ever mindful of the service and sacrifices of the men who saved the life of the nation, we pledge anew to the veteran soldiers of the Republic a watchful care and recognition of their just claims upon a grateful people.

President Harrison's Administration.—We commend the able, patriotic, and thoroughly American administration of President Harrison. Under it the country has enjoyed remarkable prosperity, and the dignity and honor of the nation, at home and abroad, have been faithfully maintained, and we offer the record of pledges kept, as a guaranty of faithful performance in the future.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION PARTY PLATFORM, ADOPTED AT CINCINNATI, OHIO, JUNE 30, 1892.

The Prohibition Party, in National Convention assembled, acknowledging Almighty God as the source of all true government and His law as the standard to which all human enactments must conform to secure the blessings of peace and prosperity, presents the following declaration of principles:

The Liquor Traffic.—The liquor traffic is a foe to civilization, the arch enemy of popular government and a public nuisance. It is the citadel of the forces that corrupt politics, promote poverty and crime, degrade the nation's home life, thwart the will of the people, and deliver our country into the hands of rapacious class interests. All laws that under the guise of regulation legalize and protect this traffic or make the Government share in its ill-gotten gains are "vicious in principle and powerless as a remedy." We declare anew for the entire suppression of the manufacture, sale, importation, exportation and transportation of alcoholic liquors as a beverage by Federal and State legislation, and the full powers of the Government should be exerted to secure this result. Any party that fails to recognize the dominant nature of this issue in American politics is undeserving of the support of the people.

Woman Suffrage.—No citizen should be denied the right to vote on account of sex, and equal labor should receive equal wages without regard to sex.

Increased Issue of Money.—The money of the country should consist of gold, silver, and paper, and should be issued by the General Government only, and in sufficient quantities to meet the demands of business and give full opportunity for the employment of labor. To this end an increase in the volume of money is demanded, and no individual or corporation should be allowed to make any profit through its issue. It should be made a legal tender for the payment of all debts, public and private. Its volume should be fixed at a definite sum per capita and made to increase with our increase in population.

The Tariff.—Tariff should be levied only as a defence against foreign governments which levy tariff upon or bar out our products from their markets, revenue being incidental. The residue of means necessary to an economical administration of the Government should be raised by levying a burden on what the people possess instead of what they consume.

Government Control of Transportation and Telegraphs.—Railroad, telegraph, and other public corporations should be controlled by the Government in the interest of the people, and no higher charges allowed than necessary to give fair interest on the capital actually invested.

Foreign Immigration.—Foreign immigration has become a burden upon industry, one of the factors in depressing wages and causing discontent; therefore our immigration laws should be revised and strictly enforced. The time of residence for naturalization should be extended, and no naturalized person should be allowed to vote until one year after he becomes a citizen.

Alien Ownership of Land.—Non-resident aliens should not be allowed to acquire land in this country, and we favor the limitation of individual and corporate ownership of land. All unearned grants of land to railroad companies or other corporations should be reclaimed.

Lynch Law.—Years of inaction and treachery on the part of the Republican and Democratic parties have resulted in the present reign of mob law, and we demand that every citizen be protected in the right of trial by constitutional tribunals.

The Sabbath.—All men should be protected by law in their right to one day's rest in seven.

Arbitration in Labor Differences.—Arbitration is the wisest and most economical and humane method of settling national differences.

Speculation and Trusts.—Speculation in margins, the cornering of grain, money and products, and the formation of pools, trusts, and combinations for the arbitrary advancement of prices should be suppressed.

Soldiers' Pensions.—We pledge that the Prohibition Party, if elected to power, will ever grant just pensions to disabled veterans of the Union army and navy, their widows and orphans.

Public Schools.—We stand unequivocally for the American Public School, and opposed to any appropriation of public moneys for sectarian schools. We declare that only by united support of such common schools, taught in the English language, can we hope to become and remain a homogeneous and harmonious people.

Arraignment of Other Political Parties.—We arraign the Republican and Democratic Parties as false to the standards reared by their founders; as faithless to the principles of the illustrious leaders of the past to whom they do homage with the lips; as recreant to the "higher law," which is as inflexible in political affairs as in personal life; and as no longer embodying the aspirations of the American people or inviting the confidence of enlightened progressive patriotism. Their protest against the admission of "moral issues" into politics is a confession of their own moral degeneracy. The declaration of an eminent authority that municipal misrule is "the one conspicuous failure of American politics" follows as a natural consequence of such degeneracy, and is true alike of cities under Republican and Democratic control. Each accuses the other of extravagance in congressional appropriations, and both are alike guilty; each protests when out of power against the infraction of the civil-service laws, and each when in power violates those laws in letter and spirit; each professes fealty to the interests of the toiling masses, but both covertly truckle to the money power in their administration of public affairs. Even the tariff issue, as represented in the Democratic Mills bill and the Republican McKinley bill, is no longer treated by them as an issue upon great and divergent principles of government, but is a mere catering to different sectional and class interests. The attempt in many States to wrest the Australian ballot system from its true purpose, and to so deform it as to render it extremely difficult for new parties to exercise the right of suffrage, is an outrage upon popular government. The competition of both the parties for the vote of the slums, and their assiduous courting of the liquor power and subserviency to the money power, has resulted in placing those powers in the position of practical arbiters of the destinies of the nation. We renew our protests against these perilous tendencies, and invite all citizens to join us in the upbuilding of a party that has shown in five national campaigns that it prefers temporary defeat to an abandonment of the claims of justice, sobriety, personal rights and the protection of American homes.

Invitation to Party Fellowship.—Recognizing and declaring that prohibition of the liquor traffic has become the dominant issue in national politics, we invite to full party fellowship all those who on this one dominant issue are with us agreed, in the full belief that this party can and will remove sectional differences, promote national unity, and insure the best welfare of our entire land.

The World's Fair.—Resolved, That we favor a liberal appropriation by the Federal Government for the World's Columbian Exposition, but only on the condition that the sale of intoxicating drinks upon the Exposition grounds is prohibited, and that the Exposition be kept closed on Sunday.

NATIONAL PEOPLE'S PARTY PLATFORM, ADOPTED AT OMAHA, NEB., JULY 4, 1892.

Assembled upon the 116th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, the People's Party of America, in their first national convention, invoking upon their action the blessing of Almighty God, put forth in the name and on behalf of the people of this country, the following preamble and declaration of principles:

PREAMBLE.

The conditions which surround us best justify our co-operation; we meet in the midst of a nation brought to the verge of moral, political, and material ruin. Corruption dominates the ballot-box, the Legislatures, the Congress, and touches even the ermine of the bench. The people are demoralized; most of the States have been compelled to isolate the voters at the polling places to prevent universal intimidation and bribery. The newspapers are largely subsidized or muzzled, public opinion silenced, business prostrated, homes covered with mortgages, labor impoverished, and the land concentrating in the hands of capitalists. The urban workmen are denied the right to organize for self-protection, imported pauperized labor beats down their wages, a hireling standing army, unrecognized by our laws, is established to shoot them down, and they are rapidly degenerating into European conditions. The fruits of the toil of millions are boldly stolen to build up colossal fortunes for a few, unprecedented in the history of mankind; and the possessors of those, in turn, despise the Republic and endanger liberty. From the same prolific womb of governmental injustice we breed the two great classes—tramps and millionaires.

The national power to create money is appropriated to enrich bondholders; a vast public debt payable in legal tender currency has been funded into gold-bearing bonds, thereby adding millions to the burdens of the people.

Silver, which has been accepted as coin since the dawn of history, has been demonetized to add to the purchasing power of gold by decreasing the value of all forms of property as well as human labor, and the supply of currency is purposely abridged to fatten usurers, bankrupt enterprise, and enslave industry. A vast conspiracy against mankind has been organized on two continents, and it is rapidly taking possession of the world. If not met and overthrown at once it forebodes terrible social convulsions, the destruction of civilization, or the establishment of an absolute despotism.

We have witnessed for more than a quarter of a century the struggles of the two great political parties for power and plunder, while grievous wrongs have been inflicted upon the suffering people. We charge that the controlling influences dominating both these parties have permitted the existing dreadful conditions to develop without serious effort to prevent or restrain them. Neither do they now promise us any substantial reform. They have agreed together to ignore, in the coming campaign, every issue but one. They propose to drown the outcries of a plundered people with the uproar of a sham battle over the tariff, so that capitalists, corporations, national banks, rings, trusts, watered stock, the demonetization of silver and the oppressions of the usurers may all be lost sight of. They propose to sacrifice our homes, lives, and children on the altar of mammon; to destroy the multitude in order to secure corruption funds from the millionaires.

Assembled on the anniversary of the birthday of the nation, and filled with the spirit of the grand general and chief who established our independence, we seek to restore the government of the Republic to the hands of "the plain people," with which class it originated. We assert our purposes to be identical with the purposes of the National Constitution; to form a more perfect union and establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty for ourselves and our posterity.

We declare that this Republic can only endure as a free government while built upon the love of the whole people for each other and for the nation; that it cannot be pinned together by bayonets; that the civil war is over, and that every passion and resentment which grew out of it must die with it, and that we must be in fact, as we are in name, one united brotherhood of free men.

Our country finds itself confronted by conditions for which there is no precedent in the history of the world; our annual agricultural productions amount to billions of dollars in value, which must, within a few weeks or months, be exchanged for billions of dollars' worth of commodities consumed in their production; the existing currency supply is wholly inadequate to make this exchange; the results are falling prices, the formation of combines and rings, the impoverishment of the producing class. We pledge ourselves that if given power we will labor to correct these evils by wise and reasonable legislation, in accordance with the terms of our platform.

We believe that the power of government—in other words, of the people—should be expanded (as in the case of the postal service) as rapidly and as far as the good sense of an intelligent people and the teachings of experience shall justify, to the end that oppression, injustice, and poverty shall eventually cease in the land.

While our sympathies as a party of reform are naturally upon the side of every proposition which will tend to make men intelligent, virtuous, and temperate, we nevertheless regard these questions, important as they are, as secondary to the great issues now pressing for solution, and upon which not only our individual prosperity but the very existence of free institutions depend; and we ask all men to first help us to determine whether we are to have a republic to administer before we differ as to the conditions upon which it is to be administered, believing that the forces of reform this day organized will never cease to move forward until every wrong is remedied and equal rights and equal privileges securely established for all the men and women of this country.

PLATFORM.

We declare, therefore—

First.—That the union of the labor forces of the United States this day consummated shall be permanent and perpetual; may its spirit enter into all hearts for the salvation of the Republic and the uplifting of mankind.

Second.—Wealth belongs to him who creates it, and every dollar taken from industry without an equivalent is robbery. "If any will not work, neither shall he eat." The interests of rural and civic labor are the same; their enemies are identical.

Third.—We believe that the time has come when the railroad corporations will either own the people or the people must own the railroads, and should the government enter upon the work of owning and managing all railroads, we should favor an amendment to the Constitution by which all persons engaged in the government service shall be placed under a civil-service regulation of the most rigid character, so as to prevent the increase of the power of the national administration by the use of such additional government employés.

Finance.—We demand a national currency, safe, sound, and flexible, issued by the general government only, a full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and that without the use of banking corporations, a just, equitable, and efficient means of distribution direct to the people, at a tax not to exceed 2 per cent. per annum, to be provided as set forth in the sub-treasury plan of the Farmers' Alliance, or a better system; also by payments in discharge of its obligations for public improvements.

1. We demand free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1.
2. We demand that the amount of circulating medium be speedily increased to not less than $50 per capita.
3. We demand a graduated income tax.
4. We believe that the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand that all State and national revenues shall be limited to the necessary expenses of the government, economically and honestly administered.
5. We demand that postal savings banks be established by the government for the safe deposit of the earnings of the people and to facilitate exchange.

Transportation.—Transportation being a means of exchange and a public necessity, the government should own and operate the railroads in the interest of the people. The telegraph, telephone, like the post-office system, being a necessity for the transmission of news, should be owned and operated by the government in the interest of the people.

Land.—The land, including all the natural sources of wealth, is the heritage of the people, and should not be monopolized for speculative purposes, and alien ownership of land should be prohibited. All land now held by railroads and other corporations in excess of their actual needs, and all lands now owned by aliens should be reclaimed by the government and held for actual settlers only.

EXPRESSION OF SENTIMENTS.

Your Committee on Platform and Resolutions beg leave unanimously to report the following:

Whereas, Other questions have been presented for our consideration, we hereby submit the following, not as a part of the Platform of the People's Party, but as resolutions expressive of the sentiment of this Convention:

1. Resolved, That we demand a free ballot and a fair count in all elections, and pledge ourselves to secure it to every legal voter without Federal intervention, through the adoption by the States of the unperverted Australian or secret ballot system.
2. Resolved, That the revenue derived from a graduated income tax should be applied to the reduction of the burden of taxation now levied upon the domestic industries of this country.
3. Resolved, That we pledge our support to fair and liberal pensions to ex-Union soldiers and sailors.
4. Resolved, That we condemn the fallacy of protecting American labor under the present system, which opens our ports to the pauper and criminal classes of the world and crowds out our wage-earners; and we denounce the present ineffective laws against contract labor, and demand the further restriction of undesirable emigration.
5. Resolved, That we cordially sympathize with the efforts of organized workingmen to shorten the hours of labor, and demand a rigid enforcement of the existing eight-hour law on Government work, and ask that a penalty clause be added to the said law.
6. Resolved, That we regard the maintenance of a large standing army of mercenaries, known as the Pinkerton system, as a menace to our liberties, and we demand its abolition; and we condemn the recent invasion of the Territory of Wyoming by the hired assassins of plutocracy, assisted by Federal officers.

7. Resolved, That we commend to the favorable consideration of the people and the reform press the legislative system known as the initiative and referendum.

8. Resolved, That we favor a constitutional provision limiting the office of President and Vice-President to one term, and providing for the election of Senators of the United States by a direct vote of the people.

9. Resolved, That we oppose any subsidy or national aid to any private corporation for any purpose.

10. Resolved, That this convention sympathizes with the Knights of Labor and their righteous contest with the tyrannical combine of clothing manufacturers of Rochester, and declare it to be the duty of all who hate tyranny and oppression to refuse to purchase the goods made by the said manufacturers, or to patronize any merchants who sell such goods.

SOCIALISTIC LABOR PARTY PLATFORM, ADOPTED AT CHICAGO, ILL., OCTOBER 12, 1889.*

The Socialist Labor Party of the United States, in convention assembled, reasserts the inalienable right of all men to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

With the founders of the American republic we hold that the purpose of government is to secure every citizen in the enjoyment of this right; but in the light of our social conditions we hold, furthermore, that no such right can be exercised under a system of economic inequality, essentially destructive of life, of liberty, and of happiness.

With the founders of this republic we hold that the true theory of politics is that the machinery of government must be owned and controlled by the whole people; but in the light of our industrial development we hold, furthermore, that the true theory of economics is that the machinery of production must likewise belong to the people in common.

To the obvious fact that our despotic system of economics is the direct opposite of our democratic system of politics, can plainly be traced the existence of a privileged class, the corruption of government by that class, the alienation of public property, public franchises and public functions to that class, and the abject dependence of the mightiest of nations upon that class. Again, through the perversion of democracy to the ends of plutocracy, labor is robbed of the wealth which it alone produces, is denied the means of self-employment, and, by compulsory idleness in wage-slavery, is even deprived of the necessaries of life. Human power and natural forces are thus wasted, that the plutocracy may rule. Ignorance and misery, with all their concomitant evils, are perpetuated, that the people may be kept in bondage. Science and invention are diverted from their humane purpose to the enslavement of women and children.

Against such a system the Socialistic Labor Party once more enters its protest. Once more it reiterates its fundamental declaration, that private property in the natural sources of production and in the instruments of labor is the obvious cause of all economic servitude and political dependence; and

Whereas, the time is fast coming when, in the natural course of social evolution, this system, through the destructive action of its failures and crises, on the one hand, and the constructive tendencies of its trusts and other capitalistic combinations, on the other hand, shall have worked out its own downfall; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we call upon the people to organize with a view to the substitution of the co-operative commonwealth for the present state of planless production, industrial war, and social disorder—a commonwealth in which every worker shall have the free exercise and full benefit of his faculties, multiplied by all the modern factors of civilization. We call upon them to unite with us in a mighty effort to gain by all practicable means the political power.

In the mean time, and with a view to immediate improvement in the condition of labor, we present the following "Demands:"

SOCIAL DEMANDS.

1. Reduction of the hours of labor in proportion to the progress of production.
2. The United States shall obtain possession of the railroads, canals, telegraphs, telephones, and all other means of public transportation and communication.
3. The municipalities to obtain possession of the local railroads, ferries, water-works, gas-works, electric plants, and all industries requiring municipal franchises.
4. The public lands to be declared inalienable. Revocation of all land grants to corporations or individuals, the conditions of which have not been complied with.
5. Legal incorporation by the States of local Trade Unions which have no national organization.
6. The United States to have the exclusive right to issue money.
7. Congressional legislation providing for the scientific management of forests and waterways, and prohibiting the waste of the natural resources of the country.
8. Inventions to be free to all; the inventors to be remunerated by the nation.
9. Progressive income tax and tax on inheritances; the smaller incomes to be exempt.
10. School education of all children under fourteen years of age to be compulsory, gratuitous, and accessible to all by public assistance in meals, clothing, books, etc., where necessary.
11. Repeal of all pauper, tramp, conspiracy, and sumptuary laws. Unabridged right of combination.
12. Official statistics concerning the condition of labor. Prohibition f the employment of children of school age and of the employment of female labor in occupations detrimental to health or morality. Abolition of the convict labor contract system.
13. All wages to be paid in lawful money of the United States. Equalization of women's wages with those of men where equal service is performed.
14. Laws for the protection of life and limb in all occupations, and an efficient employers' liability law

POLITICAL DEMANDS.

1. The people to have the right to propose laws and to vote upon all measures of importance, according to the Referendum principle.
2. Abolition of the Presidency, Vice-Presidency, and Senate of the United States. An Executive Board to be established, whose members are to be elected, and may at any time be recalled, by the House of Representatives as the only legislative body. The States and Municipalities to adopt corresponding amendments to their constitutions and statutes.
3. Municipal self-government.
4. Direct vote and secret ballots in all elections. Universal and equal right of suffrage, without regard to color, creed, or sex. Election days to be legal holidays. The principle of minority representation to be introduced.
5. All public officers to be subject to recall by their respective constituencies.
6. Uniform civil and criminal law throughout the United States. Administration of justice to be free of charge. Abolition of capital punishment.

* This platform, adopted by the Socialistic Labor Party in 1889, continued in force as a statement of the principles of the party, in the Presidential contest of 1892, and upon it the party candidates—Simon Wing, of Massachusetts, for President, and Charles H. Matchett, of New-York, for Vice-President—were voted for.

A few of these Unions are not yet formally affiliated with the Federation of Labor, yet all are united by virtue of a common polity, and are agreed in according the Federation the hegemony of the labor movement.

At the annual convention of the Knights of Labor at St. Louis, Mo., in November, 1892, a membership of 200,000 was reported, but no exact figures were given.

Labor Legislation.

EIGHT-HOUR LAWS.

Alabama.—Eight hours of labor constitute a day's work for a woman or a child under eighteen (18) years of age in a mechanical or manufacturing business.

California.—Eight hours of labor constitute a day's work, unless it is otherwise expressly stipulated by the parties to a contract. A stipulation that eight-hours' labor constitutes a day's work must be made a part of all contracts to which the State or any municipal corporation therein is a party. But in the case of drivers, conductors, and grip-men of street-cars for the carriage of passengers, a day's work consists of twelve hours. It is a misdemeanor for any person having a minor child under his control, either as ward or apprentice, to require such child to labor more than eight hours in any one day, except in vinicultural or horticultural pursuits, or in domestic or household occupations.

Connecticut.—Eight hours of labor constitute a lawful day's work, unless otherwise agreed.

Idaho.—Eight hours' actual work constitutes a lawful day's work on all State and municipal works.

Illinois.—Eight hours are a legal day's work in all mechanical employments, except on farms, and when otherwise agreed; does not apply to service by the day, week, or month, or prevent contracts for longer hours.

Indiana.—Eight hours of labor constitute a legal day's work for all classes of mechanics, workingmen, and laborers, excepting those engaged in agricultural and domestic labor. Overwork by agreement and for extra compensation is permitted.

Missouri.—Eight hours constitute a day's work, unless otherwise expressly stipulated by the parties to a contract. This does not apply to persons employed by the month, or to agricultural laborers or farm hands.

New-Mexico.—Eight hours of labor actually performed upon a mining claim constitute a day's work, the value of the same being fixed at four dollars.

New-York.—Eight hours constitute a day's work for mechanics, workingmen, and laborers, except in farm or domestic labor, but overwork for extra pay is permitted. The law applies to those employed by the State or municipality, or by persons contracting for State work.

Ohio.—Eight hours shall constitute a day's work in all engagements to labor in any mechanical, manufacturing, or mining business, unless otherwise expressly stipulated in the contract. But in case of conductors, engineers, firemen, brakemen, or trainmen of railroads, a day's work consists of ten hours.

Pennsylvania.—Eight hours, between rising and setting of sun, constitute a day's work in the absence of an agreement for longer time. The law does not apply to farm labor or to service by the year, month, etc.; but in case of employés of street railway companies a day's work consists of twelve hours.

Wisconsin.—In all engagements to labor in any manufacturing or mechanical business, where there is no express contract to the contrary, a day's work shall consist of eight hours; but the law does not apply to contracts for labor by the week, month, or year. In all manufactories, workshops, or other places used for mechanical or manufacturing purposes, the time of labor of children under the age of eighteen, and of women employed therein, shall not exceed eight hours in one day.

Wyoming.—Eight hours' actual work constitute a legal day's work in all mines and public works.

United States.—Eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics who may be employed by or on behalf of the United States.

ANTI-BOYCOTTING AND ANTI-BLACKLISTING LAWS.

The following States have laws which may be fairly construed as prohibiting boycotting: Alabama, Connecticut, Georgia, Indiana, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, New-Hampshire, New-York, North-Dakota, Oregon, Rhode-Island, South-Dakota, Texas, and Vermont.

The following States have laws which may be fairly construed as prohibiting blacklisting: Georgia, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, New-Hampshire, New-York, Oregon, Rhode-Island, South-Dakota, and Texas.

In New-York it is a misdemeanor for any employer to exact an agreement, either written or verbal, from an employé not to join or become a member of any labor organization, as a condition of employment.

THE WORLD ALMANAC is indebted to Commissioner Wright, of the U. S. Department of Labor, for the summary of eight hours, anti-boycotting and anti-blacklisting laws, and the following table.

Naturalization Laws of the United States.

THE conditions under and the manner in which an alien may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States are prescribed by Sections 2165–74 of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

DECLARATION OF INTENTION.

The alien must declare upon oath before a circuit or district court of the United States, or a district or supreme court of the Territories, or a court of record of any of the States having common law jurisdiction, and a seal and clerk, two years at least prior to his admission, that it is, bona fide, his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince or State, and particularly to the one of which he may be at the time a citizen or subject.

OATH ON APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION.

He must at the time of his application to be admitted declare on oath, before some one of the courts above specified, "that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he absolutely and entirely renounces and abjures all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, State, or sovereignty, and particularly, by name, to the prince, potentate, State, or sovereignty of which he was before a citizen or subject," which proceedings must be recorded by the clerk of the court.

CONDITIONS FOR CITIZENSHIP.

If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court to which the alien has applied that he has resided continuously within the United States for at least five years, and within the State or Territory where such court is at the time held one year at least; and that during that time "he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same," he will be admitted to citizenship.

TITLES OF NOBILITY.

If the applicant has borne any hereditary title or order of nobility, he must make an express renunciation of the same at the time of his application.

SOLDIERS.

Any alien of the age of twenty-one years and upward who has been in the armies of the United States, and has been honorably discharged therefrom, may become a citizen on his petition, without any previous declaration of intention, provided that he has resided in the United States at least one year previous to his application, and is of good moral character. (It is judicially decided that residence of one year in a particular State is not requisite.)

MINORS.

Any alien under the age of twenty-one years who has resided in the United States three years next preceding his arriving at that age, and who has continued to reside therein to the time he may make application to be admitted a citizen thereof, may, after he arrives at the age of twenty-one years, and after he has resided five years within the United States, including the three years of his minority, be admitted a citizen; but he must make a declaration on oath and prove to the satisfaction of the court that for two years next preceding it has been his bona fide intention to become a citizen.

CHILDREN OF NATURALIZED CITIZENS.

The children of persons who have been duly naturalized, being under the age of twenty-one years at the time of the naturalization of their parents, shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered as citizens thereof.

CITIZENS' CHILDREN WHO ARE BORN ABROAD.

The children of persons who now are or have been citizens of the United States are, though born out of the limits and jurisdiction of the United States, considered as citizens thereof.

CHINESE.

PROTECTION ABROAD TO NATURALIZED CITIZENS.

Section 2000 of the Revised Statutes of the United States declares that "all naturalized citizens of the United States while in foreign countries are entitled to and shall receive from this Government the same protection of persons and property which is accorded to native-born citizens."

THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.

The right to vote comes from the State, and is a State Gift. Naturalization is a Federal right, and is a gift of the Union, not of any one State. In nearly one half the Union aliens (who have declared intentions) vote and have the right to vote equally with naturalized or native-born citizens. In the other half only actual citizens may vote. (See Table of Qualifications for Voting in each State, on another page.) The Federal naturalization laws apply to the whole Union alike, and provide that no alien may be naturalized until after five years' residence. Even after five years' residence and due naturalization he is not entitled to vote unless the laws of the State confer the privilege upon him, and he may vote in several States six months after landing, if he has declared his intention, under United States law, to become a citizen.

Passport Regulations.

PASSPORTS are issued only to citizens of the United States, upon application, supported by proof of citizenship. Citizenship is acquired by birth, by naturalization, and by annexation of territory. An alien woman who marries a citizen of the United States thereby becomes a citizen. Minor children resident in the United States become citizens by the naturalization of their father.

When the applicant is a native citizen of the United States he must transmit his own affidavit of this fact, stating his age and place of birth, with the certificate of one other citizen of the United States to whom he is personally known, stating that the declaration made by the applicant is true. The affidavit must be attested by a notary public, under his signature and seal of office. When there is no notary in the place the affidavit may be made before a justice of the peace or other officer authorized to administer oaths; but if he has no seal, his official act must be authenticated by certificate of a court of record.

A person born abroad who claims that his father was a native citizen of the United States must state in his affidavit that his father was born in the United States, has resided therein, and was a citizen of the same at the time of the applicant's birth. This affidavit must be supported by that of one other citizen acquainted with the facts.

NATURALIZED CITIZENS.

If the applicant be a naturalized citizen, his certificate of naturalization must be transmitted for inspection (it will be returned with the passport), and he must state in his affidavit that he is the identical person described in the certificate presented. Passports cannot be issued to aliens who have only declared their intention to become citizens.

Military service does not of itself confer citizenship. A person of alien birth, who has been honorably discharged from military service in the United States, but who has not been naturalized, should not transmit his discharge paper in application for a passport, but should apply to the proper court for admission to citizenship, and transmit the certificate of naturalization so obtained. The signature to the application and oath of allegiance should conform in orthography to the applicant's name as written in the naturalization paper, which the department follows.

Every applicant is required to state his occupation and the place of his permanent legal residence, and to declare that he goes abroad for temporary sojourn and intends to return to the United States with the purpose of residing and performing the duties of citizenship therein.

The wife or widow of a naturalized citizen must transmit the naturalization certificate of the husband, stating in her affidavit that she is the wife or widow of the person described therein. The children of a naturalized citizen, claiming citizenship through the father, must transmit the certificate of naturalization of the father, stating in their affidavits that they are children of the person described therein, and were minors at the time of such naturalization.

The oath of allegiance to the United States will be required in all cases.

APPLICATIONS.

The application should be accompanied by a description of the person, stating the following particulars, viz.: Age: —— years. Stature: —— feet, —— inches (English measure). Forehead: —— Eyes: ——. Nose: ——. Mouth: ——. Chin: ——. Hair: ——. Complexion: ——. Face ——.

If the applicant is to be accompanied by his wife, minor children, or servants, it will be sufficient to state the names and ages of such persons and their relationship to the applicant, when a single passport for the whole will suffice. For any other person in the party a separate passport will be required. A woman's passport may include her minor children and servants.

FEE REQUIRED.

By act of Congress approved March 23, 1888, a fee of one dollar is required to be collected for every citizen's passport. That amount in currency or postal note should accompany each application. Orders should be payable to the Disbursing Clerk of the Department of State. Drafts or checks are inconvenient and undesirable.

A passport is good for two years from its date and no longer. A new one may be obtained by stating the date and number of the old one, paying the fee of one dollar, and furnishing satisfactory evidence that the applicant is at the time within the United States. The oath of allegiance must also be transmitted when the former passport was issued prior to 1861.

Citizens of the United States desiring to obtain passports while in a foreign country must apply to the chief diplomatic representative of the United States in that country, or, in the absence of a diplomatic representative, then to the consul-general, if there be one, or in the absence of both the officers last named, to a consul. Passports cannot be lawfully issued by State authorities, or by judicial or municipal functionaries of the United States. (Revised Statutes, section 4075.)

To persons wishing to obtain passports for themselves blank forms of application will be furnished by this Department on request, stating whether the applicant be a native or a naturalized citizen, or claims citizenship through the naturalization of husband or parent. Forms are not furnished, except as samples, to those who make a business of procuring passports.

Communications should be addressed to the Department of State, indorsed "Passport Division," and each communication should give the post-office address of the person to whom the answer is to be directed. Professional titles will not be inserted in passports.

Persons applying for blank forms for passports should state whether the forms are required for native or naturalized citizens, as there are several forms, each different, to meet the case required, and it will often save time and trouble if this caution be observed.

Qualifications for Voting in Each State of the Union.

(Communicated to THE WORLD ALMANAC and corrected to date by the Attorneys-General of the respective States.)

IN all the States except Wyoming the right to vote at general elections is restricted to males of 21 years of age and upward. Women are entitled to vote at school elections in several States. They are entitled by local law to full suffrage in the State of Wyoming. (See article entitled "Woman Suffrage.")

Requirements Regarding the Registration of Voters.

THE registration of voters is required in the States of Alabama, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Idaho, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Mississippi, Nevada, New-Hampshire, New-Jersey, North-Carolina, Pennsylvania, South-Carolina, Vermont, Virginia, and Wyoming, and the territories of Arizona, New-Mexico, and Utah.

In Georgia registration is required in most counties by local law, and in South-Dakota in a few counties.

In Maine and Kentucky registration is required in cities, in Kansas in cities of the first and second class, in Iowa and Nebraska in cities of and over 2,500 inhabitants, in North-Dakota in cities of over 3,000 inhabitants, and in Ohio in cities of not less than 9,000 inhabitants.

In Illinois registration is required in Chicago and East St. Louis. Elsewhere a voter not registered may swear in his vote.

In Missouri it is required in cities of 100,000 inhabitants, and in Wisconsin in cities having 3,000 inhabitants and over. In New-York it is required in all cities and in all incorporated villages of over 7,000 inhabitants. In Rhode-Island non-taxpayers are required to register yearly before December 31. In Texas, cities of 10,000 or over may require registration.

The registration of voters is not required in the States of Delaware, Indiana, Kentucky, Oregon, South-Dakota, and Tennessee. It is prohibited in Arkansas and West-Virginia by constitutional provision.

Woman Suffrage.

THE following is a statement of the Woman Suffrage movement, corrected to January 1, 1893.

Wyoming.—Women have voted on the same terms with men since 1870. The convention in 1889 to form a State Constitution unanimously inserted a provision securing them suffrage. This Constitution was ratified by the voters at a special election by about three-fourths majority. Congress admitted the State July 10, 1890.

Washington.—Women voted in the Territory for five years, till excluded by a decision of the Territorial Supreme Court, which court was not elected by the people nor responsible to them. In adopting a State Constitution, the question of allowing women to vote was submitted separately to vote of the men. It was not carried. Many women claim that they were illegally excluded, and are seeking to regain suffrage.

Kansas.—Women have suffrage in all municipal elections. About 60,000 voted last year.

Utah.—Women voted in this Territory until excluded by the Edmunds law. They have organized in large numbers to demand the repeal of this law. The State Constitution of 1884 gave suffrage to women.

School suffrage exists, on various terms, in Arizona, Colorado, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New-Hampshire, New-Jersey, New-York, North-Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South-Dakota, Texas, Vermont, Washington, and Wisconsin. Women can vote for trustees of the State University in Illinois and for county superintendents in Minnesota.

Montana.—The State Constitution guarantees women the power to vote on local taxation.

New-York.—Women can vote at waterworks elections, and on questions of local improvements; also for Assembly District School Commissioners in the rural districts once in three years.

Pennsylvania.—Women vote on local improvements, by signing or refusing to sign petitions.

New-Jersey.—Women can vote at elections for sewers and other improvements.

Southern States.—Delaware has municipal woman suffrage in Wilmington and many other places. Louisiana admits women to vote on the question of running railroads through parishes, Tennessee on incorporation of cities and annexation thereto, Mississippi on fence questions under the stock law, Arkansas and Missouri by signing or refusing to sign petitions on liquor license. Kentucky, widows whose children attend school vote. Texas women in many counties vote by signing or refusing to sign petitions for school officers.

Thirty-two States and Territories—a majority of the Union—have given women some form of suffrage.

Canada.—Women have municipal suffrage in every province, including the Northwest Territories. In Ontario they vote for all elective officers but members of the Legislature and Parliament.

Europe.—In England, Scotland, and Wales single and widowed women vote for all elective officers but one (member of Parliament) on like terms with men. The number of these voters is estimated at 2,000,000.

In Ireland women have municipal suffrage in Belfast; they vote for harbor boards in the seaports, and for poor-law guardians everywhere.

In France the women teachers elect members to sit in the "Department Councils of Instruction."

In Sweden their suffrage is about the same as in England; and they vote, too, indirectly for members of the House of Lords. In Norway they have school suffrage.

In Russia women, heads of households, vote for all elective officers and on all local questions.

In Austria they vote (by proxy) at elections for members of provincial and imperial Parliaments. In Hungary and all Austrian provinces they vote at local elections in person.

In Belgium and Luxembourg widows have municipal suffrage.

Asia.—In British Burmah women taxpayers vote in the rural tracts.

In the Madras Presidency and the Bombay Presidency (Hindustan) they can do so in all municipalities.

The Russians are colonizing all their vast Asian possessions, and carry everywhere the "mir" or self-governing village, wherein women, heads of households, vote.

Africa.—Women have municipal suffrage in Cape Colony, which covers 1,000,000 square miles.

Australasia.—Municipal woman suffrage exists in New-Zealand, and the Legislature has declared that women shall vote for members of Parliament. Municipal suffrage exists in every province of Australia. The Parliament of South-Australia has declared for women voting at Parliamentary elections also.

Islands.—Iceland, in the North-Atlantic, the Isle of Man, between England and Ireland, Jersey, between England and France, and Pitcairn Island, in the South Pacific, have full woman suffrage. Tasmania, Sicily, Sardinia, Corsica, nearly 300 islands around Britain, the islands around Australia, Tasmania, and New-Zealand, and a number of islands elsewhere have various degrees of partial woman suffrage.

The New-York State Assembly passed, April 15, 1892, by 71 votes to 34, a bill urged since 1880, by Hamilton Willcox, fully enfranchising the women of the State. The majority of the Senate agreed to pass the bill, but the minority prevented a vote being taken.

This information respecting woman suffrage is furnished to THE WORLD ALMANAC by Mr. Hamilton Willcox, of New-York, author of "Freedom's Conquests; the Great Spread of Woman Suffrage through the World," and Chairman of the New-York State Executive Committee of the Woman Suffrage Party.

United States Civil Service Rules.

(Revised for this issue of THE WORLD ALMANAC by the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission.)

THE purpose of the Civil Service Act, as declared in its title, is "to regulate and improve the civil service of the United States." It provides for the appointment of three Commissioners, a Chief Examiner, a Secretary, and other employés, and makes it the duty of the Commission to aid the President as he may request in preparing suitable rules for carrying the act into effect; to make regulations for and control the examinations provided for, and supervise and control the records of the same; and to make investigations and report upon all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the rules and regulations. The address of the Commission is Washington, D. C. The president of the Commission is Charles Lyman; the secretary is John T. Doyle.

The service classified under the act, and to which it and the rules apply, embraces the Executive Departments at Washington, the Department of Labor, the Fish Commission, and the Civil Service Commission, the customs districts in each of which there are fifty or more employés, eleven in number, the post-offices in each of which there are fifty or more employés, now fifty-two, the Railway Mail Service, and the Indian School Service, including altogether about thirty-four thousand places.

The Classified Departmental Service embraces all places in the departments at Washington, excepting messengers, laborers, workmen, and watchmen (not including any person designated as a skilled laborer or workman), and no person so employed can, without examination under the rules, be assigned to clerical duty, and also excepting those appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Classified Customs Service embraces the customs districts where the officials are as many as fifty, including the places giving $900 a year, and all those giving a larger salary where the appointee is not subject to confirmation by the Senate. The Classified Postal Service embraces the post-offices where the officials are as many as fifty, including all places above the grade of a laborer. The Classified Railway Mail Service embraces all employés of the Railway Mail Service. The Classified Indian Service embraces all physicians, school superintendents and assistant superintendents, school-teachers and matrons in the Indian Service.

For places in the Classified Service, where technical qualifications are needed, special examinations are held. In the Departmental Service they are held for the State Department, the Pension, Patent, and Signal offices, Geological and Coast Surveys, and other offices.

APPLICATIONS.

Applicants for examination must be citizens of the United States of the proper age. No person habitually using intoxicating liquors can be appointed. No discrimination is made on account of sex, color, or political or religious opinions. The limitations of age are: For the Departmental Service, not under twenty years; in the Customs Service, not under twenty-one years, except clerks or messengers, who must not be under twenty years; in the Postal Service, not under eighteen years, except messengers, stampers, and other junior assistants, who must not be under sixteen or over forty-five years, and carriers, who must not be under twenty-one or over forty; and in the Railway Mail Service not under eighteen or over thirty-five years. The age limitations do not apply to any person honorably discharged from the military or naval service of the United States by reason of disability resulting from wounds or sickness incurred in the line of duty. Such persons are preferred in appointments under §1754, R. S., and certified to appointing officers before all others of higher grade.

Every one seeking to be examined must first file an application blank. The blank for the Departmental, Railway Mail, or Indian School Service should be requested directly of the Civil Service Commission, at Washington. The blank for the Customs or Postal Service must be requested in writing by the persons desiring examination of the Customs or Postal Board of Examiners at the office where service is sought. These papers should be returned to the officers from whom they emanated.

EXAMINATIONS.

The applicants to enter the services designated are examined as to their relative capacity and fitness. The clerk examination is used only in the Customs and Departmental Services for clerkships of $1,000 and upward, requiring no peculiar information or skill. It is limited to the following subjects: First, orthography, penmanship, and copying; second, arithmetic—fundamental rules, fractions, and percentage; third, interest and discount; fourth, elements of the English language, letter-writing, and the proper construction of sentences. For places in which a lower degree of education suffices, as for employés in post-offices, and those below the grade of clerks in custom-houses and in the departments at Washington, the Commission limits the examination to less than these four subjects, omitting the third and parts of the fourth subject. No one is certified for appointment whose standing in the examination is less than 70 per centum of complete proficiency, except that applicants claiming military or naval preference under §1754, R. S., need obtain but sixty-five.

The law also prescribes competitive examinations to test the fitness of persons in the service, for promotion therein.

The Commission gives a certificate to the person examined stating whether he passed or failed to pass.

APPOINTMENTS.

When there is a vacancy to be filled, the appointing officer applies to the Commission or proper examining board, and it reports to him the names of the three persons of the sex called for graded highest on the proper register of those in his branch of the service and remaining eligible, and from the three a selection must be made. In the Departmental Service appointments are apportioned among the States on the basis of population.

Every appointment is made for a probationary period of six months, at the end of which time, if the conduct and capacity of the person appointed have been found satisfactory, the appointment is made absolute.

There is a constant demand for men stenographers and typewriters. The number of women applying for clerical places is greatly in excess of the needs of the service.

EXCEPTIONS FROM EXAMINATIONS.

The following are excepted from examination for appointment: Confidential clerks of heads of departments or offices, cashiers of collectors and postmasters, superintendents of money-order divisions in post-offices, custodians of money for whose fidelity another officer is under bond, disbursing officers who give bonds, persons in the secret service, deputy collectors and superintendents and chiefs of divisions or bureaus, and a few others.

Intending applicants for admission to the Civil Service of the State of New-York should address the Secretary of the New-York Civil Service Commission, Albany, for information as to eligibility, positions open to competition, and application blanks.

Presidential Elections.

AGGREGATE POPULAR VOTE AND ELECTORAL VOTE FOR CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT AT EACH ELECTION.

NOTE.—There is, properly speaking, no popular vote for President and Vice-President; the people vote for electors, and those chosen in each State meet therein and vote for the candidates for President and Vice-President. The record of any popular vote for electors prior to 1824 is so meagre and imperfect that a compilation would be useless. In most of the States, for more than a quarter century following the establishment of the Government, the State Legislatures "appointed" the Presidential electors, and the people therefore voted only indirectly for them, their choice being expressed by their votes for members of the Legislature. In this tabulation only the aggregate electoral votes for candidates for President and Vice-President in the first nine quadrennial elections appear.

ELECTORAL VOTES.

1789. Previous to 1804, each elector voted for two candidates for President. The one who received the largest number of votes was declared President and the one who received the next largest number of votes was declared Vice-President. The electoral votes for the first President of the United States were: George Washington, 69; John Adams, of Massachusetts, 34; John Jay, of New-York, 9; R. H. Harrison, of Maryland, 6; John Rutledge, of South-Carolina, 6; John Hancock, of Massachusetts, 4; George Clinton, of New-York, 3; Samuel Huntingdon, of Connecticut, 2; John Milton, of Georgia, 2; James Armstrong, of Georgia, Benjamin Lincoln, of Massachusetts, and Edward Telfair, of Georgia, one vote each. Vacancies (votes not cast), 4. George Washington was chosen President and John Adams Vice-President.

1796. John Adams, Federalist, 71; Thomas Jefferson, Republican, 68; Thomas Pinckney, of South-Carolina, Federalist, 59; Aaron Burr, of New-York, Republican, 30; Samuel Adams, of Massachusetts, Republican, 15; Oliver Ellsworth, of Connecticut, Independent, 11; George Clinton, of New-York, Republican, 7; John Jay, of New-York, Federalist, 5; James Iredell, of North-Carolina, Federalist, 3; George Washington, of Virginia, John Henry, of Maryland, and S. Johnson, of North-Carolina, all Federalists, two votes each; Charles Cotesworth Pinckney, of South-Carolina, Federalist, one vote. John Adams was chosen President and Thomas Jefferson, Vice-President.

1800. Thomas Jefferson, Republican, 73; Aaron Burr, Republican, 73; John Adams, Federalist, 65; Charles C. Pinckney, Federalist, 64; John Jay, Federalist, one vote. There being a tie vote for Jefferson and Burr, the choice devolved upon the House of Representatives. Jefferson received the votes of ten States, which, being the largest vote cast for a candidate, elected him President. Burr received the vote of four States, which, being the next largest vote, elected him Vice-President. There were two blank votes.

1804. The Constitution of the United States having been amended, the electors at this election voted for a President and a Vice-President, instead of for two candidates for President. The result was as follows: For President, Thomas Jefferson, Republican, 162; Charles C. Pinckney, Federalist, 14. For Vice-President, George Clinton, Republican, 162; Rufus King, of New-York, Federalist, 14. Jefferson was chosen President and Clinton, Vice-President.

1816. For President, James Monroe, of Virginia, Republican, 183; Rufus King, of New-York, Federalist, 34. For Vice-President, Daniel D. Tompkins, of New-York, Republican, 183; John Eager Howard, of Maryland, Federalist, 22; James Ross, of Pennsylvania, 5; John Marshall, of Virginia, 4; Robert G. Harper, of Maryland, 3. Vacancies, 4. Monroe was chosen President and Tompkins Vice-President.

1820. For President, James Monroe, of Virginia, Republican, 231; John Q. Adams, of Massachusetts, Republican, 1. For Vice-President, Daniel D. Tompkins, Republican, 218; Richard Stockton, of New-Jersey, 8; Daniel Rodney, of Delaware, 4; Robert G. Harper, of Maryland, and Richard Rush, of Pennsylvania, one vote each. Vacancies, 3. James Monroe was chosen President and Daniel D. Tompkins Vice-President.

* The candidates starred were elected. (a) The first Republican Party is claimed by the present Democratic Party as its progenitor. (b) No candidate having a majority of the electoral vote, the House of Representatives elected Adams. (c) Candidate of the Anti-Masonic Party. (d) There being no choice, the Senate elected Johnson. (e) Eleven Southern States, being within the belligerent territory, did not vote. (f) Three Southern States disfranchised. (g) Horace Greeley died after election, and Democratic electors scattered their vote. (h) There being a dispute over the electoral votes of Florida, Louisiana, Oregon, and South-Carolina, they were referred by Congress to an electoral commission composed of eight Republicans and seven Democrats, which, by a strict party vote, awarded 185 electoral votes to Hayes and 184 to Tilden. (i) Free Democrat.

These tables are closed January 1, 1893. Grover Cleveland is the President elect, his term beginning March 4, 1893.

* Jackson called himself a South-Carolinian, and his biographer, Kendall, recorded his birthplace in Lancaster Co., S. C.; but Parton has published documentary evidence to show that Jackson was born in Union Co., N. C., less than a quarter mile from the South-Carolina line. † The Democratic Party of to-day claims lineal descent from the first Republican Party, and President Jefferson as its founder. ‡ Political parties were disorganized at the time of the election of John Quincy Adams. He claimed to be a Republican, but his doctrines were decidedly Federalistic. The opposition to his administration took the name of Democrats, and elected Jackson President.

THE PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION.

The Presidential succession is fixed by chapter 4 of the acts of the forty-ninth Congress, first session. In case of the removal, death, resignation, or inability of both the President and Vice-President, then the Secretary of State shall act as President until the disability of the President or Vice-President is removed or a President is elected. If there be no Secretary of State, then the Secretary of the Treasury will act; and the remainder of the order of succession is: The Secretary of War, Attorney-General, Postmaster-General, Secretary of the Navy, Secretary of the Interior, and, by act of 1892, the Secretary of Agriculture. The acting President must, upon taking office, convene Congress, if not at the time in session, in extraordinary session, giving twenty days' notice. This act applies only to such Cabinet officers as shall have been appointed by the advice and consent of the Senate, and are eligible under the Constitution to the Presidency.

Diplomatic Intercourse.

UNITED STATES MINISTERS ACCREDITED TO PRINCIPAL FOREIGN COUNTRIES, AND MINISTERS FROM THOSE COUNTRIES TO THE UNITED STATES.

THESE tables are now for the first time published complete. They have been compiled from a list printed by the Department of State, in 1874, and from an additional list prepared by the Department for THE WORLD ALMANAC. All representatives not otherwise designated bear the title of minister plenipotentiary and envoy extraordinary, which is the highest diplomatic rank created by the United States. * Date of commission.

President, John Jay; Vice-Presidents, William Strong, William H. Parsons; General Secretary, James M. King; Treasurer, William Fellowes Morgan; Law Committee, William Allen Butler, Dorman B. Eaton, Cephas Brainerd, Henry E. Howland, and Stephen A. Walker. Offices, 140 Nassau Street, New-York.

The League, which is entirely non-partisan and unsectarian, was incorporated December 24, 1889, under an act of the New-York Legislature. Its objects are "to secure constitutional and legislative safeguards for the protection of the common school system and other American institutions, and to promote public instruction in harmony with such institutions, and to prevent all sectarian or denominational appropriations of public funds." As an important step to this end the League proposes to secure the passage of the following amendment to the Constitution of the United states: "No State shall pass any law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or use its property or credit, or any money raised by taxation, or authorize either to be used, for the purpose of founding, maintaining, or aiding, by appropriation, payment for services, expenses, or otherwise, any church, religious denomination, or religious society, or any institution, society, or undertaking, which is wholly, or in part, under sectarian or ecclesiastical control."

It will also endeavor to procure similar amendments to the State constitutions. The League has been in active operation since May, 1890, and already has many thousands of adherents distributed throughout every State and Territory. Many religious and secular organizations have formally approved its principles. Auxiliary leagues are being organized, and local secretaries appointed in all the States, and correspondence and co-operation is invited from citizens in sympathy throughout the country.

Of the whole number of post-offices at the close of the fiscal year, June 30, 1892, 3,156 were Presidential offices and 63,963 were fourth-class offices. * Includes mail messenger and special office service.

The approximate number of letters and postal cards transmitted annually in the mails of European countries is as follows: Great Britain and Ireland, 1,500,000,000; Germany, 1,200,000,000; France, 700,000,000; Austria-Hungary, 600,000,000; Italy, 250,000 000; Russia, 200,000,000; Belgium, 130,000,000; Spain, 120,000,000; Switzerland, 110,000,000; Netherlands, 100,000,000; Sweden, 100,000,000.

The number of pieces of postal matter of all kinds which pass through the mails of the United States annually is about 3,800,000,000. The annual aggregate number of letters transmitted through the post-offices of the world may be estimated at 8,000,000,000, and of newspapers, 5,000,000,000.

The Life-Saving Service.

The ocean and lake coasts of the United States are picketed with the stations of the Life-Saving Service attached to the United States Treasury Department. Sumner I. Kimball is general superintendent, with headquarters at Washington, and there is a corps of inspectors, superintendents, station-keepers, and crews, extending over the entire coast-line, together with a Board on Life-Saving Appliances, composed of experts selected from the revenue marine service, the army, the life-saving service, and civilians.

At the close of the last fiscal year the life-saving establishment embraced 242 stations, 181 being on the Atlantic coast, 48 on the lakes, 12 on the Pacific coast, and 1 at the falls of the Ohio, Louisville, Ky.

In the following table the statistics of the service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1892, and since introduction of present system in 1871 to June 30, 1892, are stated separately:

	Year Ending June 30, 1892.	Since Introduction of Life-Saving System in 1871 to June 30, 1892.
Number of Disasters	337	6,450
Value of Property Involved	$8,284,525	$104,710,319

Value of Property Lost	1,173,520	25,888,862
Number of Persons Involved	2,570	52,879
Number of Persons Lost	20	627
Number of Shipwrecked Persons Succored at Stations	*747	9,989
Number of Vessels Totally Lost on the United States Coasts	60	.....

* Including castaways not on board vessels embraced in tables.

In addition to the foregoing, there were 170 casualties to smaller craft, such as sail-boats, row-boats, etc., on which there were 353 persons, of whom 346 were saved and 7 lost. In addition to persons saved from vessels, there were 36 others rescued who had fallen from wharves, piers, etc., and who would probably have perished without the aid of the life-saving crews. The cost of the maintenance of the service during the year was $1,009,234.86.

It will be seen that it is possible that the widow of a Revolutionary soldier may be drawing a pension in the year 1918. For a similar reason the widow of a veteran of the late Civil War may be living in 2002.

PENSIONS TO WIDOWS OF PRESIDENTS AND FEDERAL OFFICERS.

The widows of Presidents Grant and Garfield receive annual pensions of $5,000 each.

Patent Office Procedure.

PATENTS are issued in the name of the United States, and under the seal of the Patent Office, to any person who has invented or discovered any new and useful art, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, not known or used by others in this country, and not patented or described in any printed publication in this or any foreign country, before his invention or discovery thereof, and not in public use or on sale for more than two years prior to his application, unless the same is proved to have been abandoned; and by any person who, by his own industry, genius, efforts, and expense has invented and produced any new and original design for a manufacture, bust, statue, alto-relievo, or bas-relief; any new and original design for the printing of woollen, silk, cotton, or other fabrics; any new and original impression, ornament, pattern, print, or picture to be printed, painted, cast, or otherwise placed on or worked into any article of manufacture; or any new, useful, and original shape or configuration of any article of manufacture, the same not having been known nor used by others before his invention or production thereof, nor patented nor described in any printed publication, upon payment of the fees required by law and other due proceedings had.

Every patent contains a grant to the patentee, his heirs or assigns, for the term of seventeen years, of the exclusive right to make, use, and vend the invention or discovery throughout the United States and the Territories, referring to the specification for the particulars thereof.

If it appear that the inventor, at the time of making his application, believed himself to be the first inventor or discoverer, a patent will not be refused on account of the invention or discovery, or any part thereof, having been known or used in any foreign country before his invention or discovery thereof, if it had not been before patented or described in any printed publication.

Joint inventors are entitled to a joint patent; neither can claim one separately. Independent inventors of distinct and independent improvements in the same machine cannot obtain a joint patent for their separate inventions; nor does the fact that one furnishes the capital and another makes the invention entitle them to make application as joint inventors; but in such case they may become joint patentees.

The receipt of letters patent from a foreign government will not prevent the inventor from obtaining a patent in the United States, unless the invention shall have been introduced into public use in the United States more than two years prior to the application. But every patent granted for an invention which has been previously patented by the same inventor in a foreign country will be so limited as to expire at the same time with the foreign patent, or, if there be more than one, at the same time with the one having the shortest unexpired term, but in no case will it be in force more than seventeen years.

APPLICATIONS.

Applications for a patent must be made in writing to the Commissioner of Patents. The applicant must also file in the Patent Office a written description of the same, and of the manner and process of making, constructing, compounding, and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art or science to which it appertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make, construct, compound, and use the same; and in case of a machine, he must explain the principle thereof, and the best mode in which he has contemplated applying that principle, so as to distinguish it from other inventions, and particularly point out and distinctly claim the part, improvement, or combination which he claims as his invention or discovery. The specification and claim must be signed by the inventor and attested by two witnesses.

When the nature of the case admits of drawings, the applicant must furnish one copy signed by the inventor or his attorney in fact, and attested by two witnesses, to be filed in the Patent Office. In all cases which admit of representation by model, the applicant, if required by the Commissioner, shall furnish a model of convenient size to exhibit advantageously the several parts of his invention or discovery.

The applicant shall make oath that he verily believes himself to be the original and first inventor or discoverer of the art, machine, manufacture, composition, or improvement for which he solicits a patent; that he does not know and does not believe that the same was ever before known or used, and shall state of what country he is a citizen. Such oath may be made before any person within the United States authorized by law to administer oaths, or, when the applicant resides in a foreign country, before any minister, chargé d'affaires, consul, or commercial agent, holding commission under the government of the United States, or before any notary public of the foreign country in which the applicant may be.

On the filing of such application and the payment of the fees required by law, if, on such examination, it appears that the claimant is justly entitled to a patent under the law, and that the same is sufficiently useful and important, the Commissioner will issue a patent therefor.

ASSIGNMENTS.

Every patent or any interest therein shall be assignable in law by an instrument in writing; and the patentee or his assigns or legal representatives may, in like manner, grant and convey an exclusive right under his patent to the whole or any specified part of the United States.

REISSUES.

A reissue is granted to the original patentee, his legal representatives, or the assignees of the entire interest when, by reason of a defective or insufficient specification, or by reason of the patentee claiming as his invention or discovery more than he had a right to claim as new, the original patent is inoperative or invalid, provided the error has arisen from inadvertence, accident, or mistake, and without any fraudulent or deceptive intention. In the cases of patents issued and assigned prior to July 8, 1870, the applications for reissue may be made by the assignees; but in the cases of patents issued or assigned since that date, the applications must be made and the specifications sworn to by the inventors, if they be living.

CAVEATS.

A caveat, under the patent law, is a notice given to the office of the caveator's claim as inventor, in order to prevent the grant of a patent to another for the same alleged invention upon an application filed during the life of a caveat without notice to the caveator.

Any citizen of the United States who has made a new invention or discovery, and desires further time to mature the same, may, on payment of a fee of ten dollars, file in the Patent Office a caveat setting forth the object and the distinguishing characteristics of the invention, and praying protection of his right until he shall have matured his invention. Such caveat shall be filed in the confidential archives of the office and preserved in secrecy, and shall be operative for the term of one year from the filing thereof.

An alien has the same privilege, if he has resided in the United States one year next preceding the filing of his caveat, and has made oath of his intention to become a citizen.

The caveat must comprise a specification, oath, and, when the nature of the case admits of it, a drawing, and, like the application, must be limited to a single invention or improvement.

FEES.

Fees must be paid in advance, and are as follows: On filing each original application for a patent, $15. On issuing each original patent, $20. In design cases: For three years and six months, $10; for seven years, $15; for fourteen years, $30. On filing each caveat, $10. On every application for the reissue of a patent, $30. On filing each disclaimer, $10. For certified copies of patents and other papers in manuscript, ten cents per hundred words; for certified copies of printed patents, eighty-five cents. For recording every assignment, agreement, power of attorney, or other paper, of three hundred words or under, $1; of over three hundred and under one thousand words, $2; of over one thousand words, $3. For copies of drawings, the reasonable cost of making them.

PATENT OFFICE STATISTICS.

The receipts of the Patent Office during the fiscal year 1891–92 were $1,268,727, and expenditures, $1,114,134. Receipts over expenditures, $154,593.

The following is a statement of the business of the office for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1892:

Number of applications for patents	39,987	Number of patents granted, including reissues and designs	23,626

* The figures given for Indian Territory include the area of the Cherokee Outlet, which is 9,790 square miles, or 6,265,600 acres. Those for Oklahoma Territory include the area of the former Public-Land Strip, 5,738 square miles, or 3,672,320 acres.

† This area includes 572,775 acres of land surveyed under contracts made with the United States Surveyor-General of South-Dakota, and reported by him prior to the establishment of the district and office of United States Surveyor-General of North-Dakota.

‡ This estimate is of a very general nature, and affords no index to the disposable volume of land remaining, nor the amount available for agricultural purposes. It includes Indian and other public reservations, unsurveyed private land claims, as well as surveyed private land claims, in the district of Arizona, California, Colorado, and New-Mexico; the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections reserved for common schools; unsurveyed lands embraced in railroad, swamp land, and other grants; the great mountain areas; the areas of unsurveyed rivers and lakes, and large areas wholly unproductive and unavailable for ordinary purposes. The area of land in the unsurveyed portion of the public domain suitable for homes and subject to settlement under the laws of the United States is of comparatively small proportions.

The United States Board on Geographic Names.

An act of Congress requires that uniform usage in regard to geographic nomenclature and orthography shall obtain throughout the Executive Departments of the Government, and particularly upon maps and charts issued by the various departments and bureaus. This board is constituted, and to it must be referred all unsettled questions concerning geographic names which arise in the Departments, and the decisions of the board are to be accepted by the Departments as the standard authority in such matters.

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

Secretary.—Marcus Baker, United States Geological Survey.

Andrew H. Allen, Department of State; a representative of the Light-House Board (vacant); Captain Thomas Turtle, Engineer Corps, War Department; Lieut.-Commander Richardson Clover, Hydrographic Office, Navy Department; Pierson H. Bristow, Post-Office Department; Otis T. Mason, Smithsonian Institution; Herbert G. Ogden, United States Coast and Geodetic Survey; Henry Gannett, United States Geological Survey.

Inspection of Steam Vessels.

THE Supervising Inspector-General of Steam Vessels, James A. Dumont, reported to the Secretary of the Treasury, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1892: number of steam vessels inspected and owned in the United States, 7,661; their net tonnage, 1,546,325.29; increase in tonnage, 43,000.89; officers licensed, 36,520; increase in number of vessels inspected over preceding year, 257; increase in number of officers licensed, 1,404. Foreign passenger steam vessels inspected, 293; net tonnage, 559,020.97.

Accidental Drowning	..	†86
Total	36	‡200

* Enumerated with miscellaneous.
† Several of these were undoubtedly suicides.
‡ Decrease from previous year, 138.

Of the number of lives lost, as above reported, 48 were passengers and 152 were officers or persons employed on the steamers.

It is estimated that fully 650,000,000 passengers were carried on steam vessels during the fiscal year.

The United States Light-House Establishment.

Hon. Charles Foster, Secretary of the Treasury and ex-officio President of the Board, Washington, D.C.
Commodore James A. Greer, U. S. Navy, Chairman, Washington, D.C.
Lieutenant-Colonel George H. Elliot, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C.
Mr. Walter S. Franklin, Baltimore, Md.
Colonel O. H. Ernst, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, Washington, D.C.
Commodore James H. Gillis, U. S. Navy, Avondale, N. J.
Commander George W. Coffin, U. S. Navy, Naval Secretary, Washington, D. C.
Captain Frederick A. Mahan, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C.

At the close of the fiscal year there were under the control of the Light-House Establishment the following named aids to navigation: Light-houses and lighted beacons, including post-lights in third, fourth, fifth, sixth, eighth, and thirteenth light-house districts, 1,255; light-ships in position, 32; light-ships for relief, 4; lighted buoys in position, 7; fog-signals operated by steam or hot air, 107; fog-signals operated by clock-work, 187; post-lights on rivers, 1,761; day or unlighted beacons, 420; whistling-buoys in position, 62; bell-buoys in position, 89; other buoys in position, including pile-buoys and stakes in fifth district and thirty buoys in Alaskan waters, 4.286.

In the construction, care, and maintenance of these aids to navigation there were employed: Steam tenders, 30; steam launches, 4; sailing tenders, 2; light-keepers, 1,136; other employés, including crews of light-ships and tenders, 705; laborers in charge of river lights, 1,061.

The United States Revenue Cutter Service.

THE UNITED STATES REVENUE CUTTER SERVICE is an arm of the Treasury Department, and is under the direction and control of the Secretary of the Treasury, and its purpose is, principally, to enforce the revenue laws. Its immediate supervision resides in a bureau of the department known as the Revenue Marine Division, which is in charge of a chief and a number of assistants. The present chief of the division is L. G. Shepard, Washington, D. C.

The entire number of documented vessels is 24,383, of which 6,392 were steamers, and 17,991 were vessels other than steamers, all aggregating 4,764,921.20 tons.

The estimated value of the whole amount of floating property under the flag, by adopting the methods of calculation usually made use of and allowing 10 per cent. for the difference between wooden and iron vessels, is about $180,000,000. The statistics of the above table are of the fiscal year ending 1892.

The British Customs Tariff.

FORMERLY almost every article imported into the United Kingdom, whether manufactured or raw material, was in the tariff. In 1842 the Customs Tariff numbered no fewer than 1,200 articles. Now it contains but nineteen. The following are the duties on importations:

" exceeding 1215° per barrel of 36 galls	1	10	6
" and Ale, worts of which were before fermentation of a specific gravity of 1055°, per barrel of 36 galls	0	6	6
And so in proportion for any difference in gravity.
Cards (playing) ... per doz. packs	0	3	9
Chiccory, raw or kiln-dried ... cwt.	0	13	3
" roasted or ground ... lb.	0	0	2
" and coffee mixed ... "	0	0	2

" Liqueurs, Cordials, or other preparations containing spirit in bottle, if not to be tested for ascertaining the strength ... liquid gall.	0	14	8
Tea ... lb.	0	0	4
Tobacco, unmanu., containing 10 per cent or more of moisture ... lb.	0	3	2
" containing less than 10 per cent. "	0	3	6
" Cigars ... "	0	5	0
" Cavendish or Negrohead ... "	0	4	6
Snuff not more than 13 lbs. (in 100 lbs.) moisture ... lb.	0	4	6
" cont. more than 13 lbs ... "	0	3	9
" other manufactured ... "	0	4	0
" Cavendish or Negrohead manufactured in bond from unmanufactured tobacco ... lb.	0	4	0
Varnish (cont. spirit), same as spirits.
Wine, not exceeding 30 deg. proof spirit. gall.	0	1	0
" exceeding 30 deg., but not exceeding 42 deg ... gall.	0	2	6
" for each additional deg. of strength beyond 42 deg ... gall.	0	0	3
Sparkling Wine imported in bottle ... "	0	2	6
" when the market value is proved not to exceed 15s. per gall ... gall.	0	1	0

These duties are in addition to the duty in respect of alcoholic strength.

There are drawbacks for roasted coffee shipped as stores, and for tobacco and snuff manufactured in the United Kingdom.

The receipts from customs in the United Kingdom, year ending March 31, 1891, was £19,479,471, or about $96,000,000. The total revenue of the Government from all sources was £96,356,104, so that the receipts from customs were about 20 per cent. The other sources of revenue were: From excise, £24,723,917; from stamps, £13,413,831; from income and property tax, £13,143,932; from post-office, £9,843,263; from telegraph service, £2,394,579. The remainder from land tax, house duty, crown lands, and miscellaneous.

Itemized the receipts from customs were: From tobacco, £9,536,234; from tea, £3,418,561; from rum, £2,420,650; from brandy, £1,498,103; from other spirits, £716,348; from wine, £1,318,161; from currants, £113,333; from coffee, £182,003; from raisins, £156,893.

THE following is the text of the Reciprocity Section of the new (McKinley) Tariff Act of 1890:

SEC. 3. That with a view to secure reciprocal trade with countries producing the following articles, and for this purpose, on and after the first day of July, 1892, whenever, and so often as the President shall be satisfied that the Government of any country producing and exporting sugars, molasses, coffee, tea, and hides, raw and uncured, or any of such articles, imposes duties or other exactions upon the agricultural or other products of the United States, which in view of the free introduction of such sugar, molasses, coffee, tea, and hides into the United States he may deem to be reciprocally unequal and unreasonable, he shall have the power and it shall be his duty to suspend, by proclamation to that effect, the provisions of this act relating to the free introduction of such sugar, molasses, coffee, tea, and hides, the production of such country, for such time as he shall deem just, and in such case and during such suspension duties shall be levied, collected, and paid upon sugar, molasses, coffee, tea, and hides, the product of or exported from such designated country, as follows, namely:

All sugars not above number thirteen Dutch standard in color, all tank bottoms, syrups of cane juice or of beet juice, melada, concentrated melada, concrete and concentrated molasses, testing by the polariscope not above 75 degrees, seven tenths of one cent per pound; and for every additional degree or fraction of a degree shown by the polariscopic test, two hundredths of one cent per pound additional.

All sugars above number thirteen Dutch standard in color shall be classified by the Dutch standard of color, and pay duty as follows, namely: All sugar above number thirteen and not above number sixteen Dutch standard of color, one and three eighths cents per pound.

Molasses testing above fifty-six degrees, four cents per gallon.

Sugar drainings and sugar sweepings shall be subject to duty either as molasses or sugar, as the case may be, according to polariscopic test.

On coffee, three cents per pound.

On tea, ten cents per pound.

Hides, raw or uncured, whether dry, salted or pickled, Angora goat-skins, raw, without the wool, unmanufactured, asses' skins, raw or unmanufactured, and skins, except sheep-skins with the wool on, one and one half cents per pound.

Reciprocity Treaties.

SINCE THE ADOPTION OF THE RECIPROCITY SECTION OF THE NEW TARIFF LAW.

SINCE the approval of the Tariff Act of October 1, 1890, the following treaties of reciprocity have been entered into between the United States and other countries. The principal exports of the United States admitted by these treaties into other countries free or at reduced duties are given below. The lists are in nearly every case very long, and cannot be given here in full.

FEBRUARY 5, 1891. With BRAZIL.—Free, wheat, flour, corn, corn meal, rye, buckwheat, barley, potatoes, beans, pork, salted (except hams), fish, salted or dried, cotton-seed oil, coal, naval stores, agricultural implements and machinery, mining tools, scientific books and railway material. At a 25 per cent reduction of duty, lard, hams, butter, cheese, canned goods, manufactures of cotton, iron, steel, leather (except boots and shoes), lumber, rubber, furniture and wagons.

AUGUST 1, 1891. With SAN DOMINGO.—Free, salted meats, corn, oats, hay, machines, railway materials, iron and steel, zinc, copper, copper and lead pipe, bricks, wire, lumber and wood, books, gold and silver. At a 25 per cent reduction of duty, meats (except salted), meat products (except lard), canned milk, butter, cheese, fish, fruits and vegetables, manufactures of iron or steel not admitted free, cotton manufactures, boots and shoes, paper, tinware and cordage.

DECEMBER 31, 1891. With SALVADOR.—Free, corn, rice, barley, rye, beans, hay, fresh fruits, plain crackers, coal, bricks, dressed marble, tar, agricultural implements, machinery, sewing machines, printing, railway, electrical, telegraph and telephone materials, wood, wagons, wire, boats, hops, books, gold and silver.

MAY 26, 1892. With AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.—The provisions of the reciprocity treaties with other countries are extended to the United States. The principal reduced duties are: agricultural implements, from 15 to 12 florins; cotton yarns above No. 60, from 16 to 12 florins; cotton yarns, three or more threads, from 24 to 18 florins; meat extracts, solid, from 40 to 30 florins, liquid, from 40 to 15 florins; condensed milk, pianos and organs, from 40 to 20 florins; cotton-seed oil, from 8 to 4 florins; brass and manufactures, 10 to 60 per cent.; leather and manufactures, 3 to 50 per cent.; iron and steel manufactures, 2 to 66 per cent.; cotton goods, 5 to 9 per cent.; clocks and watches, 40 to 75 per cent.

JUNE 28, 1892. With SPAIN. Applicable to Cuba and Porto Rico.—This treaty succeeds the provisional arrangements in force since September 1, 1891, and in part since January 1, 1892. Free, canned, salted and smoked meats, lard, fish, oats, rye, starch, cotton-seed oil, hay, fruits (except raisins), woods, wagons, sewing machines, crude petroleum, tiles, iron and steel and manufactures, books, agricultural tools, butter, gold and silver coins. At a 50 per cent. reduction of duties, fine manufactures of iron and steel, stoneware, knives, furniture, canned foods not admitted free, rubber goods, and rice. At a 25 per cent reduction of duties, boots and shoes, refined petroleum, cotton manufactures, rope, soap, patent medicines, paper (except writing), leather, harness, watches and clocks. At following specified rates per kilograms, corn and corn meal, 25 cents, wheat, 30 cents, and flour, $1.

On January 8, 1892, the President, as provided in the Tariff Act, warned the delinquent countries of Austria-Hungary, Colombia, Hayti, Nicaragua, Honduras, Venezuela and Spain (for the Philippine Islands) that in case negotiations toward a partial reciprocity were not begun before March 15, 1892, he should impose by proclamation the duties provided by the Tariff Act on their sugar, molasses, coffee, tea and hides. All these countries responded except Hayti.

March 15, 1892, President Harrison proclaimed the suspension of the free admission into the United States from Hayti of sugar, molasses, coffee, tea and hides, and imposed these duties: on sugar, 7-10 of 1 cent a pound below 13 Dutch standard, 1⅜ cents a pound above 13 and below 16 Dutch standard, 1⅝ cents a pound above 16 and below 20 Dutch standard, and 2 cents a pound above 20 Dutch standard; on molasses, 4 cents a gallon; on coffee, 3 cents a pound; on tea, 10 cents a pound, and on hides, 1½ cents a pound.

Since the census statistics were collected, the vineyard and wine-producing industries have sprung up in Florida, and promise to become as valuable and important as those of any other State of the Union.

The number of persons employed in these industries in 1889-90 was 200,780.

Sugar Production.

Bouchereau's statement of cane sugar and molasses production in the United States in 1890-91 was as follows: Louisiana production, 495,000,000 pounds; other Southern States, 13,680,000 pounds; total production of the United States in tons of 2,240 pounds, 227,089. Molasses, production of Louisiana, 25,000,000 gallons; other Southern States, 4,200,000 gallons; total gallons, 29,200,000. The imports of cane and beet sugar into the United States in 1891 amounted to 1,696,000 tons.

Mulhall quotes the Bulletin Statistique's estimate of the production of beet sugar in the United States of 337,000 tons annually.

The number of cigarettes manufactured in the United States in 1890-91 was, according to the Internal Revenue returns, 2,877,799,440.

The product of tobacco in Europe is nearly equal in quantity to the average production of the United States. Neumann-Spallart has usually made it about 500,000,000 pounds. Austria-Hungary produces about one third of it, Russia one tenth, Germany nearly as much, France about 35,000,000 pounds, and the other countries a small quantity. Europe can easily produce all the tobacco required, but two reasons are prominent for importation of tobacco from this country. It is very cheap, and it is very desirable for mixing with and fortifying European leaf. If it becomes dearer, a smaller quantity is purchased; if very much dearer, it would scarcely find sale at all. The production is regulated and limited by governmental edicts. Our exportation is not increasing; the proportion of our crop exported is declining, and will continue to fall off as our population increases. Much the larger portion was formerly exported; now the larger part is annually manufactured. * These are the latest returns published by the department.

United States Forestry Statistics.

FOREST AREA.

TOTAL forest area in the United States is estimated at round 450,000,000 acres, of which about 40 per cent. is in farms, while the area of land in farms unimproved or waste not in forest may be estimated at about 75,000,000 acres. Alaska and Indian reservations are not included.

The present annual requirements for consumption of forest products in the United States are, approximately, over 22,000,000,000 cubic feet, made up of the following items: Lumber market and manufactures, 3,000,000,000 cubic feet; railroad construction, 600,000,000 cubic feet; charcoal, 250,000,000 cubic feet; fences, 500,000,000 cubic feet; fuel, 18,000,000,000 cubic feet; mining timber, 150,000,000 cubic feet.

At the present rate of cutting, the remainder of forest land in the United States cannot long meet the enormous demands on its resources. Of the two most important timbers for building purposes, the merchantable White Pine of the Northwest and of New-England is practically gone, very little remaining, and there remains of the merchantable Long-leaf Pine of the South only about 1,500,000,000 cubic feet. The valuable Ash will probably be the first to be exhausted. Walnut and Tulip trees are also on the wane.

Forest fires are estimated to destroy values of about $12,000,000 annually.

FOREST PRESERVATION.

For the preservation of the forests, the State of New-York instituted a Forest Commission, in 1885, with extensive powers. The State of California has also created a Forest Commission, and Colorado, North-Dakota, and New-Hampshire have Forest Commissions. Ohio has a Forestry Bureau.

A national organization known as the American Forestry Association (formerly Congress), composed of delegates from all the States, meets annually. The eleventh annual meeting was held at Washington, D. C., December, 1892. E. A. Bowers, Washington, D. C., is Corresponding Secretary. Local or State Associations have been formed in Colorado, Ohio, New-York, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Minnesota, Texas, South-Carolina, and North-Dakota.

The act to encourage forest-planting on the treeless prairies, by making tree-planting, under certain regulations, the consideration for the acquisition of public lands, the so-called Timber Culture Act was repealed by the last Congress. By act of March 3, 1891, however, the President is authorized to make public forest reservations. Such have been established in Colorado, New-Mexico, California, and others are under consideration. A bill to provide a systematic forest administration for these is on the calendar of the Senate.

ARBOR DAY.

The individual States have striven to encourage tree-planting by appointing a certain day in the year, to be known as Arbor Day, for the voluntary planting of trees by the people, and latterly the interest has been widened by inducing the pupils of the public schools to take part in the observance. The credit of inaugurating Arbor Day belongs to the Nebraska State Board of Agriculture, which in 1874 recommended the second Wednesday of April in each year as a day dedicated to the work of planting trees. The following States and Territories have since then, by legislative enactment or otherwise, established an annual Arbor Day: Alabama, Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New-Hampshire, New-Jersey, New-Mexico, New-York, North-Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode-Island, South-Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, West-Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming—38 in all. (See Legal Holidays.)

Australia	53,000,000	125,000,000

AREA OF THE WORLD'S COAL-FIELDS

IN SQUARE MILES.

China and Japan, 200,000; United States, 194,000; India, 35,000; Russia, 27,000; Great Britain, 9,000; Germany, 3,600; France, 1,800; Belgium, Spain, and other countries, 1,400. Total, 471,800.

The coal-fields of China, Japan, Great Britain, Germany, Russia, and India contain apparently 303,000,000,000 tons, which is enough for 700 years at present rate of consumption. If to the above be added the coal-fields in the United States, Canada, and other countries, the supply will be found ample for 1,000 years. Improved machinery has greatly increased the yield per miner, and thus produced a fall in price to the advantage of all industries.

For copper production of the United States in 1890, see preceding page.

The tin production of the world in 1891, or approximate years, was estimated by the "American Manufacturer" at 69,963 tons of 2,240 pounds, of which 310 tons were produced in the United States, sixty per cent of it being metallic tin.

The world's production of lead in 1888, according to Mulhall, was 457,000 tons, of which 35 per cent was produced in the United States.

These statistics of iron and steel production were prepared by James M. Swank, of Philadelphia, general manager for the American Iron and Steel Association, for his "History of the Manufacture of Iron in All Ages" (Philadelphia, 1891). English tons of 2,240 pounds are used in giving the statistics of Great Britain, Canada, and the United States, and metric tons of 2,204 pounds are used for all the continental countries of Europe.

Gold and Silver Produced in the United States.

"Fineness," the term used in treating of bullion mints, coinage, and money, indicates the proportion of pure metal contained in a piece of gold or silver. Fineness is expressed in thousandths, that is, pure metal is 1.000. United States coin is 900-1000 fine, or decimally, .900 fine. Fineness is estimated by jewelers and workers in the precious metals by "carats," pure metal being 24 carats. Thus 22 carats, the British standard for gold coins, is 22-24 carats, or decimally .916⅔ fine.

"Mint Mark" means the letter or mark on the coin designating the mint at which it was struck, as "S," for San Francisco; "C. C.," for Carson City; "O.," for New-Orleans. The coins struck at the parent mint in Philadelphia bear no mint mark.—Evans's History of the United States Mint.

This table shows the cost for an annual insurance of $1,000 at each age from ten to ninety-five. The life insurance companies level this annually increasing cost so as to make a larger portion payable in the younger ages, and a corresponding reduction later. The assessment or natural premium companies rely upon getting each year the cost of the year's insurance.

* Annual statements of the fire insurance companies are rendered to the insurance departments during the month of January; therefore the statistics of condition in 1892 were not ready when this publication went to press. † The New-York law requires a deposit of $200,000 from foreign companies with the insurance department. This is treated by the department as "Deposit capital," and the surplus stated in the next column is "surplus beyond deposit capital" and other liabilities.

The waste by fires in the United States during the past five years has averaged $112,000,000 annually. To this must be added the expense of maintaining fire-extinguishing departments and appliances and of conducting insurance companies, to obtain an estimate of what the people pay out on account of fire.

The principal reported causes of fires, and the number of fires from each cause, in 1891, as compiled by the Chronicle, were as follows: Incendiarism, 2,602; defective flues, 1,439; sparks (not locomotive), 672; matches, 865; explosions of lamps and lanterns, 849; stoves, 552; lighting, 457; spontaneous combustion, 383; forest and prairie fires, 165; lamp and lantern accidents, 323; locomotive sparks, 309; cigars, cigarettes, and tobacco pipes, 285; friction in machinery, 196; gas-jets, 291; engines and boilers, stationary, 168; furnaces, 170; fire-crackers, 87; ashes and hot coals, 147; candles, 125; electric wires and lights, 116; explosions (oil and gas stoves), 302; ignition (grease, oil, etc.), 151; tramps, 106. There were 7,803 fires classified as "not reported," and 3,322 as "unknown."

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION STATISTICS.

A synopsis of the "Statistics of Railways in the United States," for the year ending June 30, 189[illegible], specially prepared from the fourth annual report of the Interstate Commerce Commission (December 12, 1892) by its statis[illegible]ician. The returns are slightly later than those by Poor, in the preceding tables.

Railway mileage in the United States on June 30, 1891, 168,402 miles. This figure indicates the length of single track mileage, the total mileage of all tracks being 216,149 miles. The length of single track per 100 square miles of territory, exclusive of Alaska, was 5.67 miles, and the length of track per 10 000 inhabitants was 26.29 miles. No country in Europe, Sweden alone excepted, has 10 miles of line per 10,000 inhabitants; while here only two States have less.

The increase in railway mileage during the year was 4,805.69 miles, the smallest for several years. The greatest activity in railway building seems to have been in the Southern States.

There were on June 30, 1891, 1,785 railway corporations, of which 889 were independent, 747 subsidiary, and 149 private lines. Sixteen roads were abandoned during the year, and 92 roads disappeared by purchase, merger, or consolidation. The tendency toward consolidation is clearly indicated. On June 30, 1891, there were 42 companies, each controlling more than a mileage in excess of 1,000 miles of road, and nearly one half of the mileage of the country is the property of these 42 companies. Eighty railway companies have a gross revenue of over $3,000,000 each, and control 69.48 per cent of the total mileage of the country.

The total number of locomotives was 32,139, an increase of 1,999 during the year, and the total number of cars was 1,215,611, an increase of 45,944. The increase in equipment has not proceeded as rapidly as the increase in train brakes and automatic couplers. Yet at the present rate it will be many years before the total equipment of railways will be fitted with safety devices. The number of railway men employed during the year was 784,285, an increase of 34,984. The number of railway men in proportion to the total population was 1 to 87 inhabitants in 1889; 1 to 84 in 1890; and 1 to 82 in 1891.

Railroad Speed.

One mile.—The fastest time on record as having been made by a locomotive for one mile is 37 seconds, which is at the rate of 97.3 miles an hour. This was made by a regular train on the Central Railroad of New-Jersey, going east, between Fanwood and Westfield, N. J., on November, 18, 1892. The engine was one of Vauclain's four-cylinder compound locomotives, and the train consisted of four cars. The grade of the road was descending, at the rate of 32 feet a mile.

Two miles.—The mile next following the one above mentioned was traversed in 38 seconds, making a record of 96 miles an hour.

Five miles.—On the same trip, a distance of five miles, between Somerton and Parkland, Pa., on the Philadelphia and Reading, was made in 3 minutes 25 seconds, or at the rate of 87.8 miles an hour.

Twelve miles.—All of the above are "world records." A rate of 86 miles an hour has been recorded on the Northeastern of England, but not for any specified distance. The fastest time made by an American train for 12 miles was on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, August 27, 1891, 12 miles, Jenkintown to the Delaware River, in 8 minutes, 42½ seconds, being at the average rate of 82.7 miles an hour. The train was composed of an engine, tender, and three cars, all weighing 169 tons.

The fastest long-distance run was on the New-York Central Railroad, September, 14, 1891, from New-York City to East Buffalo, 436½ miles, in 425 minutes, 14 seconds, actual time, or 439½ minutes, including three stops. Average speed, including stops, 61.56 miles an hour.

The Jarrett and Palmer special theatrical train, Jersey City to San Francisco, June, 1886, made the fastest time between the two oceans—3 days, 7 hours, 39 minutes and 16 seconds.

The fastest regular trains in the United States, for a short distance, are believed to be those between Washington and Baltimore, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, 40 miles in 45 minutes, a speed of 53.33 miles an hour. The run from Washington to New-York, 225.3 miles, is made in 5 hours. Deducting 12 minutes for the Jersey City Ferry and 10 minutes for the Canton Ferry, the rate of speed is 48.6 miles per hour. The "Congressional Limited," on the Pennsylvania Railroad, also makes the run in 5 hours, 5 minutes, but the distance is 227 miles.

The fastest regular train in the world for a long distance is the Empire State express, on the New-York Central and Hudson River road, which runs from New-York via Albany to Buffalo in 8 hours, 40 minutes. The distance is 439 miles, making the rate through 50.7 miles an hour. This includes two stops of five minutes (Albany and Syracuse) and two of two minutes (Utica and Rochester).

The quickest run between New-York and Washington was made on the Pennsylvania Railroad, November, 28, 1891, by a special train, in 4 hours, 11 minutes, making the running time, exclusive of stops, 56¾ miles an hour. This beat the time of the "Aunt Jack" train, made by the Madison Square Theatre Company, March 10, 1890, which was 4 hours, 18 minutes each way, going and return.

NOTE TO TABLES ON THE THREE PRECEDING PAGES.

Marriage is a civil contract between a man over 14 and a woman over 12 joined on the one side, and the State on the other. To make it valid, it must have the consent both of the State and of the persons. It has, necessarily, the consent of the State, for that is given in advance to everybody not idiots or of near kin, of the ages mentioned—14 and 12. The consent of the parties is taken for granted, unless proof to the contrary is shown. It never needs the consent of the parent. But the contract—valid while it lasts—if challenged, may be terminated by the State formally withdrawing its consent, if the consent of either of the parties to enter into such a contract with it, having been temporarily entrusted to the parent, cannot be given or obtained by them. It is their own consent that is lacking, not the parent's. No rule or regulation of State law concerning marriage applies to a civil contract, which any two citizens may freely enter into with the State at any time and under any circumstances. All rules and regulations affect the personal conduct of the parties during ceremonies outside of the contract. No possible violation of any State law, rule, or regulation concerning marriage can, of itself, make void a contract once entered into between a State and two citizens, and no punishment inflicted for such violation of the law can affect the validity of the marriage. These are questions between the State and single individuals. The State cannot punish one person for a crime committed by another.

Marriage is a double, not a single contract: 1. A private contract between the two persons; 2. a public contract between the State and the two persons joined. With the private contract between the two persons the State cannot interfere. They may make any changes or modifications they like at any time; this is none of its business. But no private contract they may enter into and no modification of the private contract they entered into can affect their joint public contract with the State; and no public contract (which is the marriage) once made between two persons and the State can be changed, altered, or amended by them without the consent of the State through its courts; nor can it be changed, altered, or amended by the State without the consent of at least one of the parties to the marriage. No marriage is illegal until so declared by a court; and no person can be legally freed from a marriage contract except by a court or by death or conviction for felony. Ceremonies and sacraments are parts of the private contract between the persons, and all rules and regulations concerning licenses, banns, age, and the like are a part of them; but they form no part of the public contract between the parties and the State, which is the only marriage the law recognizes, although the public contract must be made a part of the ceremony. No sacrament or ceremony alone can marry a man and woman. It is their contract with the State which alone marries them. In other words, the mutual consent of the parties, if legally marriageable, to be married constitutes marriage in the eyes of the law, though the statutory requirements as to licenses, banns, ceremonies, and age are not complied with by them. The neglect to comply may be punishable, but it does not, usually, invalidate the marriage.

Required residence, one year; where marriage is annulled for any of the above causes, either may remarry, but on absolute divorce granted for adultery, the guilty party shall not marry during life of the other, with these exceptions, this prohibition is not extra-territorial, and if the guilty party marries out of the State, in accordance with the laws of the State in which the marriage is solemnized, the marriage will be held good in New-York [see case of Van Voorhis vs. Brintnall, 86, N. Y. Reports 18]. The guilty party may also be permitted by the New-York court to marry again upon proving that the other party has remarried, that five years have elapsed since the divorce, and that his conduct has been uniformly good during that time.

North-Carolina.—Wife with child at marriage not by or with knowledge of husband; to wife, if husband is indicted for felony and flees from the State and does not return for one year; also to the husband, if wife refuses sexual relations with him for twelve months. Divorces from bed and board are granted for abandonment, maliciously turning the other out of doors; physical incapacity; cruel or barbarous treatment endangering life; indignities to the person as to render condition intolerable; habitual drunkenness.

Residence required, two years. On absolute divorce, either party may remarry.

North-Dakota.—Extreme cruelty; wilful desertion; wilful neglect and habitual intemperance; each continued for one year; conviction of felony.

Residence required, ninety days. Guilty party cannot marry during lifetime of the other.

Ohio.—Wilful absence for three years; extreme cruelty; physical incapacity; fraudulent contract; gross neglect of duty; habitual drunkenness for three years; imprisonment in penitentiary; divorce procured by either party in another State. Residence required, one year. Either party may remarry.

Oregon.—Conviction of felony; habitual, gross drunkenness for one year; wilful desertion for one year; physical incapacity; cruel and inhuman treatment or personal indignities, rendering life burdensome.

Residence required, one year; neither party can marry until after expiration of time for appeal, and in case of appeal not until after judgment on the appeal.

Pennsylvania.—Wilful and malicious desertion for two years, or where husband has by cruel and abusive treatment endangered his wife's life or offered such indignities to her person as to render her condition intolerable and life burdensome, and thereby forced her to withdraw from his home and family; where wife, by cruel and barbarous treatment, renders condition of husband intolerable; physical incapacity; fraud, force, or coercion in obtaining marriage; conviction of felony and sentence for two or more years.

Rhode-Island.—Any case where marriage was void or voidable by law; where either party is for crime deemed civilly dead, or from absence or other circumstances presumed to be dead; physical incapacity; extreme cruelty; wilful desertion for five years or for a shorter time, in discretion of court; continued drunkenness; neglect or refusal on part of husband to suitably provide for the wife, or for any other gross misbehavior and wickedness in either of the parties repugnant to or in violation of the marriage covenant.

Residence of one year required. No statutory provision as to remarriage.

South-Dakota.—(Same as North-Dakota.)

Tennessee.—Wilful or malicious desertion for two years; conviction of infamous crime; conviction for felony and sentenced to penitentiary; attempting life of the other; physical incapacity; refusal on part of wife to move into this State, and wilfully absenting herself from husband for two years; woman pregnant at time of marriage not by and without the knowledge of the husband; habitual drunkenness.

Divorces from bed and board are granted for cruel and inhuman treatment to wife; indignities to her person, rendering her condition intolerable and forced her to withdraw; abandoned her or turned her out of doors, and refused or neglected to provide for her.

Two years' residence required. On absolute divorce either party may marry, but on divorce for adultery the guilty party shall not marry the party with whom crime was committed during lifetime of the other.

Texas.—Excesses; cruel treatment or outrages, if of such a nature as to render living together insupportable; adultery; desertion for three years; conviction of felony and imprisonment in State prison.

Residence of six months required; either party may marry.

Utah.—Wilful desertion more than one year; wilful neglect to provide for wife; habitual drunkenness; conviction of felony; physical incapacity; cruel treatment to extent of causing great bodily injury or great mental distress. One year's residence required; either party may again marry.

Vermont.—Sentence to hard labor in State prison for life or three years or more; intolerable severity; wilful desertion three years, or absence seven years unheard of; husband grossly, wantonly, and cruelly neglecting to provide for wife; fraud or force in marriage, or either party under age of consent; parties must have lived together in the State.

Petitioner must reside at least one year in State; guilty party shall not marry for three years.

Virginia.—Sentenced to confinement in penitentiary; conviction of infamous offence before marriage unknown to the other; fugitive from justice for two years; wilful desertion for five years; wife with child at marriage not by or with knowledge of husband; wife a prostitute before marriage unknown to husband, and physical incapacity. Divorces from bed and board are granted for cruelty; reasonable apprehension of bodily harm; abandonment or desertion. Court may decree that guilty party shall not marry again without permission of court; residence of one year required.

Washington.—Consent to marriage obtained by fraud or force; abandonment one year; cruel treatment or personal indignities rendering life burdensome; habitual drunkenness, or neglect or refusal to provide; imprisonment in penitentiary or any other cause deemed by the court sufficient; chronic mania or dementia of either party for ten years. Residence of one year required; either party may marry again.

West-Virginia.—Confinement in penitentiary; infamous crime prior to marriage unknown to the other; wilful desertion for three years; wife with child at marriage not by or with knowledge of husband; wife immoral before marriage unknown to husband; husband notoriously licentious, and physical incapacity. Divorces from bed and board are granted for cruel and inhuman treatment; reasonable apprehension of bodily harm; abandonment; desertion; habitual drunkenness.

Residence of one year required. No statutory provision as to remarriage.

Wisconsin.—Imprisonment for life or three or more years; physical incapacity; wilful desertion for one year; cruel and inhuman treatment by personal violence; habitual drunkenness for one year; where the parties have voluntarily lived apart five years; neglect to provide. One year's residence required; either party can remarry.

Wyoming.—Conviction of felony and sentenced therefor; wilful desertion for one year; habitual drunkenness; neglect on part of husband to provide for one year; such indignities as to render condition intolerable; husband guilty of such conduct as to constitute him a vagrant; physical incapacity; conviction of felony or infamous crime before marriage without the other's knowledge; wife with child at marriage not by or with knowledge of husband.

Residence of six months required; no statutory provision as to remarrying.

The courts of every State, and particularly of New-York, are very jealous of their jurisdiction, and generally refuse to recognize as valid a divorce against one of the citizens of the State by the court of another State, unless both parties to the suit were subject at the time to the jurisdiction of the court granting the divorce.

Kansas courts grant divorces for the reason that the applicant's husband or wife has obtained a divorce in another State and the applicant has been forbidden to remarry. If a wife in New-York obtains a divorce from her husband, and he is forbidden to remarry, he may go to Kansas and obtain a divorce on that ground. If his wife contests the case, or can be served with the papers in Kansas, so that she is brought under the jurisdiction of the Kansas court, the courts of New-York must recognize the divorce as valid, and cannot punish the husband for remarrying in New-York.

New-York permits polygamy and polyandry in certain cases. Desertion for five years, without knowledge that the deserter is living, permits the one deserted to marry again; and the second marriage is valid, though the deserter returns. The second marriage may be declared void, but only from the date of the decree, by a court of competent jurisdiction, upon proper petition; but if no such petition is made, and all parties are satisfied, one husband may live in lawful wedlock with two or more wives, or one wife with two or more husbands. The children will inherit, and both wives will be entitled to dower.

According to the Divorce Statistics for twenty years ending 1886, collected by Labor Commissioner Wright, the number of divorces in the United States in that period was 328,716, of which 129,382 were of couples with children, and 57,524 of couples without. The causes were: desertion, 126,676; adultery, 67,686; cruelty, 51,595; drunkenness, 13,866; neglect to provide, 7,955.

Barrenness, Illegitimacy, and Childbirth.

BARRENNESS.—One woman in 20, one man in 30 are barren—that is, 4 per cent of population. It is found that one marriage in 20 is barren, say 5 per cent. Among the nobility of England, 21 per cent have no children, owing to intermarriage of cousins, no less than 4½ per cent of the present nobility being married to cousins.—Mulhall.

CHILDBIRTH, DEATHS IN.—The average for 20 years in England and Wales has been 32 per 10,000 births—that is, 1½ per cent of all mothers die sooner or later in childbirth.—Mulhall.

ILLEGITIMACY.—Percentage of illegitimate births to total births: Greece, 1.6; Ireland, 2.3; Russia, 3.1; Netherlands, 3.5; England, 4.5; Switzerland, 4.6; Canada, 5.0; Spain and Portugal, 5.5; Italy, 6.8; Belgium, 7.0; United States, 7.0; France, 7.2; Germany, 8.4; Norway, 8.5; Scotland, 8.9; Sweden, 10.2; Denmark, 11.2; Austria, 12.9.—Mulhall.

FECUNDITY.—In "Statistique Humaine de la France," M. J. Bertillon presents the following table showing that the French are the least prolific and the Germans the most prolific people of Europe. Number of children born alive annually per 1,000 women of 15 to 50 years: France, 102; Ireland, 114; Belgium, 127; England, 136; Netherlands, 137; Spain, 141; Prussia, 150; Bavaria, 156. Aristotle mentions a woman who had 5 children at a birth four times successively; Menage one who had 21 children in seven years. The Empress Catherine received a Russian woman in 1757 who had had 57 children, all of whom were then living, having been born thus: 16 in four confinements, 21 in seven confinements, 20 in ten confinements, or in all 57 children in 21 confinements. This woman's husband married again, and his second wife had 15 children in 7 confinements. Fedor Vassileff, of Moscow (1782), had 83 children living when pensioned by the Czar. He had 69 children by his first wife at 27 births. Lucas Saez, who was living in Spain in 1883, then had 197 descendants. Mrs. George Hirsch, of Dallas, Tex., is reported, November, 1888, of having been confined of 6 children, 4 being boys and 2 girls. (The above was compiled from Mulhall.) On September 12, 1892, the wife of Charles Billings, in Ashe County, N. C., gave birth to 6 boys, all living.

FATAL HOURS IN ILLNESS.—A writer in the Quarterly Review, several years ago, undertook to investigate the popular notion that there are certain hours during the twenty-four more fatal to life than others. He ascertained the hour of death in 2,880 instances of all ages from a mixed population, and from deaths occurring during a period of several years. The maximum hour of death is from 5 to 6 o'clock A.M., when it is 40 per cent above the average; and the minimum during the hours from 9 till 11 o'clock in the evening, when it is 6½ per cent below the average. Thus the least mortality is during midday hours—namely, from 10 till 3 o'clock; the greatest during early morning hours, from 3 till 6 o'clock. Fishermen say that the times of the ebb and flow of the tides are always critical hours with invalids.—Barker's Facts.

Suicides.

IN European cities the number of suicides per 100,000 inhabitants is as follows: Paris, 42; Lyons, 29; St. Petersburg, 7; Moscow, 11; Berlin, 36; Vienna, 28; London, 23; Rome, 8; Milan, 6; Madrid, 3; Genoa, 31; Brussels, 15; Amsterdam, 14; Lisbon, 2; Christiania, 25; Stockholm, 27; Constantinople, 12; Geneva, 11; Dresden, 51. Madrid and Lisbon show the lowest. Dresden the highest figure.

The average annual suicide rate in countries of the world per 100,000 persons living is given by Barker as follows: Saxony, 31.1; Denmark, 25.8; Schleswig-Holstein, 23.0; Austria 21.2; Switzerland, 20.2; France, 15.7; German Empire, 14.3; Hanover, 14.0; Queensland, 13.5; Prussia, 13.3; Victoria, 11.5 New-South Wales, 9.3; Bavaria, 9.1; New-Zealand, 9.0; South-Australia, 8.9; Sweden, 8.1; Norway, 7.5; Belgium, 6.9; England and Wales, 6.9; Tasmania, 5.3; Hungary, 5.2; Scotland, 4.0; Italy, 3.7; Netherlands, 3.6; United States, 3.5; Russia, 2.9; Ireland, 1.7; Spain, 1.4.

The causes of suicide in European countries are reported as follows: Of 100 suicides: madness, delirium, 18 per cent; alcoholism, 11; vice, crime, 19; different diseases, 2; moral sufferings, 6; family matters, 4; poverty, want, 4; loss of intellect, 14; consequence of crimes, 3; unknown reasons, 19.

The number of suicides in the United States, five years, 1882-87, was 8,226. Insanity was the principal cause, shooting the favorite method. 5,386 acts of suicide were committed in the day, and 2,419 in the night. Summer was the favorite season, June the favorite month, and the 11th the favorite day of the month.

The month in which the largest number of suicides occurs is July.

HOMICIDE IN THE UNITED STATES.

The census bulletin presenting statistics of homicide in the United States in 1890 was prepared by Frederick H. Wines, special agent on pauperism and crime. The following is the summing up of the results of his investigations:

Of 82,329 prisoners in the United States June 1, 1890, the number charged with homicide was 7,386, or 8.97 per cent.

Omitting 35 who were charged with double crimes, 6,958 of them (or 94.65 per cent) were men, and 293 (or 5.35 per cent) were women.

As to color, 4,425 were white, 2,739 negroes, 94 Chinese, 1 Japanese, and 92 Indians.

As to the nativity of the 4,425 whites, 3,157 were born in the United States, 1,213 were foreign born, and the birthplace of 55 is unknown.

A careful and accurate inquiry into the parentage of those born in the United States results in the mathematical conclusion that 56.14 per cent of homicide committed by white men and women is chargeable to the native white element of the population, and 43.86 per cent to the foreign element. On the same scale of 4,614 to 3,605, the negro contribution to homicide is represented by 5,478.

More than one half of the foreign-born whites are unnaturalized, and nearly one fifth are unable to speak the English language.

In respect to age, prisoners charged with homicide range from 11 to 86 years. One sixth of them are under 24 years, and more than one half under 33 years of age. Their average age is 24 years and 193 days. The lowest averages are among the Indians, 30 years and 180 days, and the negroes, 30 years and 279 days. The highest are among the Chinese, 37 years and 246 days, and the foreign-born whites, 41 years and 159 days. The average age of women charged with homicide is 32 years and 216 days. The ages at which homicide was committed are estimated to be at least 5 years below the averages here stated.

Nearly one half of this group of prisoners were found to be unmarried. The number of unmarried was 3,615; married, 2,715; widowed, 703; divorced, 144.

The percentage of those who can both read and write is 61.73; of those who can read only, 4.84; of those who can do neither, 33.43. Of the negroes, more than one half can neither read nor write; of the Indians, nearly two thirds. The percentage of illiteracy among the foreign born is nearly or quite three times as great as that among the native whites.

The number who have received a higher education is 253, or 3.44 per cent.

More than four fifths have no trade. The foreign born and their children have much more generally acquired a trade than the native whites, and the native whites than the negroes.

The occupations of 6,546 prior to incarceration have been ascertained, and are grouped as follows: professional, 102; official, 38; agricultural, 1,893; lumber, 29; mining, 212; fisheries, 19; trade and commerce, 173; transportation, 380; manufactures and mechanical industries, 1,086; personal service, 690; unskilled labor, 2,253; miscellaneous, 21.

The number employed at the time of their arrest was 5,659; unemployed, 1,225; unknown, 467.

The habits of 973, in respect of use of intoxicating liquors, are not stated. The remaining 6,378 are classed as follows: total abstainers, 1,282; occasional or moderate drinkers, 3,829; drunkards, 1,267.

The number arrested and imprisoned in the State of their residence, was 6,268; out of the State, 861.

Four hundred and sixty-three had served as soldiers in the Civil War, 224 were federal prisoners, 534 were known to have served a previous term of imprisonment.

As to their physical condition, 6,149 were in good health, 600 ill, 283 insane, 24 blind, 14 deaf and dumb, 18 idiots, and 263 crippled.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

The only States in which the death penalty is forbidden by law are Rhode-Island, Michigan and Wisconsin. In Rhode-Island, the only alternative is imprisonment for life.

Murderous Nations.

Italy takes the lead of European nations, with an average annual crop of murders of 2,470, a ratio per 10,000 deaths of 29.4; Spain follows, with a ratio of 23.8, and 1,200 murders; Austria, ratio of 8.8, and 600 murders; France, ratio of 8.0, and 662 murders; England, ratio of 7.1, and 377 murders.

In England, in the reign of Henry VIII., there were 71,400 persons hanged or beheaded; in one year 300 beggars were executed for soliciting alms. In 1820 no less than 46 persons were hanged in England for forging Bank of England notes, some of which were afterward asserted to be good. Capital punishment was abolished in Italy in 1875, and murders increased 42 per cent. (Compiled from Mulhall.)

Game Laws.

NEW-YORK.

THESE are the regulations of the new game law of May 5, 1892, and in force January 1, 1893. Changes are liable during year.

Deer.—Open season in Kings, Queens, and Suffolk Counties and Long Island Sound from November 10 to 16; elsewhere, from August 16 to October 31; but absolutely prohibited in Ulster, Greene, Sullivan, and Delaware Counties till August 16, 1897. Taking alive for breeding in State deer parks permitted at any time anywhere. Only two can be killed or taken alive by anybody each season. Fawns must never be killed or caught. No traps, salt licks, or other devices can be made or used. Dogs can be used in Sullivan County from October 1 to November 30; in Kings, Queens, and Suffolk Counties and Long Island Sound from November 10 to 16; elsewhere, from September 11 to October 10, but never in St. Lawrence, Delaware, Greene, or Ulster Counties. Any one may shoot dogs so used at other times. Can be sold only from August 16 to November 14, and possessed only from August 16 to October 31. Only one carcass killed in New-York may be transported when accompanied by owner. Crusting or the shooting or capturing of yarded deer forbidden.

Moose, Caribou, and Antelope.—Hunting, killing, possession, or sale absolutely forbidden.

Hares and Rabbits.—Open season in Kings, Queens, and Suffolk Counties and Long Island Sound from November 1 to December 31; elsewhere, any time.

Black and Gray Squirrels.—Open season in Kings, Queens, and Suffolk Counties and Long Island Sound from November 1 to December 31; elsewhere, from September 1 to December 31.

Web-Footed Wild Fowl.—Except wild geese and brant. Open season in Kings, Queens, and Suffolk Counties and Long Island Sound from October 1 to April 30; elsewhere, from September 1 to April 30. Hours limited to from dawn to sunset.

Quail.—Open season from November 1 to December 31; but on Robbin's Island, while belonging to the Robbins Island Club, from October 15 to January 31. Killing or possession forbidden for five years in Genesee, Wyoming, Orleans, Livingston, Monroe, Cayuga, Seneca, Wayne, Tompkins, Tioga, Onondaga, Ontario, Steuben, and Cortland Counties. Can be sold from November 1 to January 31, and possessed from November 1 to December 31. Cannot be snared, trapped, or netted.

Partridge, all Grouse, and Woodcock.—Open season in Kings, Queens, and Suffolk Counties and Long Island Sound from November 1 to December 31; elsewhere, from August 15 to December 31. Can be sold in above counties from November 1 to January 31; elsewhere, from August 15 to January 31, and possessed in above counties from November 1 to December 31; elsewhere, from August 15 to December 31. Transportation allowed only when with owner. No partridge or grouse can be snared, trapped, or netted.

Robins.—Must never be killed.

Wild Birds.—Must never be killed, except English sparrow, crane, hawk, crow, raven, crow-blackbird, common blackbirds, or kingfishers.

Bass.—Black and Oswego; open season from June 1 to December 31, but in Lake George from August 1 to December 31, and in Black Lake, St. Lawrence County, from May 6 to December 31. Black bass must be eight inches long.

Muskallonge.—Open season from June 1 to December 31.

Pike.—Open season always, save in Susquehanna and tributaries from November 1 to May 30.

Salmon.—Open season from March 1 to August 15. Must be eighteen inches long.

Salmon Trout and Land-locked Salmon.—Open season in Kings, Queens, and Suffolk Counties and Long Island Sound from April 1 to September 30; elsewhere, in inland waters, May 1 to September 30. Salmon trout can be sold if not caught during closed season, and be possessed from May 1 to September 30. Must not be molested while spawning. Transportation allowed only when with owner.

Shad and Herring.—Open season in Rondout Creek, and Hudson and Delaware Rivers from March 15 to June 15 (netting then permitted, save from sunset Saturdays to sunrise Mondays). Nets forbidden north of dam at Troy. Open season elsewhere always.

Trout.—Open season in Kings, Queens, and Suffolk Counties and Long Island Sound, in Spring Brook Creek (in Monroe and Livingston Counties), from April 1 to August 31, and in Lake George from May 1 to August 31; elsewhere, from April 15 to August 31. Must be six inches long. Must not be molested while spawning. Transportation allowed only when with owner.

Shooting on Sunday, fishing within fifty rods of State fisheries and fishways, drawing off water to catch fish, pollution of waters, and stocking of the Adirondack waters with any fish except of the salmon and trout families, fishing through the ice in waters inhabited by trout, salmon trout, or land-locked salmon, prohibited. Salmon, black bass, trout, salmon trout, pike, and perch caught in nets, in fishing for other fish in the Hudson River, must be cast back.

University Extension.

THE popular educational movement known as University Extension was started by the University of Cambridge in 1872. In that year Professor Stuart gave a course of lectures before various women's clubs in the north of England. The popular favor which his lectures instantly won encouraged him to repeat them before various audiences of different character and make-up in all parts of the country. The necessity of varying his treatment of the subject to suit hearers of widely different minds, training, and experience, led him to develop a special system of teaching. Briefly, this includes a series of lectures upon some not too extended subject in history, literature, or science. The presentation is clear, concise, suggestive, aiming to take advantage of the mental maturity of the audience, and making this supply, as far as possible, the lack of special preparation in the particular field. Each lecture was followed up by Professor Stuart with a conference for further discussion and explanation. Definite references were given to the best books on the subject, and those following the courses were encouraged to well-directed reading, which was in turn made more helpful by reviews and written exercises. An examination at the end of the lecture series was made by Professor Stuart, at once a stimulus to study and a test of results accomplished. This carefully evolved plan of work offered to busy men and women, even in the smaller towns and villages, full opportunities of instruction by enthusiastic, scholarly men. The growth of the movement was constant both under the direction of Cambridge University, and later under the direction of Oxford and of the London Society for University Extension. During the past season of 1892 nearly eighty thousand students followed courses under these auspices.

The movement was introduced into the United States in 1890 by the American Society for the Extension of University Teaching, founded in Philadelphia by Provost William Pepper of the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Richard G. Moulton, of the Cambridge University Extension staff, gave invaluable help during the first year, as did Secretary Michael E. Sadler and Professor Halford J. Mackinder, of Oxford, during the second winter. The first season of 1890–91 saw the establishment of twenty-three "centres" in and near Philadelphia, at which more than forty courses of lectures were given to an average attendance of nearly ten thousand. In the winter of 1891–92 the number of centres was increased to sixty, with a like increase in the number of lectures and of hearers. Through the "circuit" of five or six towns, which joined in engaging the same lecturer, even the points most distant from university towns were enabled to share the benefits of the movement. The growth of the work led the American Society to engage the entire time of the most successful Extension lecturers, and in securing Edward T. Devine and Henry W. Rolfe, it has formed the nucleus of a permanent staff.

A same need of more workers in this field has been met by the establishment in Philadelphia of a seminary for the training of University Extension lecturers and organizers, which was opened on October 1, 1892, with a faculty made up from the most distinguished professors of Haverford, Swarthmore, Drexel, and the University of Pennsylvania, under the direction of Professor Edmund J. James, the President of the American Society. The Seminary is distinctly a place for advanced study, and its members are largely graduates of the leading American universities.

More than a hundred American colleges have, from the first, co-operated in the work of the American Society. Through this joint action and common experience, a well-developed plan has been evolved by which institutions of learning in all parts of the country are now enabled to share for themselves in the benefits of the movement and to extend them still further to others. Any college or university may join in three ways in the work of University Extension as directed by the American Society.

1. A college desiring to engage directly in Extension teaching may avail itself of the resources at the disposal of the Society to arouse interest in the subject and to inform the public as to the scope and methods of the work. For this purpose efficient aid is found in the circulars of the Society, the addresses delivered at its meetings, and the syllabi prepared by its lecturers.

2. A college or university may co-operate more closely with the Society by using the latter's organizers to form centres near the institutions, which shall be supplied with lecturers from its own faculty. For these centres a special joint certificate will be issued by the American Society and the Extension department of such institutions.

3. Still another form of co-operation will be carried out as far as practicable. The American Society is willing, so far as the circumstances of the work under its immediate care may permit, to send its staff lecturers to any locality to engage in work under the auspices of any college or university which chooses to avail itself of their services; the lecturers to be for the time being members of the Extension staff of the respective institution; provided that the work be carried on according to plans approved by the Society. This will enable an institution to secure at small expense, for the organization of its Extension work, all the experience at the disposal of the Society.

The movement has spread from Philadelphia as a centre to all parts of the United States. In Rhode-Island, Brown University has been active in the work. In Connecticut, representatives of Yale, Wesleyan, Trinity, and Hartford Theological are on the executive committee of the State Branch of the American Society. In New-York, an appropriation of $10,000 by the Legislature has enabled the University of the State through its secretary, Mr. Melvil Dewey, to organize centres in many important towns and cities. Rutgers College in New-Jersey has been especially active in offering scientific courses for the farmer of that State.

The most promising field in the West is Wisconsin, where the faculty of the State University has formed an Extension Department, under the direction of Mr. Lyman P. Powell. The Chicago Society for University Extension, formed by the Northwestern, Chicago, Illinois, and Indiana Universities, is pushing the work in the Mississippi Valley, while farther west the Universities of Kansas, Colorado, and California have conducted many courses. The annual conferences in Philadelphia during the Christmas holidays have attracted hundreds of workers.

A monthly Journal of the American Society is published, and provides full information as to the system, cost of membership, etc. There is also a "Handbook of University Extension," edited by George J. James, General Secretary of the American Society. The motto of the system is "Help people to help themselves." Instead of obliging the student always to come to the university, the university proposes, in addition to its home work, to go out to the people.

A Shakespearian Table.

PROFESSOR ROLFE, the Shakespearian scholar, has counted the lines which the principal characters in Shakespeare's plays have to speak. His rule was to consider parts of lines, beginnings and endings of speeches as full lines. This is the result:

	Lines to Speak.		Lines to Speak.		Lines to Speak.
Hamlet	1,569	Macbeth	705	Mistress Page	361
Richard III	1,161	Cleopatra	670	Viola	353
Iago	1,117	Prospero	665	Julia ("Two Gentlemen").	323
Othello	888	Romeo	618	Volumnia	315
Coriolanus	886	Petruchio	585	Beatrice	309
Timon	863	Touchstone	516	Lady Macbeth	261
Lear	770	Helen ("All's Well")	479	Miranda ("Tempest")	142
Richard II	755	Isabella	426	Perdita	128
Brutus	727	Desdemona	389	Cordelia	115

Henry V., as king and prince (in "Henry IV." and "Henry V."), has 1,987 lines to speak, and Falstaff, in both parts of "Henry IV." and "Henry V." and in the "Merry Wives," has 1,895.

Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle.

Principal ....Dr. Jesse L. Hurlbut, Chautauqua. | Office Secretary....Miss K. F. Kimball, Buffalo.

The Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle was organized in 1878 at the instance of Lewis Miller. Its purpose is to promote habits of reading and study in nature, art, science, and in secular and sacred literature, in connection with the routine of daily life; to give college graduates a review of the college course; to secure for those whose educational advantages have been limited the college student's general outlook upon the world and life, and to develop the habit of close, connected, persistent thinking.

It endeavors to encourage individual study in lines and by text-books which shall be indicated; by local circles for mutual help and encouragement in such studies; by summer courses of lectures and "students' sessions" at Chautauqua, and by written reports of each year's work.

Any person may join the circle upon payment of the annual membership fee, which is fifty cents. No entrance examination is necessary. Persons may enter for one year, but the full course is four years, after which the graduate receives a diploma. The course of studies is directed from the centre of the circle, and may be pursued at home and in the local circles. Attendance at the summer meetings at Chautauqua, N. Y., is urged, but is not imperative. Application for membership should be made to John H. Vincent, Chancellor, Buffalo, N. Y.

There are over fifty Chautauqua assemblies in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Japan, India, South-America, Australasia, and South-Africa, with a membership of a half million persons. All are modelled in organization and methods upon the original Chautauqua Assembly, but are independent in management.

A Catholic Chautauqua or summer school has been established at New-London, Conn., under the auspices of distinguished clergymen and laymen, and the first meetings were held from July 30 to August 14, 1892. The following were the officers of the first year: Rev. Morgan M. Sheedy, president, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rev. P. A. Halpin, S. J., first vice-president, New-York; John H. Haaren, second vice-president, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. A. T. Toomey, third vice-president, Washington, D. C.; Warren E. Mosher, secretary and treasurer, Youngstown, Ohio; Rev. Thomas McMillan, C. S. P., chairman of General Council, New-York; Rev. Joseph H. McMahon, chairman of Board of Studies, New-York; George E. Hardy, chairman Committee on Entertainment, New-York; William J. Moran, chairman Committee on Arrangements, New-York; Rev. John F. Mullany, financial committee for Northern and Western New-York, Syracuse, N. Y.; John P. Brophy, financial committee, New-York; G. P. Lathrop, Esq., chairman Local Committee, New-London, Conn.

The Faribault System of Education.

THIS compromise between the common school system and the parochial system of the Roman Catholic Church of the United States is the device of Dr. Ireland, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Minnesota, and may be briefly described as follows: In the town of Faribault, Minn., the Catholic Church had built a parochial school, in which the Sisters of the Order of St. Dominic were teachers. The school was in a very precarious condition, and, in order to keep it in existence, Archbishop Ireland, about two years ago, proposed to the Board of Education of that town to sell them the schoolhouse for the sum of $1, if they would guarantee to keep the same teachers and be responsible for their pay. The transaction was closed with the agreement that no religious services were to be held, that religion was not to be taught, and that all crucifixes and other emblems of Catholicity were to be taken away There is a catechism class after school hours for such pupils as wish to benefit themselves by the religious training given by the Sisters, but it is treated entirely as a separate arrangement. The plan has met with much opposition from Catholic clergymen and laymen, but it has its advocates also and has been provisionally tolerated by the Propaganda at Rome.

* The French Academy is one of five academies, and the highest, constituting the Institute of France. It was founded in 1635 by the Cardinal Richelieu, and reorganized in 1816. It is composed of 40 members, elected for life, after personal application and the submission of their nomination to the head of the State. It meets twice weekly, at the Palace Mazarin, 23 Quai Conti, Paris, and is "the hi, hest authority on everything appertaining to the niceties of the French language, to grammar, rhetoric and poetry, and the publicat.on of the French classics." The chief officer is the secretary, who has a life tenure of his position. The present permanent secretary is Charles Camille Doucet, who was elected an Academician in 1865. A chair in the Academy is the highest ambition of most literary Frenchmen.

The other academies of the Institute of France are: The Academy of Inscriptions and Belles-Lettres, with 40 members; Academy of Sciences, with 66 members; Academy of Fine Arts, with 40 members (as follows: Painting, 14; sculpture, 8; architecture, 8; engraving, 4; musical composition, 6), and Academy of Moral and Political Science, with 40 members. All members are elected for life.

The Scotch-Irish Society of America.

OFFICERS.

President—Robert Bonner, New-York City. Vice-President-General—Rev. J. S. McIntosh, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa. First Vice-President-at-Large—Colonel T. T. Wright, Nashville, Tenn. Second Vice-President at-Large—Dr. J. H. Bryson, Huntsville, Ala. Secretary—A. C. Floyd, Columbia, Tenn. Treasurer—John McIlhenny, Philadelphia, Pa. There are also vice-presidents for the States and Territories represented in the society, Rev. Dr. John Hall representing New-York, Colonel A. K. McClure, Pennsylvania, and Bishop Hugh Miller Thompson, Mississippi.

This society was organized in May, 1889, when the first Scotch-Irish Congress was held at Columbia, Tenn. It is composed of the people of Scotch-Irish descent, residents of the United States. Its purpose is declared to be "the preservation of Scotch-Irish history and associations, the increase and diffusion of knowledge regarding the Scotch-Irish people, the keeping alive of the characteristic qualities and sentiments of the race, the promotion of intelligent patriotism and the development of social intercourse and fraternal feeling." State societies are being formed, and the growth of the organization is expected to be large, as the race is widely extended over the Union, and particularly in the middle South, where such men as Andrew Jackson, John C. Calhoun and Sam Houston were its types.

The second congress of the society was held at Pittsburgh, Pa., May 29–June 1, 1890. The third at Louisville, Ky., May 12–15, 1891. The fourth at Atlanta, Ga., April 28–May 1, 1892. The fifth will be held at Springfield, O., May 12–15, 1893. The society publishes a series of annual volumes styled "The Scotch-Irish in America."

At what age does one become "old"? Five centuries ago a man was old at fifty. But the hale and hearty gentleman of to-day who has just turned sixty would probably protest against being classed among old people, even if famous. That his susceptibilities may not be wounded, therefore, a separating dash has been discreetly introduced after age sixty-five.

American Whist.

SCORING.

1. A game consists of seven points, each trick above six counting one. The value of the game is determined by deducting the loser's score from seven.

FORMING THE TABLE.

2. Those first in the room have the preference. If by reason of two or more arriving at the same time more than four assemble, the preference among the last comers is determined by cutting, a lower cut giving the preference over all cutting higher. A complete table consists of six. The four having the preference play.

3. If two players cut intermediate cards of equal value they cut again, and the lower of the new cut plays with the original lowest.

4. If three players cut cards of equal value they cut again. If the fourth has cut the highest card the lowest two of the new cut are partners, and the lowest deals. If the fourth has cut the lowest card he deals, and the highest two of the new cut are partners.

5. At the end of the game, if there are more than four belonging to the table, a sufficient number of the players retire to admit those awaiting their turn to play. In determining which players remain in, those who have played a less number of consecutive games have the preference over all who have played a greater number; between two or more who have played an equal number the preference is determined by cutting, a lower cut giving the preference over all cutting higher.

6. To entitle one to enter a table he must declare his intention to do so before any one of the players has cut for the purpose of commencing a new game or of cutting out.

CUTTING.

7. In cutting, the ace is the lowest card. All must cut from the same pack. If the player exposes more than one card he must cut again. Drawing cards from the outspread pack may be resorted to in place of cutting.

SHUFFLING.

8. Before every deal the cards must be shuffled. When two packs are used the dealer's partner must collect and shuffle the cards for the ensuing deal and place them at his right hand. In all cases the dealer may shuffle last.

9. The pack must not be shuffled during the play of a hand, nor so as to expose the face of any card.

CUTTING TO THE DEALER.

10. The dealer must present the pack to his right-hand adversary to be cut; the adversary must take a portion from the top of the pack and place it toward the centre of the table; at least four cards must be left in each packet; the dealer must reunite the packets by placing the one not removed in cutting upon the other.

11. If in cutting or in reuniting the separate packets a card is exposed, the pack must be reshuffled and cut; if there is any confusion of the cards or doubt as to the place where the pack was separated, there must be a new cut.

12. If the dealer reshuffles the cards after they have been properly cut he loses his deal.

DEALING.

13. When the pack has been properly cut and reunited the dealer must distribute the cards one at a time to each player in regular rotation, beginning at his left. The last, which is the trump card, must be turned up before the dealer. At the end of the hand, or when the deal is lost, the deal passes to the player next to the dealer on his left, and so on to each in turn.

14. There must be a new deal by the same dealer:

I. If any card except the last is faced in the pack.

II. If during the deal or during the play of the hand the pack is proved incorrect or imperfect, but any prior score made with that pack shall stand.

15. If, during the deal, a card is exposed, the side not in fault may demand a new deal, provided neither of that side has touched a card. If a new deal does not take place the exposed card cannot be called.

16. Any one dealing out of turn or with his adversaries' cards may be stopped before the trump card is turned, after which the deal is valid and the cards, if changed, so remain.

MISDEALING.

17. It is a misdeal:

I. If the dealer omits to have the pack cut and his adversaries discover the error before the trump card is turned and before looking at any of their cards.

II. If he deals a card incorrectly and fails to correct the error before dealing another.

III. If he counts the cards on the table or in the remainder of the pack.

IV. If, having a perfect pack, he does not deal to each player the proper number of cards, and the error is discovered before all have played to the first trick.

V. If he looks at the trump card before the deal is completed.

VI. If he places the trump card face downward upon his own or any other player's cards.

THE TRUMP CARD.

18. The dealer must leave the trump card face upward on the table until it is his turn to play to the first trick. If left on the table until after the second trick has been turned and quitted, it becomes an exposed card. After it has been lawfully taken up it must not be named, and any player naming it is liable to have his highest or his lowest trump called by either adversary. A player may, however, ask what the trump suit is.

IRREGULARITIES IN THE HANDS.

19. If at any time after all have played to the first trick, the pack being perfect, a player is found to have either more or less than his correct number of cards, and his adversaries have their right number, the latter, upon the discovery of such surplus or deficiency, may consult, and shall have the choice:

I. To have a new deal; or

II. To have the hand played out; in which case the surplus or missing card or cards are not taken into account.

If either of the adversaries also has more or less than his correct number there must be a new deal.

If any player has a surplus card by reason of an omission to play to a trick, his adversaries can exercise the foregoing privilege only after he has played to the trick following the one in which such omission occurred.

EXPOSED CARDS.

20. The following are exposed cards:

I. Every card faced upon the table otherwise than in the regular course of play, but not including a card led out of turn.

II. Every card thrown with the one led or played to the current trick. The player must indicate the one led or played.

III. Every card so held by a player that his partner admits that he has seen any portion of its face.

IV. All the cards in a hand so lowered or held by a player that his partner admits that he has seen the hand.

V. Every card named by the player holding it.

21. All exposed cards are liable to be called by either adversary, must be left face upward on the table, and must not be taken into the player's hand again. A player must lead or play them when they are called, provided he can do so without revoking. The call may be repeated until the card is played. A player cannot be prevented from leading or playing a card liable to be called; if he can get rid of it in the course of play no penalty remains.

22. If a player leads a card better than any his adversaries hold of the suit, and then leads one or more other cards without waiting for his partner to play, the latter may be called upon by either adversary to take the first trick, and the other cards thus improperly played are exposed cards; it makes no difference whether he plays them one after the other or throws them all on the table together; after the first card is played the others are exposed.

23. A player having an exposed card must not play until the adversaries have stated whether or not they wish to call it. If he plays another card without so waiting, such card is an exposed card.

LEADING OUT OF TURN.

24. If any player leads out of turn or before the preceding trick has been turned and quitted, a suit may be called from him or his partner when it is next the turn of either of them to lead. The penalty can be enforced only by the adversary on the right of the player from whom a suit can lawfully be called.

If a player so called on to lead a suit has none of it, or if all have played to the false lead, no penalty can be enforced. If all have not played to the trick, the cards erroneously played to such false lead cannot be called, and must be taken back.

PLAYING OUT OF TURN.

25. If the third hand plays before the second the fourth hand may also play before the second.

26. If the third hand has not played and the fourth hand plays before the second, the latter may be called upon by the third hand to play his highest or lowest card of the suit led, or, if he has none, to trump or not to trump the trick.

REVOKING.

27. A revoke is a renounce in error not corrected in time. A player renounces in error when, holding one or more cards of the suit led, he plays a card of a different suit.

28. A renounce in error may be corrected by the player making it before the trick in which it occurs has been turned and quitted, unless either he or his partner, whether in his right turn or otherwise, has led or played to the following trick, or unless his partner has asked whether or not he has any of the suit renounced.

29. If a player corrects his mistake in time to save a revoke the card improperly played by him becomes an exposed card. Any player or players who have played after him may withdraw their cards and substitute others; the cards so withdrawn are not liable to be called.

30. The penalty for revoking is the transfer of two tricks from the revoking side to their adversaries. It can be claimed for as many revokes as occur during the hand. The revoking side cannot win the game in that hand; if both sides revoke neither can win the game in that hand.

31. The revoking player and his partner may require the hand in which the revoke has been made to be played out, if the revoke loses them the game; they nevertheless score all points made by them up to the score of six.

32. At the end of a hand the claimants of a revoke may search all the tricks. If the cards have been mixed the claim may be urged and proved if possible; but no proof is necessary and the revoke is established if after it has been claimed the accused player or his partner mixes the cards before they have been examined to the satisfaction of the adversaries.

33. The revoke can be claimed at any time before the cards have been presented and cut for the following deal, but not thereafter.

MISCELLANEOUS.

34. If a player is lawfully called upon to play the highest or lowest of a suit or to trump or not to trump a trick, or to lead a suit, and unnecessarily fails to comply, he is liable to the same penalty as if he had revoked.

35. Any one during the play of a trick and before the cards have been touched for the purpose of gathering them together may demand that the players draw their cards.

36. If any one, prior to his partner playing, calls attention in any manner to the trick or to the score, the adversary last to play to the trick may require the offender's partner to play his highest or lowest of the suit led, or, if he has none, to trump or not to trump the trick.

37. In all cases where a penalty has been incurred the offender must await the decision of the adversary entitled to exact it. If the wrong adversary demands a penalty, or a wrong penalty is demanded, none can be enforced.

38. When a trick has been turned and quitted it must not again be seen until after the hand has been played. A violation of this law subjects the offender's side to the same penalty as in case of a lead out of turn.

39. If any player says, "I can win the rest," "The rest are ours," "We have the game," or words to that effect, his partner's hand must be laid upon the table and treated as exposed cards.

40. League clubs may adopt any rule requiring or permitting methods of scoring or of forming the table different from those above prescribed.

NEW-YORK CHESS ASSOCIATION.

White to play and mate in two moves.

1892 was a notable year in the annals of the royal game and chronicled many important events. Showalter opened the new year by wresting the United States championship from Max Judd, of St. Louis, who had defeated him in a previous match. In the return meeting, which terminated in January, 1892, Showalter won by the score of 7 to 4. He was then challenged by S. Lipschutz, of the Manhattan Club of New-York, who won the United States championship by the decisive score of 7 to 1. The return match, involving the championship of the world, began January 1, between Steinitz and Tschigorin, at Havana, and was won by the former by the score of 10 to 8 and 5 draws.

Meetings were held as usual in many of the States on Washington's Birthday. At the fourteenth annual meeting of the New-York State Association thirty-two masters participated, and the chief honors were divided among Messrs. Hodges, Olley, Delmar, and Eccles, Messrs. Halpern, Ferris, and De Visser winning the prizes for problem-solving. At the midsummer meeting, Voight won the first prize, and Hodges, who holds the championship, defeated Delmar in a set match by five straight wins. S. Lisner, of Hoboken, won the New-Jersey championship at the annual meeting, held at Newark. S. N. Cunningham won the Rhode-Island championship at the Providence meeting, and G. L. Curtis carried off the Ohio honors at Toledo.

The summer meeting of the Indiana Association was held at Kokomo, and was won by H. C. Brown, but at the December meeting, held at Logansport, the championship was won by Otto Ballar, and an exhibition match, which was played between Showalter and Lasker, resulted in a tie, and will be decided by a set match of seven games, for a stake of $1,500.

The first meeting of the Texas Chess Association was held at San Antonio, and resulted in a tie for chief honors between Messrs. Ford and Norton.

Team matches were played by telegraph between the Manhattan Club of New-York and the New-Orleans Club, the former winning by the score of 6½ to 3½. The City Club of New-York lost to the Brooklyn Club in a team match by the score of 14½ to 9½, but defeated the Juniors, of Philadelphia, 6 to 4.

The National Tournament in London closed March 18, the winners being: Lasker, 9; Mason, 7½; Loman, 7; Bird and Locock, 6½. Lasker won the London Master's Tournament in April, and then won set matches against Blackburne, Bird, and other masters, without suffering a single defeat. He then challenged Dr. Tarrash, who, for the fourth time in succession, had carried off the international honors of the German Association held at Dresden. Tarrash declined to play upon the grounds that Lasker had not won his spurs in an international contest.

Lasker arrived in the United States on October 6, 1892, and played a series of exhibition games against the leading players of the most prominent clubs throughout the United States. It has been computed that he lost but twenty-five games out of nearly four hundred, but the result cannot be accepted as an international test, as he has yet to meet our best players in set matches.

The intercollegiate tournament for a $500 trophy began in New-York on December 27, between representative champions selected from the different colleges, and terminated on January 2, 1893, Columbia winning by the score of 9 to 3, Edward Hymes winning six straights, and his associate, Edward Libaire, four. Harvard secured second place, with a score of 7½ to 4½. The Harvard players were Sidney M. Ballou and George B. Wilson. The Yale champions, Arthur Bumstead and Alburn E. Skinner, won 5 to 7. Samuel Dickey and Boyd R. Ewing, of Princeton, scored 2½ to 9½. Tournaments will be held in the colleges during the year to select representative champions, who will compete in the annual contest for the intercollegiate championship which will be held each year in the city of New-York to determine which college shall hold the trophy for the ensuing year. At present the competition is limited to Columbia, Harvard, Yale, and Princeton, but after the year 1895 all the colleges of the United States will enter the lists.

William Steinitz, who has held the world's chess championship for upward of twenty years without the loss of a single match, has officially announced his retirement from active match play, and declined defies which were issued in behalf of Dr. Tarrash and E. Lasker.

Spelling Reform.

THE American Philological Association has recommended the following "Rules for New Spellings," and a resolution has been introduced in Congress instructing the Public Printer to conform to them in all printing for the Government:

1. Drop UE at the end of words like dialogue, catalogue, etc., where the preceding vowel is short. Thus spell demagog, epilog, synagog, etc.
2. Drop final E in such words as definite, infinite, favorite, etc., where the preceding vowel is short. Thus spell opposit, preterit, hypocrit, requisit, etc.
3. Drop final TE in words like quartette, coquette, cigarette, etc. Thus spell cigaret, roset, epaulet, vedet, gazet, etc.
4. Drop final ME in words like programme. Thus spell program, oriflam, gram, etc.
5. Change PH to F in words like phantom, telegraph, phase, etc. Thus spell alfabet, paragraf, filosofy, fonetic, fotograf, etc.
6. Substitute E for the difthongs Æ and Œ when they have the sound of that letter. Thus spell eolian, esthetic, diarrhea, subpena, esofagus, atheneum, etc.

The Association says: "English spelling is the worst in the world. Millions of dollars are wasted each year in the writing and printing of useless letters. The education of our children is retarded and the progress of our people is hampered by our cumbrous, illogical, misleading orthografy. The scholarship of the world is almost a unit in demanding a change."

Bryant's Index Expurgatorius.

WHEN William Cullen Bryant was editor of the New-York "Evening Post," the following list of words, which writers and reporters on the paper were forbidden to use, was posted in the editorial room. Mr. Parke Godwin, in a letter to the editor of THE ALMANAC, says: "Mr. Bryant's Index grew up gradually out of the bad habits of reporters, who in their haste were apt to make use of words and phrases that were offensive to a nicer taste. He did not exclude forms of expression that were incorrect or improper only, but others that had become almost nauseating as commonplaces or as slang. He did not like to see the vulgarisms of the street introduced into the newspaper, lest they might make their way into literature."

The "Index Expurgatorius" had its beginning during the closing years of the great Civil War, and some of the objectionable words in the list were peculiar to the period, and have since passed out of general use.

Bible Statistics.

THE following statement is on the authority of a communication published in Notes and Queries (London). It is represented to be the fruits of three years' labor by the indefatigable Dr. Horne, and is given by him in his introduction to the study of the Scriptures. The basis is an old English Bible of the King James version.

OLD TESTAMENT.—Number of books, 39; chapters, 929; verses, 23,214; words, 593,493; letters, 2,728,100.
NEW TESTAMENT.—Number of books, 27; chapters, 260; verses, 7,959; words, 181, 253; letters, 838,380.
THE BIBLE.—Total number of books, 66; chapters, 1,189; verses, 31,173; words, 773,746; letters, 3,566,480.
APOCRYPHA.—Number of books, 14; chapters, 183; verses, 6,031; words, 125,185.

OLD TESTAMENT.—The middle book of the Old Testament is Proverbs. The middle chapter is Job 29. The middle verse is 2 Chronicles 20, between verses 17 and 18. The shortest book is Obadiah. The shortest verse is 1 Chronicles 1:25. The word "and" occurs 35,543 times. Ezra 7:21 contains all the letters of our alphabet. The word "Selah" occurs 73 times and only in the poetical books. 2 Kings 19 and Isaiah 37 are alike. The Book of Esther does not contain the words God or Lord. The last two verses of 2 Chronicles and the opening verses of the Book of Ezra are alike. Ezra 2 and Nehemiah 7 are alike. There are nearly 30 books mentioned, but not found in the Bible, consisting of civil records and other ancient writings now nearly all lost. About 26 of these are alluded to in the Old Testament.

NEW TESTAMENT.—The middle book is 2 Thessalonians. The middle chapter is between Romans 13 and 14. The middle verse is Acts 17:17. The smallest book is 2 John. The smallest verse is John 11:35. The word "and" occurs 10 684 times. The name Jesus occurs nearly 700 times in the Gospels and Acts, and in the Epistles less than 70 times. The name Christ alone occurs about 60 times in the Gospels and Acts, and about 240 times in the Epistles and Revelation. The term Jesus Christ occurs 5 times in the Gospels.

THE BIBLE.—The middle book is Micah. The middle (and smallest) chapter is Psalm 117. The middle verse is Psalm 118:8. The middle line is 2 Chronicles 4:16 the largest book is that of the Psalms; the largest chapter is Psalm 119. The word Jehovah (or Lord) occurs 6,855 times. The word "and" occurs 46,227 times. The number of authors of the Bible is 50. The Bible was not until modern times divided into chapters and verses. The division of chapters has been attributed to Lanfrank, Archbishop of Canterbury, in the reign of William I.; but the real author of this division was Cardinal Hugo de Sancto-Caro, about 1236. The number of languages on earth is estimated at 3,000; the Bible or parts of it have been rendered into only about 180. The first English translation complete of the Bible was by Wickliffe in 1380. The first American edition was printed in Boston in 1752.

Copyright Law of the United States.

DIRECTIONS FOR SECURING COPYRIGHT UNDER THE REVISED ACTS OF CONGRESS, INCLUDING THE PROVISIONS FOR FOREIGN COPYRIGHT, BY ACT OF MARCH 3, 1891.

SECTION 4,952 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in force December 1, 1873, as amended by the act of June 18, 1874, as amended by the act of March 3, 1891, provides that the author, inventor, designer, or proprietor of any book, map, chart, dramatic or musical composition, engraving, cut, print, or photograph or negative thereof, or of a painting, drawing, chromo, statuary, and of models or designs intended to be perfected as works of the fine arts, and the executors, administrators, or assigns of any such person, shall, upon complying with the provisions of this chapter, have the sole liberty of printing, reprinting, publishing, completing, copying, executing, finishing, and vending the same; and, in the case of a dramatic composition, of publicly performing or representing it, or causing it to be performed or represented by others. And authors or their assigns shall have exclusive right to dramatize or translate any of their works for which copyright shall have been obtained under the laws of the United States.

PRINTED TITLE REQUIRED.

A printed copy of the title of the book, map, chart, dramatic or musical composition, engraving, cut, print, photograph, or chromo, or a description of the painting, drawing, statue, statuary, or model or design for a work of the fine arts, for which copyright is desired, must be delivered to the Librarian of Congress, or deposited in the mail, within the United States, prepaid, addressed "LIBRARIAN OF CONGRESS, WASHINGTON, D. C." This must be done on or before day of publication in this or any foreign country.

The printed title required may be a copy of the title-page of such publications as have title-pages. In other cases, the title must be printed expressly for copyright entry, with name of claimant of copyright. The style of type is immaterial, and the print of a type-writer will be accepted. But a separate title is required for each entry, and each title must be printed on paper as large as commercial note. The title of a periodical must include the date and number; and each number of a periodical requires a separate entry of copyright.

FEES.

The legal fee for recording each copyright claim is 50 cents, and for a copy of this record (or certificate of copyright under seal of the office) an additional fee of 50 cents is required, making $1, if certificate is wanted, which will be mailed as soon as reached in the records. In the case of publications which are the production of persons not citizens or residents of the United States, the fee for recording title is $1, and 50 cents additional for a copy of the record. Certificates covering more than one entry in one certificate are not issued.

Not later than the day of publication in this country or abroad, two complete copies of the best edition of each book or other article must be delivered, or deposited in the mail within the United States, addressed "LIBRARIAN OF CONGRESS, WASHINGTON, D. C.," to perfect the copyright.

The freight or postage must be prepaid, or the publications enclosed in parcels covered by printed Penalty Labels, furnished by the Librarian, in which case they will come FREE by mail (not express), without limit of weight, according to rulings of the Post Office Department. Books must be printed from type set or plates made in the United States; photographs from negatives made in the United States; chromos and lithographs from drawings on stone or transfers therefrom made in the United States. Without the deposit of copies above required, the copyright is void, and penalty of $25 is incurred. No copy is required to be deposited elsewhere.

The law requires one copy of each new edition wherein any substantial changes are made, to be deposited with the Librarian of Congress.

NOTICE OF COPYRIGHT.

No copyright is valid unless notice is given by inserting in every copy published, on the title page or the page following, if it be a book; or if a map, chart, musical composition, print, cut, engraving photograph, painting, drawing, chromo, statue, statuary, or model or design intended to be perfected as a work of the fine arts, by inscribing upon some portion thereof, or on the substance on which the same is mounted, the following words, viz.: "Entered according to act of Congress, in the year ——, by ——, in the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington," or, at the option of the person entering the copyright, the words: "Copyright, 18—, by ——."

The law imposes a penalty of $100 upon any person who has not obtained copyright who shall insert the notice, "Entered according to act of Congress," or "Copyright," etc., or words of the same import, in or upon any book or other article.

TRANSLATIONS.

The copyright law secures to authors and their assigns the exclusive right to translate or to dramatize any of their works; no notice is required to enforce this right.

DURATION OF COPYRIGHT.

The original term of copyright runs for twenty-eight years. Within six months before the end of that time, the author or designer, or his widow or children, may secure a renewal for the further term of fourteen years, making forty-two years in all.

RENEWALS.

Applications for renewal must be accompanied by printed title and fee; and by explicit statement of ownership, in the case of the author, or of relationship, in the case of his heirs, and must state definitely the date and place of entry of the original copyright. Within two months from date of renewal the record thereof must be advertised in an American newspaper for four weeks.

TIME OF PUBLICATION.

The time of publication is not limited by any law or regulation, but the courts have held that it should take place within a reasonable time. A copyright may be secured for a projected as well as for a completed work. But the law provides for no caveat, or notice of interference—only for actual entry of title.

ASSIGNMENTS.

Copyrights are assignable by any instrument of writing. Such assignment, to be valid, is to be recorded in the office of the Librarian of Congress within sixty days from execution. The fee for this record and certificate is $1, and for a certified copy of any record of assignment, $1.

A copy of the record (or duplicate certificate) of any copyright entry will be furnished, under seal of the office, at the rate of 50 cents each.

SERIALS OR SEPARATE PUBLICATIONS.

In the case of books published in more than one volume, or of periodicals published in numbers, or of engravings, photographs, or other articles published with variations, a copyright must be entered for each volume or part of a book, or number of a periodical, or variety, as to style, title, or inscription, of any other article. To complete the copyright on a book published serially in a periodical, two copies of each serial part, as well as of the complete work (if published separately), should be deposited.

WORKS OF ART.

To secure copyright for a painting, statue, or model or design intended to be perfected as a work of the fine arts, a definite title and description must accompany the application for copyright, and a photograph of the same, as large as "cabinet size," mailed to the Librarian of Congress not later than the day of publication of the work or design. The fine arts, for copyright purposes, include only painting and sculpture, and articles of merely ornamental and decorative art should be sent to the Patent Office as subjects for Design Patents.

TRADE-MARKS.

Copyrights cannot be granted upon trade-marks, nor upon names of companies or articles, nor upon an idea or device, nor upon prints or labels intended to be used for any article of manufacture. If protection for such names or labels is desired, application must be made to the Patent Office, where they are registered, if admitted, at a fee of $6 for labels and $25 for trade-marks.

FOREIGN AUTHORS.

The provisions as to copyright entry in the United States by foreign authors, etc., by act of Congress approved March 3, 1891 (which took effect July 1, 1891), are the same as the foregoing (except as to additional fees where the work is the production of a person not a citizen or resident).

The right of citizens or subjects of a foreign nation to copyright in the United States extends by Presidential proclamation of July 1, 1891, and April 15, 1892, to Great Britain, France, Germany, Belgium, and Switzerland. The fees for entry by foreigners must cover return postages, and are $1 for entry or $1.50 for entry and certificate of entry (equivalent to 4s. 5d. or 6s. 7d.). All publications must be delivered to the Librarian at Washington free of charge. The free penalty labels cannot be used outside of the United States.

Every applicant for a copyright should state distinctly the full name and residence of the claimant, and whether the right is claimed as author, designer, or proprietor. No affidavit or witness to the application is required.

CONDITIONS AS TO COPYRIGHT FOR AMERICAN CITIZENS IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

International copyright arrangements between the United States and foreign countries now include Great Britain and her possessions, France, Germany, Italy, Belgium, and Switzerland.

For an American citizen to secure copyright in Great Britain three conditions are necessary:

1st. The title should be entered at Stationers' Hall, London, the fee for which is 5 shillings sterling, and 5 shillings additional if a certified copy of entry is required.

2d. The work must be published in Great Britain or in her dominions simultaneously with its publication in the United States.

3d. Five copies of the publication are required—one for the British Museum and four on demand of the Company of Stationers for four other libraries.

Copyright may be secured in France by a foreigner by depositing two copies of the publication at the Ministry of the Interior at Paris. No fee nor entry of title required.

To secure copyright in Belgium a foreigner may register his work at the Department of Agriculture, Industry, and Public Works, at Brussels.

In Switzerland, registry of title at the Department of Commerce and Industry at Berne is optional, not obligatory, fee two francs. If registered, deposit of one copy is required.

The Librarian of Congress cannot take charge of any copyright entries or arrangements with other countries.

INFRINGEMENT OF COPYRIGHT.

The Librarian of Congress makes the following statement to inquiries as to remedies for infringement of copyright:

No question concerning the validity of a copyright can be determined under our laws by any other authority than a United States court.

This office has no discretion or authority to refuse any application for a copyright coming within the provisions of the law, and all questions as to priority or infringement are purely judicial questions, with which the undersigned has nothing to do. A certificate of copyright is prima facie evidence of an exclusive title, and is highly valuable as the foundation of a legal claim to the property involved in the publication.

As no claim to exclusive property in the contents of a printed book or other article can be enforced under the common law, Congress has very properly provided the guarantees of such property which are embodied in the "Act to revise, consolidate, and amend the statutes relating to patents and copyrights," approved July 8, 1870. If you obtain a copyright under the provisions of this act, you can claim damages from any person infringing your rights by printing or selling the same article; but upon all questions as to what constitutes an infringement, or what measure of damages can be recovered, all parties are left to their proper remedy in the courts of the United States.

American Library Association Council.

The National Academy was founded in 1826. Of the thirty founders of the institution but one survives—Mr. Thomas S. Cummings, N. A.

The schools of the National Academy are open from the first Monday in October to the middle of May. Circulars containing rules, conditions of admission and other details may be had on application at the Academy, corner of Fourth Avenue and East Twenty-third Street, New-York.

Statistics of the Press.

ROWELL reports for 1892 the number of newspapers published in the United States and Canada as 19,573. Of these, 859 were Canadian publications. The following was the frequency of issue: Weekly, 13,983; monthly, 2,886; daily, 1,759; semi-monthly, 243; semi-weekly, 228; quarterly, 194; bi-weekly, 87; bi-monthly, 57; tri-weekly, 39—total, 19,573.

Illinois	1,438	Minnesota	499	Maine	183	Utah	62
Pennsylvania	1,403	New-Jersey	360	Louisiana	175	New-Mexico	55
Ohio	1,146	Georgia	292	Oregon	170	Idaho	52
Missouri	862	Virginia	287	Mississippi	160	Delaware	47
Canada	859	Tennessee	279	West-Virginia	160	Wyoming	40
Iowa	855	Kentucky	278	South-Carolina	132	Oklahoma	36
Kansas	742	Colorado	277	New-Hampshire	131	Arizona	32
Indiana	725	South-Dakota	250	Florida	129	Nevada	26
Michigan	709	North-Carolina	219	North-Dakota	126	Indian Territory	23
Massachusetts	657	Arkansas	216	Montana	85	Alaska	3
Texas	626	Maryland	213	Vermont	82
California	599	Connecticut	207

To ascertain the total number of papers issued in a whole year, the number of each sort put forth at a single issue is multiplied by the number of issues in the year, and the result is as follows: 6,653,250 daily x 312, 2,075,814,000; 23,228,750 weekly x 52, 1,207,895,000; 9,245,750 monthly x 12, 110,949,000; 389,250 semi-weekly x 104, 40,482,000; 1,367,250 semi-monthly x 24, 32,814,000; 41,000 tri-weekly x 156, 6,396,000; 215,750 bi-weekly x 26, 5,609,500; 323,750 quarterly x 4, 1,295,000; 59,250 bi-monthly x 6, 355,500—total yearly issue of American and Canadian papers, 3,481,610,000.

The total number of newspapers published in the world at present is estimated at about 48,000, distributed as follows: United States and Canada, 19,500; Germany, 6,000; Great Britain, 7,500; France, 4,300; Japan, 2,000; Italy, 1,500; Austria-Hungary, 1,200; Asia, exclusive of Japan, 1,000; Spain, 850; Russia, 800; Australia, 800; Greece, 600; Switzerland, 450; Holland, 300; Belgium, 300; all others, 1,000. Of these, about half are printed in the English language.

ASTRONOMY.

Among the astronomical discoveries of the year 1892 none possesses more interest or created more surprise to astronomers and scientific men generally than that made at the Lick Observatory on September 9 by Mr. E. E. Barnard, who has added a fifth satellite to the well-known four satellites of Jupiter. The latter were discovered by Galileo on January 7, 1610, and although this planet has been most carefully observed ever since, no evidence of a fifth satellite was found until the planet was scrutinized by Mr. Barnard with the great Lick refractor. This fifth satellite is so near the planet and so minute that it is an exceedingly difficult object to see even with the Lick telescope; indeed, there is some doubt as to whether or not it has been seen at any other observatory. There are, however, not more than six or seven telescopes in the world capable of showing it. Its distance from Jupiter's centre is about 112,400 miles—considerably less than half the distance of our Moon—its period of revolution, 11 hours, 50 minutes, and it is estimated to be about the thirteenth magnitude.

Several asteroids have been discovered during the year, but some of them have been subsequently identified with those previously discovered. The number of these bodies is now so great that ephemerides of them cannot be prepared to give their position beforehand, and consequently many of them are practically lost. Eight comets have been detected, all of them telescopic and of little or no importance. One of them—Holmes's comet—was mistaken for the lost comet of Biela, whose nearest approach to the earth, on or about the 27th November, was predicted to be attended with a meteoric shower, which, however, did not take place so far as at present known. The planet Mars passed its most favorable opposition in August, and was most carefully observed at the Lick and other observatories, with the view of determining its chief physical features. Certain markings, consisting of long, narrow, and nearly parallel lines, which have hitherto been regarded as huge canals constructed by the Martians for commercial purposes, are now considered to be parallel mountain ridges set in the sea; and the nearly circular island called Hellas by astronomers, which was supposed to be intersected by a great canal, is now believed to be a large lake or sea, with a high, narrow mountain range dividing it into two nearly equal portions. In fact, recent observations have nearly reversed the character of the surface as hitherto believed; the dark portions now being regarded as land and the bright parts water. Mars possesses all the conditions necessary for the existence of animal and vegetable life—an atmosphere, land and water, and a succession of the seasons similar to our own—but as to its being or having been inhabited by rational beings like ourselves science has no means of determining, much less of communicating with the inhabitants, if there are any.

CHEMISTRY.

An extensive series of experiments, with the view of determining the physical and chemical properties of the element Fluorine, has shown that the element is a greenish-yellow gas having a density of 1.265 compared with air and its atomic weight, 19.05. It is not liquefied at a temperature of -95° C. in a bottle of solid carbon dioxide; it combines with hydrogen with explosion at as low a temperature as -23° C., but does not unite with oxygen even at 500° C.

A method for the production of ozone in large quantities for commercial purposes has been devised. Ozone is especially valuable as a disinfectant and for the sterilization of water.

An instrument, by means of which the mass of a given gas is given directly from a single reading of its volume, has been invented by Japp, who has given it the name of Gravi-volumeter. It is a modification of the gas-volumeter of Lunge. Experiments on liquid oxygen and liquid air show that the former, when seen in bulk, is of a pale blue color, boils at -180° C., and is a non-conductor of electricity. When liquid oxygen is interposed in the path of a beam of light, its absorption spectrum shows clearly the lines A and B of the solar spectrum, which lines, as already known, are due to absorption by the oxygen of the atmosphere. By accelerating the evaporation of liquid oxygen by reducing the pressure, common air—a mixture of oxygen and nitrogen—is liquefied in an open test-tube under atmospheric pressure. Common air is liquefied at a much lower temperature than oxygen, is clearer, fumes less, and boils less violently. On evaporating liquid air, the nitrogen boils off before the oxygen.

The industrial production of liquid carbon dioxide in large quantities has been successfully carried out in Germany and France. In the former country its chief use is in the manufacture of beer, and in the latter for the preparation of salicylic acid by the reaction of liquid carbon dioxide on sodium phenol. It is also employed in making aërated waters, filtering wines, and other purposes.

Some success has been attained in photographing natural colors. Brilliant photographs of spectra have been produced, all the colors appearing at once after an exposure of about twenty or thirty seconds. The plates on which these photographs were taken were prepared by depositing on them films of albumen bromide of silver, rendered orthochromatic by azalin and cyanin. In order to photograph the complex colors that adorn natural objects, it only remains to perfect the orthochromatism of the plate and to increase its sensitiveness. An extensive series of experiments have been made to determine whether pure gases raised to a high temperature emit light rays or not, and the result has been contrary to what has hitherto been believed. It has been shown that oxygen, carbon dioxide, nitrogen, and hydrogen do not emit light rays when heated to 1500° C. The hypothesis that a gas can be made luminous through mere rise of temperature cannot be established experimentally, and therefore it may be safely stated that comets must shine from reflected light, and not from any intrinsic light of their own.

GEOLOGY.

Numerous researches in geology have been successfully carried on by our own Geological Survey, and also by foreign geologists. Among the chief geological contributions of the year may be mentioned "The Tenth Annual Report of the United States Geological Survey," which contains valuable monographs on the history, geological structure, and economic value of the region of the Great Dismal Swamp; on the structure and formation of the iron beds in Michigan and Wisconsin; on the discovery of a new hot spring area on the east side of the Yellowstone, and on many other subjects of general and local interest.

"The Stratigraphy of the Bituminous Coal Fields of Pennsylvania, Ohio, and West-Virginia," by J. C. White, of the United State Geological Survey, is a valuable contribution to the geology of this interesting and valuable region. "The Annual Report of the Geological Survey of Arkansas," by the State Geologist; "The Distribution of the Upturned Cretaceous Beds of Canada," by Dr. Dawson; "The History of Volcanic Action in the Area of the British Islands," by A. Geikie; "Report on the Petroleum Natural Gas and Asphalt Rock of Western Kentucky;" "The Geological Survey of Alabama," are contributions of a very high order of merit, and add very materially to our knowledge of these regions.

EXPLORATION.

An exploration of the Coral Islands off New-Guinea, and of the Tonga or Friendly Islands, makes known for the first time the chief geological and other features of these remote and interesting localities. The latter is remarkable for the great depth of the surrounding sea, depths of 28,000 feet having been found in the vicinity.

SCIENTIFIC LITERATURE.

A very valuable contribution to science has been issued by the Government of India on the Fauna of British India, including Ceylon and Burma. Among the other valuable scientific publications of the year "The Advanced Course on Physics," by Professor George F. Barker, of the University of Pennsylvania, stands in the foremost rank.

"The Outlines of Theoretical Chemistry," by Lothar Meyer, gives a very clear discussion of the various topics which come within this branch of science. "The Principles of Chemistry," by Mendeléeff, translated from the Russian, by Greenway, is another work of rare merit, its treatment of the subject being both profound and far-reaching; and an "Introduction to the Mathematical Theory of Electricity," by W. T. A. Emtage, is an excellent introduction to the mathematical side of the subjects of electricity and magnetism.

During the year 1892 we have to deplore the loss to science of many of its most distinguished votaries. The list of those who have passed away—many of them at a very advanced age—is unusually long. Their places can hardly be filled for many years to come. In our own country we mourn the loss of Lovering, Hunt, Rutherfurd, and Sereno Watson, and in Europe, Airy, Adams, Sir A. C. Ramsay, Mosely, Carpenter, Dr. F. Von Roemer, Admiral Mouchez, Sir Richard Owen, and De Gasparis.

National Academy of Sciences.

OFFICERS.

President—Professor O. C. Marsh, New-Haven, Ct.
Vice-President—General Francis A. Walker, Boston, Mass.
Foreign Secretary—Wolcott Gibbs, Newport, R. I.
Home Secretary—Asaph Hall, U. S. N., Washington, D. C.
Treasurer—Dr. John S. Billings, U. S. A., Washington, D. C.
Council—George J. Brush, New-Haven, Ct.; Benjamin A. Gould, Cambridge, Mass.; Thomas C. Mendenhall, Washington, D. C.; Professor Simon Newcomb, Washington, D. C.; Ira Remsen, Baltimore, Md.; Samuel P. Langley, Washington, D. C., and the officers of the National Academy.

The National Academy of Sciences was incorporated by act of Congress, March 3, 1863. The charter provides that "the Academy shall, whenever called upon by any department of the Government, investigate, examine, experiment, and report upon any subject of science or art; the actual expense of such investigations, examinations, experiments, and reports to be paid from appropriations which may be made for the purpose." The Academy is composed at present of 91 members, 3 honorary members, and 24 foreign associates.

American Social Science Association.

OFFICERS.

President—H. L. Wayland, Philadelphia, Pa.
First Vice-President—Andrew Dickson White, Ithaca, N. Y.
Vice-Presidents—Francis Wayland, New-Haven, Ct.; Daniel C. Gilman, Baltimore, Md.; William T. Harris, Washington, D. C.; Carroll D. Wright, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. John E. Lodge, Boston, Mass.; Lucy M. Browne, M.D., Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Caroline H. Dall, Washington, D. C.; E. Benjamin Andrews, Providence, R. I.; John Eaton, Washington, D. C.; Grace Peckham, M.D., New-York; Henry B. Baker, Lansing, Mich.; Dorman B. Eaton, New-York; Henry Villard, New-York; H. Holbrook Curtis, M.D., New-York; John M. Gregory, Washington, D. C.; R. A. Holland, St. Louis, Mo.
General Secretary—F. B. Sanborn, Concord, Mass.
Treasurer—Anson Phelps Stokes, 45 Cedar Street, New-York.
The next meeting of the Association will be held at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., September, 1893.

American Association for the Advancement of Science.

OFFICERS.

President—William Harkness, Washington, D. C.
Vice-Presidents—A—Mathematics and Astronomy, C. L. Doolittle, South Bethlehem, Pa.; B—Physics, E. L. Nichols, Ithaca, N. Y.; C—Chemistry, Edward Hart, Easton, Pa.; D—Mechanical Science and Engineering, S. W. Robinson, Columbus, Ohio; E—Geology and Geography, Charles D. Walcott, Washington, D. C.; F—Zoology, Henry F. Osborn, New-York; G—Botany, Charles E. Bessey, Lincoln, Neb.; H—Anthropology, J. Owen Dorsey, Tacoma, Md.; I—Economic Science and Statistics, William H. Brewer, New-Haven, Ct.
Permanent Secretary—F. W. Putnam, Cambridge (office Salem), Mass.
General Secretary—T. H. Norton, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Secretary of the Council—H. L. Fairchild, Rochester, N. Y.
Treasurer—William Lilly, Mauch Chunk, Pa.
Auditor—Thomas Meehan, Germantown, Pa.

American Statistical Association.

OFFICERS.

President—Francis A. Walker, Ph.D., LL.D.
Vice-Presidents—George C. Shattuck, M.D.; Hamilton A. Hill, A.M.; Hon. Carroll D. Wright; Richmond M. Smith, A.M.; Hon. Horace G. Wadlin.
Corresponding Secretary—Edward Atkinson, LL.D.
Treasurer—John S. Clark, Esq., 7 Park Street, Boston, Mass.
Committee on Publication—Davis R. Dewey, Ph.D.; Walter C. Wright, Esq.; Roland P. Falkner, Ph.D.
Committee on Finance—Hamilton A. Hill, A.M.; Lyman Mason, A.M.; George O. Carpenter, Esq. Committee on Library—Hon. Julius L. Clarke; Rev. Robert C. Waterston; Samuel A. Green, A.M., M.D.

Free Thinkers	3,700,000

A very large number, more than 10,000,000, of Hindus, Mohammedans, Buddhists, and others in the East also speak and read English.

The estimates in the last table are from Whitaker's (London) Almanack, 1892.

The Encyclopedia Britannica, last edition, makes a rough estimate of numbers of Protestants in the world speaking all civilized languages, and places the Lutherans at the head, with over 42,000,000 members (mostly in Germany and Scandinavia), and the Anglican Church second, with about 20,000,000 members.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL STATISTICS.

The number of Sunday-schools in the United States, 1890, was 108,939; number of teachers and officers, 1,151,340; number of scholars, 8,649,131. This enumeration does not include the schools of Hebrews, Roman Catholics, and non-Evangelical Christian churches, except as to Maryland, the returns of which include all Christian denominations. The number of scholars in Roman Catholic Sunday-schools in the United States is estimated by clerics at 700,000.

The next International Sunday-school Convention will be held at St. Louis, Mo., this year.

The Presbyterian Revision.

THE Committee on the Revision of the Confession of Faith reported to the General Assembly of 1892 twenty-eight Overtures, each of which contained a proposed amendment of the Confession. This report was adopted by the Assembly, sent down to the Presbyteries, and the committee discharged. The Presbyteries, which number 217, will report on these Overtures to the next General Assembly, to be held in Washington, D. C., May 18, 1893. Each of the Overtures must first secure adoption by two thirds of the Presbyteries (145), and in addition must be enacted by a majority vote in the General Assembly before it becomes a part of the Confession. The most important of the Overtures on Revision are those amending Chapter III., "On the Decree of God;" Chapter X., "On Effectual Calling," and the two new chapters entitled "Of the Holy Spirit" and "Of the Gospel." One of the Overtures on Chapter X. deals with the salvation of persons dying in infancy. Only thirteen of the twenty-eight Overtures received a unanimous vote in the Committee.

Thirteen States have organized State associations. Each State holds an annual convention. The International Convention occurs biennially. Each year a Summer School is held for the training of young women in Secretarial and Bible work. The Evangel, the official organ of the associations, is published monthly at Chicago, Ill. The second Thursday of October is observed as a day of prayer for young women. A special department is maintained for young women of colleges.

Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor.

THE following statistics and statement of the purposes of the organization were prepared for THE WORLD ALMANAC by Mr. John Willis Baer. General Secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor.

OFFICERS OF THE UNITED SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.—Office, No. 50 Bromfield Street, Boston, Mass. President, Rev. Francis E. Clark, D.D.; Treasurer, William Shaw; General Secretary, John Willis Baer.

The first Society of Christian Endeavor was formed February 2, 1881, in the Williston Church, Portland, Me., by Rev. F. E. Clark, pastor, for the purpose of training a large number of converts for the duties of church-membership.

Each society is in some local church, and in no sense outside. It exists simply to make the young people loyal and efficient members of the Church of Christ. It is the Church training the young. Its motto is, "For Christ and the Church." July 1, 1892, there were 21,110 societies, with a membership of 1,400,000, chiefly in the United States and Canada, and in Australia, Great Britain, and in all missionary lands. It is found in about the same proportions in all the great evangelical denominations and in all their subdivisions. Wherever it has been established longest it is most fully endorsed by pastors and churches.

Its essential features are the prayer-meeting pledge, honestly interpreted, the lookout, prayer-meeting and social committees, and the consecration meeting. Other committees are optional, and the constitution is entirely flexible in other points according to the needs of the local church.

The United Society is simply the bureau of information for all the societies. It prints the literature, supports one general secretary, and is the general headquarters of the work. The office is at 50 Bromfield Street, Boston, Mass. It levies no taxes, however, and assumes no authority, but every society manages its own affairs in its own way. It is supported by the sales of its literature, badges, etc. It is managed by a board of trustees, representing the great evangelical denominations, the President being Francis E. Clark, D.D., the founder of the society; General Secretary, John Willis Baer; Treasurer, William Shaw; Trustees: Rev. C. A. Dickinson, Boston, Mass; Rev. J. L. Hill, D.D., Medford, Mass.; Rev. R. W. Brokaw, Springfield, Mass.; Rev. H. B. Grose, Chicago, Ill.; Rev. N. Boynton, Boston, Mass.; W. H. Pennell, Boston, Mass.; Choate Burnham, Boston, Mass.; W. J. Van Patten, Burlington, Vt.; John Henry Barrows, D.D., Chicago, Ill.; Wayland Hoyt, D.D., Minneapolis, Minn.; S. V. Leech, D.D., Pueblo, Col.; John Wanamaker, Philadelphia, Pa.; T. S. Christian Alliance.

OFFICERS OF THE CHRISTIAN ALLIANCE.—President, Rev. A. B. Simpson, New-York; Vice-Presidents, Rev. Dr. Wilson and Rev. S. Merritt; Secretaries, Rev. Mr. Farr and Rev. C. H. H. Pannel; Membership Secretary, Mrs. E. M. Whittemore, 723 Park Avenue, New-York City; Treasurer, Mr. W. H. Burnham, Kenwood, Madison County, N. Y.; Rev. John Salmon, of Toronto, represents the work in Canada; Rev. O. M. Brown in Ohio. There is a board of managers of nine persons, of which Rev. Dr. Simpson is chairman, and there are 100 vice-presidents representing most of the States of the Union, Canada, Mexico, England, and Ireland. The principal office is at 692 Eighth Avenue, New-York.

The Christian Alliance was organized in 1887, and is spreading rapidly through this country and Canada. Membership consists of all professing Christians who shall subscribe to the principles of the order and enroll their names. The objects of the Alliance are stated to be "Wide diffusion of the Gospel in its fulness, the promotion of a deeper and higher Christian life, and the work of evangelization, especially among the neglected classes, by highway missions and any other practicable methods." In New-York City special work is done for fallen girls by means of "The Door of Hope," at 102 East Sixty-first Street, under charge of Mrs. E. M. Whittemore.

Auxiliary to the Christian Alliance is the International Missionary Alliance, with a missionary training college, at 690 Eighth Avenue, New-York. It has a board of officers, with Rev. C. N. Kinney, of Sing Sing, N. Y., as chairman, and Rev. B. A. Simpson, 692 Eighth Avenue, as secretary. This organization has already established 33 missionaries in India, Congo Free State, China, Japan, and Haiti, and is extending its work as financial assistance is rendered, and within the past six months of 1892 over $100,000 has been contributed toward furthering the Gospel in heathen lands.

The International Order of King's Daughters and Sons.

OFFICERS OF THE CENTRAL COUNCIL.—Office, No. 158 West Twenty-third Street, New-York City. President, Mrs. F. Bottome; Vice-President, Miss Kate Bond; General Secretary, Mrs. Mary Lowe Dickinson; Treasurer, Miss Margaret P. Barker; Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. D. W. Bridgman; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Isabella Charles Davis.

The Order of the King's Daughters and Sons is a religious order of service, composed of thousands of small circles of men and women united in one great organization that numbers now over two hundred thousand members. It is a Christian but unsectarian order, and its members may be found in all churches and in almost all nations. It originated in New-York City, and has spread over nearly every State in the Union, and has its representatives in Canada, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Italy, Germany, India, China, Japan, Turkey in Europe, and in Asia, Australia, New-Zealand, and other countries. Its members are bound individually and collectively to serve the needy and the suffering, to consider the poor, and to be helpful in good work. Each individual circle may choose its own field of labor, but cannot escape the obligations of service.

The badge is a small cross of silver, often worn with a knot of purple ribbon. The order is an incorporated society, of which this little cross is the seal. Its headquarters are at No. 158 West Twenty-third Street, New-York City. State secretaries are appointed in twenty-five States and the District of Columbia, and six provincial secretaries in the various provinces in Canada. Her Grace the Duchess of Bedford is the president, and Mrs. Hannah Whitall Smith the treasurer of the English branch.

Its original circle of ten women, to which have been made some additions, forms now the Central Council of the Order. The general officers are members of this Council. The first meeting of this original circle was held in New-York City on January 13, 1886. It is now seven years old, and it ranks among the strongest and most useful societies of the world. It issues a monthly magazine called The Silver Cross, which is most helpful to the members of the Order, and takes a high rank among the religious and philanthropic periodicals of the country. It deals with every topic by which women may be made helpful to humanity. Its work in aid of every charitable object is effective and increasing. Any information concerning the Order may always be secured by writing or calling at the headquarters, 158 West Twenty-third Street, New-York City.

The Daughters of the King.

THE Order of the Daughters of the King was organized on Easter Even, 1885. It is desired by its promoters that a careful distinction shall be made between the Daughters of the King and the King's Daughters. This is the older society, and differs from the King's Daughters in many important particulars. In the first place, it is more of an order than a society, and is distinctively Episcopal. Its work is definite, and is "for the spread of Christ's kingdom among young women" and the "active support of the rector's plans in the parish in which the particular chapter may be located." Its badge is a cross of silver, a Greek cross fleury, and its mottoes are "Magnanimeter Crucem Sustine" and "For His Sake." Its colors are white and blue—white, the old royal color of Israel, and the blue, the color of the Virgin Mary, the "blessed daughter of Israel's King, the Mother of the King of kings." Its constitution is framed, as far as is possible, in the terms of that of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's, the work of the two organizations being similar.

The officers of the Council are: President, Mrs. Margaret J. Franklin, of New-York; Vice-President, Mrs. J. W. F. Peck, of New-Haven; Secretary, Miss Elizabeth L. Ryerson, of New-York, and Treasurer, Miss Annie Kragel, of New-York. Members of the Council must be communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church. There are nearly one hundred chapters, scattered through the States.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

THE following statement was prepared for THE WORLD ALMANAC by Mr. John W. Wood, General Secretary.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is an organization of men in the Protestant Episcopal Church. Its sole object is the spread of Christ's kingdom among men. It works under two rules, known as (1) The Rule of Prayer: To pray daily for the spread of Christ's kingdom among men, and that Christ's blessing may be upon the labors of the Brotherhood, and (2) The Rule of Service: To make an earnest effort each week to bring at least one man within the hearing of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Brotherhood started in St. James' Church, Chicago, on St. Andrew's Day, 1883. It takes its name from the Apostle, who when he had found the Messiah first found his own brother Simon, and brought him to Jesus. This Brotherhood in St. James' parish was started simply as a parochial organization, with no thought of its extending beyond the limits of the parish. Its work, however, was so successful in bringing men to church, that attention was called to it, and other Brotherhoods, having the same object and the same rules, were formed in other parishes in Chicago and in different parts of the country. In 1886 there were about thirty-five of these separate Brotherhoods. It then was proposed to form them into one genera church organization. This was done in 1886. Since that time the Brotherhood has gone on growing, and at present has spread to all parts of the United States. There are now seven hundred and seventy-five active chapters, with a membership of about ten thousand men. The Brotherhood idea has also taken root in Canada, and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the Church of England in the Dominion of Canada has been formed, with about eighty-five chapters and twelve hundred men. A similar organization has been formed in the Scottish Episcopal Church. This is as yet small, but there is every promise of its developing into a large and useful Brotherhood. Four chapters have also been formed in Australia. In time these will be organized into a Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the Church of England in Australia.

The officers for 1892-93 are: President, James L. Houghteling, 59 Dearborn Street, Chicago; General Secretary, John W. Wood, 13 Astor Place, New-York; Treasurer, John P. Faure, 13 Astor Place, New-York; Editor of St. Andrew's Cross, Henry A. Sill, 13 Astor Place, New-York. The General Secretary will furnish information and documents to any one who may be interested in work among men, or to any one who wishes to form a chapter.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

THIS great Roman Catholic organization is engaged in the important work of caring for the Roman Catholic poor in the large cities of the United States. Its head is the superior council of the New-York Circumscription, which has its office at No. 2 Lafayette Place. Local bodies, over which it has, in nearly all cases, jurisdiction, are known as Particular Councils.

The officers of the Superior Council are as follows: Spiritual Director, the Very Rev. Monsignor John M. Farley, V.G.; President, Jeremiah Fitzpatrick; Vice-Presidents, Joseph A. Kernan and James E. Dougherty; Recording Secretary, Edward J. McGuire; Treasurer, Philip H. Shelley. There are also twenty councillors. The principal work of the Particular Councils consists in visiting the poor and relieving them, procuring situations for deserving persons out of employment, and promoting attendance on the Sunday-schools of the Church. There are fifty-two conferences of the society in the city of New York.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

OFFICERS OF THE WORLD'S WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION.—President, Frances E. Willard, Evanston, Ill.; Vice-President-at-Large, Lady Henry Somerset, London, England; Secretary, Mary A. Woodbridge, Ravenna, Ohio; Assistant Secretary, Anna A. Gordon, Evanston, Ill.

Object: To unify throughout the world the work of women in temperance and social reform, and to circulate a petition addressed to all the governments of the world for the overthrow of the alcohol and opium trades. Methods: Preventive, Educational, Evangelistic, Social, and Legal. Time of Prayer: Noontide. Badge: A Knot of White Ribbon. Watchwords: Agitate! Organize! Motto: For God and Home and Every Land.

The following statement of the purposes of the society was prepared for THE WORLD ALMANAC by the President, Frances E. Willard:

The National W. C. T. U. was organized in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1874, and is the sober second thought of the great woman's crusade. It is now regularly organized in the forty-four States of the Union, and in every Territory except Alaska. Its headquarters are in Chicago, Ill., where it has a Woman's Temperance Publishing House that sends out about 135,000,000 pages annually, and has seven editors and 150 employés. This publishing house is a stock company, and all its directors and stockholders are women, as is its business manager. The Union Signal is the organ of the society, and has an average circulation of 80,000. The cash receipts of the publishing house in 1891-92 were, in round numbers, $230,000.

The Woman's Lecture Bureau sends speakers to all parts of the country and Canada. The Woman's National Temperance Hospital demonstrates the value of non-alcoholic medication. The Woman's Temperance Temple, costing over $1,000,000, has been built in Chicago. The National Society handled over $40,000 in 1891-92 at its headquarters in Chicago, and its local auxiliaries expended not less than half a million dollars in their work.

There are about 10,000 local unions with a membership and following, including the children's societies, of about half a million. The W. C. T. U. has forty-four distinct departments of work, presided over by as many women experts in the National Society, and in nearly every State. All the States in the Republic except eight have laws requiring the study of scientific temperance in the public schools, and all these laws were secured by the W. C. T. U., also the laws forbidding the sale of tobacco to minors. Most industrial homes for girls were secured through the efforts of this society, as were the refuges for erring women. Laws raising the age of consent and providing for better protection for women and girls have been enacted by many legislatures through the influence of the department for the promotion of social purity, of which the president of the society has, until the present year, been superintendent.

The World's W. C. T. U. was founded through the influence of the National Society, in 1883, and already has auxiliaries in more than forty countries and provinces. The white ribbon is the badge of all the W. C. T. U. members, and is now a familiar emblem in every civilized country. A great petition is being circulated in all parts of the world against legalizing the sale of opium and alcoholics. When two millions of names have been secured, this petition is to be presented to all the governments of the world by a commission of women appointed for that purpose.

Non-Partisan National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

OFFICERS.—President, Mrs. E. J. Phinney, 168 Crawford Street, Cleveland, Ohio; Vice-President, Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Allegheny, Pa.; General Secretary, Mrs. Howard M. Ingham, 2 Walnut Street, Cleveland, Ohio; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Florence E. Porter, Winthrop, Me.; Treasurer, Mrs. C. Cornelia Alford, 315 Monroe Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

This association was organized in June, 1890, by seceders from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Article 2 of the constitution provides: "The object of this association shall be to interest and unite the women of the nation in non-partisan, non-sectarian temperance work; and confining itself strictly to such temperance work, it will devise and execute measures to secure, through the blessing of God, total abstinence and the complete extinction of the liquor-traffic."

Article 5 reads: "Neither the officers of this association nor the annual meeting shall directly or indirectly pledge the influence or co-operation of the association, in whole or in part, to any other association, or to any political party, or to any religious sect."

Ministering Children's League.

THIS organization was founded by the Countess of Meath; now has branches all over the world, and is rapidly growing in membership. Each national branch has a central secretary, to whom all the local branches report, but each local branch elects its own officers. These exist in almost every State of the Union.

The members of the Ministering Children's League are children, and associated with them are parents, Sunday-school teachers, and others whose privilege it is to watch over the welfare of children, and they join as "associate members." Children of all ages and denominations are eligible for membership, and are invited to join; it is especially wished that the elder ones become members, because their example and influence will be of great value among younger brothers and sisters. The objects of the League are stated to be: "To promote kindness, unselfishness, and the habit of usefulness among children, and to create in their minds an earnest desire to help the needy and suffering; to aid the necessities of the poor by supplying them with warm clothing, comforts, etc." The rule of the League is, "Every member must try to do at least one kind deed every day." The motto of the League is, "No day without a deed to crown it." Beds in charitable institutions are being supported by "Ministering Children." A chapel for the Indians has been built through the exertions of one little band of members in New-York. "It is difficult to estimate the good this League has done; but it has certainly made "homes happier," taught members to become better sons and daughters, kinder brothers and sisters, truer friends, and to be good to dumb beasts. And they are also trained to be useful and helpful in every practicable way."

The Honorable Central Secretary and head of the League is the Countess of Meath, 83 Lancaster Gate, London, W., England. The Central Secretary for the United States is Mrs. F. E. Benedict, 54 Lefferts Place, Brooklyn, N. Y., from whom membership cards, costing a nominal sum, can be had. Badges, which are of three kinds, can be had of Mrs. E. G. Day, 27 West One Hundred and Twenty-eighth Street, or James Potts & Co., Publishers, 14 Astor Place, New-York. All necessary information regarding the forming of local branches of this growing order can be obtained from Mrs. Benedict.

National Baptist Congress.

THE Congress is composed of delegates, both clerical and lay, from Baptist churches throughout the country. It possesses no governing power, but is convened annually for interchange of thought and discussion of subjects incident to the welfare of the denomination and of humanity in relation to Christianity at large. The last congress was held at Philadelphia in May, 1892. The officers are: Chairman, Rev. Jesse B. Thomas, LL.D., Newton Centre, Mass.; Recording Secretary, Leighton Williams, New-York City; Corresponding Secretary, Walter Rauschenbusch, New-York City.

Baptist Young People's Union of America.

THE first annual convention of this organization was held at Detroit, Mich., in July, 1892. Over 5,000 delegates attended, representing young people's societies connected with Baptist churches in all the States and Canada. The following national officers were elected: President, John H. Chapman, of Chicago; First Vice-President, Rev. James B. Cranfill, D.D., of Texas; Second Vice-President, Thomas Urquhart, of Canada; Third Vice-President, Frank Harvey Field, of New-York; Recording Secretary, Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, of Mt. Holly, N. J.; Treasurer, J. O. Staples, of Chicago.

White Cross Society.

THE principal purposes of this organization are: (1) To urge upon men the obligation of personal purity; (2) to raise the tone of public opinion upon the subject of morality; (3) to secure proper legislation in connection with morality.

The White Cross Movement was begun February 14, 1883, at Bishop-Auckland, England, by the Bishop of Durham, Miss Ellice Hopkins being present and bearing a prominent part. The work was taken up in this country by the young men of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, New-York City, during the winter of 1883-84. It has now spread throughout the United States.

The methods of the White Cross are of a varied character. First it seeks to promote the objects, "By the full presentation of those spiritual truths which form distinguishing characteristics of Christianity, and demonstrate its unalterable hostility to every form of impurity." The methods do not favor so much the creation of new machinery as they seek to utilize that already existing. The platform of the White Cross is as follows:

"The member promises by the "help of God" (1) To treat all women with respect, and endeavor to protect them from wrong and degradation; (2) to endeavor to put down all indecent language and coarse jests, (3) to maintain the law of purity as equally binding upon men and women; (4) to endeavor to spread these principles among my companions, and to try and help my younger brothers; (5) to use every possible means to fulfil the command, "Keep THYSELF pure."

American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions

THE head office of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions is at the Congregational House, Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. The office in New-York City is No. 121 Bible House, Fourth Avenue. The following is a list of the Officers of the Board, elected at the annual meeting at Chicago, October 7, 1892: President, Rev. Richard S. Storrs, D.D., LL.D., Brooklyn, N. Y.; Vice-President, Eliphalet W. Blatchford; Prudential Committee, Augustus C. Thompson, D.D., Joseph S. Ropes, Edwin B. Webb, D.D., Charles C. Burr, Elbridge Torrey, Albert H. Plumb, D.D., Hon. Wm. P. Ellison, Rev. Francis E. Clark, D.D., G. Henry Whitcomb, Alexander McKenzie, D.D.; Corresponding Secretaries, Nathaniel G. Clark, D.D., Edmund K. Alden, D.D., Judson Smith, D.D.; Recording Secretary, Henry A. Stimson, D.D.; Treasurer, Langdon S. Ward; Auditors, Samuel Johnson, Richard H. Stearns, Edwin H. Baker.

The American Board, which is the oldest foreign missionary society in the United States, was organized July 29, 1810. During the past 82 years of its history it has sent out over 2,000 missionaries, of which 538 are now in service. Into the nearly 500 churches which have been organized by these missionaries, there have been received about 200,000 members. The total receipts from the beginning have been $25,000,000.

The mission fields now occupied by the American Board are: Mexico; the Hawaiian and Micronesian Islands; Japan; Northern China; Shansi, in Northwestern China; Foochow and Hong Kong, in Southern China; Ceylon; Madura, in Southern India; the Marathi field of Western India; East Central Africa; Southern Africa; West Central Africa; Eastern Turkey; Central Turkey; Western Turkey; European Turkey; Austria, and Spain. The present statistics are: 20 missions; 1,233 stations and out stations; 1,402 preaching places, with 65,236 average congregations; 410 churches, with 38,226 church-members, of whom 3,554 were added during the last year; 136 higher schools and seminaries, with 7,254 pupils; 980 common schools, with over 37,000 pupils; total under instruction, 46,403; missionaries and assistant missionaries, 538; native pastors, preachers, teachers, and other native assistants, 2,648.

The Salvation Army.

THIS great missionary society, organized in the form of a military force, has for its object the saving and religious conversion of the more degraded classes of the people, which it seeks to reach by special means, including outdoor processions, accompanied by banners and music, and by addresses in halls, theatres, and other public buildings. Its originator was William Booth, a Methodist minister in England, who began the movement in London in 1872. The Army is now established in 32 countries, where, under the leadership of 10,780 officers, whose lives are devoted to the work, it holds about 13,000,000 religious meetings annually. It publishes 33 weekly newspapers and 15 monthly magazines, with an aggregate weekly and monthly circulation of 43,826,000. The Army has accumulated property to the value of about $4,000,000, and its annual income, derived mainly from voluntary contributions, amounts to $4,000,000.

The United States division of the Salvation Army is commanded by Ballington Booth, a son of General Booth. It has in this country 1,500 officers and 13,000 soldiers, who during the year 1892 occupied 462 cities and towns, established 555 outposts, and made 32,433 converts. The headquarters are at 111 Reade Street, New-York.

The Epworth League.

OFFICERS OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.—President, Bishop James N. FitzGerald, New-Orleans, La.; Vice-Presidents: Department of Spiritual Work, W. W. Cooper, St. Joseph, Mich.; Department of Mercy and Help, Rev. W. I. Haven, 85 Lexington Street, East Boston, Mass.; Department of Literary Work, R. R. Doherty, 150 Fifth Avenue, New-York; Department of Social Work, Rev. H. C. Jennings, Red Wing, Minn.; General Secretary, Rev. William N. Brodbeck, 57 Washington Street, Chicago; General Treasurer, Charles E. Piper, Chicago. The Central Office of the Epworth League is located at 57 Washington Street, Chicago.

The Epworth League was formed in May, 1889, by the union of five general (Methodist) societies of young people, which had under their united jurisdiction about 1,500 local societies or "chapters," and about 60,000 members. By vigorous effort the united society has now (December, 1892), 8,888 chapters and an aggregate membership of over 440,000.

Its purpose is to promote intelligent and loyal piety in the young members and friends of the church, to aid them in religious development, and to train them in works of mercy and help. Its constitution provides for development along social, intellectual, and religious lines. Its essential features are the weekly prayer-meeting, the "intellectual" and "mercy and help" departments, and its harmony with the officiary of the church.

It has a weekly organ, the Epworth Herald, edited by Dr. Joseph F. Berry, with a circulation of 50,000. There are no salaried officers, except the General Secretary, the organization being entirely voluntary, and no assessments on local chapters. The incidental expenses thus far have been paid by voluntary contributions.

The Theosophical Society.

THE following information about this organization was prepared by William Q. Judge, General Secretary of the American section:

The Theosophical Society has been in existence seventeen years, having been founded in New-York in November, 1875, with the following objects:

First.—To form a nucleus of a UNIVERSAL BROTHERHOOD OF HUMANITY, without distinction of race, creed, caste, sex, color.

Second.—To promote the study of Aryan and other Eastern literatures, religions, and sciences, and demonstrate the importance of that study.

Third.—To investigate unexplained laws of nature and the psychical powers latent in man.

The Society appeals for support and encouragement to all who truly love their fellow-men and desire the eradication of the evils caused by the barriers raised by race, creed, or color, which have so long impeded human progress; to all scholars, to all sincere lovers of TRUTH, wheresoever it may be found, and to all philosophers, alike in the East and in the West; and lastly, to all who aspire to higher and better things than the mere pleasures and interests of a worldly life, and are prepared to make the sacrifices by which alone a knowledge of them can be attained.

The Society represents no particular creed, is entirely unsectarian, and includes professors of all faiths. No person's religious beliefs are interfered with, and all that is exacted from each member is the same toleration of the views of others which he desires them to exhibit toward his own. The Society, as a body, eschews politics and all subjects outside its declared sphere of work, the rules stringently forbidding members to compromise its strict neutrality in these matters.

As a condition precedent to membership, belief in and adherence to the first of the above-named objects is required; as to the other two, members may pursue them or not, as they see fit. The act of joining the Society, therefore, carries with it no obligation whatever to profess belief in either the practicability of presently realizing the brotherhood of mankind, or in the superior value of Aryan over modern science, or the existence of occult powers latent in man. It implies only intellectual sympathy in the attempt to disseminate tolerant and brotherly feelings, to discover as much truth as can be uncovered by diligent study and careful experimentation, and to essay the formation of a nucleus of a universal brotherhood.

The headquarters are at Adyar, a suburb of Madras, where the Society has a property of twenty-seven acres and extensive buildings, including one for the Oriental Library and a spacious hall wherein the General Council meets annually in convention, on December 27.

Many branches of the Society have been formed in various parts of the world, and new ones are constantly being organized. Each branch frames its own by-laws and manages its own local business without interference from headquarters; provided only that the fundamental rules of the Society are not violated. All branches in America and the West Indies are under the jurisdiction of the American section; those in Europe, India, Ceylon, etc., are under the jurisdiction of the General Convention held in India. Each section is autonomous.

The President of the Society is Colonel Henry S. Olcott, in India; the Vice-President, William Q. Judge (also General Secretary American section), 144 Madison Avenue, New-York.

Throughout the world there are about 250 branches. The American section includes at this date the 68 branches in the United States, which are located in most of the principal cities and in many of the smaller towns. Addresses may be obtained from the General Secretary. Inquirers and applicants can address him at the address given above, enclosing a stamp, and will receive from him further information or application blanks.

American Secular Union.

THE general object of the American Secular Union is to secure the total separation of Church and State; to the end that equal rights in religion, genuine morality in politics and freedom, virtue and brotherhood be established, protected and perpetuated.

As means for the accomplishment of this purpose, the specific work of the society is, to advocate:

1. The equitable taxation of church property in common with other property.
2. The total discontinuance of religious instruction and worship in the public schools, and especially the reading of any Bible.
3. The repeal of all laws enforcing the observance of Sunday as a religious institution, rather than an economic one, justified by physiological and other secular reasons.
4. The cessation of all appropriations of the public funds for educational and charitable institutions of a sectarian character.
5. The abolition of ecclesiastical chaplaincies paid out of the public treasury.
6. The discontinuance of the practice of the appointment by the President of the United States and the Governors of the several States, and other civil public officers, of religious festivals and fasts.
7. The substitution of a solemn affirmation, under the pains and penalties of perjury in the courts, and in all other departments of the Government, in place of the common forms of a judicial oath.
8. The defence through the courts of any American citizen whose equal religious and political rights are denied, or who is oppressed, on account of any opinions he may have held or expressed on the subject of religion.
9. The promulgation, by all peaceable and orderly means, of the great principles of religious liberty and equal rights, devotion to truth for its own sake and universal brotherhood on the ground of a common humanity; and to secure the State from the encroachments of the Church, and to foster the development of intelligence and morality which constitute the all-sufficient basis of secular government.

Any person can become a member by paying one dollar into the treasury of the society. An annual congress is held. The executive committee has authority to charter local auxiliary societies.

The officers are: President, Hon. C. B. Waite, Chicago, Ill.; Secretary, M. A. Freeman, Chicago, Ill.

The Mormons.

THE following particulars regarding the organization and tenets of the "Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints" were prepared for THE WORLD ALMANAC by First President Wilford Woodruff, the head of the Church. A more extended statement was printed in THE ALMANAC of 1890, pages 160, 161.

ORGANIZATION OF THE CHURCH.

There are in the Church two orders of priesthood—the Melchizedek, or higher; and the Aaronic, or lesser; the latter being an appendage of the former.

In the Melchizedek Priesthood are apostles, patriarchs, high-priests, seventies and elders, and it holds the keys of all the spiritual blessings of the Church, with the authority to preside, and to direct in all spiritual matters in the Church.

It is the duty of the above-named officers to preach the Gospel, baptize, lay on hands for confirmation and the gift of the Holy Ghost for ordination, healing and blessing; also to administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and to officiate in all the ordinances of the Gospel.

In the Aaronic Priesthood are bishops, priests, teachers and deacons, who have authority to administer in outward ordinances and temporal things, under the direction of the Melchizedek Priesthood.

For Church government there are various organizations. The First Presidency consists of three apostles—the first president and his two counsellors. Their duty is to preside over all the Church.

In the Council of the Twelve Apostles the oldest apostle of the twelve presides. They are special witnesses of Jesus Christ in all the world, and they travel and preach the Gospel and build up the Church, calling chiefly on the Seventies to assist them.

The Seventies are organized in councils of seventy, each with seven presidents, one of whom presides over all the seventy.

A bishop, with his two counsellors, sits as a common judge in the Church to settle minor difficulties; but their decisions only extend to the fellowship of the members, this being the extent of their jurisdiction.

In and around Utah the Church is organized into districts termed Stakes of Zion, each stake having its president and two counsellors, who are high-priests, and a high council of twelve high-priests, which sits as a superior court in Church matters only. Each stake is subdivided into wards, each ward having its own meeting-house, and being presided over by a bishop and his two counsellors.

DOCTRINES OF THE CHURCH.

The following statement of the doctrines of the Church was issued with the approval of the Prophet Joseph Smith:

1. We believe in God, the Eternal Father, and in His Son Jesus Christ, and in the Holy Ghost.
2. We believe that men will be punished for their own sins, and not for Adam's transgression.
3. We believe that through the atonement of Christ all mankind may be saved, by obedience to the laws and ordinances of the Gospel.
4. We believe that these ordinances are: First, Faith in the Lord Jesus Christ; second, Repentance; third, Baptism by immersion for the remission of sins; fourth, Laying on of hands for the Gift of the Holy Ghost.
5. We believe that a man must be called of God, by "prophecy, and by the laying on of hands," by those who are in authority, to preach the Gospel and administer in the ordinances thereof.
6. We believe in the same organization that existed in the primitive Church—viz.: apostles, prophets, pastors, teachers, evangelists, etc.
7. We believe in the gift of tongues, prophecy, revelation, visions, healing, interpretation of tongues, etc.
8. We believe the Bible to be the word of God, as far as it is translated correctly; we also believe the Book of Mormon to be the word of God.
9. We believe all that God has revealed, all that He does now reveal, and we believe that He will yet reveal many great and important things pertaining to the Kingdom of God.
10. We believe in the literal gathering of Israel and in the restoration of the Ten Tribes. That Zion will be built upon this continent. That Christ will reign personally upon the earth, and that the earth will be renewed and receive its paradisiac glory.
11. We claim the privilege of worshipping Almighty God according to the dictates of our conscience, and allow all men the same privilege, let them worship how, where or what they may.
12. We believe in being subject to kings, presidents, rulers and magistrates; in obeying, honoring and sustaining the law.
13. We believe in being honest, true, chaste, benevolent, virtuous and in doing good to all men; indeed, we may say that we follow the admonition of Paul, "We believe all things, we hope all things," we have endured many things, and hope to be able to endure all things. If there is anything virtuous, lovely or of good report or praiseworthy, we seek after these things.

The English Derby.

The Derby was first run on May 4th, 1780; it was then a dash of a mile, and was won by Sir Charles Banbury's Diomed, by Florizel. In 1799 he was imported into the United States, and to him can be traced nearly all the best of the American racing families. In 1784 the distance was increased to a mile and a half, and the weights raised to 115 pounds for colts and 112 pounds for fillies. The present course was first used in 1872. In 1884 the weights were raised to 126 pounds for colts and 121 pounds for fillies. The winners since 1867 were:

FRESHMEN EIGHTS.

Previous to 1880 a number of races were rowed by "Freshmen" crews of the several universities and colleges, with six oars. In 1880 an agreement was entered into by Harvard and Columbia to row an eight-oared race annually at two miles straight away. In 1886 Yale joined in the arrangement, but sunk in the race. In 1890 Harvard did not row, and Yale and Cornell entered.

INTER-COLLEGIATE ROWING ASSOCIATION.

In 1883 and since a race for fours, without coxswains, has been rowed at a mile and a half straight, under the auspices of the Inter-Collegiate Rowing Association.

1883, July 4. At Lake George, N. Y., Cornell, 11.57; University of Pennsylvania, 12.29; Princeton, 12.40; Wesleyan, 12.47.

1884, July 7. At Saratoga, N. Y., University of Pennsylvania, 8.39¾; Cornell, 8.41; Princeton, 8.49; Columbia, 9.25; and Bowdoin, not timed.

1885, July 4. At Lake Quinsigamond (Worcester), Mass., Cornell finished first in 9.10½, followed by Brown, Bowdoin, and University of Pennsylvania. Referee decided Cornell disqualified for a foul, ordered Brown and Bowdoin to row over, and placed University of Pennsylvania third. July 15, same course, Bowdoin, 8.26; Brown, second.

1886, July 3. At Lake George, N. Y., Bowdoin, 8.06; University of Pennsylvania, second. Won by a length and a half.

1887, July 5. At Lake Quinsigamond, Cornell defeated Bowdoin by 2 feet in 9 28¾.

June 27, 1889, a match between Cornell, Columbia, and University of Pennsylvania, in eight-oared shells, was rowed at three miles over the New-London course, from Winthrop's Point, up river, Cornell winning somewhat easily, Columbia second. Time not accurately taken, owing to darkness. Said to be between 15 minutes, 03 seconds, and 16 minutes, 04 seconds.

June 26, 1890, Cornell defeated University of Pennsylvania by six lengths in a three-mile race at New-London. Time, 14 minutes, 43 seconds

June 25, 1891, Cornell defeated University of Pennsylvania by six and Columbia by thirteen lengths in three-mile race at New-London. The time, 14 minutes, 27½ seconds, breaks record.

June 15, 1892, Cornell defeated University of Pennsylvnnia by six lengths in a three-mile race at Ithaca. The time was 17 minutes, 26 seconds.

Year.	Date.	Winner.	Time.	Won by.
1845	June 7 ...	Cambridge	8 m. 30 s	2 lengths.
1847	June 17	Oxford	8 4	2 lengths.
1853	June 11	Oxford	8 3	1½ feet.
1855	June 25	Cambridge	8 32	2½ lengths.

NOTE.—Henley course, about two miles and a quarter; the Westminster to Putney course, about five miles, and the Putney to Mortlake course, about four miles. In 1856 the course was from Barker's rails above Mortlake to Putney, about 1,200 yards more than the usual course. In 1863 the course was from the High Bridge to Putney Pier.

* In 1846 the race was first rowed on outriggers.

† In 1857 the first race in which either University rowed in the present style of boats without keels; also the first time either rowed with round oars.

‡ In 1873 both crews used sliding seats for the first time.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF AMERICA.

From 1884 to 1890, inclusive, the winners of the respective pennants of the National League and American Association played a post-season series for the championship of America. This series was omitted in 1891, owing to strained relations between the two bodies. In 1892 the Bostons and Clevelands, the winners of the first and second divisions of the League's season, played for the championship. The results:

Year.	Contesting Teams.	Results of Series.

(a) and (b) represent the first and second divisions of the championship season.

The catcher's record of continuous games played was broken in 1890 by Charles Zimmer, of the Cleveland Club, who caught in 110 consecutive championship games.

The cities which have been represented at different times in the National League are Chicago, Boston, New-York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Washington, Detroit, St. Louis, Kansas City, Providence, Buffalo, Troy, Worcester, Cincinnati, Brooklyn, Syracuse, Milwaukee, Baltimore, Hartford, and Louisville. Boston and Chicago have been in the League every year since its organization.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

The American Association was organized in 1882. In December, 1891, it was merged with the National League. Its record follows:

INTERCOLLEGIATE BASEBALL.

The Intercollegiate League has varied in membership almost every year since its organization. The record since 1880 shows the following winners:

Harvard and Princeton did not play in 1890, and in 1891 neither Yale nor Princeton played against Harvard, Yale refusing because of Harvard's attitude toward Princeton. In December, 1891, Harvard and Princeton agreed to resume baseball contests.

Yale and Harvard each won a majority of games from Princeton in 1892, and broke even in their own series. Harvard's challenge for a deciding game was declined on diplomatic grounds. The record for the year follows:

YALE-PRINCETON SERIES.

HARVARD-PRINCETON SERIES.

May 7—at Princeton—Harvard, 11; Princeton, 5. May 30—at Cambridge—Harvard, 9; Princeton, 4.

YALE-HARVARD SERIES.

June 23—at Cambridge—Harvard, 5; Yale, 0. June 28—at New-Haven—Yale, 4; Harvard, 3.

LONG DISTANCE THROWING RECORDS.

September 9, 1882—Ed. Williamson, of Chicago, threw the ball 132 yards, 1 foot, at the Chicago Grounds.

Ed. Williamson won the Cincinnati competition in 1888, with a throw of 133 yards, 11 inches.

The shortest 9-inning game on record was played on the Excelsior Grounds, Brooklyn, May, 1861, by the Excelsior and Field clubs; time, 50 minutes.

The longest game on record was played at Boston, May 11, 1877. The Manchester and Harvard College teams played 24 innings; score, 0 to 0.

The longest championship game on record was played at Tacoma, May 16, 1891, between the Tacoma and Seattle teams. The Tacomas won in 22 innings; score, 6 to 5.

Harry Berthrong's record of 14 2-5 seconds, for running around the bases, made at Washington, in 1868, is still the standard.

IMPORTANT BASEBALL EVENTS.

1876—Organization of the National League.

1882—Organization of the American Association.

1884—First baseball war, caused by the organization of the Union Association, under the leadership of Henry V. Lucas. The new Association was no match for the older bodies, and went to pieces before the season ended.

1890—Players League organized. Its object was to conduct baseball on broader principles than those of the League and Association. The competition was disastrous to both sides, and at the conclusion of the playing season the new League was dismembered by the superior diplomacy of the old magnates.

1891—American Association withdrew from the new National Agreement and opened warfare against the National League. In December the two bodies met at Indianapolis, and the Association went out of existence, four of its clubs (St. Louis, Louisville, Baltimore, and Washington) being added to the League circuit. The other four were bought out.

1892—The League decided to divide the championship season into two halves, the winner of the first to play the winner of the second in a final series. Boston and Cleveland were the respective winners, the former taking the final series in five straight games. The scheme did not meet with great favor, and was abolished at the annual meeting at Chicago, November 17 and 18.

Canoeing.

The thirteenth annual meet of the American Canoe Association was held in August, 1892, at Willsborough Point, Lake Champlain, N. Y. The results of the races follow:

Record Sailing Race, five miles—Won by G. Gray, Vesper Canoe Club, in 56 minutes, 16 seconds.

Novice Sailing Race, three miles—Won by W. T. Foote, Jr., in 47 minutes, 50 seconds.

Paddling Half Mile—Won by J. Knapp, of Springfield, Mass.

Trophy Sailing Race, six miles—Won by Paul Butler, Vesper Club, in 1 hour, 30 minutes, 30 seconds.

Cruising Race, three miles—Won by H. L. Quick.

Club Sailing Race, three miles—Won by Vesper Boat Club in 29 minutes, 39 seconds.

Pecowsic Cup Sailing Race, four and a half miles—Won by T. S. Oxholm, Yonkers, in 45 minutes, 47 seconds.

Upset Paddling Race—Won by L. R. Palmer, Ianthe Canoe Club.

Upset Paddling and Manœuvring Race—Won by C. E. Archibald.

The New York Canoe Club's Challenge Cup Sailing Races, June 21 and 22, were won by T. S. Oxholm, Yonkers Canoe Club, in the canoe Glenwood.

Football Records.

SHORTLY after the close of the football season of 1891 the prospects for a renewal of the Harvard-Princeton contests seemed excellent. These colleges had not met on the football field since 1889, when Harvard withdrew from the Intercollegiate Association because of a controversy with Princeton, the latter being charged with playing professionals on its team. In December, 1891, representatives of Harvard and Princeton met in New-York for the purpose of healing the breach, but they could not agree upon a plan which should be satisfactory to both. Harvard subsequently made a proposition to Princeton, which the latter would not accept.

Harvard offered to play Princeton in New-York on Thanksgiving Day in 1892, and in New-England on a Saturday in 1893. Princeton declined, and made a counter proposition, which gave Harvard the option of reentering the Intercollegiate Association or arranging a game with Princeton for any Saturday in November, 1892, to be played in or near New-York. Princeton's loyalty to Yale and the Intercollegiate Association precluded its acceptance of Harvard's offer to play in New-York, Thanksgiving Day. Harvard, in turn, declined Princeton's proposition, and there the matter was dropped, although great pressure was brought to bear on Harvard to agree to terms.

Yale stands in a peculiar position in the mean time. It is bound by a contract to play a game with Harvard at Springfield each fall, and, being a member of the Intercollegiate Association, is called upon to play two hard games with Princeton and Pennsylvania respectively. Harvard has only one hard game to play, and Princeton two. Yale is, therefore, naturally anxious to have the Harvard-Princeton contests resumed, so as to equalize matters.

The football season of 1892 was marked by several sensational features. The most notable of these was the victory of the University of Pennsylvania over Princeton at Philadelphia, November 5th. The result of that game placed the Pennsylvania team second in the Intercollegiate race. The victory was entirely unexpected, for although it was generally conceded that Pennsylvania was stronger than ever before and Princeton weaker than usual, no one looked for a Princeton defeat. An impression to the effect that Princeton thus lost its right to play Yale Thanksgiving Day, 1893, in New-York, became general. This was erroneous, because while the constitution of the Association provides that the leading two colleges of one year shall play in or near New-York the next, it does not specify any date.

Wesleyan's poor showing in the race caused rumors at the close of the season that the Middletown college would be dropped. Wesleyan set all these rumors at rest by resigning early in December. Cornell is anxious to fill the vacancy, believing that it will be able to hold its own. The success achieved by the Cornell team in 1891 and 1892 entitles it to be classed in the front rank, but it remains to be seen whether Yale, Princeton, and Pennsylvania will agree to admit it as a member of the Intercollegiate Association.

INTERCOLLEGIATE FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION.

The records of the first eight years of the Intercollegiate Football Association are summarized in the following table, which shows the number of games won by each college each year:

* Columbia was dropped in 1884.

The Association was reorganized in 1885, with the following members: Yale, Princeton, Harvard, University of Pennsylvania, and Wesleyan. The record from that year to date follows:

Princeton	3	3	2	3	4	2	2	1
Harvard	0	2	3	2	2	*	—	—
Wesleyan	1	0	1	0	1	0	0	0

* Harvard withdrew from the Intercollegiate Association late in 1889, but has played an independent game with Yale at Springfield, Mass., each year since. These games resulted as follows:

1892—Yale, 6; Harvard, 0.

	Yale.	University of Pennsylvania.	Princeton.	Wesleyan.	Won.	Points Scored.	Opponents.
Yale	—	1	1	1	3	114	0
University of Pennsylvania	0	—	1	1	2	40	32
Princeton	0	0	—	1	1	64	18
Wesleyan	0	0	0	—	0	0	168
Lost	0	1	2	3	..	..	..

October 29—New-York—Princeton, 60; Wesleyan, 0.
November 5—Philadelphia—University of Pennsylvania, 6, Princeton, 4.
November 5—New-Haven—Yale, 74; Wesleyan, 0.
November 12—New-York—Yale, 28; University of Pennsylvania, 0.

The scores of the Yale-Harvard, Yale-Princeton, and Harvard-Princeton games, since the present system of scoring was adopted, are here given:

AMERICAN COLLEGE FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION (NEW-ENGLAND).

The championship was fought for by three colleges—Amherst, Dartmouth, and Williams. Amherst won with a clean record of victories. The scores follow:

November 5—Dartmouth, 24; Williams, 12.
November 12—Amherst, 30; Dartmouth, 2.
November 18—Amherst, 60; Williams, 0.

AMERICAN FOOTBALL UNION.

The Crescent Athletic Club won the championship of the American Football Union for the fourth time in succession. Scores of games played:

November 5—At Orange—Orange Athletic Club, 18; New-York Athletic Club, 6.
November 20—At Brooklyn—Crescent Athletic Club, 20; New-York Athletic Club, 0.

ARMY AND NAVY SERIES.

The series of games between the Military Academy and Naval Academy, which began in 1890, has aroused almost as great general interest throughout the country as the contests between Yale and Harvard, and Yale and Princeton. The Naval Cadets took the lead this year, the record standing two victories to one in their favor. It was feared for a time last fall that the authorities would not permit the Military Cadets to play this year, but the necessary consent was given, and the game was played at West Point, Saturday, November 26ht. The record follows:

1890—At West Point—Naval Academy, 24; Military Academy, 0.
1892—At West Point—Naval Academy, 12; Military Academy, 4.

LOCAL SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Cutler School won the championship of the Interscholastic League, which was made up of Cutler, Dwight, Berkeley, Harvard, and Columbia schools.

The championship of the Interscholastic League of schools north of Fifty-eighth Street went to Hamilton Institute. These schools comprise the league: Hamilton, Columbia Institute and Barnard, Condon and Dr. Sachs's schools.

Lawn Tennis Records.

F. H. Hovey won the all-comers tournament at Newport in August, 1892. He was then defeated by O. S. Campbell for the championship.

O. S. Campbell and R. P. Huntington, Jr., defeated V. G. and E. L. Hall for the championship in doubles.

Fly-Casting Records.

THESE casts were made at the National Rod and Reel Association tournaments held at Central Park, New-York, and the statement of records was contributed to THE WORLD ALMANAC by Mr. A. N. Cheney, of Glens Falls, N. Y.

Light Rod Contest (rods not to exceed five ounces in weight): Reuben C. Leonard, 95 feet, made 1888.

Salmon Casting: H. W. Hawes, 138 feet, made 1888.

Minnow Casting for Black Bass: A. F. Dressel, average of five casts, 137 feet, made 1888; Sidney Fry made an average of 140 4-5 feet in 5 casts, but failing in accuracy, yielded first place to Mr. Dressel.

Striped Bass Casting (Light): H. W. Hawes, average of five casts, 129 6-10 feet, 1884.

Striped Bass Casting (Heavy): W. H. Wood, average of 5 casts, 246 5-10 feet, made 1889. Longest single cast, same class as above, W. H. Wood, 250 feet, made 1885.

Fly Casting for Black Bass: James L. Breese, 90 feet, made 1889.

* This distance was made by measuring the line after the cast, and is not considered as good as Mr. Kelson's which was made by measuring to the point where the fly struck on the water, as was Mr. Wood's.

† This distance was made by measuring the line after casting.

‡ This cast of Messrs. Marston and Clark is given in English reports as the best, but for some unknown reason Mr. Wood's cast of 82 feet, 6 inches, and Mr. George M. Kelson's cast of 81 feet, have been entirely overlooked, although both are records at an international tournament.

§ In Nottingham casting the cast is made from the reel, as is done in America.

Lacrosse.

THE lacrosse season of 1892 terminated in a very unsatisfactory manner as far as the Amateur Athletic Union champion contests were concerned. In the Spring it was decided that each association of the A. A. U. should arrange a distinct series of games, and then the association winners should play for the championship in the Fall.

The Metropolitan, Atlantic and New-England Associations entered teams. No games were played in the last-named organization. There was trouble in the Metropolitan from the start. And so many charges of professionalism and violations of the rules were made that all the games played were thrown out. In the Atlantic Association the team of the Athletic Club of the Schuylkill Navy won first honors, and so was given the A. A. U. championship by default.

Pugilism.

CHAMPIONSHIP BATTLES.

Since the memorable battle in New-Orleans, when the colors of John L. Sullivan were lowered by the young and exceedingly agile Californian, James J. Corbett, the question as to whether the latter won the championship of the world or of America has been discussed thousands of times. John L. Sullivan was the recognized champion of the world, and that title, therefore, belongs to his conqueror. Dating back to the fight between Tom Allen, champion at that time of this country, and Joe Goss, who occupied a like position in the English ring, it is found that the world's championship was in dispute. It was for this title that these champions battled, and Goss was the victor. Paddy Ryan challenged Goss, and they fought also for the world's championship. Ryan won. The battle between Sullivan and Ryan in Mississippi City, on February 7, 1882, is still fresh in the memories of men who follow the sport.

From the time he defeated Ryan, the Boston pugilist met scores of aspirants for his title, and was successful in defeating them all until he met Charles Mitchell, near Chantilly, France, on March 10, 1888. Mitchell got a draw with the champion. It is quite clear, therefore, that Corbett in defeating Sullivan fairly won the championship of the world.

Champion of Australia, Peter Jackson.
Champion of England, Peter Jackson.

Middleweights.—Champion of America, Bob Fitzsimmons.
Champion of Australia, Bob Fitzsimmons.
Champion of England, Jim Hall.

Lightweights.—Champion of America, Jack McAuliffe.
Champion of England, Dick Burge.

Featherweights.—Champion of the world, George Dixon.

Yachting Records.

By Captain J. C. Summers.

So far as the sport of yachting is concerned the year 1892 will pass into history as a fairly good one. The events worth recording are: the cruise of the New-York Yacht Club, which brought out more boats than ever before, and furnished some excellent racing from port to port by the schooners of the squadron; the defeat of the Herreshoff sloop Gloriana, of the forty-six foot class, by the Wasp from the same designer; the races of the twenty-five foot class; the introduction of fin and bulb keels for yachts of the twenty-five foot class, and some very close contests between this new type of racing machine and the less modern but in some cases equally speedy boats of the old type.

The American Yacht Club offered a prize for the yachts Vamoose and Norwood to steam over an eighty-knot course on Long-Island Sound, but water smooth enough could not be had to suit the Norwood, so the club withdrew the prize and there was no race.

Just as the year was closing (on December 13) the New-York Yacht Club accepted a challenge from the Royal Yacht Squadron of England, on behalf of Lord Dunraven, for the America's Cup. The races (best three out of five) are to be sailed in September, 1893, over courses outside of Sandy Hook. Dunraven's yacht is the Valkyrie. She will be designed by Watson and built by Henderson, on the Clyde. Three yachts at least will be built in America. The fastest of these will be selected to defend the Cup. The races are to be sailed under the terms of the deed of gift of 1887.

THE LAKE YACHT RACING ASSOCIATION.

This Association was organized March 29, 1884, and has had in its membership the following clubs: Canadian—Royal Canadian, Toronto, Queen City, Royal Hamilton, Hamilton, Kingston, Bay of Quinte, and Bellville; American—Oswego and Rochester.

According to a prearranged schedule, the yachts of the Association meet at some port and hold a regatta, going around the circuit, and racing at each port, under the auspices of the home club. The classification is by corrected length, water line and sail area being considered in the measurement.

At a meeting of the Association, December 17, 1892, it was decided to hold three circuit races, beginning at Rochester on July 4, 1893, thence going to Hamilton and Toronto, a number of the principal yacht owners having decided to go with their yachts to Chicago.

THE FISHER CUP.

The "Fisher Challenge Cup," now held by the Onward (Rochester Yacht Club), is a solid silver emblem, valued at $500, presented by Hon. W. J. Fisher, July 8, 1882, to the Chicago Yacht Club, as a challenge cup open to sloops belonging to any regularly organized yacht club on the great lakes, to be raced for under certain speciffed conditions. It has been won and defended as follows:

Cora.....	Chicago Y. C.....	July 8, 1882.	Nora*.....	Bellville Y. C.....	Sept. 14, 1884

NOTIFICATION.

The Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers informs the disabled soldiers and sailors of the United States that Homes have been established, at the places above named, for all such as are unable to earn a living by labor. All the ordinary comforts of a home are provided. Chapels for religious services; halls for concerts, lectures, etc.; hospitals with experienced surgeons and nurses; libraries and reading rooms; amusement halls; post and telegraph offices; stores, etc. Good behavior ensures kind treatment.

Soldiers and sailors are especially informed that the Home is neither an hospital nor almshouse, but a home, where subsistence, quarters, clothing, religious instruction, employment when possible, and amusements are provided by the Government of the United States. The provision is not a charity, but is a reward to the brave and deserving, and IS THEIR RIGHT, to be forfeited only by bad conduct at the Home or conviction of heinous crimes. A soldier or sailor desiring admission may apply by letter to either of the managers, whereupon a blank application will be sent to him, and if he be found duly qualified, transportation will be furnished; or he can apply personally or by letter at the branch nearest to his place of residence.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

1. An honorable discharge from the United States Service.
2. Disability which prevents the applicant from earning his living by labor.
3. Applicants for admission will be required to stipulate and agree to abide by all the rules and regulations made by the Board of Managers, or by its order; to perform all duties required of them, and to obey all the lawful orders of the officers of the Home. Attention is called to the fact, that by the law establishing the Home the members are made subject to the Rules and Articles of War, and will be governed thereby in the same manner as if they were in the army of the United States.
4. A soldier or sailor must forward with his application for admission his Discharge Paper, and when he is a pensioner, his Pension Certificate, and if he has been a member of a State Home, his discharge from that Home, before his application will be considered; which papers will be retained at the branch to which the applicant is admitted, to be kept there for him, and returned to him when he is discharged. This rule is adopted to prevent the loss of such papers and certificates, and to hinder fraudulent practices; and no application will be considered unless these papers are sent with it. If the original discharge does not exist, a copy of discharge, certified by the War or Navy Department or by the Adjutant-General of the State, must accompany the application.

Soldiers or sailors whose pensions exceed $16 the month are not eligible to the Home unless the reasons are peculiar, and are explained to the manager and are satisfactory to him. Those who have been members of State Homes must have been discharged from those Homes at least six months before they can be admitted to a branch of the National Home, except by a vote of the Board of Managers. Applicants are requested to conform strictly to the above requirements.

UNITED STATES HOME FOR REGULAR ARMY SOLDIERS.

The United States Soldiers' Home in the District of Columbia receives and maintains discharged soldiers of the regular army. All soldiers who have served twenty years as enlisted men in the army (including volunteer service, if any), and all soldiers of less than twenty years' service who have incurred such disability, by wounds, disease, or injuries in the line of duty while in the regular army, as unfits them for further service, are entitled to the benefits of the Home.

A pensioner who enters the Home may assign his pension, or any part of it, to his child, wife, or parent, by filing written notice with the agent who pays him. If not so assigned, it is drawn by the treasurer of the Home and held in trust for the pensioner, to whom it is paid in such sums as the commissioners deem proper while he is an inmate of the Home, the balance being paid in full when he takes his discharge and leaves the Home. Inmates are subject to the Rules and Articles of War, the same as soldiers in the army. They are comfortably lodged, fed, and clothed, and receive medical attendance and medicines all without cost to them. There are 1,250 men now receiving the benefits of the Home.

The Board of Commissioners consist of "the General-in-Chief commanding the army, the Surgeon-General, the Commissary-General, the Adjutant-General, the Quartermaster-General, the Judge Advocate-General, and the Governor of the Home."

Applications for admission to the Home may be addressed to the "Board of Commissioners, Soldiers' Home, War Department, Washington City, D. C.," and must give date of enlistment and date of discharge, with letter of company and number of regiment for each and every term of service, and rate of pension, if any, and must be accompanied by a medical certificate showing nature and degree of disability, if any exists.

Mount Vernon Ladies' Association.

THE Washington estate at Mount Vernon, Va., is under the care and direction of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the Union. The founder of the association, in 1854, was Miss Ann Pamela Cunningham, of South-Carolina. She was the first Regent, and was succeeded in 1873 in that position by Mrs. MacAllister Laughton. She died in 1892, and the present Regent is Mrs. Justine Van Rensselaer Townsend, of New-York (a great granddaughter of General Philip Schuyler). The Vice-Regents are as follows: Mrs. M. J. M. Sweat, Me.; Mrs. Cornelius L. King, Vt.; Miss Alice M. Longfellow, Mass.; Mrs. A. R. Winder, N. H.; Mrs. Susan E. J. Hudson, Ct.; Miss Comegys, Del.; Mrs. Mary T. Barnes, D. C.; Mrs. Emma R. Ball, Va.; Mrs. Ella B. Washington, W. Va.; Mrs. Letitia H. Walker, N C.; Mrs. Lucy H. Pickens, S. C.; Mrs. Georgia Page Wilder, Ga.; Mrs. Martha Mitchell, Wis.; Mrs. Ida A. Richardson, La.; Mrs. Elizabeth A. Rathbone, Mich.; Mrs. Mary T. Leiter, Ill.; Mrs. Woodward, Ky.; Mrs. Jenny M. Ward, Kan.; Mrs. Rebecca B. Flandrau, Minn.; Mrs. Alice Hill, Col.; Mrs. Phœbe A. Hearst, Cal.; Mrs. Baker. Fla.

The advisory committee is composed of Judge J. P. Comegys, of Delaware; Mr. Justice Field, of the Supreme Court; T. N. McCarter, LL.D., of New-Jersey; President J. C. Welling, of Columbian University, D. C., and George W. Childs, of Philadelphia. The resident Superintendent at Mount Vernon is Harrison H. Dodge.

By joint resolution of Congress, approved September 25, 1890, "the distinctive badges adopted by military societies of men who served in the War of the Revolution, the War of 1812, the Mexican War, and the War of the Rebellion, respectively, may be worn upon all occasions of ceremony by officers and enlisted men of the United States, who are members of said organizations in their own right." This resolution practically makes all societies of the character indicated in the resolution military societies of the United States, to be recognized as such by civil and military authorities at home and abroad.

* Not organized originally as a military society. † Organized as a military society by veterans of the war and descendants of soldiers and sailors participating therein. ‡ This society does not limit membership to participators in the Civil War.

Society of the Cincinnati.

GENERAL OFFICERS.

President-General.....Hon. Hamilton Fish, LL.D., N. Y.
Vice-President-General.....Hon. Robert Milligan McLane, Md.
Secretary-General.....Hon. Asa Bird Gardiner, LL.D., R. I.
Treasurer-General.....Mr. John Schuyler, C.E., N. Y.
Assistant-Secretary-General.....Mr. Thomas Pinckney Lowndes, S. C.

The historic and patriotic Order of the Cincinnati was founded by the American and French officers at the cantonments of the continental army on the Hudson at the close of hostilities in the War of the Revolution for American Independence in May, 1783.

In forming the society it was declared that, "To perpetuate, therefore, as well the remembrance of this vast event, as the mutual friendships which have been formed under the pressure of common danger, and, in many instances, cemented by the blood of the parties, the officers of the American army do hereby, in the most solemn manner, associate, constitute, and combine themselves into one Society of Friends, to endure as long as they shall endure, or any of their eldest male posterity, and, in failure thereof, the collateral branches who may be judged worthy of becoming its supporters and members."

For convenience, thirteen State societies were formed, and one in France, under the direct patronage of Louis XVI. Upon the roll of original members appeared the names of all the great historic military and naval characters of the Revolution, and upon the roll of honorary members, elected for their own lives only, appeared many of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

THE RIGHT TO MEMBERSHIP.

All continental officers who had served with honor and resigned after three years' service as officers, or who had been rendered supernumerary and honorably discharged, in one of the several reductions of the American army, or who had continued to the end of the war, and all French officers who had served in the co-operating army under Count d'Estaing, or auxiliary army under Count de Rochambeau, and held or attained the rank of colonel for such services, or who had commanded a French fleet or ship of war on the American coast, were entitled to become original members, and upon doing so were required to contribute a month's pay.

STATE SOCIETIES.

Several State societies became dormant because the members had to emigrate to the lands given them for their services, west of the Alleghanies, and with broken health and ruined fortunes, begin life anew in failure of Congress to keep its promises as to half pay.

There now remain seven State societies, viz., those of Massachusetts, Rhode-Island, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and South-Carolina, and the one in France, which was dispersed at the Reign of Terror in 1792, is now being re-established under the acting presidency of M. le Marquis de Rochambeau.

Membership descends to the eldest lineal male descendant, if judged worthy, and, in failure of direct male descent, to male descendants through intervening female descendants.

The general society is composed of the general officers and five delegates from each State society, and meets triennially. In 1854 it ruled that proper descendants of Revolutionary officers who were entitled to original membership, but who never could avail themselves of it, are qualified for hereditary membership, if found worthy, on due application.

The last triennial meeting of the general society was held in Baltimore and at Mount Vernon in May, 1890. The next triennial will be held in Boston, Mass., in May, 1893.

The office of the Secretary-General is at Garden City, Long-Island, N. Y.

The presidents of the State societies are as follows: Massachusetts, Mr. Winslow Warren; Rhode-Island, Hon. Nathanael Greene, LL.D.; New-York, Hon. Hamilton Fish, LL.D.; New-Jersey, Hon. Clifford Stanley Sims; Pennsylvania, Hon. William Wayne; Maryland, Hon. Robert M. McLane; South-Carolina, Rev. Charles Cotesworth Pinckney, D.D.

The number of living members of the Society of the Cincinnati, as reported at the Triennial Meeting, May, 1890, was 439. President Harrison is an honorary member in the Pennsylvania State Society, President-elect Cleveland and Major-General Howard, U. S. Army, are honorary members in the New-York State Society, and Major-General Schofield is an honorary member in the New-Jersey State Society.

Sons of the Revolution.

General President, Ex-Governor John Lee Carroll, Md.
General Vice-President, William Wayne, Pa.
General Treasurer, R. M. Cadwalader, Pa.
General Secretary, J. M. Montgomery, N. Y.
General Assistant Secretary, T. M. Cheeseman, N. Y.
General Assistant Treasurer, Arthur H. Dutton, Mass.
General Chaplain, D. C. Weston, D.D., N. Y.

The society of the "Sons of the Revolution" was originated in New-York in 1875 by John Austin Stevens, in conjunction with other patriotic gentlemen of Revolutionary ancestry. The New-York society was instituted February 22, 1876; reorganized December 3, 1883, and incorporated May 3, 1884, to "keep alive among ourselves and our descendants the patriotic spirit of the men who, in military, naval or civil service, by their acts or counsel, achieved American independence; to collect and secure for preservation the manuscript rolls, records and other documents relating to the war of the Revolution, and to promote intercourse and good feeling among its members now and hereafter."

Eligibility to membership is confined to male descendants from an ancestor who as a soldier, sailor or civil official assisted in establishing American Independence during the war of the Revolution. The officers of the New-York Society are: President, Frederick S. Tallmadge; Vice-President. Floyd Clarkson; Secretary, James Mortimer Montgomery; Assistant Secretary, Edward Trenchard; Treasurer, Arthur M. Hatch; Registrar, Charles Isham; Historian, John Canfield Tomlinson; Chaplain, Rev. Brockholst Morgan. The membership, January, 1893, is 1,203.

There are nine additional State societies and others are being formed: Pennsylvania society, 600 members: President, William Wayne; Secretary, Ethan Allen Weaver. Georgia society, 128 members: President, Colonel John Screven; Secretary, William Harden. District of Columbia society, 165 members: President, John Lee Carroll; Secretary, Charles Worthington. Iowa society, 40 members: President, Rt. Rev. Bishop W. S. Perry; Secretary, E. S. Hammatt. New-Jersey society, 100 members: President, S. Meredith Dickinson; Secretary, John A. Campbell. Kansas society, 42 members: President, T. Dwight Thatcher; Secretary, Bennett R. Wheeler. Colorado society, 46 members: President, ex-Governor N. P. Hill; Secretary, Dr. P. M. Cooke. Maryland, 60 members: President, John Lee Carroll; Secretary, R. R. Brown. Massachusetts, 130 members: President, Colonel W. Leverett Chase; Secretary, Henry Dexter Warren.

SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

This is a distinct association, and its general society was organized April 30, 1889, in New-York, and chartered in Connecticut in 1890. Its purposes are the same as those of the older organization. The officers are: President-General, General Horace Porter, of New-York; Vice-Presidents-General, Jonathan Trumbull, of Connecticut; General J. C. Breckinridge, of the District of Columbia; Henry M. Shepard, of Illinois; General Theodore S. Peck and Paul Revere, of New-Jersey; Registrar-General, Dr. George Brown Goode; Secretary-General, A. Howard Clark, of the District of Columbia.

State societies of the "Sons of the American Revolution" have been organized in New-Jersey, Connecticut, Maine, Maryland, Vermont, Massachusetts, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, New-Hampshire, Rhode-Island, Virginia and in some other States and in the District of Columbia, but many of them contain as yet only enough members for organization. A California society of descendants of Revolutionary patriots, entitled "Sons of Revolutionary Sires," organized July 4, 1876, having reorganized and changed its name in 1889, has been admitted to membership. There are two organizations of a New-York society of "Sons of the American Revolution," one, a local patriotic society, having its principal office in Queens County, chartered by the State of New-York, September 26, 1889, George N. Conklin, President, and having no connection with the general society; the other subsequently formed and located in the city of New-York, with Hon. Chauncey M. Depew as President. The membership of the "Sons of the American Revolution" is reported as over 3,000.

PENDING UNION OF THE TWO SOCIETIES.

At the annual meeting of the general society of the "Sons of the American Revolution" held in the city of New-York, April 30, 1892, a movement toward the union of the two organizations was begun by the appointment of a committee to meet a similar committee representing the society of the "Sons of the Revolution," to confer upon a plan of fraternization. The proposition for a conference was met in a cordial spirit by the general officers of the "Sons of the Revolution." A committee was appointed, and several meetings were held in New-York and Philadelphia during the Summer and Autumn of 1892. At a meeting in New-York, December 22, at which General Horace Porter presided, a constitution for the united societies was submitted and accepted unanimously by the delegates present. A report will be made by the committees to their general officers in February, and if the terms of union are ratified, a day will be appointed for the election of new officers. Under these terms a new constitution will be the basis of the united society, which will bear the title of "Sons of the Revolution," the colors of the present society of the "Sons of the Revolution" and the insignia of the "Sons of the American Revolution" will be retained. A special committee will carefully scrutinize the claims to membership of the members of both societies.

PATRIOTIC WOMEN'S SOCIETIES.

A general society was organized in Washington, D. C., in 1890, of female descendants of Revolutionary patriots, as the "Society of Daughters of the American Revolution." There are now 20 State societies and over 1,000 members. The late Mrs. Benjamin Harrison was president.

A New-York State "Society of Daughters of the Revolution" was organized August 20, 1890. The Managing Director is Mrs. Edward Poulet Steers, of New-York.

The "General Society United States Daughters—1812," composed of female descendants of soldiers and sailors of the War of 1812, was incorporated under the laws of Ohio in 1892, and is being organized in a number of States. The President-General is Flora Adams Darling, of Detroit, Mich.

Society of Colonial Wars.

OFFICERS.

Governor, Frederick J. DePeyster; Deputy-Governor, James M. Varnum; Vice-Deputy-Governor, T. J. Oakley Rhinelander; Secretary, Howland Pell; Treasurer, S. Victor Constant; Registrar, F. E. Haight; Historian, Thomas Ludlow Ogden; Chaplain, Rev. Maunsell Van Rensselaer; Gentlemen of the Council, Charles H. Murray, Howard Bayne, James Bleeker, T. Wain-Morgan Draper, Winthrop Pond, Satterlee Swartwout, Philip L. Livingston, Arthur M. Hatch, Charles H. Miller.

The "Society of Colonial Wars" was incorporated under the laws of New-York, in 1892, by descendants of ancestors who "fought in battle with Indians under Colonial authority or who served as a military, naval or marine officer, soldier, sailor, privateer, or marine in the forces of the colonies or under the banner of Great Britain in America in the wars in which the said colonies participated or enrolled men, from the landing of the Pilgrims, December 20, 1620, to the Battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775," and also descendants of "men who by their conspicuous acts, counsel, or contributions in civil or legislative life assisted in perpetuating the American colonies." Information can be obtained from Edward Trenchard, 56 Wall Street, New-York.

Society of Tammany or Columbian Order.

OFFICERS.

Grand Sachem, Thomas F. Gilroy; Sachems, Hugh J. Grant, Richard Croker, John J. Gorman, Henry D. Purroy, William H. Clark, John McQuade, Charles Welde, Bernard F. Martin, John H. V. Arnold, W. Bourke Cockran, Charles E. Simmons, Thomas L. Feitner, Charles M. Clancy; Secretary, John B. McGoldrick; Treasurer, Arthur Leary; Sagamore, William H. Dobbs; Wiskinkie, Daniel M. Donegan.

This organization was formed in 1789, being the effect of a popular movement in New-York, having primarily in view a counterweight to the so-called "aristocratic" Society of the Cincinnati. It was essentially anti-Federalist or Democratic in its character, and its chief founder was William Mooney, an upholsterer and a native-born American of Irish extraction. It took its first title from a noted ancient wise and friendly chief of the Delaware tribe of Indians, named Tammany, who had, for the want of a better subject, been canonized by the soldiers of the Revolution as the American patron saint. The first meeting was held May 12, 1789. The act of incorporation was passed in 1805. The Grand Sachem and thirteen Sachems were designed to typify the President and the governors of the thirteen original States. William Mooney was the first Grand Sachem. The society is nominally a charitable and social organization, and is distinct from the general committee of the Tammany Democracy, which is a political organization.

Society of the War of 1812.

In 1854 an Association was formed in Philadelphia by veterans of the war, which was known and designated "The Pennsylvania Association of the Defenders of the Country in the War of 1812." It was inactive for a number of years until 1890, when the name of the association was changed to "The Society of the War of 1812," and and in 1892 it was incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania. The present officers are: President, John Cadwalader, Pa.; Vice-Presidents, Rear-Admiral Roe, U. S. N.; Colonel M. I. Ludington, U. S. A.; Edward Trenchard, N. Y.; John Biddle Porter, Pa.; Appleton Morgan, N. Y.; Registrar, A. Jackson Reilly, Pa.; Executive Committee, Captain Henry H. Bellas, U. S. A.; James Glentworth, Pa.; Charles H. Murray, N. Y.; Henry M. Hoyt, W. Pa.; A. Nelson Lewis, Pa.; Reynold W. Wilcox, M.D., N. Y.; Henry Dexter Warren, Mass.; William E. Bullus, Pa.; David M. Hobart, Pa.; Secretary, Peter S. Hay, Philadelphia, Pa., the present headquarters of the society, where the general meeting of the society is held annually on February 18.

SOCIETY OF THE WAR OF 1812 IN THE STATE OF NEW-YORK.

Instituted as a military society by the veterans of the War of 1812, on September 10, 1890, and incorporated under the laws of the State of New-York, December 31, 1891.

The officers are: President, Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., D.C.L.; Vice-President, Hon. Asa Bird Gardiner, LL.D.; Secretary, Appleton Morgan, LL.D.; Treasurer, Gouverneur Mather Smith, M.D. The Board of Directors includes the officers and Lieutenant Michael Moore, U. S. A. (retired), and General Abraham Dally, both of the War of 1812, and Hon. James M. Varnum and James Mortimer Montgomery. The office of the Secretary is No. 21 Park Row, New-York City.

The original members comprise those who actually served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the War of 1812, or on vessels other than merchant ships which sailed under commissions of letters of marque and reprisal from the United States in that war.

The hereditary members comprise such male descendants of those qualified for original membership as may be deemed worthy and admitted on due application in their own right.

The purposes of the order are to inspire among the members and among the American people the patriotic spirit of the men who, during the War of 1812, defended their country against hostile encroachments on its rights and interests and caused its sovereignty and independence to be respected; to inculcate and maintain the great principles of the laws of nations for which they contended; to collect and preserve the manuscript rolls, records, and other documents relating to that war, and to commemorate the land and naval victories of the American arms in that war; to undertake and assist in the erection of proper memorials thereof; to perpetuate the mutual friendships formed in that war under the pressure of common danger, and to promote fellowship among the members of every degree.

Aztec Club of 1847.

OFFICERS.

President, General Fitz John Porter, N. Y.; Vice-President, General Stewart VanVliet, Washington, D. C.; Secretary, General Innis N. Palmer, Washington, D. C.; Assistant-Secretary, Mark B. Hatch, Washington, D. C.; Treasurer, Colonel De Lancey Floyd-Jones, N. Y.

This society, originally composed of officers of the United States armies who served in the war with Mexico, was formed in the City of Mexico in 1847, "with a view to cherish the memories and keep alive the traditions that cluster about the names of those officers who took part in the Mexican war." Membership is confined to officers of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps who served in the war or their blood relatives. Each primary member may nominate as his successor his son or a blood relative, who during the life of the primary member is known as associate-member, and on the death of the former is entitled, as his representative, to full membership. The headquarters of the organization are in Washington, D. C. The address of the Assistant-Secretary is Mark B. Hatch, Treasury Department. There are 200 members.

Sons of Veterans, U. S. A.

OFFICERS.

Commander-in-Chief, Marvin E. Hall, Hillsdale, Mich.; Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief, George W. Pollitt, Paterson, N. J.; Junior Vice-Commander in-Chief, John R. Miller Helena, Mont.; Adjutant-General, E. P. Lyon, Hillsdale, Mich.; Quartermaster-General, R. Loebenstein, Chicago, Ill.; Inspector-General, Henry Frazee, Cleveland, Ohio; Judge-Advocate-General, W. Scott Beebe, Portland, Ore.; Surgeon-General, Reynold W. Wilcox, New-York City; Chaplain-in-Chief, Rev. C. McColley, Winnebag City, Minn.

The Sons of Veterans is an organization composed of the lineal descendants, over 18 years of age, of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, or marines who served in the late Civil War. There are 32 organized divisions in 44 States and Territories and in Canada. Each division has its own corps of officers, the chief of which is the Division Commander. The organization has 2,500 camps and about 100 000 members. The twelfth annual meeting of the Commandery-in-Chief will be held at Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1893, on a day to be fixed by the Council-in-Chief.

Military Order of the Loyal Legion.

OFFICERS.

The Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States was organized by officers and ex-officers of the army, navy, and marine corps of the United States who took part in the Civil War of 1861-65. Membership descends to the eldest direct male lineal descendant, according to the rules of primogeniture. There are 20 commanderies, each representing a State, and one commandery representing the District of Columbia. Each has its corps of officers. The total membership of the Loyal Legion, October 31, 1892, was 10,264.

H.; National Trustee (four years), C. B. Stone, West Acton, Mass.

The Regular Army and Navy Union was organized in Cincinnati, Ohio, in March, 1888. The National organization (called National Corps) was perfected in August, 1890. It admits to its ranks ex-members of the regular army, navy, and marine corps of the United States of America who have been honorably discharged from the service, no matter if they served before, during, or since the war. There are at present ninety-three garrisons located in different States and Territories, and the membership of the Union approximates 7,000.

National Association of Naval Veterans.

OFFICERS.

Rear Admiral Commanding, B. S. Osbon, 84 South Street, New-York City; Commodore, Francis B. Allen, Hartford, Ct.; Captain, Cyrus Sears, Baltimore, Md.; Commander, C. H. Lemaman, Dayton, Ohio; Lieutenant-Commander, V. D. Woodruff, Rockford, Ill.; Senior Lieutenant, C. P. Bragg, McKinley, Mich.; Junior Lieutenant, Joseph H. McCless, Philadelphia, Pa.; Fleet Surgeon, A. Trego Shertzer, Baltimore, Md.; Fleet Paymaster, Alexander G. Fortier, Buffalo, N. Y.; Fleet Engineer, Samuel Bickerstaff, Cincinnati, Ohio; Fleet Chaplain, Rev. Samuel Alman, Brooklyn, N. Y.; National Secretary, George W. Bostwick, New-York City; National Historian, William Simmons, Philadelphia, Pa.; Senior Aide and Chief of Staff, Will E. Atkins, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The National Association of Naval Veterans was organized by delegates from the various associations of naval veterans throughout the Union at a meeting held in the city of New-York, in January, 1887. The object of the national association, as declared by the constitution, is "to cherish the memory and associations of the war of the late rebellion, perpetuate the glorious name and deeds of our navy, to strengthen the ties of fraternal fellowship and sympathy, to advance the best interests of this Association, and to extend all possible relief to the widows and orphans of members; to foster the cultivation of naval science; to encourage the building of an efficient navy and national defences; to enforce unqualified allegiance to the general government; to protect the rights and liberties of American citizenship; and to maintain national honor, dignity, union, and independence."

Any officer, appointed or enlisted man who has served in the United States Navy, United States Marine Corps, United States Revenue Marine Service during any portion of the time between April 12, 1861, and August 25, 1865, who has not borne arms against the United States, or been convicted of any infamous crime, and who has been honorably discharged or resigned by an honorable acceptance of resignation, is eligible to membership in this Association. There are twenty-six local Associations working under the national charter, a paid membership of over 5,000, and about 2,000 contributing members. The headquarters are at No. 84 South Street, New-York City.

United Confederate Veterans.

This association was organized at New-Orleans June 10, 1889. Its avowed purpose is strictly social, literary, historical, and benevolent. Its constitution says that it "will endeavor to unite in a general federation all associations of Confederate veterans, soldiers and sailors now in existence or hereafter to be formed; to gather authentic data for an impartial history of the war between the States; to preserve relics or mementoes of the same; to cherish the ties of friendship that should exist among men who have shared common dangers, common sufferings and privations; to care for the disabled and extend a helping hand to the needy; to protect the widows and the orphans, and to make and preserve a record of the resources of every member, and, as far as possible, of those of our comrades who have preceded us in eternity." State organizations are authorized, and are called Divisions. The General Commanding is John B. Gordon, of Georgia. The present headquarters of the association are at Atlanta, Ga. The next reunion of the Veterans will be at Birmingham, Ala., in April, 1893.

Union Veteran Legion.

The Union Veteran Legion was organized at Pittsburgh, Pa., March, 1884, and the national organization was perfected November 17, 1886. Encampments are now organized in 18 States and the District of Columbia, numbering 104 encampments. To become a member, the applicant must have been an officer, soldier, sailor or marine of the Union army, navy or marine corps during the late Civil War, who volunteered prior to July 1, 1863, for a term of three years, and was honorably discharged, for any cause, after a service of at least two continuous years; or was, at any time, discharged by reason of wounds received in the line of duty; also those who volunteered for a term of two years prior to July 22, 1861, and served their full term of enlistment, unless discharged for wounds received in the line of duty; but no drafted person, nor substitute, nor any one who has at any time borne arms against the United States is eligible. A statement by the adjutant-general of the Legion says: "It is believed that those who entered the service prior to July, 1863, had but one object in view, and that was the preservation of the Union. There were no bounties prior to that date, nor were there any fears of a draft; consequently, those who shouldered a musket or wielded a sabre felt that it was a sacred duty to offer their lives in defence of their country's honor." An article of the rules provides that "No officer or comrade of the Union Veteran Legion shall in any manner use this organization for partisan purposes, and no discussion of partisan questions shall be permitted at any of its meetings."

Naval Legion of the United States.

OFFICERS.

President—J. D. Seymour, Whately, Mass. First Vice-President—C. C. Philbrook, Boston, Mass. Second Vice-President—Theo. P. West, Chelsea, Mass. Secretary—Solon B. Small, Boston, Mass. Registrar—C. F. Bacon Philbrook, Boston, Mass. Treasurer—G. F. James, Boston, Mass. Historian—F. Senter Frisbee, Boston, Mass. Chaplain—Rev. Charles L. Tappan, Concord, N. H. Board of Managers—The above-named officers and H. Emery Bowen, Boston, Mass.; F. W. Clapp, Boston, Mass.; C. J. Barbour, Springfield, Mass.

The Naval Legion of the United States was instituted July 4, 1891, at Boston, Mass., and was incorporated January 27, 1892, its organization being general in character, with a membership scattered through the various States. Members are of three classes: persons who served in the United States navy or marine corps during the Civil War of 1861-65, and were honorably discharged, and by inheritance the eldest male lineal descendant, and in default of such issue, then of their collateral branches in the order of genealogical succession; second, lineal descendants of persons who served honorably in the above-named services; third, gentlemen who have proven themselves true and loyal citizens by reason of military or public service.

Patriotic Order Sons of America.

OFFICERS OF THE NATIONAL CAMP.

National President—Clarence F. Huth, Shamokin, Pa. National Vice-President—Joseph Williams. National Master of Forms—R. M. J. Reed. National Secretary—Frederick E. Stees, 524 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. National Treasurer—John H. Hoffer.

This order was organized in Philadelphia in 1847, and had extended through several Eastern and Southern States when the Civil War broke out. After the restoration of peace the order was reorganized, and is now established in nearly every State and Territory, with a membership of about 100,000.

The order has for its object "the inculcation of pure American principles and reverence for American institutions; the cultivation of fraternal affection among American freemen; the opposition to foreign interference with State interests in the United States of America, and to any form of organized disregard of American laws and customs; the preservation of the Constitution of the United States, and the advancement of our free public school system. Its immediate benefits are home benevolence, the care of its sick, the burial of its dead, the protection of and assistance to all connected with it who may be in need."

It is non-sectarian and non-political, and in the choice of church and party every member is free to exercise his individual right: but his duty is to insist that the acts of that church and party shall always be so directed as to promote our country's welfare and protect its institutions.

To be a member, a person must have been born on the soil or within the jurisdiction of the United States, and "must believe in the existence of a Supreme Being as the Creator and Preserver of the Universe." Its motto is "God, our Country, and our Order."

The League, which is entirely non-partisan and unsectarian, was incorporated December 24, 1889, under an act of the New-York Legislature. Its objects are "to secure constitutional and legislative safeguards for the protection of the common school system and other American institutions, and to promote public instruction in harmony with such institutions, and to prevent all sectarian or denominational appropriations of public funds." As an important step to this end, the League proposes to secure the passage of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and amendments to the several State constitutions.

The League has been in active operation since May, 1890, and already has many thousands of adherents distributed throughout the United States.

Naval Militia.

By act of Congress, 1888, the maritime States were authorized to organize naval battallons. Massachusetts, New-York, California, North-Carolina, and a few other States have taken advantage of this law to create these battalions. The Naval Reserve Artillery of the State of New-York is a part of the State Militia, and is regularly mustered in as such. Its commander is Jacob W. Miller, Lieutenant-Commander, and it is composed of four batteries, each commanded by a lieutenant. There are about 350 men in the force.

The duty of the Naval Militia in time of war will be to man the coast and harbor defence vessels, thus leaving free the regular force to carry on offensive operations at sea. The Naval Militia will also operate in boat squadrons with torpedoes against any hostile fleet in our waters. The New-York Naval Militia is composed of a very high grade of volunteers—merchants, professional men, and others of like social position being the material. The principal officers are graduates of the Annapolis Naval Academy. The drills in summer take place in vessels of war in the harbor.

Service in all Continental armies is compulsory on all able-bodied males between certain ages. The length of service and the age vary in different countries. Thus in France every Frenchman upon reaching the age of 20 is liable to military service till he reaches the age of 40. In Germany every male is liable on reaching the age of 17, and continues so till he reaches 45. Military service is of two kinds—active military service and occasional liability to military service. Each year a certain number of males reach the age of liability, and are enrolled for service. From their numbers are excused all who are morally and physically unfit, and then a certain number are transferred to non-combatant corps. All who actually serve throughout the entire year constitute the peace establishment. At the end of five years, their actual service having ceased, they are graduated soldiers, and are transferred to the first reserve; and after a few years' service in that to another reserve. All the graduated soldiers who are under the extreme age of 30 or 32 constitute the active army—that is, they are the ones who, on breaking out of war, with the peace army, form the first great war army, and all the graduated soldiers between ages of 32 and 45 constitute the reserves to this army, and form second armies. Then all those over the age of 40 or 45 form the last reserves, whose business it is to stay at home and garrison the depots, make the provisions and supplies, ammunition, etc., for the war armies. They are never called out except in case of invasion.

The "vehicles" in the tables mean the wagons used for transporting guns and ammunition, clothing and food supplies, the ambulances, etc., necessary for an army in the field. By the "train" is meant the pontoon outfits, bridge-building outfits, etc., which accompany the engineer troops and are under their charge.

RESOURCES IN ABLE-BODIED MEN.

The average proportion of men in Europe capable of bearing arms is estimated at about 25 per cent of the population. For financial resources, see tables of "Wealth of the Nations" and "Statistics of Foreign Countries," on other pages. This table was compiled by the editor of the Almanac from population returns in the "Statesman's Year Book," London.

The Springfield rifle, calibre .45 inch, is still used by the United States Army, but is doomed to early extinction, as the Board of Army officers, which has been in session for over a year, has finally rendered a report recommending the adoption of another gun. The Board made probably the most thorough and rigid examination of all guns used by European powers, and whatever other types were submitted to it, that has ever been attempted. The type selected is the Krag-Jörgenson, with certain modifications, distinctively American. The Chief of Ordnance, United States Army, has asked Congress for an appropriation of $400,000 to begin the manufacture of the modified gun, and when this is exhausted he will ask for more, until not only the Army, but the entire National Guard will be armed with the new weapon, and there will be on hand in the national armories a sufficient supply to arm a large army of volunteers in case of a sudden call to war.

The calibre of the new gun is .300 of an inch; it is a magazine gun, with five rounds in magazine; and one of the modifications required is to make the magazine detachable easily, so as to convert it easily and quickly from a magazine to a single loader, and vice versa. The bullet is an alloy of lead and tin, and weighs 220 grains. It is covered with a jacket of nickeled steel, and fired with smokeless powder recommended attains a muzzle velocity of over 2,100 feet per second. The sights are graduated by the hundred yards up to 2,200 yards. The effect of magazine arms has been to very greatly increase the number of rounds of ammunition that may be fired in a minute or any given space of time. While they all differ, the average may be set down to be about twenty per minute. With the amount that it is possible for the soldier to carry in battle with him—200 to 250 rounds—it requires only from ten to twelve minutes to exhaust the supply. The pieces grow so hot that they cannot be fired. With detachable magazines, the gun is used as a single loader till the critical moment, when the magazine is at once adjusted, and a heavy fire for a few seconds is poured out.

By actual experiment, it can now be proved and has been repeatedly that the magazine arm possesses the following advantages, when used with smokeless powders: The calibre being reduced and the strength of powder increased, the trajectory is much flatter, thus giving a longer range and a higher remaining velocity. The dangerous space is greatly increased—a gun fired from near the ground aimed at a man's head 550 yards distant—the head being on same level with gun—the bullet will not rise above six feet at its highest point. The recoil is also much less, producing much less shock to the system. The noise of discharge is much less than formerly. This is not due so much to the use of smokeless powder as to the smaller charges used. The new powder on burning gives out no solid residues, as does gunpowder, and, therefore, there is no smoke. There is a slight vapor, visible at a short distance, but which cannot be seen at battle ranges. There is, therefore, no smoke to obscure the vision when aiming. There is likewise no smoke to indicate to the enemy the presence of a body of men several hundred yards away firing at them.

This table is from "The Statesman's Year Book," for which it was prepared by E. G. Ravenstein, F.R.G.S. The population estimates are for January 1, 1892.

* Inclusive of Sokoto (121,000 square miles, 9,800,000 inhabitants) and Gando (98,500 square miles, 66,000,000 inhabitants), with Borgu and territories tributary to Sokoto on the north.

‡ Unappropriated Africa includes Morocco (219,000 square miles, 6,000,000 inhabitants), Bornu, with Kanem (80,000 square miles, 5,100,000 inhabitants); Wadai (172,000 square miles, 2,600,000 inhabitants), Bagirmi (71,000 square miles, 1,500,000 inhabitants), etc.

African exploration began, in a systematic way, with Mungo Park's first expedition in 1795. On his second expedition, in 1804, he died. From Burckhardt's expedition, in 1812, to Livingstone's, beginning in 1840, there was no important undertaking. Dr. Livingstone's second journey was begun in 1858; Du Chaillu's, 1856 and 1863; Sir Samuel Baker's, 1864 and 1870. Stanley's expedition to find Livingstone was in 1871; to explore the Congo and the great lakes, 1875-77; to relieve Emin, 1887-89.

* In these amounts there is included debt of Hungary for 1880, $536,051,184; for 1890, $837,928,836. Florin reckoned at 50 cents. † Inclusive of floating debt, but exclusive of annuities, whose capitalized value is estimated by good authority to be not less than $2,000,000,000. ‡ The rupee is reckoned at 50 cents. Its exchange value in 1890 was about 35 cents, making the actual face value of the debt about 30 per cent less than stated.

* New-York State census of 1892. † A school census taken in Chicago in 1892 revealed an estimated population of upward of 1,400,000. ‡ Including suburbs. § Official estimate. The statistics of population of largest cities of the earth other than those of the United States have been taken mainly from the "Statesman's Year-Book" for 1892.

NOTE.—The population of Chinese cities other than Canton, Peking, and Shanghai is omitted, because reports respecting it are utterly untrustworthy. There are forty or more Chinese cities whose inhabitants are numbered by rumorat from 200,000 to 1,000,000 each, but no official censuses have ever been taken; and setting aside consideration of the Oriental tendency to exaggeration, there is reason to believe that the estimates of population in many instances covered districts of country bearing the same names as the cities, instead of definite municipalities.

Reigning Families

OF THE PRINCIPAL EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.

Francis Joseph I., the Emperor of Austria and King of Hungary, was born August 18, 1830, and was proclaimed Emperor of Austria after the abdication of his uncle, Ferdinand I, on December 2, 1848. He was crowned King of Hungary June 8, 1867. He married, in 1854, Elizabeth, a daughter of Duke Maximilian of Bavaria. They have had issue:

1. Archduchess Gisela, born 1856; married to Leopold, son of the regent Luitpold of Bavaria. Issue, two daughters and two sons.

2. Archduke Rudolph, late heir apparent, born 1858; died by suicide 1889. He married, 1881, Stephanie, daughter of the present King of the Belgians, and had issue one daughter, the Archduchess Elizabeth, born 1883.

3. Archduchess Marie, born 1868, married, 1890, Archduke Francis-Salvator of Tuscany.

On the death of the Crown Prince, in 1889, the right of succession to the throne passed to the Emperor's eldest brother, the Archduke Charles Louis, who was born 1833; married, 1862 (second marriage), the Princess Annunciata, daughter of King Ferdinand II. of Naples, and had issue the Archduke Francis, born 1863, who is in the line of succession to the throne and is unmarried; the Archduke Otho, born 1865, and married to the Princess Marie of Saxony, and has one son (Archduke Charles, born 1887); the Archduke Ferdinand, born 1868, and unmarried, and the Archduchess Margaret Sophia, born 1870, who is abbess of a retreat for noble ladies. By a third marriage, the Archduke Charles Louis has two daughters, who are children.

The Emperor has a second brother, the Archduke Louis Victor, born 1842, and is unmarried.

There are upward of fifty other archdukes and archduchesses of Austria, cousins of the Emperor, collateral relatives of the reigning house and members of the formerly reigning branches of Tuscany and Modena. The family is descended from Count Rudolph of Hapsburg, who was elected Emperor of Germany in 1276.

BAVARIA.

Otho, King of Bavaria, was born April 27, 1848, and succeeded his brother, Ludwig II., June 13, 1886, when that mad monarch committed suicide by drowning himself in the Starnberg Lake. Otho is also crazy, and is shut up in one of his châteaus, and the kingdom is governed by Prince Luitpold, his uncle, as regent. The latter is also the heir apparent to the throne; was born in 1821; married, 1844, the Austrian Archduchess Augusta of Tuscany, who is dead, and has four children:

1. Prince Louis, born 1845; married the Austrian Archduchess Maria Theresa, and has seven daughters and four sons, the eldest of the latter being Prince Rupert, born 1869.

2. Prince Leopold, born 1846; married to the Austrian Archduchess Gisela, daughter of the Emperor Francis Joseph. There are two daughters and two sons. 3. Princess Theresa, born 1850, a nun. 4. Prince Arnulf, married, and has a son.

King Otho has five cousins who bear princely titles, children of his dead brother Adalbert.

The royal house of Bavaria comes from the Counts of Wittelsbach of the twelfth century, one of whose descendants was elevated to the rank of Elector, and a later one made King by Napoleon I.

BELGIUM.

Leopold II., King of the Belgians, was born April 9, 1835, and was a son of Leopold I., Prince of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha (uncle of Queen Victoria), who was elected King of the Belgians in 1831, and Princess Louise, daughter of King Louis Philippe of France. The present King, who ascended the throne in 1865, was married, in 1853, to the Austrian Archduchess Marie-Henriette, and has the following children:

1. Princess Louise, born 1858; married to Prince Philippe of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha.

2. Princess Stephanie, born 1864; married, 1881, to the late Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria, and has one daughter.

3. Princess Clementine, born 1872.

The heir presumptive is Prince Philippe, Count of Flanders, the King's brother, born in 1837; married to the Hohenzollern Princess Marie. He had two sons, the eldest being Baldwin, who died in 1891, and the other, Albert, born in 1875, survives, and is next to his father in the right of succession to the throne. Prince Philippe has also two daughters, Henriette, born 1870, and Josephine, born 1872.

The sister of the King is the hapless ex-Empress Carlotta of Mexico, widow of Maximilian. She was born in 1840, widowed in 1867, has no children, and is now insane.

DENMARK.

Christian IX., King of Denmark, born April 8, 1818, was Duke of Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Glücksburg, and succeeded to the throne of Denmark by virtue of treaty and the law of the Danish succession on the death of his kinsman, Frederick VII., in 1863. He married the Princess Louise of Hesse-Cassel, and has had the following offspring:

1. Prince Royal Frederick, born 1843; married to the Princess Louise of Sweden in 1869 and has three daughters and five sons, the eldest of the latter being Prince Christian, born in 1870.

2. The Princess of Wales (Alexandra), born 1844; married the Prince of Wales, 1863, and has four living children.

3. The King of the Greeks (George I.), born 1845; married to the Grand Duchess Olga of Russia, and has two daughters and five sons, the eldest of the latter being Prince Constantine.

4. The Empress of Russia (Dagmar), born 1847; married the present Czar in 1866, and has five children.

5. The Duchess of Cumberland (Thyra), born 1853; married the present Duke of Cumberland

(English title), son of the ex-King of Hanover, in 1878, and has three sons and three daughters. She became insane in 1887.

6. Prince Waldemar, born 1858; married, 1885, the Princess Marie of Orleans, daughter of the Duke of Chartres, and has three sons. He was elected reigning Prince of Bulgaria in 1886, but declined.

GERMANY.

William II., German Emperor and King of Prussia, was born January 27, 1859; succeeded his father, the Emperor Frederick III., June 15, 1888. He married the Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein-Sonderburg-Augustenburg (born 1858), and has had issue:

1. Frederick William, Crown Prince, born 1882; 2. William, born 1883; 3. Adalbert, born 1884; 4. Augustus, born 1887; 5. Oscar, born 1888; 6. Joseph, born 1890; 7. Victoria Louise, born 1892.

The Emperor's brother is Prince Henry, born 1862, and married, 1888, to his cousin, Princess Irene of Hesse, daughter of the late Princess Alice of England, and has a son; and the Emperor has four sisters, all the children of the late Emperor Frederick and the Princess Victoria of England (Dowager Empress), who survives. The sisters are:

1. Princess Charlotte, born 1860; married, 1878, to George, hereditary prince of Saxe-Meiningen, and has one daughter.

2. Princess Victoria, born 1866; married, 1890, to Prince Adolphus, of Schaumburg-Lippe.

3. Princess Sophia, born 1870; married, 1889, to Constantine, Crown Prince of Greece, and has one son.

4. Princess Margaret, born 1872, who is unmarried.

The Emperor has an aunt, the Princess Louise, born 1838, married to the present Grand Duke of Baden, and he has a number of cousins, descendants of the brothers and sisters of the Emperor William I. One of these, Prince Albert, born 183-, is a field marshal in the German army, and another, Princess Margaret, daughter of the late Prince Frederick Charles, is the wife of the British Duke of Connaught, son of Queen Victoria. The reigning family is descended from Frederick of Hohenzollern, a German count, in 980, and Frederick William, the Elector of Brandenburg, 1640–88, whose son became King of Prussia.

GREECE.

George I., King of the Greeks, born December 24, 1845, elected King in 1863. He is the son of the present King of Denmark, Christian IX., and brother of the Princess of Wales and the Empress of Russia. He married, 1867, the Grand Duchess Olga, eldest daughter of the Grand Duke Constantine of Russia, uncle to the present Emperor. They have had six living children, five sons and one daughter. The eldest son is:

Prince Constantine, born 1868; married, 1889, the Princess Sophia, sister of the present German Emperor, and has one son, Prince George, born 1890.

The King's eldest daughter, Alexandra, married, in 1889, the Grand Duke Paul, brother of the present Emperor of Russia, and died September 24, 1891, leaving a daughter and a son.

ITALY.

Humbert I., King of Italy, was born March 14, 1844, and was the eldest son of Victor Emanuel, the first King of United Italy. He succeeded his father in 1878. He married, in 1868, his cousin Margherita, daughter of Ferdinand, Duke of Genoa, and they have had issue one child only:

1. Victor Emanuel, Prince of Naples, heir apparent, born 1869.

The following are the sisters of the King:

1. Princess Clotilde, born 1843; married, 1859, to Prince Napoleon Jerome Bonaparte, the head of the Bonaparte family, and has issue two sons and a daughter, Letitia. (See "Bonapartists.")

2. Princess Pia, born 1847, and married, 1862, to the late King Louis of Portugal, and has two sons.

The late Prince Amadeus, brother of the King, Duke of Aosto and ex-King of Spain, born 1845; married first in 1867, and had issue three sons—Emanuel, now Duke of Aosta, born 1869; Victor, Count of Turin, born 1870, and Louis, Duke of Abruzzi, born 1873; married, second, 1888, his niece, Princess Letitia, daughter of Prince Napoleon Bonaparte and the Princess Clotilde. By this second marriage he had a son, Humbert, Count of Salemi, born in 1889.

The King's aunt by marriage, the Princess Elizabeth, widow of the Duke of Genoa, has a son and a daughter, the latter being King Humbert's wife. The family is descended from the Counts of Savoy, who flourished in the eleventh century.

NETHERLANDS.

Wilhelmina, Queen of the Netherlands and Princess of Orange-Nassau, born August 31, 1880, daughter of the late King William III. and Emma, daughter of Prince George Victor of Waldeck. Queen Emma is regent during the minority of the Queen, whose father died November 23, 1890.

The Queen's aunt is the Princess Sophia, married to the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar. She has a son, Prince Charles, born 1844, and two daughters. This family, known as the House of Orange, is descended from the Princes of Orange, the stadtholders of the Dutch Republic.

PORTUGAL.

Charles I., King of Portugal, born September 28, 1863, son of the late King Louis and his spouse, the Princess Pia, daughter of King Victor Emanuel of Italy. He succeeded to the throne October 19, 1889. He married, 1886, the Princess Amelie of Orleans, daughter of the Count of Paris, and has two sons, Prince Louis Philippe, Duke of Braganza, born 1887, and Prince Manuel, Duke of Beja, born 1889.

The King has a brother, Prince Alphonso, Duke of Oporto, born 1865, and unmarried ; and an aunt married to the Prince of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, and has three sons.

The reigning family belongs to the house of Braganza, whose founder was an illegitimate son of King John I. (1400) of the old line of Portuguese kings.

ROUMANIA.

Charles I., King of Roumania, born April 30, 1839, is a son of the late Prince Charles of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, and was elected "Lord of Roumania" by the nobles thereof in 1866. He was proclaimed King in 1881. He married, 1869, Elizabeth, a daughter of the princely German house of Wied. He has no children.

The succession to the throne, in the event of his being childless, has been settled by the constitution of the kingdom upon his elder brother, Prince Leopold, of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen ; but he has renounced his right to the throne in favor of his son, Prince Ferdinand, born 1865, who is, therefore, the heir presumptive. He married the Princess Marie, eldest daughter of the British Duke of Edinburgh, January 10, 1893.

RUSSIA.

Alexander III., Emperor of Russia, was born March 10, 1845, and succeeded his father, Alexander II. (who died by assassination), March 13, 1881. He married, in 1866, the Princess Dagmar, daughter of the present King of Denmark, and sister of the present Princess of Wales and the present King of Greece. They have issue three sons and two daughters, the eldest son and the heir apparent being the Grand Duke Nicholas (the césarevitch), born in 1868. The other children are minors. The brothers and sisters of the Emperor are :

1. Grand Duke Vladimir, born 1847 ; married, 1874, the Princess Marie, of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, and has three sons and one daughter.
2. Grand Duke Alexis, born 1850. He is unmarried.
3. Grand Duchess Marie, born 1853 ; married to the Duke of Edinburgh, and has one son and four daughters.
4. Grand Duke Sergius, born 1857 ; married, 1884, Princess Elizabeth of Hesse, daughter of Princess Alice of England, and has no issue.
5. Grand Duke Paul, born 1860 ; married, 1889, Princess Alexandra, daughter of the King of the Greeks. She died September 24, 1891, leaving a son, the Grand Duke Demetrius, and a daughter.

The Emperor has one uncle (son of the Emperor Nicholas I.), Grand Duke Michael, born 1832, field marshal in the Russian army ; married, 1857, Princess Cecelia of Baden, and has issue seven children, the eldest daughter, Anastasia, born 1860, being the wife of the reigning Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin.

An uncle, the Grand Duke Constantine, born 1827 ; died January 12, 1892. He married, 1848, Princess Alexandra of Saxe Altenburg, and had issue five children, the Grand Duke Nicholas, born 1850, being the eldest, and the Grand Duchess Olga, born 1851, the eldest daughter, being married to the King of the Greeks.

A third uncle, the Grand Duke Nicholas, born 1831, field marshal in the Russian army, died in 1891. He married in 1856, the Princess Alexandra of Oldenburg, and had issue two sons, the youngest of whom, the Grand Duke Peter, married, in 1889, a daughter of the present Prince of Montenegro.

The Russian reigning family is descended from Michael Romanoff, elected Czar in 1613. The members of the family for over two centuries, however, have married so generally into the German royal houses, that the present Romanoffs are practically, by blood, Germans ; as much so as their kinsman, the head of the German Empire.

SAXONY.

Albert, King of Saxony, born April 23, 1828, succeeded to the throne on the death of his father, 1873 ; married, 1853, Caroline, daughter of Prince Gustavus of Holstein-Gottorp-Vasa. They have no children.

The heir to the throne is the King's brother, George, born 1832 ; married, 1859, the Infanta Maria, daughter of the late King Ferdinand of Portugal. He has one daughter and five sons, the eldest of the latter being Prince Frederick, born 1865, and married, 1891, the Archduchess Louise of Austria-Tuscany.

The King has one sister, Princess Elizabeth, born 1830, who married Prince Ferdinand of Sardina, and is a widow.

The royal house of Saxony is one of the oldest in Europe, having given an emperor to Germany as early as the beginning of the tenth century. The elector of Saxony was made king in 1815.

SPAIN.

Alphonso XIII., King of Spain, born May 17, 1886, nearly six months after the death of his father, Alphonso XII. His mother, Maria Christina, an Austrian princess, is the Queen Regent during his minority. He has two sisters, the Infanta Maria-de-las-Mercedes, born 1880, and the Infanta Maria Theresa, born 1882.

The King's aunts are the Infantas Isabella, widow of the Count de Girgenti ; Maria, wife of Prince Louis of Bavaria, and Eulalie, wife of Prince Antonio of Orleans.

The King's grandmother is ex-Queen Isabella, born in 1830, crowned 1833, abdicated 1870. Her husband, the Infant Francis d'Assisi, born 1822, is living.

The King's grand-aunt, the Infanta Louisa, widow of the Duke of Montpensier (son of King Louis Philippe of France), is the mother of a son and daughter, the latter being the wife of the Count of Paris, head of the house of Orleans.

A second cousin of the King is Don Carlos, born in 1848, and a pretender to the Spanish throne, who is married, and has four daughters and a son, Prince Jaime, born in 1870.

SERVIA.

Alexander I., King of Servia, born August 17, 1876; son of King Milan I., who abdicated in 1889, and Natalie, daughter of Colonel Keschko of the Russian Imperial Guard. Alexander was proclaimed King in 1889, on the abdication of his father. He is the only child of his parents. The ex-King obtained a divorce from Queen Natalie in 1888.

The present reigning house was founded by Milos Todorovic Obrenovic, leader of the insurrection against the yoke of Turkey in 1815–29. The Turkish Government recognized the quasi independence of Servia in 1829, and confirmed the title of Obrenovic as reigning prince. The present King is the fifth of his dynasty, being descended from a brother of the founder.

SWEDEN AND NORWAY.

Oscar II., King of Sweden and Norway, born January 21, 1829; son of Oscar I. and grandson of Marshal Bernadotte. He married, 1857, the Princess Sophia, of Nassau, and has had four sons, the eldest of whom is the Prince Royal Gustavus, born 1858; married, 1881, to the Princess Victoria of Baden, and has three sons, all small children. The King's other sons are: Prince Oscar, born 1859, married to Miss Ebba Munck, one of his mother's maids of honor, and relinquished his rights to the throne; Prince Carl, born 1861, and Prince Eugene, born 1865. The King has a niece, Louise, married to the eldest son of the King of Denmark. The royal family comes from Napoleon's marshal Bernadotte, a Frenchman, who was elected heir apparent to the crown of Sweden and Norway in 1810.

WÜRTEMBERG.

William II., King of Würtemberg, born February 25, 1848, succeeded his uncle, King Charles I., October 6, 1891. He married, 1877, Princess Marie of Waldeck, who died, leaving a daughter, Pauline, born 1877. The King married, secondly, Princess Charlotte of Schaumburg-Lippe, by whom he has no children.

The King's mother, Princess Catherine, is living, and he has an aunt, Princess Augusta, married to Prince Hermann of Saxe-Weimer, with issue of four sons and two daughters. He has a number of cousins, one of them being the Duke of Teck, who is married to the English Princess Mary of Cambridge.

The French Pretenders.

BONAPARTIST.

Of the Emperor Napoleon I. and his brothers Joseph and Louis, male issue is now extinct. The Emperor's brothers Lucien and Jerome are represented by the following living descendants, and they constitute the present Imperialist house of France;

Prince Napoleon Victor, born July 18, 1862, son of the late Prince Napoleon (who died March 18, 1891), and the Princess Clotilde, sister of King Humbert of Italy. The prince is now the undisputed head of the Bonaparte family. He lives in Brussels and is unmarried. His only brother, Prince Napoleon Louis, born 1864, is an officer in the Russian army. His sister, Princess Letitia, born 1866, is the widow of the late Prince Amadeus of Italy, her own uncle, by whom she had a son, Prince Humbert, born 1889.

The living aunt of Prince Napoleon Victor is the Princess Mathilde, born 1820; married, 1840, Prince Demidoff of Russia; now a widow without children.

Prince Lucien Bonaparte, who is the Cardinal Bonaparte, is the representative of the eldest son of Napoleon's brother, Lucien, and the head of that branch of the imperial family. He was born 1828; created Cardinal 1868. He has three living sisters, married respectively to the Marquis of Roccagiovine, Count Primoli, and Prince Gabrelli, and one brother, Prince Napoleon, born 1839, married, and has two daughters.

Prince Roland Bonaparte is the only living male cousin of the Cardinal. He is a son of the late Prince Pierre Napoleon Bonaparte; was born 1858; married, 1880, the daughter of Blanc, the proprietor of the Monte Carlo gambling-hell. His wife died in 1882, leaving him a daughter and a fortune. He has one sister, Jeanne, born 1861, and married to the Marquis de Villeneuve.

Ex-Empress Eugenie, widow of the late Emperor Napoleon III., was a daughter of Count Cyprien de Montijo, a Spanish grandee, and was born May 5, 1826. She married 1853. Became a widow 1873. Her only son, Prince Louis Napoleon, was killed in Zululand in 1879.

BOURBON—ORLEANIST.

The Count of Paris, Louis Philippe, is the eldest son of the late Duke of Orleans, who was the eldest son of King Louis Philippe. He was born August 24, 1838; married, 1864, his cousin, the Spanish Infanta Marie of Montpensier. The issue of the marriage are four daughters and two sons, the eldest of the latter being Robert, Duke of Orleans, heir apparent, born 1869. The eldest daughter, Princess Amelie, born 1865, is married to the present King of Portugal.

The only brother of the Count of Paris is the Duke of Chartres, born 1840, and married to a daughter of the Prince of Joinville. The issue are two daughters and two sons, the eldest son being Prince Henry, born 1867, and the eldest daughter, Princess Marie, being married to Prince Waldemar of Denmark.

The living uncles of the Count of Paris are as follows:

1. Louis, Duke of Nemours, born 1814. He is the father of two daughters and two sons, the eldest son being the Count of Eu, born 1842, married to a daughter of Pedro II. of Brazil, and having three children, and the second son being the Duke of Alençon, born 1844, and married to a Bavarian princess, and having two children.

2. Francis, Prince of Joinville, born 1818, married to a daughter of Pedro I. of Brazil, and has one daughter and one son, the Duke of Penthievre, born 1845.

3. Henry, Duke of Aumale, born 1822, childless.

The other uncle of the Count, Anthony, Duke of Montpensier, born 1824, died 1890; married, 1832, a sister of Queen Isabella of Spain, and had a daughter, the wife of the Count of Paris, and a son, Prince Anthony, born 1866, who married, 1888, his cousin, the Infanta Eulalie of Spain.

By the death of the Count of Chambord, in 1883, the elder line of the Bourbons of France became extinct, and the right of succession merged in the Count of Paris, representative of the Younger, or Orleans line.

PRECEDING SUCCESSION TO THE THRONE.

In the year 1066, Harold, the last of the Saxon kings, being slain in battle, William the Conqueror, as he was afterward called, seized the throne by right of conquest, and the succession passed from him to his second son, William, and then to his third son, Henry I. On the death of the latter a war ensued between his granddaughter Matilda and his nephew Stephen, which resulted in favor of the latter. On Stephen's death the crown reverted to Matilda's son, Henry II., who was succeeded by his second son, Richard I. He dying without children, Henry's fourth son, John, succeeded, who was followed by his son, Henry III. He in turn was followed by his eldest son, Edward I., who was in succession followed by his son and grandson, Edward II. and Edward III. The son of Edward III. dying in his father's lifetime, a grandson, Richard II., succeeded, and in his reign were sown the seeds of the Wars of the Roses, which were afterward to bear such ill fruit.

Richard II. was deposed by Henry IV., who was the eldest son of a younger brother of his father. Henry IV. was succeeded by his son, Henry V., and he by his son, Henry VI., who was deposed by Edward IV., who claimed the throne by right of descent from Lionel, third son of Edward III., and who was an elder brother of John of Gaunt, the father of Henry IV. Edward IV. was succeeded by his son, Edward V., who died an infant, and then by his brother, Richard III., who was slain in the battle of Bosworth Field, fought between him and Henry Tudor, great-great-grandson of John of Gaunt, by his third wife, Katherine Swynford. Henry ascended the throne under the title of Henry VII., and married Elizabeth, the daughter of Edward IV., and thus united the two houses of York and Lancaster and put an end to the Wars of the Roses.

Henry VII. was followed by his son, Henry VIII., who was succeeded in turn by his three children, Edward VI., Mary I., and Elizabeth, at whose death the crown fell to James VI. of Scotland, who was great-grandson of Margaret, eldest daughter of Henry VII. of England, and who ascended the throne of England under the title of James I. On his death his third son ascended as Charles I., but he was beheaded in 1649 by Cromwell, who was made Protector until his death in 1660, when the eldest son of Charles came to the throne as Charles II., and he was followed by his brother, James II. The latter abdicated in 1688, and was succeeded by a nephew, who had married the eldest daughter of James, and the two reigned under their joint names as William III. and Mary II.

On their death James II.'s second daughter, Anne, ascended, and she dying childless the crown fell to the Elector of Hanover, who was grandson of Elizabeth, daughter of James I. of England. This prince, George I., was succeeded by his son, George II., who was succeeded by his grandson, George III. After a longer reign than any previous English monarch, this king was succeeded by his eldest son, George IV., and by his third son, William IV., both of whom dying childless, the crown fell to the present sovereign, Victoria, only child of Edward, fourth son of George III., who ascended the throne in 1837.

The British Parliament.

THE supreme legislative power of the British Empire is, by its constitution, vested in Parliament. This body is divided into two houses, the Lords and the Commons.

THE HOUSE OF PEERS.

The House of Peers is composed of the whole Peerage of England and of certain representatives of the peerages of Scotland and Ireland, but many members of these latter have also English titles, which give them seats in the House. The Duke of Buccleuch sits as Earl of Doncaster, and the Duke of Leinster as Viscount Leinster. Exclusive of 13 minors and one baron, whose claim is not established, the House at present consists of 6 Princes of the Blood, 2 Archbishops, 21 Dukes, 22 Marquises, 116 Earls, 25 Viscounts, 24 Bishops, 299 Barons, 16 Scottish Representative Peers elected for each Parliament, and 28 Irish Representative Peers elected for life (1 Scotch and 2 Irish Representative Peers are also included as Peers of England)—in all, 559 members.

The Lord Chancellor of England is always the Speaker of the House of Peers.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

The present House of Commons consists of 670 members—461 for England, 34 for Wales, 72 for Scotland, and 103 for Ireland.

The division of parties in the House of Commons, returned in the general elections of June, 1892, was as follows: Conservatives, 268; Liberal-Unionists, 47; Gladstone-Liberals, 273; Nationalists, 72; Parnellites, 9. There is one vacancy.

This gives Gladstone-Liberals and Nationalists a majority over the combined opposition of 21, or, including Parnellites with Liberals and Nationalists, of 39.

The Speaker of the House is the Rt. Hon. Arthur Wellesley Peel, M. P. for Warwick and Leamington.

Estimates of area and present population are by Whitaker except for British Africa and the late accessions there, which are corrected by Ravenstein's figures (see "Partition of Africa"), and India by McKeltie's figures. The entire population of the empire, according to these estimates, is 378,946,973, and the total area, 12,208,506. The East Indian possessions extend over a territory larger than the continent of Europe without Russia; but the North American possessions are greater still; and, inclusive of Hudson's Bay and the great lakes, have a larger area than the whole of Europe. British Africa and Australasia are the next possessions in size.

The present Constitution of Mexico bears date February 5, 1857, with subsequent amendments down to October, 1887. By its terms Mexico is considered a Federative Republic, divided into States, nineteen at the outset, but at present twenty-seven in number, with two Territories and one Federal District, each having a right to manage its own local affairs, while the whole are bound together in one body politic by fundamental and constitutional laws. The powers of the Federal Government are divided into three branches—the legislative, executive, and judicial. The legislative power is vested in a Congress, consisting of a House of Representatives and a Senate; the executive in a President, and the judicial in Federal Courts. Representatives elected by the suffrage of all male adults, at the rate of one member for 40,000 inhabitants, hold their places for two years. The qualifications requisite are to be twenty-five years of age and a resident in the State. The Senate consists of two members from each State, of at least thirty years of age, who hold their places for four years. Senators are elected indirectly, half of them being renewed every two years. The members of both Houses receive salaries of $3,000 each a year.

The President is elected by electors popularly chosen in a general election, holds office for four years, and, according to the last Amendment of the Constitution, which is now being approved, there will be no prohibition to his re-election. The Senator who presides over the Senate by monthly election acts temporarily in default of the President of the Republic. Congress has to meet annually from September 16 to December 15, and from April 1 to May 31, and a permanent committee of both Houses sits during the recesses.

Finance and Commerce.

The Federal revenue collected during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1891, was $41,770,000; disbursements, $38,452,804; value of imports year ended June 30, 1890, $46,000,000; value of exports, $62,499,388.

Army and Navy.

The army consists of infantry, 17,307; engineers, 655; artillery, 1,604; cavalry, 5,484; rural guards of police, 1,950; gendarmerie, 244; total, 27,244. There are over 3,000 officers. There is a fleet of two unarmored gun-vessels, each of 450 tons and 600 horse-power, and armed with 20-pounders, one training ship of 1,221 tons armed with four (4.72) guns, two of 57 m-m guns and two 32 m-m guns, and three small gunboats.

National Debt.

The external debt, contracted in London, is £10,500,000, and the total debt of the country was in 1890, in American money, $113,606,675 (United States Census report).

Internal Improvements.

This information about Mexico, compiled mainly from the bulletins of the Bureau of American Republics, Washington, D. C., was corrected to date for The World Almanac at the office of the Mexican legation at Washington.

Dominion of Canada.

High Commissioner in London, England, Sir Charles Tupper, Bart. Salary, $10,000.

The Dominion of Canada has an area of 3,457,000 square miles, and comprises one sixteenth of the land surface of the globe. It is the largest of all the British possessions, Australia, the next in size, containing 2,944,628 square miles. The government of Canada is Federal, centred at Ottawa, which city is the capital of the Dominion, while the seven provinces and the Northwest Territories have their respective local legislatures. The head of the Federal Government is the Governor-General, appointed by the Queen of Great Britain, and holding office for five years, his salary being paid by the Dominion Government.

The Lieutenant-Governors of the several provinces are appointed by the Federal Government for a term of five years. The Legislatures are elected by the people of each province. The highest Court in the Dominion is the Supreme Court, composed of a Chief Justice and five Judges, each of whom receives a salary of $7,000 per annum, except the Chief Justice, who is paid an additional $1,000. From the decisions of this Court the only tribunal to which appeal can be made is to the Judicial Committee of the Imperial Privy Council of Great Britain. The only other Federal Court is the Exchequer Court, presided over by a single Judge, for trying cases connected with the revenue. All others are of a provincial character, limited to jurisdiction in their respective provinces only.

FINANCES.

Revenue (financial year ending June 30, 1892), $36,921,872, of which $20,501,059 was from customs; $7,945,098 from excise; $2,652,746 from post-office; $3,575,148 from public works, including government railways; $1,086,420 from interest on investments, and $322,797 from Dominion lands.

The expenditure on account of consolidated fund was $36,705,894, of which $9,763,978 was for interest; $1,325,087 for civil government; $750,723 for administration of justice; $1,302,876 for legislation; $503,639 for lighthouse and coast service; $273,207 for mail subsidies and steamship subventions; $1,107,824 for Indians; $328,893 for fisheries; $63,412 for geological survey; $426,503 for arts, agriculture and statistics; $1,266,308 for militia and defence; $1,627,851 for public works; $3,935,913 for subsidies to provinces; $3,316,120 for post-office; $4,337,876 for railways and canals; $904,800 for collecting customs revenue; $177,185 for ocean and river service.

National Debt.

The gross public debt of Canada on June 30, 1892, amounted to $295,333,274, of which $198,804,342 is payable in London, England, and the remainder in Canada. Among the amounts payable in Canada are government savings banks' deposits, $39,529,547, and Dominion notes, $17,281,698. The total assets counted against gross public debt amount to $54,202,172, of which amount $28,583,475 are sinking funds.

Militia.

(a) Assessed value of real property, $1,464,247,820; assessed value of personal property, $321,609,518.

(c) President of the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, of which there are two others, John W. Ross and Captain W. T. Russell, all appointed by the President of the United States.

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

The government of the District of Columbia is invested by act of Congress in three Commissioners, who are appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate of the United States. One of these Commissioners must be an army officer detailed from the corps of engineers. The Commissioners appoint the subordinate official service of the District.

The present Commissioners are John W. Douglass, President; John W. Ross and Captain William T. Russell, U. S. A. The Secretary is William Tindall. The offices of the Commissioners are on First Street, between B and C Streets, N. W., Washington.

Washington had a municipal government from 1802 to 1871, when Congress provided a territorial form of government for it, with a Governor and other executive officers, a house of delegates, elected by the people, and a delegate in Congress. This form was not a success, and in 1878 it was abolished and the present government by three commissioners substituted.

* Not given in 1890. † Reports discontinued after 1885. ‡ Includes Central and South America for 1889.

As the reports for British North American Provinces and for Mexico have been discontinued since 1885 by the Treasury Department, the figures here represented only cover five years of the decade. An estimate based upon the immigration of the years from 1881 to 1885, inclusive, would give 785,604 to British North America for the decade from 1881 to 1890, and 3,826 to Mexico, making the aggregate for America 817,563, instead of 422,848.

Mulhall estimates the number of individuals who emigrated from Europe in 72 years, 1816 to 1888, at 27,205,000. Of these, 15,000,000 came to the United States.

THE CARPET-BAG DEBTS OF THE SOUTHERN STATES.

The "carpet-bag" debts of the Southern States, under which some of them are still suffering, were created during the reconstruction period, when the South was at the mercy of adventurers from the North and the ranks of the negro population supported and protected by the Federal Government. These burdens on the helpless people aggregated in 1871 some $291,626,015, distributed among the reconstructed States as follows: Alabama, $52,761,917; Arkansas, $19,398,000; Florida, $15,797,587; Georgia, $42,560,500; Louisiana, $40,021,734; North-Carolina, $34,887,464; South-Carolina, $22,480,516; Texas, $14,930,000; Virginia, $47,090,866. It must be borne in mind that the debts of the Southern States contracted from 1861 to 1865 were repudiated by order of the Federal Government, so that the indebtedness above shown was due almost wholly to "carpet-bag" financiering.

United States Military Academy at West Point.

Each Congressional District and Territory—also the District of Columbia—is entitled to have one cadet at the Academy, the cadet to be named by the Representative in Congress. There are also ten appointments at large, specially conferred by the President of the United States. The number of students is thus limited to three hundred and forty-seven. At present there are two extra cadets at the Academy, who were authorized by Congress to enter it at their own expense. One is from Switzerland and the other from Central America.

Appointments are usually made one year in advance of date of admission, by the Secretary of War, upon the nomination of the Representative. These nominations may either be made after competitive examination or given direct, at the option of the Representative. The Representative may nominate a legally qualified second candidate, to be designated the alternate. The alternate will receive from the War Department a letter of appointment, and will be examined with the regular appointee, and if duly qualified will be admitted to the Academy in the event of the failure of the principal to pass the prescribed preliminary examinations. Appointees to the Military Academy must be between seventeen and twenty-two years of age, free from any infirmity which may render them unfit for military service, and able to pass a careful examination in reading, writing, orthography, arithmetic, grammar, geography, and history of the United States.

The course of instruction, which is quite thorough, requires four years, and is largely mathematical and professional. The principal subjects taught are mathematics, French, drawing, tactics of all arms of the service, natural and experimental philosophy, chemistry, mineralogy, geology, and electricity, history, international, constitutional, and military law, Spanish, and civil and military engineering, and science of war. About one fourth of those appointed usually fail to pass the preliminary examination, and but little over one half the remainder finally graduate. The discipline is very strict—even more so than in the army—and the enforcement of penalties for offences is inflexible rather than severe. Academic duties begin September 1 and continue until June 1. Examinations are held in each January and June, and cadets found proficient in studies and correct in conduct are given the particular standing in their class to which their merits entitle them, while those cadets deficient in either conduct or studies are discharged.

From about the middle of June to the end of August cadets live in camp, engaged only in military duties and receiving practical military instruction. Cadets are allowed but one leave of absence during the four years' course, and this is granted at the expiration of the first two years. The pay of a cadet is five hundred and forty dollars per year, and, with proper economy, is sufficient for his support. The number of students at the Academy is usually about three hundred.

Upon graduating cadets are commissioned as second lieutenants in the United States Army. The whole number of graduates from 1802 to 1892 has been three thousand five hundred and eleven (3,511). It is virtually absolutely necessary for a person seeking an appointment to apply to his Member of Congress. The appointments by the President are usually restricted to sons of officers of the army.

The Academy was established by act of Congress in 1802. An annual Board of Visitors is appointed, seven being appointed by the President of the United States, two by the President of the Senate, and three by the Speaker of the House of Representatives. They visit the Academy in June, and are present at the concluding exercises of the graduating class of that year. The Superintendent is Colonel John M. Wilson, of the Corps of Engineers, and the military and academic staff consists of sixty-three persons. First Lieutenant John M. Carson, Jr., Fifth Cavalry, is adjutant.

The three oldest living graduates of the Military Academy are William C. Young, of New-York, who graduated in 1822, General George S. Greene, of New-Jersey, who graduated in 1823, and Professor W. H. C. Bartlett, Colonel U. S. A. Retired, of Yonkers, N. Y., who graduated in 1826.

United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

There are allowed at the Academy one naval cadet for each member or delegate of the United States House of Representatives, one for the District of Columbia, and ten at large. The appointment of cadets at large and for the District of Columbia is made by the President. The Secretary of the Navy, as soon after March 5 in each year as possible, must notify in writing each member and delegate of the House of Representatives of any vacancy that may exist in his district. The nomination of a candidate to fill the vacancy is made, on the recommendation of the member or delegate, by the Secretary. Candidates must be actual residents of the districts from which they are nominated.

The course of naval cadets is six years, the last two of which are spent at sea. Candidates at the time of their examination for admission must be not under fifteen nor over twenty years of age and physically sound, well formed, and of robust condition. They enter the Academy immediately after passing the prescribed examinations, and are required to sign articles binding themselves to serve in the United States Navy eight years (including the time of probation at the Naval Academy), unless sooner discharged. The pay of a naval cadet is five hundred dollars a year, beginning at the date of admission.

Appointments to fill all vacancies that occur during a year in the lower grades of the Line and Engineer Corps of the Navy and of the Marine Corps are made from the naval cadets, graduates of the year, at the conclusion of their six years' course, in the order of merit as determined by the Academic Board of the Naval Academy. At least ten appointments from such graduates are made each year. Surplus graduates who do not receive such appointments are given a certificate of graduation, an honorable discharge, and one year's sea pay.

The Academy was founded in 1845 by the Hon. George Bancroft, Secretary of the Navy in the administration of President Polk. It was formally opened October 10 of that year, with Commander Franklin Buchanan as Superintendent. During the Civil War it was removed from Annapolis, Md., to Newport, R. I., but was returned to the former place in 1865. It is under the direct supervision of the Navy Department. Captain Robert L. Phythian, U. S. N., is the present Superintendent.

Popular Vote, Cleveland over Harrison 382,956
Electoral Vote, Cleveland over Harrison 132
Electoral Vote, Cleveland over Harrison and Weaver 110
Total Popular Vote, 1892 ..... 12,154,542

The total Democratic popular vote in 1888 was 5,538,233; in 1892 it was 5,556,533, an increase of 18,300 from 1888 to 1892. The total Republican vote in 1888 was 5,440,216; in 1892 it was 5,175,577, a decrease of 264,639 from 1888 to 1892.

In the States of Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, North-Dakota, and Wyoming the Democrats ran no electoral tickets, and voted for the People's Party electoral tickets for the purpose of taking those States from the Republicans. With a few exceptions they also voted for the People's Party electors in Nevada. In Louisiana the Republicans and People's Party united their vote, each nominating half of the eight candidates for electors, and in the table their aggregate popular vote is divided.

In five States the electoral vote was divided: in California and Ohio because the vote for the Cleveland and Harrison electors was so close; in Michigan because by act of Legislature each Congressional district voted separately for an elector; in Oregon because one of the four candidates for electors on the People's Party ticket was also on the Democratic ticket, the result being three Republicans and one People's Party elected; in North-Dakota because one of the two People's Party electors who were elected cast his vote for Cleveland, this causing the electoral vote of the State to be equally divided between Cleveland, Harrison, and Weaver.

* In Oregon the highest vote for an elector was that cast for the one candidate who was on both the Democratic and People's Party tickets. He received 35,813 votes. The next highest vote was for a Republican candidate for elector, 35,002. This gave the Fusion candidate (who afterward voted for Weaver) a plurality of 811, and it so appears in the column of pluralities above.

The bank Clearing House is at No. 14 Pine Street. William Sherer is manager. Sixty-five banks are associated for the purpose of exchanging the checks and bills they hold against each other. Other banks, not members of the association, clear through members. The representatives of the members appear at the Clearing House at 10 o'clock A. M. every business day, with the checks and bills to be exchanged. The resulting balances are ascertained in about an hour, and before half-past one o'clock those indebted pay their balances, and after that hour the other banks receive the amount due them. The Clearing House has been in operation since 1853.

Greater New-York.

The Commission appointed by act of the Legislature in 1890 to inquire into the expediency of consolidating the city of New-York, and the various municipalities and towns in the State of New-York composing its suburbs, presented a bill in the Legislature in April, 1891, having the following provisions: The commissioners appointed by and under the provisions of Chapter 311 of the Laws of 1890 are hereby authorized and directed to prepare and submit to the Legislature a charter for the incorporation, government, and administration of a city to comprehend the following described territory:

The city of New-York, the county of Kings, the county of Richmond, the town of Westchester, and that portion of the towns of East-Chester and Pelham which lies southerly of a straight line drawn from the point where the northerly line of the city of New-York intersects the centre line of the Bronx River to the middle of the channel between Hunter's and Glen Islands, in Long Island Sound, Long Island City, the town of Newtown, the town of Flushing, the town of Jamaica, and that part of the town of Hempstead which is westerly of a straight line drawn from the point where the easterly line of the town of Flushing meets the waters of Long Island Sound, through the middle of the channel between Rockaway Beach and Shelter Island to the waters of the Atlantic Ocean. The population of this Greater New-York, as computed by the Commission from the returns of the State census in 1892, is 3,000,000. The total area is 317.77 square miles.

The Commission is composed of eleven Commissioners: Andrew H. Green, President; J. S. T. Stranahan, Vice-President; Martin Schenck, State Engineer and Surveyor (ex-officio); John M. Brinckerhoff, Edward F. Linton, Calvert Vaux, Frederick W. Devoe, William D. Veeder, George J. Greenfield, John L. Hamilton, and Charles P. McClelland. Albert E. Henschel is Secretary. The office of the Commission is at No. 214 Broadway.

Hack and Cab Fares.

RATES REGULATED BY LAW.

THE city ordinance regulating the rates which may be charged customers by cab men is as follows: Distance is computed at twenty blocks to a mile north and south, and seven blocks to a mile east and west.

SEC. 89. The price or rates of fare to be asked or demanded by the owners or drivers of hackney coaches or cabs shall be as follows:

Cabs.

1. For conveying one or more persons any distance, sums not exceeding the following amount: Fifty cents for the first mile or part thereof; and each additional half mile or part thereof, twenty-five cents. By distance, for "stops" of over five minutes and not exceeding fifteen minutes, twenty-five cents. For longer stops, the rate will be twenty-five cents for every fifteen minutes or fraction thereof, if more than five minutes. For a brief stop, not exceeding five minutes in a single trip, there will be no charge.

2. For the use of a cab, by the hour, with the privilege of going from place to place and stopping as often and as long as may be required, one dollar for the first hour or part thereof, and for each succeeding half-hour or part thereof, fifty cents.

Coaches.

3. For conveying one or more persons any distance, sums not exceeding the following amounts: One dollar for the first mile or part thereof, and each additional half mile or part thereof, forty cents. By distance for "stops" of over five minutes and not exceeding fifteen minutes, thirty-eight cents. For longer stops the rate will be thirty-eight cents for every fifteen minutes. For a brief stop, not exceeding five minutes in a single trip, there will be no charge.

4. For the use of a coach, by the hour, with the privilege of going from place to place and stopping as often and long as may be required, one dollar and fifty cents for the first hour or part thereof, and for each succeeding half-hour or part thereof, seventy-five cents.

5. No cab or coach shall be driven by the time rate at a pace less than five miles an hour.

6. From "line balls," one or two passengers, to any point south of Fifty-ninth Street, two dollars; each additional passenger, fifty cents; north of Fifty-ninth Street each additional mile shall be charged for at a rate not to exceed fifty cents per mile.

7. Every owner or driver of any hackney coach or cab shall carry on his coach or cab one piece of baggage, not to exceed fifty pounds in weight, without extra charge; but for any additional baggage he may carry, he shall be entitled to extra compensation at the rate of twenty-five cents per piece.

8. All disputes as to prices or distance shall be settled by the Mayor or such other person as he may designate.

9. In all cases where the hiring of a hackney coach or a cab is not at the time thereof specified to be by the hour, it shall be deemed to be by the mile; and for any detention exceeding fifteen minutes, when so working by the mile, the owner or driver may demand at the rate of one dollar per hour.

It shall be the duty of the driver of every such hackney coach or cab, at the commencement of his employment, to present the passenger employing him with a printed card or slip, containing, in case of cabs, subdivisions 1 and 2, and in cases of coaches, subdivisions 3 and 4 of section 89 of this article.

There shall be fixed in each hackney coach or cab, in such a manner as can be conveniently read by any person riding in the same, a card containing the name of the owner of said carriage, the number of his license, and the whole of section 89 of this article printed in plain, legible characters, under a penalty of revocation of license for violation thereof, said section to be provided by the License Bureau in pamphlet or card form, and to be furnished free to the owner of such hackney coach or cab.

Any person or persons who shall violate any or either of the provisions of above sections of this article shall be liable to a penalty of ten dollars.

FROM SOUTH FERRY to Wall Street, one-half mile; to City Hall, one mile; to Canal Street, one and one-half miles; to Houston Street, two miles; to 4th Street, two and one-quarter miles; to 14th Street, two and three-quarter miles; to 24th Street, three and one-quarter miles; to 37th Street, four miles; to 42d Street, four and one-quarter miles; to 62d Street, five and one-quarter miles; to 82d Street, six and one-quarter miles; to 102d Street, seven and one-quarter miles; to 122d Street, eight miles.

Ordinances

PROVIDING FOR PUBLIC HEALTH AND COMFORT AND PREVENTION OF CERTAIN ABUSES.

THE following is a synopsis of the requirements of certain municipal ordinances providing for the public health and comfort and the prevention of nuisances and abuses.

Ashes and Rubbish.—No person shall throw, cast or lay any ashes, offal, vegetables, garbage, shavings or other rubbish of any kind in any street of the city.

Awnings.—Owners or occupants of property are permitted to erect awnings in front of their premises, providing the street exceeds 40 feet in width. The awnings must be placed 8½ feet above the curb, and if made of cloth or canvas, must not hang loosely from their supports.

Births, Marriages and Deaths.—Every clergyman, magistrate and other person who may perform a marriage ceremony shall keep a registry of the marriage celebrated, and therein enter the full names of the parties married, with age, residence and condition of each. Every physician, midwife and other person who may professionally assist or advise at any birth shall make and keep a registry of every such birth, and therein enter the time and place, ward and street number of such birth. The color and sex of every child born must be entered upon the registry also.

Every physician or professional adviser who has attended any person at a last illness, or has been present by request at the death of a person, shall make and preserve a registry of such death.

In all three cases above mentioned, it shall be the duty of said persons to present to the Sanitary Bureau a copy of such register properly signed.

Cellar Doors.—No person shall construct a cellar door which shall extend more than one twelfth part of any street, or more than five feet into any street under penalty of $250 for each offence.

Coal.—All coal which shall be sold from any coalyard in the city shall be sold by the bushel, except anthracite, which may be sold by weight.

Diseases and Contagions.—Every physician shall report to the Sanitary Bureau, in writing, every person having a contagious disease. The name of the person, the residence and nature of disease must be registered also. Two reports a week shall be required. In case a patient dies, it is the duty of the physician to report immediately to the Board of Health the fact. Every keeper of a boarding-house, lodging-house or hotel shall report within 24 hours the same particulars in writing to the Sanitary Bureau.

Dogs.—It is not lawful to permit dogs to go abroad loose or at large in any of the public streets of the city. The penalty is a fine of $3 for each offence, to be recovered against the owner, possessor or person who knowingly harbors such dog. The price for a dog license is $2 for a first license and $1 for each annual renewal thereof.

Fire-Escapes.—All dwelling-houses of more than two stories in height, occupied by two or more families, shall be provided with good and sufficient fire-escapes or other means of egress, in case of fire, as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Buildings. This applies to factories, hotels, lodging-houses, boarding-houses having more than fifteen rooms, and every mill, office building, hospital, asylum, schools. It is the duty of every policeman, fireman and officer of the Department of the Inspection of Buildings to report any case where fire-escapes are encumbered.

Encumbrances in Streets.—No person shall encumber or obstruct any street which has been opened in the city with any article whatsoever, without first having obtained written permission from the Commissioner of Public Works. The penalty for violation of the ordinance is $5 for each offence, and a further penalty for each day or part thereof that the encumbrance continues.

Passage-ways in Churches and Theatres.—The aisles and passage-ways of churches, theatres and enclosed public places of assemblage shall be kept free from camp-stools, chairs, sofas and other obstructions. No person shall be allowed to stand or occupy said aisles during any service, performance, exhibition, lecture or public assemblage.

Police, Duties of.—Each member of the police force shall devote his whole time and attention to the business of the department. He is expressly forbidden from following any other calling or being employed in any other capacity. The members of the police force are relieved at certain times from the performance of duties, but they are required, however, to be at all times in readiness for duty.

ORDINANCES—Continued.

Snow and Ice, Removal of.—The owners or occupants of any premises or lots of ground shall in the first few hours after a fall of snow have the same removed from the sidewalk. The failure to comply with this ordinance is punishable by a fine of $3. Ice which has accumulated upon sidewalks must be removed within a reasonable time.

Water, Regulations for the Use of.—The Commissioner of Public Works shall from time to time establish scales of rents for the supplying of water. The water shall be apportioned to different classes of buildings in reference to their dimensions, values, exposures to fire, ordinary uses for dwellings, stores, shops and private stables, and other common purposes. Meters will be placed in all houses where there is an extra use of water. Charges will be made at the discretion of the Commissioner of Public Works.

CENTRAL PARK.

The great Park of New-York extends from 59th St. to 110 St., being over 2½ miles long, and from 5th Ave. to 8th Ave., being over half a mile wide. It covers 862 acres, of which 185 are in lakes and reservoirs and 400 in forests, wherein over half a million trees and shrubs have been planted. There are nine miles of roads, 5¼ of bridle-paths, and 28¼ of walks. The landscape architects of the Park were Frederick Law Olmsted and Calvert Vaux. Public park carriages can be found (except in winter) at the entrances on 5th Ave. and 8th Ave. The fare for an extended ride through the Park is 25 cents. Work was begun on the Park in 1857. The following fanciful names have been officially applied to the several entrances to the Park: 5th Ave. and 59th St., Scholar's Gate; 6th Ave. and 59th St., Artist's gate; 7th Ave. and 59th St., Artisan's Gate; 8th Ave. and 59th St., Merchant's Gate; 8th Ave. and 72d St., Woman's Gate; 8th Ave. and 81st St., Hunter's Gate; 8th Ave. and 85th St., Mariner's Gate; 8th Ave. and 96th St., Gate of All Saints; 8th Ave. and 100th St., Boys' Gate; 8th Ave. and 110th St., Stranger's Gate; 5th Ave. and 67th St., Student's Gate; 5th Ave. and 72d St., Children's Gate; 5th Ave. and 79th St., Miner's Gate; 5th Ave. and 90th St., Engineer's Gate; 5th Ave. and 96th St., Woodman's Gate; 5th Ave. and 102d St., Girl's Gate; 5th Ave. and 110th St., Pioneer's Gate; 6th Ave. and 110th St., Farmer's Gate; 7th Ave and 110th St., Warrior's Gate.

Art.

THE Art Institute, at Michigan Ave. and Van Buren St., contains the only public art gallery. The land and building, which is of brown stone, cost $300,000. Six galleries occupy a floor space of nearly 5,000 feet, and can accommodate 500 pictures. The Art Institute School, the principal art school of Chicago, is located in this building, where the Fortnightly Club, the Chicago Women's Club, the Chicago Literary Club, the Chicago Architectural Sketch Club, and the Chicago Society of Decorative Art also have quarters. Admission to the exhibits is free all day Saturdays and four hours on Sundays.

The collections of the Illinois Art Association, in the rooms of the Illinois Club, 154 Ashland Boulevard; the Vincennes Gallery of Fine Arts, 3841 Vincennes Ave., and the galleries of the Illinois Club, the Chicago Club, the Marquette Club, the Calumet Club, the Union League Club, and Mr. Charles T. Yerkes, 3201 Michigan Ave., are well worth inspection, if the tourist can secure permission.

Brink's City Express—General office, 88 Washington St. Telephone number, 1754. Transfers trunks, packages, etc., throughout the city. Average price for trunks, between most distant points, 50 cents; small package or box, 25 cents; two boxes or packages, 40 cents; three, 50 cents: one single wagon-load to one place, $1: one double wagon-load to same place, $1.50. When value of packages is stated, if it is over $50, an extra charge of 5 cents is made on every $50 or fraction thereof in excess of the first $50.

The Frank Parmelee Express Company has offices at every large hotel, as has also Brink's Express.

OMNIBUS AND BAGGAGE TRANSFER RATES.

When a person is ready to leave the city, either Brink or Parmelee will call at his hotel and take his baggage to any station for from 25 to 50 cents apiece. If the passenger's railroad ticket is bought in advance, Parmelee's Express Company will, for 10 cents additional, check his baggage from his hotel direct to his destination, and save all trouble at the railroad station.

Omnibuses connecting with all passenger trains run between all depots and principal hotels. The fare between any depot and hotel is 50 cents. The price charged for transfers of baggage to or from any train, and to or from any place within the city limits, is 50 cents for the first piece and 25 cents for each piece additional.

Hack, Cab, and Hansom Rates.

Hack and Cab Rates.—The rates are established by city ordinance, and are as follows: For conveying one or two persons from one railroad depot to another railroad depot, $1. For conveying one or two passengers, not exceeding one mile, $1; for conveying one or two passengers any distance over one mile and less than two miles, $1.50. For each additional two passengers of the same party or family, 50 cents. For conveying one or two passengers any distance exceeding two miles, $2. For each additional passenger of the same party or family, 50 cents. For conveying children between five and fourteen years of age, half the above price may be charged for like distance, but for children under five years of age no charge shall be made providing that the distance from any railroad depot, steamboat landing, or hotel, to any other railroad depot, steamboat landing, or hotel, shall, in all cases, be estimated as not exceeding one mile. For the use per day of any hackney coach or other vehicle drawn by two horses or other animals, with one or more passengers, $8. For the use of any such carriage or vehicle by the hour, with one or more passengers, with the privilege of going from place to place and stopping as often as may be required, as follows: For the first hour, $2; for each additional hour, or part of any hour, $1. Every passenger shall be allowed to have conveyed upon each vehicle, without charge, his ordinary travelling baggage, not exceeding, in any case, one trunk and twenty-five pounds of other baggage.

For every additional package, where the whole weight of baggage is over one hundred pounds, if conveyed to any place within the old city limits, the owner or driver shall be permitted to charge 15 cents.

Rates for Hansom Cabs and other One-horse Vehicles.—The price or rates of fare to be asked or demanded by the owners or drivers of cabs or other vehicles drawn by one horse or other animal, for the conveyance of passengers for hire, shall be not more than as follows: One mile, or fraction thereof, for each passenger for the first mile, 25 cents. One mile, or fraction thereof, for any distance after first mile, for one or more passengers, 25 cents. For the first hour, 75 cents. For each quarter-hour additional after first hour, 20 cents. For service outside of city limits and in the parks, for the first hour, $1. For each quarter-hour additional after the first hour, 25 cents. The provision regarding amount of baggage allowed free, and rates of charge for excess, is the same as in the Hack Ordinance.

Any violation of the above rules and regulations is punishable by fine and imprisonment, and any attempt at imposition is punishable. In case of dispute, call the nearest policeman.

Distance Rates.—One mile or less, for each passenger, 25 cents. Each additional mile, or fraction thereof, one or two passengers, 25 cents. For one stop or wait of not over five minutes, no charge will be made. For over five minutes or more than one stop or wait, 10 cents will be charged for each ten minutes or part thereof. Packages too large to be carried inside will be charged 10 cents.

Hour Rates.—For one or two persons, per hour, within four-mile limit, 75 cents. For each quarter-hour additional, or fraction thereof, 20 cents. For one or two persons, per hour, outside four-mile limit, also Lincoln Park, $1. For each quarter-hour additional, or fraction thereof, 25 cents. When continuous stop of one-half hour or more is made, the charge per hour will be at the rate of 70 cents. When service is desired by the hour, it must be so stated at the time of engaging the cab, otherwise the distance rate will be charged. Hour engagements: When the cab is discharged at a distance of over half a mile from the stand, the time necessary to return to the stand will be charged for. No time engagements will be made for less than the price for one hour.

Park System.

PARKS AND BOULEVARDS.

The system of parks and boulevards girdles the city. The parks proper include 1,879 acres of land, and the connecting boulevards, when finished, will extend for 30 miles.

Lake Shore Drive begins the Northern Division. It runs from the waterworks for two miles along the lake front and the eastern border of Lincoln Park.—A mile and a half long and half a mile wide. Bounded on the east by the lake, and by Clark St. on the west.

Humboldt Boulevard leads from Lincoln Park to Humboldt Park.—Four miles northwest from City Hall. Bounded by West, North, North-Carolina, and North Kedzie Aves. and Augusta St.

Central Boulevard is one and a half miles long, connecting Humboldt Park and Garfield Park.—Lies four miles west of City Hall, and is one and a half miles long. Bounded by Colorado Ave. and W. Kinzie St.

Police.

THE police department is under the official control of the Mayor, and is conducted by a superintendent. The city is divided into five police divisions, each commanded by an inspector, and into thirty-six precincts, each under a captain or lieutenant. There are twenty matrons. Headquarters of the Superintendent and of the Detective Force are in the City Hall.

Post-Office.

Clark and Jackson Sts.

In the General Post-office, the general delivery and stamp-selling windows are on the ground floor at the Clark St. side of the building, the money order branch on the Dearborn St. side of the same floor. Stamps can be bought all night as well as during the day, except that on Sunday the office is open only from 11.30 A.M. to 12.30 P.M. The money-order department is open from 9 to 5, the registered letter and other offices are open from 9 to 6, week-days.

Besides the General Post-office, there are eleven carrier stations and twenty-two sub-postal stations.

THE ELEVATED RAILROAD.

THE "ALLEY" LINE.—Intended to serve as one of the principal routes to the World's Fair grounds, cost $6,750,000. Fare, 5 cents. Running time from Congress St. to Jackson Park, thirty-two minutes. Stations at Congress St. (down-town terminus), Twelfth, Eighteenth, Twenty-second, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-ninth, Thirty-first, Thirty-third, Thirty-fifth, Thirty-ninth, Indiana Ave., Forty-third, Forty-seventh, Fifty-first, Fifty-fifth, Fifty-eighth, Sixty-first, South Park, Cottage Grove, Lexington, Madison, Stony Island, and Jackson Park. Roadway runs along the alley between Wabash Ave. and State St., from Congress St. to Indiana Ave., where it crosses over to the alley between Prairie and Calumet Aves.

STREETS AND STREET RAILWAYS.

Chicago is not an easy place for a stranger to find his way about in. Only in one section of the city are the streets numbered, and even there only partially. But the streets are laid out at right angles, and with one exception the house numbers run regularly from No. 1 up. The exception is in the district south of 12th St., where the cross streets and avenues have their first numbers correspond to the numbered streets they cross. For example, a street running between 12th and 13th Sts. would be numbered in the twelve hundreds, and between 13th and 14th Sts., in the thirteen hundreds, and so on. The city is divided by the Chicago River and its two branches into three main sections—the "North Side," "South Side," and "West Side." There is no "East Side," for that is where the lake lies. Most streets that run north and south cross the Chicago River. The dividing line between north and south streets is Randolph St., to Union Park, and west of that Lake St. Streets running east and west are all numbered from the east toward the west, the numbers beginning at the lake and continuing regularly across the river and westward. The only convenient way for a stranger to find a street number is to use a pocket street guide.

Horse and cable street railways furnish the chief mode of getting about town. A perfect network of lines covers the city, making it possible to go almost anywhere from anywhere. The universal fare is 5 cents. All these lines radiate from the neighborhood of the Post-Office and City Hall. Three great companies run all these lines, each company taking one of the three natural divisions—the North, the South, or the West Side.

The West Chicago Railroad Company monopolizes, as its name suggests, the West Side. This road, too, combines the horse and cable systems. The cable track consists of two lines: the Madison St., which runs westward, and the Milwaukee Ave., running northwest. Both of these lines branch from a single cable loop which starts down-town. The speed on the Madison St. route is 14 miles an hour west and 10½ miles an hour east. The Milwaukee Ave. line runs northwest at the rate of 12 miles an hour, and 10½ miles an hour east. The down-town or "tunnel" loop, over which both the two principal lines run, passes through the Washington St. tunnel, which is lighted by electricity. Blue Island Ave. is also being cabled. This is the principal avenue in the southwestern part of the city.

The North Side is covered by the North Chicago Street Railway Company. It runs 69 miles of horse and 11 miles of cable tracks.

There are but two electric roads. The Calumet Electric Street Railway runs two branches on the South Side, starting from the southern terminus of the South Side cable line at Cottage Grove Ave. and 71st St. One runs to South Chicago. The other runs west and south to 119th St. and Michigan Ave., passing through Roseland, Burnside, Kensington, Dauphin Park and Grand Crossing, Forest, Harlem, Concordia, Waldheim, and Maywood. The suburbs are also well accommodated by the local branches of steam railroads.

There are four ways of reaching the World's Fair grounds from down-town. These grounds are at Jackson Park and Midway Plaisance, and are 7 miles from the City Hall.

First, by elevated railroad: The "alley" elevated road, transit on which is 29 minutes to the Fair grounds, and costs 5 cents. This is the quickest and best.

Second, by steam cars: The Illinois Central Railroad runs trains every 20 minutes to South Park and Woodlawn Park stations. Fare for round trip, 25 cents.

Third, by water: Boats leave the wharves on Lake Michigan between Monroe and Van Buren Sts., and land at the Exposition pier, opposite the foot of 63d St. Fare of round trip, 25 cents.

Fourth, by cable cars: The Cottage Grove Ave. cable cars run to the South Park entrance. Fare, 5 cents.

Three-Ball Straight Rail.—Highest run on record, 1,531, on a 5x10 table, by Maurice Vignaux, at Paris, April 10-14, 1880, against George F. Slosson. Harvey McKenna, the celebrated rail player, who died November 4, 1889, in New-York, and Jacob Schaefer have made higher runs on a 4½x9 table, but the 5x10 is the only recognized table for records of the present day. The best average at the three-ball straight-rail game on a 5x10 table is 333⅓, by Jacob Schaeffer, at Music Hall, Chicago, May 15, 1879.

Cushion Carroms.—Highest run, 77, on a 5x10 table, by William Sexton, at Tammany Hall, New-York, December 19, 1881, against Jacob Schaefer. Best average, 10 in 200 points, on a 5x10 table, by Jacob Schaefer, at Chicago, November 10, 1887.

Champion's Game.—(Corner play barred.) Highest run on record (18 by 38-inch lines), 398 on a 5x10 table, by George F. Slosson, at Paris, January 30 to February 3, 1882, against Maurice Vignaux. Slosson also made the best average on record in this match, 38 36-78 in 3,000 points up.

CORRESPONDENCE AT EVERY MART IN THE WORLD.

A Giant in Fraternal Benefit Societies.

Death Benefits $500 to $5,000.

Sick and Disability Relief, $2 to $20 per Week.

Guarantee Fund, $500,000.

The New York World, commenting on the Order, says:

"The English have been described as a nation of shopkeepers. Americans as a nation of financiers. In no avenue of effort is the distinction more apparent than in co-operation. The co-operative efforts of the English have succeeded best in stores for the sale of household and personal supplies—furniture, hardware, groceries, clothing, etc. But in this country successful endeavors in co-operation have mostly been in the line of combining the small sums of the people into a large capital for financial undertakings. Particularly is this true of insurance. Through the success of strictly co-operative organizations insurance has been placed within the reach of the very poorest.

"Take the history of the American Legion of Honor for example. It is selected because it is the strongest and best managed organization of the kind. The American Legion of Honor was organized on December 18, 1878, with ten members, at Boston, Mass. To-day it has 64,000 members, organized in eighteen grand councils, and 1,083 subordinate councils. During its career of fifteen years it has paid out upward of $25,000,000 in sick and death benefits to its members, and it has invested in gilt-edge securities a surplus or emergency fund of $500,000. All this has been effected at a cost to the members of less than a fourth of what they would have had to pay for insurance in the old-line companies. Here are the figures: A member who joins the American Legion of Honor when between the ages of 18 and 29 pays $7.20 per year for each $1,000 of insurance; between 29 and 35, $9.72; between 35 and 40, $11.52; between 40 and 45, $13.32. Policies are issued in amounts ranging from $500 to $5,000, which is the highest limit of risk taken. When a member in good standing dies the amount of his policy is paid promptly to his beneficiaries. The policies contain no obnoxious restrictions, nor is there any disposition on the part of the Order to contest payment, since its strength and prosperity depend upon the existence of good feeling and confidence among its members.

"When a member falls sick he is entitled to draw $4 weekly for each $1,000 for which he is insured. This he does as a matter of business, not of either charity or sentiment.

"It is something for which he has paid or will pay, and he is entitled to it. He cannot, however, draw sick benefits for more than ten weeks in any one year.

"Several hundreds of thousands of dollars have also been paid to its members by subordinate councils in sick relief, and to those in financial distress and otherwise. Companions have been assisted in the payment of their assessments, have been helped in getting employment, and have had their homes saved to them by the prompt response to all appeals.

"Women as well as men are eligible to membership in the Legion, though a necessary preliminary in each case is the passing of a satisfactory medical examination.

"Membership in the Order is secured by joining a Council, or if no Council exists in a locality where a number of persons desire membership a new Council may be formed.

"The reserve fund guarantees absolutely the payment of policies when they become due. In the creation and maintenance of this reserve fund the American Legion of Honor is unique among fraternal benefit associations.

"The great success of the Legion has been due to the simplicity of its plan of operation and to the wisdom of its members in selecting officers. In the New York Grand Council, which has jurisdiction over the subordinate councils throughout the State, the Grand Commander is J. D. Kurtz Crook, of the firm of Crook and Perham, wholesale coal dealers. The Grand Secretary is Mr. John E. Heartt, of No. 1 Broadway.

"In all respects the constitution of the order is democratic. The subordinate councils send their representatives to the Grand Councils, and the delegates from the Grand Councils constitute the Supreme Council. The greatest of care is taken with the management of the funds of the Legion, and every precaution taken in the ordinary course of business is adopted to secure the honest and economical management of the finances of the Order.

"Insurance in the American Legion of Honor is both safe and cheap. The Order is a monument to the triumph of American financial skill and to the ability of the people to combine intelligently for the securing of a desired object."

A fire insurance company requires from year to year premiums sufficient to cover losses and expenses, and nothing to be invested or held in trust.

There are no reasons against, and at least three good reasons in favor of practising a like simplicity and directness in Life Insurance; these are economy, avoidance of the hardship and injustice of forfeiture, and because the losses are an ascertainable factor, the premiums may be safely predicted. All these requirements are satisfied by the plan of this Company, which combines the convenience and certainty of fixed premiums for a fixed and definite insurance, with the largest amount of protection for the smallest premiums consistent with absolute safety at about half the usual whole-life rates.

Reliable Agent Wanted Everywhere.

The plans are easy, pleasant and profitable for the agent to work, requiring him to collect on delivery of the Policy the smallest amount of money, and allowing him to retain as his commission the largest proportion of the amount collected by him, of any Old Line Company in the world. No previous experience necessary—intelligence and energy the only capital required. Won't you try it?

Persons desiring to purchase insurance or to sell it are invited to apply for terms and detailed explanations to

HITCHCOCK, DARLING & CO.

THIS noble pile of white marble, Corinthian architecture, covering eighteen full city lots and accommodating one thousand guests, marks a place in the heart of the great City of New York, and an era in the history of the Nation's wealth and advancement. It is located in the centre of the City, upon the charming Madison Square and at the intersection of the two great streets, Broadway and Fifth Avenue, and convenient to the most important points of interest in the Metropolis.

Its patrons include the names of the most prominent men and women in America—The Presidents, hundreds of Government Officials, Senators, Congressmen, Judges, Army and Navy Officers, Divines, Physicians, Authors, and in fact all who have attained prominence and celebrity in public and private life, both at home and abroad; and the most distinguished Europeans of rank and title who have visited this country.

It has been the centre of all the great public occasions which the City has witnessed for thirty years.

Years have come and gone, new hotels have multiplied with innovations and features introduced to affect and influence patronage, but the Fifth Avenue is as new and fresh as the most recent hotel construction, with more liberal accommodations than any of them, and its well-earned reputation as the leading Hotel of the world is more and more assured.—King's Handbook of the United States.
